"THE STREAK"

On September 8, 2008, members of Red Sox Nation joined together to set a new Major League attendance record with 456 consecutive regular season sellout games at Fenway Park. The streak, which began on May 15, 2003, broke the previous record of 455 set by the Cleveland Indians at Jacobs Field (now Progressive Field) between June 12, 1995 and April 2, 2001.

The sellout streak remains active at the end of the 2008 season with 469 consecutive games sold out.

During the streak, the Red Sox appeared in post-season play 5 times and won the World Series twice, the only team in the 21st century to do so. Four players wore a Red Sox uniform through the entirety of those 456 games – Tim Wakefield, Jason Varitek, Mike Timlin and David Ortiz.

Over the course of the streak, Clay Buchholz and Jon Lester tossed no-hit games, Kevin Youkilis went an entire season without making an error and David Ortiz broke the Red Sox single season home run record.

Ortiz also turned the walk-off win into an art form by recording 13 walk-off hits for the Red Sox during the streak, 8 of them home runs.

Over the duration of the streak, 16,336,192 fans poured into Fenway Park on an average of 35,825 fans per game.

At Fenway Park, the Red Sox compiled a win-loss record of 297-159, hitting .297 as a team with a .375 on-base percentage, .481 slugging percentage, 4,636 hits, 1,134 doubles, 77 triples, 530 home runs, 1,907 walks, 2,727 runs scored, and 2,604 runs batted in.

Red Sox pitchers had a 4.23 ERA with 3,140 strikeouts and a .262 opponents batting average as they threw 66,911 pitches during the streak at Fenway Park while also recording 119 saves. They tossed 30 shutouts and 15 complete games.

The home winning percentage of .651 was best in the major leagues.

2008: MEMORABLE MOMENTS

March 25, 2008: The Red Sox began their 108th American League season against the Oakland Athletics in the Ricoh Japan Opening Series 2008 at the Tokyo Dome. It marked Boston's first regular season game outside of the United States and Canada. Daisuke Matsuzaka, a native of Japan, started for the Red Sox and became the 2nd pitcher ever to start an opener in his home country (excluding the U.S.). Brandon Moss hit his first major league home run to tie the game and push it to extra frames where Manny Ramirez's 2-out, 2-run double to center put the Sox up for good. Hideki Okajima, also a Japanese native, picked up the win, becoming the first pitcher ever to win in his home country on Opening Day (excluding the U.S. and Puerto Rico). The Red Sox played another game in Japan, against the Athletics, the following day.

April 8, 2008: The Boston Red Sox celebrated their 108th Home Opener, and the 96th for Fenway Park, with a pre-game ceremony that honored the club's 7th World Series Title. The pre-game ceremony featured an impressive array of championship-winning athletes from the Bruins, Celtics and Patriots who were accompanied by one of the Championship trophies that each of those franchises won. The 2007 World Championship rings were presented to members of the 2007 Red Sox who then hoisted the 2007 World Championship Flag on the centerfield banner. The Ceremonial First Pitch was delivered by former Red Sox First Baseman Bill Buckner who made his first trip to Fenway Park since 1997.

May 19, 2008: Jon Lester tossed the 18th no-hitter in Red Sox history, the first by a lefthander since Mel Parnell on July 14, 1956. Lester allowed just 2 base runners on walks in the 2nd and 9th innings and retired 20 straight between the 2 free passes. He struck out 9 batters and hurled a career-high 130 pitches. It was the 5th no-hitter ever by a Red Sox lefthander and he became the 4th southpaw ever to throw a no-hitter at Fenway Park. He joined Rube Foster (1915-16) and Sandy Koufax (1963-64) as the 3rd pitcher ever to win the clinching game of a World Series in one year and throw a no-hitter the next season. Jason Varitek set a major league record for catchers by calling his 4th career no-no.

May 31, 2008: Manny Ramirez hit his 500th home run becoming the 24th Major League player to do so and the 3rd player to hit 500 in a Red Sox uniform joining Jimmie Foxx and Ted Williams. The homer came off Baltimore Orioles pitcher Chad Bradford's first pitch in the top of the 7th inning with 2 outs and none on. Ramirez accomplished the feat in his 7,263rd at bat, the 8th fewest ever.

July 15, 2008: J.D. Drew was named the Ted Williams Most Valuable Player presented by Chevrolet at the 79th Major League Baseball All-Star Game played at Yankee Stadium. Drew reached base 4 times and smashed a 2-run homer on his first plate appearance in the 7th inning to tie the game 2-2 for the American League. In the 11th inning, he singled to put runners on the corner, reached on an error in the 13th and walked in the 15th. He also made a catch in the 14th frame after tracking a Nate McLouth fly ball all the way to the wall. The 15 innings tied for most ever in an All Star Game (Anaheim, 1967) and it was the longest All-Star Game ever by time (4 hours, 50 minutes).

September 8, 2008: The Red Sox sell out their 456th consecutive regular season game setting a new Major League record. The old record of 455 was set by the Cleveland Indians at Jacobs Field (now Progressive Field) between 1995 and 2001.

September 23, 2008: With a win over the Cleveland Indians, their 92nd of the year, the Red Sox clinched a playoff berth for the 2nd time in as many years and the 5th time in 6 seasons since 2003. With this appearance, the Red Sox have advanced to the post-season 19 times in 108 American League seasons, including 17 times in the last 23 years.

October 6, 2008: The Red Sox defeated the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim in Game 4 of the 2008

American League Division Series to clinch the best-of-5 series 3-1 and advance to the American League Championship Series against the Tampa Bay Rays.

October 16, 2008: Down 3 games to one in the best-of-7 American League Championship Series, the Red Sox pulled off the 2nd-largest comeback in post-season history when they rally from a 7-0 deficit in the 7th inning of Game 5 for an 8-7 victory on a walk-off single by J.D. Drew that scores Kevin Youkilis. It was the biggest comeback ever in a game where a team faced elimination in a playoff series.

October 19, 2008: The Red Sox lost Game 7 and the 2008 American League Championship Series to the Tampa Bay Rays who advance to the first World Series in franchise history.

October 26, 2008: Kevin Youkilis won the 2008 Sharp Presents Hank Aaron Award for the American League as voted by the fans of Major League Baseball. In 2008, Youkilis set career-highs with a .312 batting average (6th, A.L.), 168 hits, 43 doubles, and club-high totals of 29 home runs and 115 RBI (4th, A.L.). He averaged an RBI per 4.7 at-bats, (1st, A.L.) and he also batted .374 with runners in scoring position. He had a .569 slugging percentage (3rd, A.L.), 76 extra-base hits (4th, A.L.) and a .390 on-base percentage (6th, A.L.). A first-time All-Star in 2008, Youkilis started at first base in the Midsummer Classic at Yankee Stadium.

November 6, 2008: Dustin Pedroia was selected as the 2nd baseman on the 2008 American League Rawlings Gold Glove Team. He became the 2nd Red Sox 2nd baseman ever to earn a Gold Glove after finishing the 2008 season with a .992 fielding percentage, 2nd in the A.L. and the 3rd-lowest ever by a Red Sox 2nd baseman. He joined Carlton Fisk (1972) and Fred Lynn (1975) as the only players in club history to earn Gold Glove and Rookie of the Year honors within their first 2 full major league seasons.

November 13, 2008: Dustin Pedroia was named to the 2008 Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Team. He became the first Red Sox 2nd baseman ever to receive the honor after batting .326 with 17 home runs and 83 RBI. Pedroia joins Jason Varitek (2005), Ellis Burks (1990) and Dwight Evans (1981) as the 4th Red Sox player ever to win Gold Glove and Silver Slugger awards in the same season.

November 18, 2008: Dustin Pedroia was named the 2008 American League Most Valuable Player by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Kevin Youkilis finished 3rd in the voting. Pedroia batted .326 with 17 home runs and 83 RBI in 157 games with the Red Sox in 2008. He led the majors with 54 doubles, tied Ichiro Suzuki for first with 213 hits, and ranked 2nd with 118 runs and 61 multi-hit games, both A.L. highs. He had the A.L.'s 2nd-highest batting average, 2 points behind Minnesota's Joe Mauer (.328) and also ranked among the league leaders in at-bats (3rd, 653), sacrifice flies (T3rd, 9), singles (T3rd, 140), total bases (4th, 322), extra-base hits (7th, 73) and games (T9th). He was the 7th player ever to lead the A.L. in runs, hits and doubles in the same season and became the 3rd major league 2nd basemen ever to tally 100 runs, 200 hits, 50 doubles and 20 steals in a season. The 2007 A.L. Rookie of the Year established single-season Red Sox records by a second baseman for runs, hits, doubles, batting average, total bases and extra-base hits. Pedroia became the 8th A.L. player ever to earn MVP, Gold Glove and Silver Slugger awards in the same season and one of only 2 2nd basemen in major league history to accomplish the feat.

January 12, 2009: Jim Rice was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America, becoming one of 32 Red Sox players to receive the honor. He is the 48th electee to spend his entire career with one team and just the 4th to do so with Boston, joining Bobby Doerr, Ted Williams and Carl Yastrzemski. Elected in his final year of eligibility, Rice batted .298 with 382 home runs and 1,451 RBI in 2,089 games over 16 seasons from 1974-89, earning 8 All-Star selections along the way. He placed among the top 5 in American League Most Valuable Player voting 6 times during his career, more than any other player between 1963 and 2005, and won the award in 1978 when he hit .315 with 213 hits, 46 home runs, 139 RBI, and a .600 slugging percentage. The former Red Sox captain also collected 406 total bases in 1978, still the only A.L. player to reach 400 since Joe DiMaggio in 1937 (418).

A NEW TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

When the Boston Red Sox' ownership group successfully outbid competitors to purchase the club December 20, 2001, Principal Owner John W. Henry called it "a new day." After a 69-year stewardship of the Boston Red Sox and Fenway Park by Tom and Jean Yawkey and their trustees, a new chapter in this franchise's compelling saga would begin. Little did Henry know how prophetic his phrase would become.

In the six seasons since Henry, Tom Werner, Larry Lucchino, and their partners purchased the club, the park, and 80 percent of the New England Sports Network (NESN) for an estimated $660 million, plus $40 million in assumed debt, the ownership has created an era in which the club has constructed the longest streak of sell outs in baseball history, saved America's Most Beloved Ballpark from the wrecking ball, and won two World Series, the first in 2004 ending 86 years of excruciating frustration throughout New England and the worldwide fan base known as Red Sox Nation.

The club's leaders have more than upheld the five promises they made at their introductory press conference on December 21, 2001. Thanks to these commitments, the fundamental obligations of ownership, the fans, no longer shackled by the emotional constraint from the anticipation of 11th-hour defeat, have relaxed with a collective exhale of exuberance. Clearly, a new day has dawned that has produced what has certainly become a new tradition, one of excellence.

TO FIELD A TEAM WORTHY OF THE FANS' SUPPORT

2008 marked the 9th consecutive year the club has established a home attendance record.

Acknowledging that the primary obligation of a club is to field a team worthy of the fans' support, the leaders set out to construct a club that would make New England proud. In their first seven seasons, they have fielded winning teams each year, participated in post-season play five times in the last six seasons, and become the only franchise in the 21st century to win two World Championships.

Since 2002, Boston's .580 winning percentage is second best among the 30 major league teams, and the Red Sox have posted at least 93 victories six times. The club's five playoff appearances in the last five years also rank as the second most in the majors in this span.

The Red Sox Partners pose with their 2007 World Championship rings in before the game against the Toronto Blue Jays on May 1, 2008 at Fenway Park.

As a result, the fans of Red Sox Nation continue to demonstrate their remarkable passion by turning out in record numbers.

The Red Sox have sold out every game at Fenway Park starting May 15, 2003, a streak of 469 regular season games, which represents a new Major League record, set on September 8, 2008 with the club's 456 consecutive regular season sellout. The club reached 2.7 million for the first time in 2003, hit 2.8 million for the first time in 2004, and saw the 2.9 million mark in 2006 and 2007. Boston's total of 3,048,248 in 2008 was the ninth consecutive year the club has established a home attendance record, an accomplishment unprecedented in Major League Baseball history and the first time that the ballclub welcomed over 3 million fans to Fenway Park in a season.

The numbers reflect a sustained phenomenon unprecedented in the storied history of this beloved franchise and its beloved ballpark.

TO PRESERVE ALL THAT'S GOOD ABOUT FENWAY PARK AND TO TAKE THAT EXPERIENCE TO A HIGHER LEVEL

While baseball is the Red Sox' highest priority, the club's leadership has put great emphasis on improving Fenway Park and enhancing the experience at a ballgame. Adding the expertise of architect Janet Marie Smith, who helped execute Lucchino's vision in the creation of Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the club has made Fenway Improvements each year, starting in 2002. The principles have been to add seats, shorten lines, increase amenities, improve information, and improve the facilities for players and staff at a ballpark, which will celebrate its 97th Anniversary in 2009. In addition, the Red Sox promised to do their part to preserve and protect the neighborhoods around the park, from Kenmore Square through the Fenway to the Longwood Medical area.

As a result of the success of the improvements, Henry, Werner, and Lucchino announced on March 23, 2005, that the club was formally committing to remain long-term at Fenway Park with "no strings attached." The news elicited congratulations, gratitude, and honors at the local, state, and federal levels.

The results of the improvements have been dramatic.

2002-2004: Immediately after purchasing the club, the new ownership group added 400 seats for Opening Day, 2002, and made a series of other improvements. Starting September 5, 2002, the Yawkey Way Concourse, an expansion of the park onto the neighboring street, added 25,000 square feet, doubled the fans' space on the third base side, and cleared more metal clutter inside Gate A.

In 2003, the club added 269 seats atop the fabled left field wall and drew rave reviews. Boston Magazine would later dub the Green Monster Seats as the best seats in Boston. In 2008, the Green Monster Seats topped a list of the 10 best seats in baseball compiled by USA Today, combining nominations from readers and votes from their staff.

The Red Sox added 87 Home Plate Seats on the field and 133 more Dugout Seats. Again, they converted standing room to seating room to maintain the existing capacity. A new "Big Concourse" was introduced where fans found 25,000 more square feet beneath the center field bleachers and right field grandstand and enjoyed new menu options from new kitchens. The park's concession stands increased to 81, the width of the concourse doubled from 30 feet to 60 feet, and usable space between Gates B and C tripled.

In 2004, the Red Sox created a new Fenway Park neighborhood, the Right Field Roof. Installing tables shaped like home plate that accommodate parties of four, the roof added 192 new seats and space for 250 standing room patrons. New amenities included unique menu items, in-seat service, new restrooms, an open-air bar with televisions, and an elevator.

Across the field, the refreshed Third Base Concourse added new concessions, restrooms, and space, just as the Big Concourse had done the year before. Adding new amenities for the Dugout Seat patrons, the club created the Crown Royal Club (now the Absolut Club) on the Third Base Concourse.

2005-2008: In 2005, the Red Sox installed a new field with a sand-based drainage system that allowed the field to remain playable far longer than before. In addition, the Red Sox' clubhouse received a new, large weight room, a room for hydrotherapy, a new coaches room that gave the players more room, and a larger interview room. For fans, the club helped decongest the narrow walkway atop the grandstand seats on the first base side. The First Base Deck gave fans more room and added more concession stands to further reduce lines. In 2006, the Red Sox broke the glass that had separated patrons in the .406 Club from the field, and divided the large venue into two open-air seating areas: the EMC Club below and the State Street Pavilion above. The club also remodeled the pavilion level down the first-base line and third-base line, adding as many as five rows to an area that only had four. In addition, a new staircase from the corner of Yawkey Way and Van Ness Street was added to relieve congestion inside Gate D. In 2007, a Third Base Deck behind the Grandstand seats was constructed to add space and concessions. A total of 26 of the Private Suites also received a major upgrade, and the improvements even extended to the facilities occupied by ushers, ticket takers, security staff, ball attendants, and mascots. A new visitor's batting cage was added right behind the third base concourse and the press box was expanded and improved with better sightlines and amenities. 2008's Year VII Fenway Park improvements included the addition of more than 800 new State Street Pavilion seats plus standing room tickets, down the first and third base lines, as well a "Standing Room Corner" in left field. Eight new private suites, available on a single game basis, replaced the six that were housed in the temporary boxes placed on the pavilion for the 1999 All-Star Game and 12 private suites were renovated. The "Coca-Cola Corner," featuring family-friendly seating and hospitality was unveiled in left field as well. The unique area featured 412 new seats and was part of the extension and expansion of the Red Sox partnership with Coca-Cola, the longest-standing team sponsor with a relationship dating back to 1912. New, linear scoreboards lined portions of the EMC Level fascia with the "LED" technology that now provide more detailed game information.

2009: In Year VIII, a large portion of the lower seating bowl, between Sections 14 and 28, will be repaired and waterproofed, a project that requires removing and reinstalling the Dugout Seats, Field Box Seats, Loge Box Seats and Grandstand Seats in these sections with new or refurbished seats. The Field Box and Loge Box Seats have already been sold to fans and will be replaced with new seats. The wooden Grandstand seats, the last remaining historic seats in all of Major League Baseball, will be refurbished and the Grandstand seat widths will be adjusted to insure that all seats in this section meet the industry standard of 18 inches as they now do in the Bleacher sections of Fenway Park. Additionally, the waterproofing project will provide the opportunity to improve existing wheelchair and companion seating locations with improved sightlines by elevating the wheelchair spaces and providing for spaces for companions to be adjacent to them.

The Right Field Roof will see the additions of approximately 560 new seats (replacing 383 Right Field Roof Box Seats to be removed as part of the renovation project) and additional dedicated standing room spaces with drink rails will also be added. 75 new stools with drink rails similar to those above the Green Monster, new concessions and restrooms will also be constructed on a brand new concrete concourse to enhance the fans' experience. The Budweiser Right Field Roof Deck will also be expanded with 28 new seats at tables, including 5 new ADA locations and an extended standing room platform. The remaining suites in right field (R19 – R21) will also be updated as part of this project and will complete the transformation of the EMC Level. All suites at Fenway Park will now be equipped with locations for wheelchairs, a wheelchair accessible restroom, new interior appointments and furnishings.

The roof of the Jeano Building, built in 1914, next door to Fenway Park will also be replaced during this off-season. The Jeano Building, which serves as the home of the Red Sox Front Offices, the Jordan's Third Base Deck, the Third Base Concourse and Game On! will also feature the addition of brand new windows that will mimic the original windows installed in 1914 and a restoration of the 4 Yawkey Way entry, the main entrance to the Red Sox Front Offices.

The Fan Experience: In addition to the structural changes, the club added countless personal and ceremonial touches to the fan experience at Fenway Park. The club introduced ceremonies to honor heroes and thrill children at every game. From leaders of group outings to little fans shouting "Play Ball!" to cue the start of the game, the Red Sox used their sacred lawn to cast the spotlight on average citizens, community heroes, non-profit groups and the men and women of our Armed Forces.

Kids were chosen at random to be Honorary Bat Kids and to become "Little Stars" on Sundays and announce player names during the 6th inning over the Fenway Park microphone. Medical and health professionals were recognized as "Medical All-Stars" and teachers were honored as "Most Valuable Teachers." Special events were introduced for Father's Day, Mother's Day, Grandparent's Day and Halloween, which enabled fans to take a leisurely stroll around the Fenway greens, play a mild game of catch and reminisce their fondest Fenway memories.

Fenway Park also began hosting the first ever rock concerts in its legendary history. These once a year concerts have become a Fenway tradition and have featured legendary acts including Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, Jimmy Buffett, the ageless Rolling Stones opened by the Black-Eyed Peas, the Dave Matthews Band, preceded by Sheryl Crow, The Police and Neil Diamond who performed his signature Fenway Park anthem, "Sweet Caroline," to a packed audience in 2008.

Former players and personalities have played a key role as well. In 2005, the club named the left field pole "Fisk's Pole" to honor Carlton Fisk for his legendary home run in Game 6 of the 1975 World Series. In 2006, the club paid tribute to the 1946 and 1986 American League Champions and on September 27, celebrated Johnny Pesky's 87th birthday by formally naming "Pesky's Pole," making official in right field that which had been the established vernacular for decades. 2007 brought a season-long tribute for the 40th anniversary of the 1967 Red Sox that captured the hearts of New England during an improbable run to the American League pennant. In 2008, the club also formally retired Pesky's uniform number '6' for his over five decades of service in multiple capacities to the club.

TO MARKET AGGRESSIVELY TO A NEW, BROAD REGION

The third commitment of the ownership was to market the club aggressively to a new, broad region. The club, blessed with fans throughout New England, across the nation, and around the globe, engaged in programs to demonstrate that loyalty is a two-way street.

From January 24-31, 2003 the Fenway Ambassadors, Red Sox alumni, and current players rode through frigid and blizzard conditions to meet fans in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut. A Summer Caravan continued the outreach, this time with combinations of Henry, Werner, and Lucchino. The visits to each state included pomp and ceremony from elected officials and fans at public rallies, and personal interaction and financial contributions at children's group homes in each state. In addition to the outbound visits, the club reprised an old tradition from the 1950's with celebrations for each of the states at Fenway Park called "State Days" and for the children whom the club's owners had met at the homes.

In addition to the grass roots marketing, the club worked more closely with NESN, the booming New England voice that carries Red Sox games and programming to most of New England, and beyond.

Upon winning the World Series, October 27, 2004, the Red Sox received the long-awaited trophy, and immediately set out to share it with their fans. The Red Sox carried the grand symbol of faith rewarded to every state in New England, plus New York, Los Angeles, Atlanta, Washington, D.C., Florida, and the Dominican Republic. In addition, the club brought the trophy to each of the 351 cities or towns in Massachusetts. A second World Championship in 2007 led to another Trophy Tour, which even included a stop in Halifax, Nova Scotia in January.

Since winning the 2004 World Series, the Red Sox have sought to assemble and count their fan base in an on-line program that invites members of Red Sox Nation to make their citizenship official via redsox.com. Over 50,000 strong, with citizens from all 50 states and 48 countries, Red Sox Nation stands as the largest fan club in Major League Baseball. Citizens enjoy benefits ranging from ticket opportunities to exclusive access to Club events, and connect to a community of fans on redsox.com. Red Sox Kid Nation presented by Hood enters its sixth season with nearly 20,000 members worldwide. Young Red Sox fans receive collectible souvenirs, discounted tickets to home games and are eligible for unique offers and drawings.

In early 2009, Fenway Ambassadors embarked on the "Red Sox Road Trip" throughout New England to distribute 6500 pre-sale ticket vouchers, which represented guaranteed ticket purchasing opportunities.

TO BE ACTIVE PARTICIPANTS IN THE COMMUNITY

The new leadership of the Red Sox vowed to be active participants in the community, and has taken that outreach to new levels. Immediately after completing the purchase of the club February 27, 2002, the new ownership group established the Red Sox Foundation, and since then, has made disbursements of more than $30 million—in seven years.

The club instituted a tradition by using the dual nature of January 31—both Jackie Robinson's birthday and the eve of Black History Month—to provide an annual seminar that teaches children what they should learn—and teach—about the man who broke baseball's color barrier. The fresh initiative inspired Massachusetts Senator John Kerry and Rep. Richard Neal to begin successful legislation in their respective Houses that resulted in Congress bestowing the Congressional Gold Medal to the family of the late Jackie Robinson.

Guest speakers at the Jackie Robinson tribute have included Jackie's daughter Sharon and his granddaughter, Sonya Pankey as well as the legendary Buck O'Neil, Red Sox Legend Tommy Harper, former Red Sox pitcher Oil Can Boyd, Orlando Magic GM and motivational speaker Pat Williams, renowned Harvard Law School Professor Charles Ogletree and the great Boston Celtic Bill Russell.

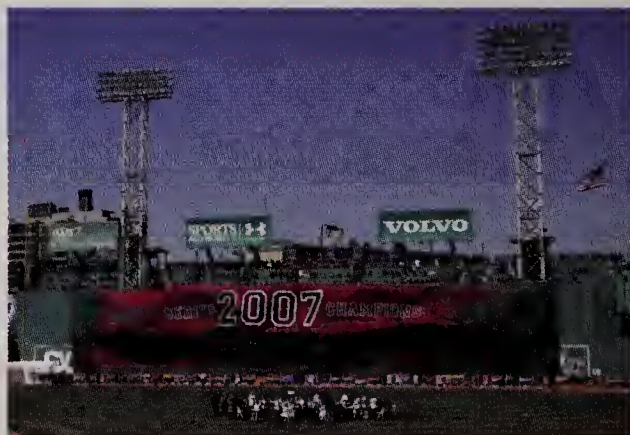

The Red Sox' enhanced Community Relations outreach has set records each year regarding appearances to foster player-fan interaction. In 2008 alone, Red Sox players and coaches made over 550 personal appearances. Players also donated their time and tickets through various self-started programs such as Tek's 33 (Varitek), Wakefield Warriors (Wakefield) and Youk's Kids (Youkilis). Additionally, the Red Sox donated almost 5000 autographed items and experiences to over 3,600 unique non-profit organizations. The Sox have extended the spirit of community outreach to fans around the world. Through its Lindos Suenos program, 12 American and 12 Dominican teens, all of varying socio-economic backgrounds, have been spending two weeks doing community service, playing baseball and having fun in the Dominican Republic every summer since 2004. Through the Japan Youth Exchange Program 24 Japanese youngsters traveled to Boston to participate in clinics and exhibition games. A group of teens from Boston will travel to Japan in 2009.

The Red Sox Wives (and their husbands) also render tremendous services to the community. They created and sold two books for kids, "Fenway Park, A to Z," in 2004, and "Fenway 1-2-3" in 2005. They also have produced a variety of events as a group and individually that have generated record amounts of food for the hungry, skin cancer awareness, and funds to fight diabetes, cancer, ALS, and abuse of women.

TO END THE CURSE OF THE BAMBINO AND WIN WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR BOSTON, NEW ENGLAND, AND RED SOX NATION

In their third year at the helm in 2004, the leaders of the Red Sox achieved the ultimate goal. They broke the proverbial "Curse of the Bambino," if it ever existed, and extinguished the suspense and frustration that had been a psychocivic phenomenon known throughout the world of sports.

Red Sox Nation would not have to wait 86 years for another championship as a second World Series victory would follow just three years later in 2007. It certainly has been a new day for the Boston Red Sox, one that has created a new tradition of excellence.

THE RED SOX FOUNDATION

The official team charity of the Boston Red Sox, the Red Sox Foundation is committed to harnessing the passion of Red Sox Nation to create powerful charitable partnerships that will improve the lives of children and families in Boston and across New England. Founded by Red Sox Principal Owner John Henry, Chairman Tom Werner, President/CEO Larry Lucchino and the team's generous partners in 2002, the Red Sox Foundation is the philanthropic arm of the franchise.

Over the past 6 years and with the support of the team's owners, players, their wives, sponsors, and devoted fans, the Red Sox Foundation has donated more than $30 million to nonprofits programs. Much of the funds are raised through special fan-friendly events including the team charity's annual Welcome Home Dinner, Picnic in the Park, Fantasy Day and Fenway to the Runway.

"Red Sox fans have always been known for their passion, but through their support of Foundation Nation, they also demonstrate their extraordinary compassion for at risk children and families in our community," said the Red Sox Foundation's Executive Director Meg Vaillancourt.

The Red Sox Foundation's work is primarily centered on four cornerstone programs. In the area of health, the cornerstone is support for the Dana Farber Cancer Institute through The Jimmy Fund. The educational cornerstone is the Red Sox Scholars Program, which each year provides college scholarships, tutoring, mentoring and enrichment activities to 25 middle school students in Boston Public Schools. The Red Sox Foundation's youth athletics cornerstone program is the team's Rookie and RBI Baseball Leagues. The forth cornerstone is in the area of social services and supports afterschool programs serving low income children at The Dimock Center in Roxbury.

The Red Sox Foundation has also created new collaborations between corporate sponsors and other nonprofits serving children in need. The Massachusetts based medical device giant Covidien is a champion of the Foundation's work in the areas of health and education. Last year, some 200 Covidien volunteers joined the team charity in a major rehabilitation of the physical therapy and recreation facilities serving wounded veterans at the VA Hospital in Brockton. For the past 6 years, Bank of America has partnered with the Red Sox in support of many programs including the Boston Public Library's "Read Your Way to Fenway" literacy campaign. The Highland Street Foundation is a generous partner in supporting the tutoring and enrichment activities global innovator Microsoft has joined the Red Sox Foundation's outreach to 40,000 families in Boston communities of color through support of programs at Dimock.

THE BOSTON RED SOX MISSION STATEMENT

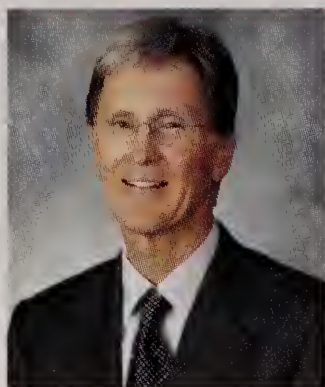

The Boston Red Sox organization is dedicated to fulfilling five fundamental commitments to Red Sox fans and New England residents:

1. To field a team worthy of their support, with players whose performance and conduct will make them proud.
2. To preserve all that is good about the Fenway Park experience and to take that experience to new levels of warmth and hospitality.
3. To market aggressively and creatively the Red Sox throughout Boston, the Commonwealth, and all of New England.
4. To be active participants in the community in terms of charitable and philanthropic activities.
5. To bring World Championships to Boston and New England.

RED SOX OWNERSHIP

JOHN W. HENRY, Principal Owner

John W. Henry, an avid baseball fan, often refers to baseball as an "affair of the heart." Known throughout the game as an involved and passionate owner, he believes the people of New England have always been and will always be the true owners of the Boston Red Sox. Mr. Henry views his role as a steward of New England's beloved baseball team, charged with the responsibility on and off the field of ensuring the Red Sox continue to win World Championships while further enhancing the relationship between the community and the team.

Mr. Henry actively collaborates with Tom Werner and Larry Lucchino on a variety of aspects of the baseball experience.

"Larry Lucchino is my role model when it comes to baseball executives. His track record is impeccable. His commitment and passion for excellence on the field, creating fan-friendly environments and setting standards for community involvement make our ownership of the Red Sox something I look forward to each day.

"Tom Werner and I are like brothers. We talk every day about ideas on how to improve everything from the New England Sports Network to the length of the grass on the field. We are blessed with an incredibly strong ownership group that loves the Red Sox."

On December 20, 2001, the Boston Red Sox partners voted unanimously to sell 100 percent of the team's interests to an investment group headed by Mr. Henry and Tom Werner. The Major League clubs approved the ownership transfer from the Yawkey Trust and limited partners January 16, 2002. The sale closed February 27, 2002. World Series Championships in 2004 and 2007 have highlighted the stunning first seven years for Mr. Henry and his partners.

The 2004 team captivated an adoring and faithful Red Sox Nation with the greatest comeback in baseball history, all the more satisfying after being heart-broken the previous year in Yankee Stadium when Aaron Boone ended a dramatic seven-game championship series to decide the pennant.

The club that never quit, even when down three games to none to the archrival Yankees, won four straight—in breathtaking fashion—to capture the pennant, then captured four more in a row to sweep the St. Louis Cardinals, giving the Red Sox their first World title since 1918 and sending millions into delirium. The achievement came less than a thousand days (973) after purchasing the club.

In 2005, the Red Sox reached the post-season for the third consecutive year, a first in the franchise's rich 105-year history.

In 2007, Boston won its first A.L. East Division title since 1995 and posted an 11-3 post season record to become the first two-time World Champion of the 21st century.

And in 2008, the Red Sox returned to the playoffs for the fifth time over a six year period. The team also drew three million fans for the first time at Fenway Park while setting a major league record for consecutive home sellouts.

Mr. Henry not only set out to win multiple World Series, but to make sure the Red Sox were active participants in the community. As a result, the club's community relations department has set records each of his seven seasons as principal owner in the number of appearances arranged for players in the community, and the amount of authentic memorabilia donated to non-profit organizations in New England to help them raise funds.

Immediately after taking ownership, Mr. Henry and his partners founded – and funded – The Red Sox Foundation. "The Red Sox Foundation is the largest and fastest growing team charity in Major League Baseball. It plays a key role in many areas of New England. The owners, staff and players of the Red Sox are working together to bring enlightened leadership and teamwork in relation to community efforts."

Supported through generous donations from Mr. Henry, along with Red Sox Chairman Tom Werner and their partners, as well as corporate sponsors and fans attending special fundraising events, The Red Sox Foundation has quickly become a powerful philanthropic force in this community. Over the past six years, the team charity has donated over $30 million to non-profit programs focused on health, education, recreation and social service programs serving at-risk children and their families.

With his passion and enthusiasm for baseball, Mr. Henry is accessible to the media and fans. He's often seen moving throughout ballparks in Spring Training and during the regular season. He sits in many areas of Fenway Park, from the Bleachers to the Green Monster Seats to the seats near the dugouts, and often greets fans at the gate. That exposure and interaction helped inspire the improvements that have widened the concourses, reduced concession lines and augmented the restrooms at Fenway Park.

"I love to listen to and interact with fans," Henry said. "Perhaps not every fan can identify with me, but I think I can identify with most of them because I've been a passionate baseball fan all my life. I know that even the best baseball team cannot win every night, but I want to make sure our fans win every night—that they enjoy as many aspects of our game, our tradition, and the Fenway experience as they can. If they don't, I want to know why and see what I can do to address their concerns immediately. It is the New England fans and their representative media that have created the romance, mystique and passion that we all feel when the words 'Boston Red Sox' are spoken."

Mr. Henry has garnered a wealth of experience—and nine championship rings—at three different levels in his 22 years (through 2009) in baseball at an ownership level. Prior to purchasing the Red Sox, he was chairman and sole owner of the Florida Marlins. He was also a limited partner of the New York Yankees, and was chairman and majority owner of the Tucson Toros of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League.

Mr. Henry also formed a co-ownership with Boca Raton, FL attorney Don Sider in the West Palm Beach Tropics of the Senior Professional Baseball League. The Tropics, managed by former Red Sox manager Dick Williams, posted a league-best 52-20 record in his one-year ownership, led by Hall of Famer Rollie Fingers and All-Stars Toby Harrah, Dave Kingman, Mickey Rivers and Al Hrabosky.

Mr. Henry is chairman of John W. Henry & Company, Inc. (JWH), which he founded in 1981. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Future Industry Association, National Association of Futures Trading Advisors (NAFTA) and the Managed Futures Trade Association. He is a recognized leader in alternative asset financial product innovation.

In early 2002, he purchased a home in Boston. Born in Quincy, IL, John spent most of his childhood in Forrest City, AR, where his parents owned a farm. He was a dyed-in-the-wool baseball fan growing up, listening to St. Louis Cardinals broadcaster Harry Caray on the radio. At age 9, he saw his first major league game at Sportsman's Park in St. Louis—the very city where he would see his own Boston Red Sox celebrate in triumph after completing the greatest comeback in baseball history.

THOMAS C. WERNER, Chairman

In the seven seasons that Tom Werner has been Chairman of the Boston Red Sox, the club has enjoyed unprecedented success, having advanced to post-season play three straight seasons and five times in six years for the first time in its history. The pinnacle, of course, was the 2004 World Championship that ended an 86-year drought. Another World Series victory would follow in 2007. Red Sox fans have sold out 469 consecutive games at Fenway Park, the longest streak in baseball history. And together with Principal Owner John W. Henry and President/CEO Larry Lucchino, Werner on March 23, 2005, announced that the Red Sox had committed to remain long term at America's Most Beloved Ballpark.

The saving of Fenway Park fulfilled a vision that made Werner and Les Otten unique among those who tried to purchase the club in late 2001.

Later joined by John Henry, this group was the only potential purchaser who was committed to saving the shrine from the wrecking ball.

Through the successful improvements resulting from major investments, brilliant ingenuity, and dogged persistence, the club's ownership group concluded that the park could, indeed, be preserved. As a result, the ballpark is on track to see its 100th anniversary in 2012. The oldest and smallest park in the majors would be the first ever to last 100 years.

A respected and veteran baseball owner for the past 18 years, Werner and the partners have helped lead the effort for a kinder, more fan-friendly atmosphere at the ballpark that has resonated with parents, grandparents, and children.

The Red Sox Foundation, established immediately after the purchase of the team, is another example of their leadership. Its charitable donations, after only six seasons, are the biggest in professional baseball, as the foundation gives away millions of dollars each year. Werner is particularly proud of his involvement in the Teddy Ebersol-Red Sox Fields, which is now used by thousands of children.

Werner, a member of the Television Academy Hall of Fame for his extraordinary achievements as a creator and producer of many groundbreaking series, has had baseball in his soul his entire life. He played the game during his childhood, coached his children in youth baseball and has attended countless major league games.

As a 17-year-old freshman at Harvard, Werner gave his heart to the ultimate underdogs, the Impossible Dream Red Sox of 1967. He has been a devoted follower of the Red Sox ever since.

For his visual studies class at Harvard, Werner created a documentary about Opening Day at Fenway Park, starting with the quiet, quaint park at rest, then exploding with the excitement of fans pouring into the ballpark. The education in film would lead to a rewarding career in television; the passion for the Red Sox and Fenway Park would later lead Werner to begin a quest to buy the team when it was offered for sale in 2001.

Werner is also an active contributor to Major League Baseball. He has been appointed to the Board of Major League Baseball Enterprises, which has oversight over national media arrangements as well as Major League Baseball Properties. He has also been appointed to the Board of the new MLB Network, which debuted in January 2009.

In addition to these responsibilities, Werner takes great pride in his contributions to the success of the New England Sports Network. Most people in the television industry now regard NESN to be one of the strongest sports channels in the country, as it televises almost 300 live events each year, including Red Sox and Bruins games. Since 2001, NESN has more than doubled the amount of original programming it airs.

Werner's entry into Major League Baseball came in 1990 when he led a group that purchased the San Diego Padres. He served baseball on the national level as a member of the Executive Council and Chairman of the Television Committee. As such, he was a key force in establishing one of the most crucial innovations in baseball history — the Wild Card, the very element that enabled the Boston Red Sox, years later, to win their first World Championship since 1918.

Werner feels that the relationship between the ballclub and Red Sox fans is the most special in all of baseball. After the sweep of the Colorado Rockies in 2007, Werner said the following which has resonated among fans of Red Sox Nation.

"2004 was for our parents and grandparents and those people who suffered through eight decades before a World Championship. This is for us and for our children and for everybody in Red Sox Nation."

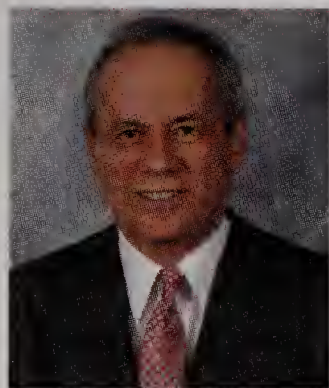

Embodying the values of integrity and quality, Werner (born April 12, 1950) has already achieved a lifetime of accolades in the television business. He and his partner Marcy Carsey have helped create such hits as "The Cosby Show," "A Different World," "Roseanne," "Third Rock from the Sun," "Cybill," "Grace Under Fire" and "That '70s Show." Last September, Werner's new animated show "The Life and Times of Tim" debuted on HBO and is returning for a second season.

Earlier, while working for ABC television, Werner and Carsey saw Robin Williams in a comedy club and launched his career in "Mork and Mindy." Werner also oversaw the development of "Bosom Buddies," which started the career of Tom Hanks; "Soap," which started the career of Billy Crystal; and "Taxi," which started the careers of Tony Danza and Danny DeVito.

Werner has also received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Producers Guild of America. His company has garnered 24 Emmy Awards, 11 People's Choice Awards and numerous Golden Globes, Humanitas Prizes and Peabody Awards. In 2000, Werner and his longtime partners Marcy Carsey and Caryn Mandabach, joined forces with Geraldine Laybourne and Oprah Winfrey to start Oxygen, a 24-hour cable channel serving the modern woman. Oxygen was recently acquired by NBC in late 2007 and is one of the fastest growing cable networks ever, now in almost 65,000,000 homes.

Werner spends much of the year in Boston, where he maintains a residence. He has served on a number of Boards, including the White House Fellows Commission, and he is presently on the Board of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, and the Crossroads School. He also serves on the Board for After School All Stars, a program helping at risk youth engage in after school programs and the Ron Brown Scholar Program, which offers scholarships to African-American high school seniors who have demonstrated social commitment and leadership potential.

LARRY LUCCHINO, President/CEO

Larry Lucchino was named President/CEO of the Red Sox at the closing of the purchase of the team in February, 2002. Previously President/CEO of the Baltimore Orioles (1988-93) and the San Diego Padres (1995-01), Lucchino is a veteran of 30 years in Major League Baseball. With the Red Sox, Lucchino manages the franchise on a day-to-day basis with the active involvement of, and in collaboration with, Principal Owner John W. Henry and Chairman Tom Werner.

He has won rings with each franchise. The Orioles won the 1983 World Series, the Padres won the 1998 pennant, and the Red Sox won the 2007 World Series, just three years after the 2004 World Championship that put an end to Boston's 86-year championship drought.

In his 20 full seasons as a President/CEO, his clubs have a winning record of 1,621-1,438 (.530), have reached post-season play seven times (1996, 1998, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2007, 2008), have won three pennants, and two World Series. In those 20 seasons, attendance has improved over the previous year 14 times and the franchises have set club attendance records 12 times, including the last 7 straight years with the Red Sox, topping 3 million for the first time in Red Sox history.

Lucchino is the first President/CEO to win pennants for two different franchises - let alone in two different leagues - since Hall of Fame executive Larry MacPhail more than 50 years ago with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1941) and the New York Yankees (1947). They are the only two to have done so. (Al Rosen won pennants as President/CEO of the Yankees in 1978 and as President of the San Francisco Giants in 1989, but Bob Lurie was the Giants' CEO. Dave Dombrowski won pennants as GM of the Florida Marlins in 1997 and as President/GM of the Detroit Tigers in 2006.)

In addition to running championship franchises and setting attendance marks, Lucchino has earned a legacy for creating ballparks that have transformed the ballparks' role in the fan experience, influence on franchise value, and place in the community.

His vision for the design of Oriole Park at Camden Yards - a traditional, old-fashioned, asymmetrical, intimate downtown ballpark with modern amenities - ushered in an era of revolutionary ballpark architecture and ambiance responsible in part for the game's resurgence since 1992.

He also had the vision for the ballpark that saved baseball in San Diego. Petco Park, designed to look and feel like San Diego, was approved in a 1998 landslide vote on Proposition C, a campaign that Lucchino spearheaded. As much as the Padres needed a ballpark, the city needed a catalyst to redevelop an under-utilized 26-block area in the city's downtown. As promised, a ballpark revitalized a key neighborhood, as it had done in Baltimore (and, subsequently, in other cities). In fact, San Diego's ballpark and the surrounding development project was one of 10 prestigious winners at the 2007 Urban Land Institute Awards for Excellence. The entire design of the park was completed in August, 2001, and construction was well underway when Lucchino left the Padres for the Red Sox after the 2001 season.

Subsequently, he was instrumental in pulling together the ownership group that joined John Henry and Tom Werner in their successful effort to purchase the Red Sox, announced on December 20, 2001. While every other group that sought to purchase the Red Sox advocated a replacement for venerable Fenway Park, the group led by Henry, Werner, and Lucchino was the only one that committed itself to save - and improve - America's most beloved ballpark. The ownership group officially formalized its commitment to keep Fenway Park long term on March 23, 2005.

Lucchino has overseen the successful additions at Fenway Park of the Green Monster Seats, the Right Field Roof Seats, Dugout Seats, the Yawkey Way Concourse, the Big Concourse, the Third Base Concourse, the First and Third Base Decks, the EMC Club, the State Street Pavilion, renovations of the premium suites, the Left Field Coca Cola Corner, the Bleacher Bar, and the expansion of the right field roof box section. These and other well-received infrastructure innovations and improvements have enhanced the fans' experience while respecting the integrity of the historic park and the surrounding neighborhood.

While setting attendance records with all three franchises, Lucchino has made his mark in the cutting-edge marketing of baseball. His efforts at regionalization in Baltimore expanded the Orioles' fan base from 2 million to 6 million. In his 14 years with the Orioles, the season ticket base increased from 1,600 to 28,000 plus a 13,000-person waiting list.

In his seven years with the Padres, the season ticket base more than doubled from 5,081 to 12,380 through 2000. Under his leadership, the Padres recorded their top four all-time attendance figures at Qualcomm Stadium in his last four years there (1998-2001).

In his seven seasons in Boston, the club has set franchise records each year, and has sold out 469 straight games dating back to May 15, 2003. This streak is now the longest in the history of Major League Baseball after establishing a new record of 456 consecutive sellouts on September 8, 2008, breaking the previous MLB record of 455, set by the 1995-2001 Cleveland Indians.

Each of the three franchises he has served as chief executive has established a charitable foundation during his tenure (The Orioles Foundation, The Padres Foundation, and The Red Sox Foundation). Under his leadership, each franchise has re-invigorated its philanthropy, its community relations efforts, and its ballpark ambiance to ensure that all fans feel welcome.

Lucchino's passion for ballparks is rivaled by his drive for baseball's internationalization. He pioneered a ground-breaking relationship in Japan in 1997 with the Chiba Lotte Marines, and helped organize the Red Sox' first trip to Japan in March, 2008 when they opened the MLB regular-season with two games at the Tokyo Dome. In addition, he previously arranged the effort to play Major League Baseball's first regular season games in Mexico (1996) and Hawaii (1997) and established baseball's first International Opening Day in Monterrey, Mexico in 1999. He was an early, active supporter of the World Baseball Classic, and also serves on Major League Baseball's International Committee.

He has served on MLB's Restructuring Committee, the American League's Cable Television Committee, and as Chairman of the Player Development Contract Negotiations Committee. He was a member of the Realignment Committee and the Commissioner's Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics, which released its recommendations for attacking the game's economic and competitive balance issues in July, 2000.

Born in Pittsburgh, Lucchino was an All-City League basketball player and a second baseman on the Pittsburgh city championship baseball team at Taylor Allderdice High School. He graduated with honors from Princeton University and is a graduate of the Yale Law School. At Princeton, he was a member of two Ivy League championship basketball teams.

In 1974, he joined Williams and Connolly, the law firm founded by his mentor, friend, legendary sportsman and trial attorney Edward Bennett Williams. He became a partner in 1978 and specialized in sports law and litigation. He was general counsel to the Washington Redskins, of which Williams was president and part owner, and was a member of the Redskins Board of Directors from 1979 to 1985. When EBW bought the Orioles on August 2, 1979, Lucchino became vice president/general counsel. EBW named him president in May, 1988, to rebuild the club's baseball and business operations. He was an owner of the Orioles from 1989 until the club was sold at the end of the 1993 season, and of the Padres from December, 1994 to 2002.

The avid sportsman has the unique distinction of earning World Series rings (Orioles, '83; Red Sox, '04, '07), a Super Bowl ring (Redskins, '83), and a Final Four watch (Princeton, '65). Lucchino has been active in numerous civic and charitable efforts in Baltimore, San Diego, and Boston, with particular, active involvement in the research and treatment of cancer. Here in Boston, he is the co-chair of the Dana Farber Cancer Institute's $1 billion "Mission Possible" Capital Campaign. He is married to Stacey Johnson Lucchino, and has two stepchildren, Davis (19) and Blair (17).

RED SOX VICE CHAIRMEN

DAVID I. GINSBERG, Vice Chairman

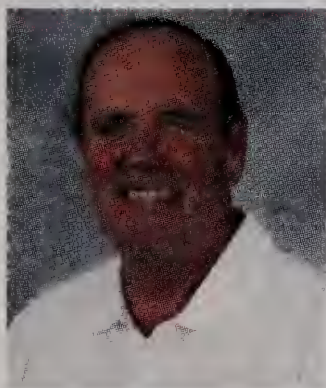

David Ginsberg became Vice Chairman of the Red Sox upon the closing of the sale, February 27, 2002. He principally provides advice to Principal Owner John Henry, Chairman Tom Werner and President/CEO Larry Lucchino on business and financial issues and heads up the finance committee of the NESV board. He had previously been Vice Chairman of the Florida Marlins starting in 1999. Ginsberg is also Vice Chairman of New England Sports Ventures (NESV), the holding company that owns the Boston Red Sox and the interest in New England Sports Network (NESN), and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Red Sox Foundation.

Ginsberg is the Managing Director of the Special Opportunities Group at Tudor Investment Corp., an investment management company. He served as the special advisor to the chairman and as a director at John W. Henry & Company (JWH) beginning in 1999 until June 2002. Before joining the Marlins and JWH, Ginsberg was a private investor and consultant. At Global Asset Management (GAM) in London, he started and served as the managing director of the Multi-Manager Group, one of the largest multi-advisor groups specializing in hedge funds, from its inception in 1989 until 1995. Prior to joining GAM, he was vice president in charge of the Mergers and Acquisitions Advisory Group at the National Westminster Bank USA, where he began his career as a corporate lender in 1981.

A native of Winthrop, MA, he graduated from The Northfield Mount Hermon School and received a B.A. from Kenyon College. He later received an M.B.A. with a concentration in finance from the Boston University Graduate School of Management.

PHILLIP H. MORSE, Vice Chairman

Phillip Morse was named Vice Chairman in 2004. He has been a partner in the Boston Red Sox since 2002.

Morse grew up in Danvers, MA and has two brothers living in the Boston area. He attended the University of Maine, played baseball for the Black Bears, and graduated in 1964. Upon graduation, Morse was hired by Liberty Mutual Insurance Company in Boston. In late 1966, he worked in sales for a Glens Falls, NY based small medical device company.

In 1969, Mr. Morse founded North American Instrument Corporation, a company focused on the development, manufacturing and sales of the first transparent fluid delivery system for coronary angiography, the Morse Manifold. By 1994, the firm had grown into NAMIC U.S.A. Corporation, an 800-employee designer and manufacturer of a wide array of medical devices for interventional cardiology and radiology. NAMIC made an initial public offering in 1991, and established operations in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico in 1992 and in the Republic of Ireland in 1993. Morse served as NAMIC's Chairman until its sale to Pfizer, Inc. in 1995. Today, NAMIC U.S.A. is a member of the Navilyst family and after more than 30 years, the Morse Manifold continues to be used in more than 70 percent of all cardiac catheterization procedures.

After retiring from NAMIC in 1995, Mr. Morse founded Heritage Creations, Inc., a group of companies dedicated to providing premium quality products and services to premier private, public and resort golf courses, clubs and golf pro shops worldwide.

Mr. Morse retired from the board of directors of Evergreen Bank, a division of Banknorth, N.A., and was a former director of The Business Council of New York State, Inc. He is a generous contributor to numerous medical, athletic and educational charities, having made a gift of an artificial turf stadium field to the University of Maine at Orono. In a combined effort with Mr. Harold Alfond, a former Red Sox partner, the University of Maine now has an outstanding athletic facility in which to play football, soccer and lacrosse. Four years ago, Mr. Morse turned 43 acres of woodlands in Glens Falls, NY into an athletic complex with a field house, nine tennis courts, two baseball fields, three softball fields, four fields for soccer and lacrosse and donated it to Glens Falls High School.

The Morses have three married daughters, all of whom live and work in Boston and surrounding communities and they divide their time between Boston, Lake George, NY and Jupiter, FL.

RED SOX CLUB EXECUTIVES

MIKE DEE, Chief Operating Officer

Mike Dee begins his 15th year in Major League Baseball, the 6th in his current role as Red Sox Chief Operating Officer. Mike joined the Red Sox on July 15, 2002 and was named COO on March 7, 2004. In this capacity, Dee oversees the club's day-to-day business operations.

Prior to his tenure with the Red Sox, Dee spent eight seasons (1995-2002) with the San Diego Padres where he was instrumental in guiding the franchise to new heights in corporate sponsorship, ticket and broadcast revenue while helping the Padres earn an industry-wide reputation for innovative marketing. He was also a key member of the team led by Larry Lucchino that built corporate and political support for the construction of Petco Park which ultimately preserved Major League Baseball for San Diego.

Since his arrival in Boston, Dee has played an instrumental role in all of the franchise's business initiatives. During this time, the Red Sox have consistently set new records for attendance and revenue growth. Dee has spearheaded the business implementation and integration of Fenway Park improvements such as the Green Monster Seats, the EMC Level, the State Street Pavilion and the Big Concourse expansion. Additionally, he has worked on a wide range of innovative business ventures, including leading the club's real estate activities, bringing concerts to Fenway Park, enhancing the game-day operations of the Red Sox staff and improving the quality of concessions and service through his work with concessionaire ARAMARK. Dee also led the way in negotiating the club's ten-year radio rights agreement with Entercom Communications in 2006.

In October of 2008, Dee negotiated an agreement with Lee County, Florida to keep the Red Sox Spring Training operations there for at least the next 30 years. The agreement includes the design and construction of a new state-of-the-art, single-site Spring Training facility that is slated to open in 2012.

In addition to his role with the Red Sox, Dee serves as President of Fenway Sports Group (FSG), a wholly-owned subsidiary of New England Sports Ventures, the parent company of both the Red Sox and NESN.

Dee oversees FSG's day-to-day activities, and his vision shapes everything from new business strategies to client service. He has been instrumental in negotiating relationships with many of FSG's most significant partners including Boston College and Major League Baseball Advanced Media (MLBAM).

In February 2007, Dee led the way as FSG purchased of a 50 percent stake in Roush Racing, NASCAR's largest racing team, to form Roush Fenway Racing. He currently serves on Roush Fenway's Board of Directors as Co-Managing Director. This past season Roush Fenway drivers Carl Edwards, Greg Biffle and Matt Kenseth were major contenders in the Chase for the NASCAR Sprint Cup, with Edwards finishing second and Biffle third.

In December 2007, Dee negotiated FSG's role to become the lead investor of a new ownership group that acquired the Salem Avalanche (now Salem Red Sox), a minor league baseball franchise that is part of the Class-A Advanced Carolina League. FSG operates the Salem Sox under its umbrella of FSG Properties.

FSG also holds exclusive sponsorship rights for the PGA TOUR's Deutsche Bank Championship and the Professional Bullriders tour.

Beyond his responsibilities with the Red Sox and FSG, Dee is active in a number of community endeavors. Most notably, he serves on the Pan-Mass Challenge Board of Directors, the nation's largest athletic fundraiser, which has raised more than $239 million for the Jimmy Fund since its inception in 1980. He is an active member of the Red Sox PMC cycling team, "Team 9," which rides in the event each year.

He also serves on the Leadership Council at his alma mater, Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, PA, where he played basketball and earned a degree in government in 1985.

Mike and his wife Karen make their home in Wellesley, MA with sons Spencer (8) and Tommy (6).

THEO EPSTEIN, Executive Vice President/General Manager

Theo Epstein is in his seventh season as General Manager of the Boston Red Sox and oversees the club's entire baseball operation. Under his leadership, the last six years have brought unprecedented success to the organization. In that span, the Red Sox have posted a .581 winning percentage, second best among the 30 major league teams, won 95 or more games on five occasions, and advanced to post-season play in three consecutive seasons and five times in six years, both for the first time ever. Boston's .630 (34-20) winning percentage in the five post-seasons, including four A.L. Championship Series appearances, tops the majors since 2003 among teams with at least two trips to the playoffs.

The Red Sox captured World Series victories in 2004 and 2007, making Epstein just the second individual in modern baseball history (post-World War II) to win at least two World Series titles in his first five seasons as a Major League General Manager. The New York Yankees captured three straight fall classics in Brian Cashman's first three years as GM from 1998-2000.

Epstein is also the first Red Sox General Manager to preside over more than three playoff teams (2003-04-05-07-08).

Epstein became Red Sox General Manager on November 25, 2002. In Epstein's first winter on the job, the club signed David Ortiz, Bill Mueller, Kevin Millar and Mike Timlin to help bring the 2003 Red Sox within five outs of the World Series in 2003. The next winter, the club acquired Curt Schilling and Keith Foulke before Epstein reshaped the roster on July 31, 2004 with the trade of Nomar Garciaparra and the acquisition of Dave Roberts. After the deadline deals, the Red Sox went 42-18 for the rest of the regular season and 11-3 in the postseason to win its first World Series title since 1918. Boston returned to the playoffs in 2005 before injuries derailed the 2006 club that held first place as late as August 2.

In 2007, the Red Sox led the A.L. East Division for the final 166 days of the season to win their first Division crown since 1995. At 96-66, Boston tied Cleveland for the best regular season record in the major leagues and as in 2004, went on to post an 11-3 playoff record to capture its seventh World Championship.

In 2008, the Red Sox won the A.L. Wild Card as second half deals for Jason Bay, Paul Byrd, and Mark Kotsay were instrumental in overcoming a rash of injuries and battling to one win away from reaching their third World Series appearance in five years.

A steadfast commitment to scouting and player development has been the key component in ensuring continued success on the major league level. In the 2003 draft, Epstein's first, the Red Sox selected righthander Jonathan Papelbon in the fourth round. The club selected 2007 A.L. Rookie of the Year and 2008 A.L. MVP Dustin Pedroia in the second round of the 2004 draft, and the 2005 and 2006 drafts were named second-best and best, respectively, in all of Major League Baseball by Baseball America. Boston's top five selections in the 2005 draft have all advanced to the major leagues: OF Jacoby Ellsbury, RHP Craig Hansen (since traded to Pittsburgh), RHP Clay Buchholz, INF Jed Lowrie, and RHP Michael Bowden. The Red Sox are the 1st team to have each of its 1st five draft picks reach the majors since the Angels and Cubs in the 2001 draft.

The organization's talent on the minor league level was again evident in 2008 as all seven Boston

(1) GM position was eliminated in 1961-62. Executive VP of Business and Baseball Operations Dick O'Connell assumed the role.

(2) Higgins was Executive Vice President in charge of baseball while O'Connell maintained oversight of the business side. O'Connell was named General Manager on September 16, 1965 when Higgins resigned.

(3) Port was named interim General Manager on February 28, 2002.

(4) Epstein left the Red Sox from October 21, 2005-January 19, 2006. Cherington and Hoyer were named co-General Managers on December 12, 2005 and served in that capacity until Epstein's return.

farm clubs, including the Dominican Summer League team, finished with winning records. The Red Sox are the only ML organization which can make that claim for 2008. It is also the first time that each of the Red Sox' minor league teams have been over .500 in a season since 1959. Boston had four teams in post-season play (Triple-A Pawtucket, Double-A; Single-A Lancaster, Single-A Short Season Lowell). The Red Sox had the fourth best overall winning percentage in the minors in 2008 at .548 (340-280).

The Red Sox have continued to expand their international scouting efforts from Latin America to the Far East and beyond. A pair of veteran pitchers from Nippon Professional Baseball, Daisuke Matsuzaka and Hideki Okajima, have been mainstays on the staff for the last two playoff teams.

Epstein, 35, is in his 18th season in Major League Baseball, his eighth with the Red Sox. In 2002, he became the youngest individual in baseball history appointed to General Manager at the age of 28 years, 11 months. Two years later, at age 30, he became the youngest General Manager ever of a World Championship team.

Prior to his current position, he was appointed Boston's Assistant General Manager in March 2002 after five seasons with the San Diego Padres baseball operations department, most recently as Director of Baseball Operations. He was also a member of the Padres Communications department in 1995-96 and began his baseball career as a summer intern for the Baltimore Orioles in 1992-94.

A graduate of Yale University and the University of San Diego Law School, Epstein was named the 2008 Baseball America Executive of the Year. He was also honored in 2003 and 2004 as the Major League Executive of the Year by the Boston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In the spring of 2005, Theo and his brother Paul launched The Foundation To Be Named Later (FTBNL). A branch of the Red Sox Foundation, the FTBNL's mission is raising funds and awareness for non-profit agencies in the Greater Boston area serving disadvantaged youth.

Theo and his wife, Marie Whitney are the parents of a son, Jack.

SAM KENNEDY, Executive Vice President, Chief Sales and Marketing Officer

Sam Kennedy was promoted to Executive Vice President, Chief Sales and Marketing Officer, in February 2008. He joined the Red Sox as Vice President/Corporate Partnerships in March 2002 and was named Senior Vice President/Sales and Marketing in 2005. The Brookline, MA native was among the first executives that Red Sox President/CEO Larry Lucchino brought with him from the San Diego Padres, for whom Kennedy had worked six years. Since joining the Red Sox, Kennedy and his staff have increased sponsorship revenue by more than 400 percent, premium licensing revenue by 600 percent and the season ticket base by 32 percent with a season ticket waiting list of over 7,000. The club has sold out 469 consecutive games at Fenway Park since May 2003, and has set attendance records in each of the past 7 seasons. Beyond the numbers, Kennedy has been a key contributor to the club's revitalized marketing effort. For example, the popular giant flag that drapes the Green Monster on special occasions was his idea.

Kennedy oversees Corporate Sponsorship, Ticketing (sales, operations and service), Broadcasting, Marketing, Advertising, Fenway Enterprises and all Client Services. In 2003, he helped conceive and execute the successful sales and marketing plan for the new "Legends Suite" at Fenway Park, the Dugout Seats innovation, and new tasteful advertising positions above the Green Monster. In 2004 Kennedy secured a long term partnership with Anheuser-Busch that was instrumental in the creation of the new Right Field Roof seats at Fenway. In 2005 he was charged with developing the sales and marketing plan for the new club seats at Fenway Park that debuted in 2006. Kennedy also secured long term naming rights deals for the EMC Club and the State Street Pavilion at Fenway Park. He also serves as Chairman of the Boston Red Sox Diversity Committee and the club's marketing liaison to Major League Baseball.

In an effort to diversify New England Sports Ventures' business interests, Kennedy helped create Fenway Sports Group in March 2004 with his longtime colleague, Mike Dee. Dee and Kennedy have built FSG into a well respected national sports marketing agency in just over two years. Kennedy has assisted in recruiting and hiring all senior FSG executives as well as taken on responsibility for all sales related to FSG's properties (including Boston College Athletics, Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Deutsche Bank Championship and consulting services). Additionally he works with Dee on all day-to-day business operations, including budgeting and the long-term strategic plan for the company. In 2007 FSG acquired 50% of NASCAR's largest team: Roush Fenway Racing.

Kennedy has received several accolades in the past year. In October 2007, Sam was named as one of the Boston Business Journal's 40 under 40 Award recipients, which recognizes 40 of Boston's best and brightest young professionals. In January 2008, Kennedy was selected as one of Sports Business Journal's Forty under 40 Award recipients. This national honor placed him in the company of the most influential and creative young professionals in the business of sports.

Prior to joining the Red Sox, Kennedy was the Padres' Executive Director/Corporate Partnerships and Broadcasting. Originally hired as an account executive in 1996, he tripled sponsorship revenues from 1996-2001. Kennedy oversaw the sale of signage at Qualcomm Stadium (home of the Padres, Chargers, Super Bowl XXXII and other events), virtual advertising, promotional programs, broadcast media and print advertising. He also played an integral role in securing financing and developing the sales and marketing strategy for the Padres' new downtown ballpark, Petco Park, conceived by Larry Lucchino. Before joining the Padres, he sold radio advertising for WFAN 660AM and WABC 770AM in New York.

Sam attended Trinity College in Hartford, CT, where he played baseball and earned a degree in American Studies in 1995. At Brookline High, he was a classmate and baseball teammate of colleague Theo Epstein. In 2004 Kennedy was sworn in as a board member on the Massachusetts Governor's Committee for Physical Fitness and Sports. Sam and his wife of ten years, Amanda, reside in Wellesley, MA with their five-year-old son, Jimmy and four-year-old daughter, Ally.

LAWRENCE C. CANCRO, Senior Vice President/Fenway Affairs

Larry Cancro has served as Senior Vice President/Fenway Affairs since 2003. The veteran of 30 years in Major League Baseball, including 25 years with the Red Sox, is responsible for the club's relationships with the businesses in the Fenway neighborhood, the securing of recording artists for concerts at Fenway, and consultation with the Ballpark Planning and Development Department on Fenway Park improvements. Cancro also works with civic and government groups to ensure open dialogue between the club and the community.

Prior to his promotion, Cancro was Vice President of Sales and Marketing since January 1996. He joined the Red Sox in February of 1985 as Director of Marketing and became Vice President of Marketing in February of 1990.

During Cancro's tenure in sales and marketing, the Red Sox set six club season attendance records, and attendance increased from the previous season 13 times. He started the Friendly Fenway fan program that expanded fan food options at Fenway and also resulted in fan favorites like "Sweet Caroline" and "Dirty Water". He was a member of the Red Sox 1999 All-Star Game Task Force and was instrumental in creating the mascot, Wally the Green Monster™.

Cancro is a member of the board of directors of the Greater Boston Convention and Visitors Bureau and serves as chairman of their sports advisory committee. He was awarded the Bureau's Spirit of Appreciation Award for his efforts in attracting sports-related conventions and tourism to Boston. He is on the Sports Advisory Council for Franklin Pierce College. He currently serves on the Board of Visitors for the Boston University Medical School. He, along with his wife Luise, co-chaired the Parent's Committee at Assumption College. He has served on the Jimmy Fund Long Range Planning Committee and is currently on the steering committee for The Greater Boston Association for Individuals with Cognitive and Developmental Disabilities. He was honored as GBARC "Man of the Year" in November 2004. He is also the President of the New England Chapter of Autism Speaks and served on the National Board of Directors for three years. He is a member of the Board of Directors for Melmark-New England.. In the spring of 2006 he was honored with the "Spirit of Compassion" award by the Massachusetts Association for Mental Health, Inc. In 2007, The Pirandello Lyceum of Massachusetts recognized him with the "I Migliori Award."

Cancro served governors Weld and Cellucci on the Governor's Sports Advisory Council and currently serves on the Executive Council of the Mass Sports and Entertainment Commission. He was on the Boston Host Committee for World Cup Soccer and the 1996 Olympic Gymnastics Trials Advisory Committee. He was on the Board of Advisors for the Local Organizing Committee for the 1998 NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Final Four. Cancro has served on MLB's Marketing Advisory Committee and Advertising Advisory Committee. He served as chairman of MLB's Research Committee and on MLB's Licensing Committee from 1982-85.

Born in New York City, Cancro graduated from Tuckahoe High School in Eastchester, NY, where he was raised. He graduated from Boston University with a B.A. in psychology. In 1978 he began his career in pro baseball as an assistant general manager for the Eastern League Jersey Indians, Double-A affiliate of the Oakland A's. He joined the Atlanta Braves as a sales representative in 1979, and in 1981, was promoted to group sales manager. In 1983 he was named director of merchandise operations and was responsible for creating baseball's first mail-order catalog of team merchandise. Larry resides in Andover, MA with his wife, Luise. They have two daughters, Laura Marie and Lisa.

BEN CHERINGTON, Senior Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Ben Cherington was recently named Senior Vice President/Assistant General Manager. Previously, he was Vice President/Player Personnel since January 24, 2006. Ben was also named Red Sox Co-General Manager on December 12, 2005. Cherington oversees player development and amateur scouting, and assists in all major league player personnel decisions. The 34-year-old joined the Red Sox in 1999 and was the club's director of player development from December 7, 2002 until his appointment as Co-General Manager. A graduate of Amherst College with a degree in English, he played four years of varsity baseball and served as an assistant coach for one year. Cherington earned a Master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst in 1997.

He served as a video advance scout for the Cleveland Indians in 1998 before joining the Red Sox. Cherington began 1999 as a mid-Atlantic area scout before joining the baseball operations department in May. After two years as coordinator of international scouting, the Meriden, NH native was named assistant director of player development in 2002.

Ben also serves on the advisory board for Good Sports, a Boston based non-profit. He and his wife, Wendi, live in Boston.

STEVE FITCH, Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer

Steve Fitch enters his fifteenth season in Major League Baseball and seventh with the Boston Red Sox. Recently promoted, he is in his first year as Chief Financial Officer after spending the 2008 season as Vice President of Finance. Since joining the club in March 2003, he has assumed numerous diverse leadership roles including Vice President of Human Resources and Vice President/Controller. He oversees the financial, accounting, and information technology activities of the club. He interacts with other departmental Vice Presidents to orchestrate a working budget for the organization yearly and ensures that strategic initiatives are met. Steve works in conjunction with financial auditors from Ernst & Young and other regulatory agencies to ensure overall financial compliance for the Club. He also played an active role in the finance negotiations for the Red Sox spring training venue this past year.

Prior to joining the Red Sox in 2003, Steve was the Executive Director of Finance for the San Diego Padres under the leadership of CEO Larry Lucchino. His primary responsibilities were budgeting, financial statement reporting, staff management and Diverse Business Partners Program liaison.

Steve is a Michigan native and earned his Bachelor of Science degree from Central Michigan University. He began his accounting career working for a Certified Public Accounting firm before transitioning to the manufacturing and retail industries as a controller. He has been a Certified Public Accountant since 1989 and is a member of the AICPA, Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants.

Personally, he has a passion for long distance running and enjoys investing in commercial real estate in his free time. Steve currently resides in North Reading, MA with his wife, Sherry, and their newborn son, Jack.

JONATHAN GILULA, Senior Vice President/Business Affairs

Jonathan Gilula was named Senior Vice President, Business Affairs in February, 2008. Prior to his promotion, he previously held the title of Vice President/Business Operations since January, 2005. Gilula enters his 12th season in Major League Baseball and 7th as a member of the Boston Red Sox organization. Gilula oversees all ballpark operations, event operations, fan services, game entertainment and video production. He also manages the day-to-day relationships between the Red Sox and key business partners, including ARAMARK, Fenway Park's concessionaire and Twins Enterprise, the operator of the Official Red Sox Team Store.

Gilula works closely with President/CEO Larry Lucchino, COO Mike Dee and the Ballpark Planning and Development Department in organizing the Club's effort to preserve and protect Fenway Park. This effort includes a focus on both the physical changes within the walls of Fenway Park and in the surrounding Fenway neighborhood. Gilula has played a key management role in the budget and construction process and developing the operating plans for the series of annual Fenway Park Improvements completed since the Henry-Werner ownership group purchased the franchise in 2002, such as the Green Monster Seats, the Big Concourse, the Right Field Roof, the EMC Club and the State Street Pavilion.

Gilula originally joined the Red Sox in October, 2002 as Special Assistant to the President/CEO, and in that capacity he worked on a number of special projects including the design and construction of the Fenway Park Improvements, the refurbishment of the existing Red Sox spring training facilities in Fort Myers, FL and the construction of the Red Sox Academy in the Dominican Republic.

Gilula began his baseball career in June, 1998, when Lucchino, then President/CEO of the San Diego Padres, hired him to work on the planning and development of Petco Park and surrounding neighborhood. As Director of Ballpark Development, Gilula coordinated all aspects of the design and construction of the Padres' acclaimed new ballpark that opened in downtown San Diego in 2004.

Gilula was born in New York City, NY and grew up in La Jolla, CA. He graduated with a degree in Politics from Princeton University in 1998, where he was captain of the varsity tennis team in 1997 and 1998.

JED HOYER, Senior Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Jed was promoted to Sr. Vice President/Assistant General Manager on January 12, 2009. Prior to his recent promotion, Hoyer served as Assistant General Manager for the previous three seasons, with a 44-day stint as co-General Manager during the off-season following the 2005 season.

As Sr. Vice President/Assistant General Manager, Hoyer is involved in all aspects of the baseball operation with his primary duties focused on assisting Theo Epstein in all player acquisitions, contract negotiations, and player evaluations. The 35-year old has been actively involved in building the Red Sox roster, as well as major league scouting, quantitative analysis, and advance scouting, since being named Assistant to the General Manager following the 2003 season.

The Plymouth, NH native is a 1996 graduate of Wesleyan University where he played shortstop and pitched for four seasons, helping the Cardinals to the championship game of the Division III World Series in 1994. The single-season and career saves leader, Hoyer won the Ahrens Award as the school's top male athlete in his senior year. Hoyer later served as an assistant baseball coach at Wesleyan for two seasons.

Jed currently serves on the Board of Directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Massachusetts Bay. He is single and resides in Boston.

JANET MARIE SMITH, Senior Vice President/Planning and Development

Janet Marie Smith was named Senior Vice President/Planning and Development after joining the Red Sox in 2002, when the Henry-Werner-Lucchino group purchased the club. She directs the renovation and area planning for Fenway Park, the oldest ballpark in the major leagues. Smith brings her training in architecture and urban design to these endeavors, as she has in previous projects.

Built in 1912, Fenway's future stood uncertain until the Henry, Werner, Lucchino ownership took over with a goal of saving historic Fenway Park. Since 2002, the team has added capacity, created space for fan amenities, and improved infrastructure and amenities in the ballpark and along surrounding streets. In 2005, plans were submitted to city, state and federal agencies for major alterations and repairs of the park, slated to be completed on Fenway's 100th birthday in 2012. The Red Sox are also focused on Fenway's perimeter to insure that surrounding development is complementary in uses and scale with the ballpark.

Ms. Smith's work with the Red Sox complements efforts as Senior Advisor of Planning and Design with Struever Bros. Eccles and Rouse, a Baltimore-based real estate developer and builder of urban mixed use projects from Nashville, TN to Providence, RI. Her design contributions have helped transform historic industrial buildings into vibrant urban communities and to burnish the role of sports and entertainment as anchors in city development. She was part of the THINK team, one of the final two teams in the competition for the World Trade Center site in New York City in 2002, led by Frederic Schwartz and Raphael Vinoly.

From 1989-94, Ms. Smith was the Baltimore Orioles' Vice President for Planning and Development under Larry Lucchino's leadership. She played a major role in executing Mr. Lucchino's vision of "building an old fashioned ballpark with modern amenities" to create Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Her concern for urban context, along with the study of historical parks and knowledge of the team's operational objectives, greatly influenced the design of this ballpark. She was responsible for much of its civic image and relationship to surrounding buildings and transportation. Smith's thrusts to impose urban planning and design on the world of sports have helped change the way America views sporting venues and helped to make them proven generators of area economic development.

Ms. Smith's combined loves of baseball and city life served her well in Atlanta, where she was President of Turner Sports and Entertainment Development, a division of Turner Broadcasting System, and Vice President of Planning and Development for the Atlanta Braves. Her work helped transform the 1996 Olympic Stadium into the baseball home for the Atlanta Braves and, as an advocate for an urban arena, she oversaw the development of the Philips Arena, home of the NBA Atlanta Hawks and NHL Atlanta Thrashers. Combined with the CNN Center transformation and creation of Centennial Park, these projects helped improve downtown Atlanta.

Prior to working in sports, projects Smith worked on include Pershing Square in Los Angeles and Battery Park City in New York City, where she served as Coordinator of Architecture and Design.

Ms. Smith holds a Masters degree in Urban Planning from City College of New York and a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Mississippi State University. She is an associate member of the Urban Land Institute, American Institute of Architects, and the American Planning Association. She also serves on the Board of Directors for Berklee College of Music in Boston and the Board of Overseers for the Boston Architectural College.

The Jackson, MS native resides in Baltimore with her husband, Bart Harvey, and three children.

MEG VAILLANCOURT, Senior Vice President/Corporate Relations; Executive Director - Red Sox Foundation

Meg Vaillancourt has two roles – assisting with the team's government relations as Senior Vice President and overseeing the Red Sox many philanthropic efforts as Executive Director of the Red Sox Foundation. Under the leadership of Principal Owner John Henry, Chairman Tom Werner, President/CEO Larry Lucchino and the team's generous partners, Meg directs the team charity's fundraising efforts and grant programs, working with Red Sox players, their wives, sponsors, front office members and fans. The philanthropic arm of the team, the Red Sox Foundation is focused on programs serving at risk children.

A resident of Boston, Meg was raised in the Manchester Children's Home and attended public schools before winning a scholarship to St. Paul's School in Concord, NH. She graduated from Harvard College with honors. A Rhodes Scholar, she studied politics at Oxford University before embarking on a career in journalism as a reporter for Boston's "The Ten O'Clock News" and on national public television and radio. As an associate documentary producer for Frontline, she examined the effects of the end of the Cold War on America's defense industry. A State House and Business reporter for The Boston Globe, she covered politics, public policy and the business of sports.

New England Patriots owner Robert Kraft persuaded her to leave journalism to serve as the NFL team's Vice President of Corporate and Community Affairs. Responsible for coordinating Patriots players' charitable appearances and the team's government relations, Meg also assisted with the opening of Gillette Stadium and the Kraft Group's philanthropic outreach. Hired by the Red Sox in 2003, she seeks to channel the passion of Red Sox Nation into a positive force for change through the Red Sox Foundation. Now the largest team charity in all of Major League Baseball, the Red Sox Foundation has provided over $30 million to non-profit programs over the past 6 years and has won numerous awards from community groups including The American Heart Association, the National Conference of Community and Justice, The Boston Bar Association and Boston Magazine.

Meg has served on the selection committees for both Rhodes Scholars and Marshall Scholars. Honored by the Massachusetts Women's Political Caucus and the YWCA's "Academy of Women Achievers", she was also the recipient of the Lady Powell Award, bestowed on "a distinguished woman who has had a significant impact on area youth through service, community leadership and personal example." She serves on the Board of the Make a Wish Foundation of Massachusetts, the Council of Champions for Citizen Schools, and was named "Executive of the Year" by Women's Business Magazine. In 2008, Governor Deval Patrick appointed Meg to the Board of the Commonwealth Corps, a state commission created to encourage and support volunteer community service throughout the Commonwealth.

RICHARD L. BRESCIANI, Vice President, Team Historian

Dick Bresciani was named Vice President, Team Historian in 2009 after serving as Vice President/Publications and Archives since 2003. Previously he worked as Vice President of Public Affairs beginning in November, 1996. He had been Vice President of Public Relations since August, 1987. Dick joined the Red Sox in May, 1972 as assistant public relations director, became publicity director in 1978 and public relations director in June, 1984.

Bresciani oversees all Red Sox publications, the club's historical archives and alumni. He coordinates the selection of the annual national Tony Conigliaro Award recipient and the Red Sox Hall of Fame selection committee. He was chairman of the Red Sox Task Force Committee for the 1999 All-Star Game.

Dick is the club's liaison to the BoSox Club, the Red Sox official booster club, and is on the Board of Directors as well as the Cape Cod Summer Baseball League. He was part of the first group inducted into the Cape Cod League Hall of Fame in January 2001 and is on their Hall of Fame selection committee. In 2003, Dick was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame and serves on their selection committee. On November 9-10, 2006, Bresciani was inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame as the non-uniformed personnel selection and also into the New England Italian-American Sports Hall of Fame. He was the recipient of the Boston Press Photographers Association's Sports Personality Award in 2007.

In 2001 Dick was the Red Sox coordinator for the dinner committee of The New England Sports Lodge of B'nai B'rith that honored then-owner John L. Harrington as The Sam Cohen Sportsman of the Year. For nine years he served on the Public Visibility Committee for The United Way of Massachusetts Bay.

In 1997, he received the Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence in Major League Baseball and was also honored by the Cape Cod League for 30 years of dedicated service. In 1998, Dick received an "Award of Distinction" from the Massachusetts Baseball Coaches Association for "significant contributions to the development of the youth of the community."

A graduate of Hopedale (MA) High School and the University of Massachusetts with a degree in journalism, Dick received the University's Alumni Award for Professional Excellence in 1994. He won the BBWAA "Good Guy" Award in 1987, the Western Mass. Jimmy Fund Recognition Award in 1989, the 1989 Brad Jernegan Award from the BoSox Club and the New England Intercollegiate Baseball Coaches Association's Distinguished Service Award in 1990.

Before joining the Red Sox Bresciani was assistant sports information director at UMass for 11 years. He was also the director of public relations and statistics for the Cape Cod Summer Baseball League from 1967-71 during which time the league received full NCAA accreditation and subsequent financial grants from Major League Baseball.

Dick and his wife, Joanne, reside in Wellesley, MA.

RON BUMGARNER, Vice President/Ticketing

Ron Bumgarner was named Vice President/Ticketing in January 2006. He oversees the Ticket Sales, Premium Seating Sales, Ticket Operations and Ticket Services departments.

A veteran of 17 years in Major League Baseball, Ron started his career with the Baltimore Orioles from 1991-95 in the Sales and Services departments. Working under current Red Sox President/CEO Larry Lucchino, Ron was instrumental in executing the relocation of season ticket holders from Memorial Stadium to Camden Yards and played an integral role in building and maintaining a league-leading season ticket base of 28,000 full season equivalents and a waiting list of 13,000. He also served as the MLB Transportation and Lodging Coordinator for the 1993 All-Star Game and was part of the team that generated over $1 million for ALS research in conjunction with the event.

When Lucchino left the Orioles to take over the San Diego Padres, Ron followed in 1995 as Assistant Director of Sales. The driving force behind a series of remarkable accomplishments, Ron and his staff tripled the Padres' season ticket base, doubled the group sales attendance to more than 500,000 (3rd-best in MLB) and became a model for small-market teams. Promoted to Director of New Ballpark Sales in 1999, Ron was the architect of the new ballpark's sales plan, critical to securing the financing for what is now Petco Park. He was a member of the design team responsible for the acclaimed park's popular, unique seating "neighborhoods."

Bumgarner followed Lucchino again and joined the Red Sox in 2003 and has been instrumental in the club's efforts to afford as many fans as possible the opportunity to experience Red Sox baseball at Fenway Park. Ron has played a vital role in the club's record-setting attendance and overhauled philosophies regarding customer service in the ticket operation.

Ron and his wife, Jenny, have two daughters, Shelby and Stella.

JENNIFER FLYNN, Vice President/Club Counsel

Jennifer was named Vice President/Club Counsel in June 2007. She was hired by the Red Sox in 2000 to work in the Sales and Marketing Department, and thereafter began her legal career when she obtained the position of Staff Counsel in 2002. She was promoted to Director of Legal Affairs in 2005, and is now responsible for handling general corporate legal matters for the Red Sox and its affiliated entities. Included in her day-to-day responsibilities are legal matters relating to Red Sox corporate partner and vendor relationships, legal aspects of Fenway Park activities and operations, and licensing and intellectual property rights matters relating to the club.

Jennifer grew up in Wellesley, MA and earned her Bachelor's Degree from Bowdoin College where she was a member of the varsity basketball and softball teams. She received her Juris Doctor from Boston College Law School and is admitted to the Massachusetts Bar. She is a member of the Massachusetts and Boston Bar Associations.

SUSAN GOODENOW, Vice President/Public Affairs

Susan Goodenow was appointed as Vice President, Public Affairs for the Red Sox in January 2008. She is involved in all aspects of Red Sox public relations and outreach in the areas of business, marketing, media relations, publications, photography, community initiatives, and the Red Sox Foundation.

Goodenow spent the previous two years as Major League Baseball's Vice President of Business Public Relations, overseeing the public relations efforts for MLB's business units and charitable groups, including sponsorship, advertising/marketing, community relations, international, licensing, productions, broadcasting, and special events. While at the Commissioner's office, Susan helped to lead teams in the development and implementation of communications strategies for league-wide programs such as the inaugural Civil Rights Game, the 60th anniversary of Jackie Robinson's entry into the major leagues, and business and charitable aspects of the inaugural World Baseball Classic.

A veteran of more than 15 years in the public relations and sports fields, Susan was previously an Officer/Corporate Partnerships and Cause Marketing for the American Red Cross in Washington, D.C., where she raised funds to support episodic disaster relief, including the response to Hurricane Katrina in 2005. She has also been a Senior Vice President at the District of Columbia-based Sanderson Strategies Group, where she worked on numerous public affairs initiatives with Major League Baseball and several of its clubs, including the Red Sox.

A native of Atlanta, Susan received a Bachelor's degree in Journalism from the University of Georgia, and a Master's degree in American Studies from Georgetown University. She resides in Boston.

ADAM GROSSMAN, Vice President/Marketing

Adam Grossman was named the Red Sox' Vice President/Marketing in 2008. Grossman works closely with departments throughout the organization and many of its partners, including the New England Sports Network and Major League Baseball Advanced Media, to develop and execute the club's marketing and advertising initiatives. In his first year in the position, Grossman worked with the club's advertising firm, Conover Tuttle Pace, to execute the club's first season-long branding initiative. Additionally, he coordinates the club's regional marketing activities and collaborates on the Red Sox Nation program.

Grossman previously served as Special Assistant to President/CEO Larry Lucchino. During this time he managed special projects that covered all aspects of the organization. He worked with Major League Baseball International on all aspects of the Red Sox presence in Japan and worked extensively on the 2008 Opening Series in Tokyo. He played a key role in expanding non-major league game opportunities at Fenway Park, including the organization and planning of the "Futures at Fenway" minor league doubleheaders, a sold-out event which brought the first official minor league games to America's Most Beloved Ballpark. Additionally, he managed the club's spring training operations in Lee County, Florida. He also was instrumental in creating the Red Sox Fellowship Program, which provides unique opportunities for recent college graduates of diverse backgrounds to learn about the world of sports.

Grossman serves on the Board of Directors for the Mass Mentoring Partnership and helped develop the Red Sox Mentoring Challenge, an initiative that has generated nearly 1,300 mentors in three years. He was also a two-time participant and club liaison to the nation's largest athletic fundraiser, the Pan Massachusetts Challenge, which is co-presented by the Red Sox Foundation.

Grossman joined the organization as an intern in Baseball Operations. He is a graduate of Duke University where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Public Policy.

JOE JANUSZEWSKI, Vice President/Corporate Partnerships

Joe Januszewski was named Vice President/Corporate Partnerships in February, 2006. Joe was Director, Corporate Partnerships since November 2002 when he joined the Red Sox after spending three years with the San Diego Padres (1999-2002). He started his career in professional sports in his home state with the Texas Rangers. He worked in the film industry in production for 10 years before entering baseball.

Januszewski is responsible for the club's corporate partnerships department, which has grown revenues 280 percent during his time with the Red Sox and has seen the total number of sponsors increase 90 percent, with over 100 corporate clients now a part of the club. He secured partnerships in non-traditional categories with local companies such as W.B.

Mason, Granite City Electric, F.W. Webb and Boston Scientific. He also oversees Spring Training sponsorship sales, which have grown nearly 600 percent since 2003, as well as the sale of fixed and electronic signage at Fenway Park, print advertising, game day hospitality, designing in-market programs for retail and business to business clients and putting together special event partnerships.

Fenway Enterprises, which promotes and sells non-baseball events into America's Most Beloved Ballpark was added to Januszewski's responsibilities in 2008. The booking of Fenway for parties, corporate meetings and weddings, as well as the operation of the Red Sox' year-round tour program is under his direction.

Joe oversees sales of the Red Sox membership programs, which include Red Sox Nation and Red Sox Kid Nation. Red Sox Nation is the largest team-run fan club in Major League Baseball with over 50,000 paying members in 2008. In 2004, Joe launched Red Sox Kid Nation, presented by Hood, the first Red Sox kids club in team history. He designed and executed a marketing plan for the program, and after five years it is the largest kids club in Major League Baseball with nearly 18,000 members in 2008. In concert with Hood, 5% of every membership goes to supporting children's hospitals in New England. Red Sox Kid Nation is the first MLB team run youth club to tie a percentage of membership revenue directly to a charitable cause.

He works in conjunction with team partners on community relations and Red Sox Foundation business efforts. He created a partnership with Microsoft and the Red Sox Foundation that ties an in-game feature, "Doubles for Dimock," to a financial contribution that is funding a City Year team at the Dimock Community Health Center in Roxbury, which provides vital services to Boston inner city families.

In 2003 Januszewski was charged with overseeing the Red Sox' MLB Authentication Program with a design on eliminating fraud in the sports collectibles market and making better use of game and team-used products. Joe manages the business arm of the team's publications, including the Red Sox Magazine and Red Sox Yearbook, and is the club liaison for MLB retail initiatives.

The University of Texas at Austin graduate has a bachelor's degree in Radio-TV-Film and a Masters of Education specializing in sports management. He serves on the board of directors for the Independent Film Festival of Boston and volunteers with Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay.

Joe enjoys traveling abroad, reading mountaineering & travel literature, spending time with his family and is an avid supporter of the University of Texas & Liverpool Football Club. He lives in Wellesley, MA with his wife, Ashley, and their two sons Bear & Fleet.

JOSEPH F. MCDERMOTT, Vice President, Emeritus

Joe McDermott has been a Red Sox Vice President since February 1990. McDermott joined the organization in 1975 as an administrative assistant to the Vice President of Business Administration. In 1978 he became executive assistant with responsibilities for stadium and security operations while performing administrative duties for the Red Sox general partners.

He was named Vice President of Property Management in 1987. Under McDermott's direction, the club began a special crowd control supervisor program and expanded the in-game customer relations function. He was a member of the Red Sox 1999 All-Star Game Task Force Committee.

McDermott is a graduate of Cathedral High School in Boston and attended Northeastern University. He serves on the board of directors of the Greater Boston Fire Safety Council. During 29 years with the Red Sox, through the 2004 season, Joe did not miss a home game, an outstanding record of 2,323 consecutive Fenway Park games.

Joe and his wife, Joanne, reside in Medfield, MA. They have two sons, Joseph and Jeffrey; four grandsons, Jacob, Joseph Francis II, Dalton and Gavin; and a granddaughter, Eva.

SARAH MCKENNA, Vice President, Fan Services and Entertainment

Sarah McKenna was named Vice President of Fan Services and Entertainment in January of 2008. She is responsible for the Fenway Ambassador program, as well as Fenway Park's game entertainment, and team-related special events. In this capacity she also oversees the club's television and video production department, which includes the team's weekly program, Red Sox Report, that airs regionally on NESN. McKenna joined the Red Sox on March 1, 2002 as the Director of Fan Services and since then has helped set a new standard in the club's relationship with its fan base.

McKenna has worked in all aspects of the Public Affairs department. Her accomplishments include the creation of the Fenway Ambassador Program, directing the Ted Williams Tribute in 2002, the 2005 and 2008

Opening Day World Series Ring Ceremonies, the emotional reunions of the American League Championship teams of 1946, 1967 and 1986, and the retirement of Johnny Pesky's number 6 on September 28, 2008. She also gathered the support necessary in Washington D.C. for Jackie Robinson to posthumously receive the Congressional Gold Medal and implemented popular events such as the Father's Day Catch, Kids Run the Bases, and On Field Photo Day.

McKenna started her baseball career with the Portland Rockies of the Northwest League. Prior to joining the Red Sox, she was the Government Relations Manager for the San Diego Padres. In that role, she oversaw the grassroots effort of Proposition C to build San Diego a new ballpark and revitalize 26 blocks of its urban core. A Native of Springfield, MA, Sarah earned her B.S. from Providence College and now lives in Hull with her husband Bill, daughter Jameson and newborn son Angus.

In that role, he oversees the Red Sox' professional scouting department and serves as an advisor to Executive Vice President/General Manager Theo Epstein on all facets of the club's baseball operations. Baird is a special assignment scout for major and minor league coverage as well as the amateur draft.

Baird, 46, joined the Boston organization in July 2006 as a special assignment scout. He served as Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Kansas City Royals from June 2000-May 2006, the fifth General Manager in franchise history. In 2003, he was honored with the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum's Rube Foster Award as the American League Executive of the Year as the Royals matched the sixth best turnaround following a 100-loss season in Major League history.

Overall, Baird spent 18 years in the Kansas City organization beginning as a minor league hitting coach in 1988. He then served as Territorial Scouting Supervisor in Florida from 1990-92 and as National Scouting Cross-Checker from 1993-1997, when he was appointed Special Assistant to the General Manager. During his scouting tenure, he was responsible for signing outfielder Johnny Damon.

Prior to joining the Royals, Baird served as head baseball coach at Broward (FL) Community College for two years after beginning his coaching tenure in 1985 as an assistant at Southern Arkansas University, where he played the middle infield during his collegiate career.

A native of Rochester, NH, Allard now makes his home in Miami Beach, FL with his wife, Julie.

ROBERT C. FURBUSH, Senior Advisor/Accounting and Finance

Robert C. Furbush will take on a Senior Advisor role in March, 2009 after serving as the Chief Financial Officer since October, 1987. He joined the Red Sox as controller in November, 1983 and was promoted to treasurer in June, 1984.

Furbush is a graduate of St. Mary's High School in Waltham, MA where he was captain of the basketball and baseball teams. In high school he played in an All-Star baseball game at Fenway Park. He earned a degree in economics at Boston College and played three years of varsity basketball, two for Coach Bob Cousy. In his senior year he won the Ronald J. Hickey Award for scholastic and athletic achievement. After two years of Army service, including one in Vietnam, Bob got a graduate degree in accounting at Northeastern University, became a Certified Public Accountant, and worked for Ernst & Young before he joined the Red Sox. Bob has served as the president and as a member of the Board of Directors of National American Insurance Company Limited and is a member of both the Major League Baseball Non-Uniformed Pension Plan Committee and the AICPA. He has made presentations to various civic and professional organizations and has served as a panelist at the Chief Financial Officers' Summit sponsored by the MIT Sloan Alumni Club. Bob and his wife, Emily, live in Framingham, MA, and have three children, Sarah, Stephen and Mark and one granddaughter, Kayley.

BILL JAMES, Senior Advisor/Baseball Operations

A baseball writer since 1975, Bill James joined the Boston Red Sox as a Senior Baseball Operations Advisor in November of 2002. He works with senior management and the baseball operations group to provide research and analysis of special projects, player contracts and on-going concerns.

The author of the annual Baseball Abstract from 1977 through 1987, Bill came to national prominence as a result of a Sports Illustrated article written in June of 1981. He is the author of more than 30 baseball books and the creator of the popular statistical summary, the Bill James Handbook, now published annually by Baseball Info Solutions. His other contributions to the sport include the concepts of Runs Created (an estimate of the number of runs each hitter has contributed to his team), Sabermetrics

(the effort to replace conjecture and speculation about issues of concern to baseball fans with objective and verifiable knowledge), Win Shares (an estimate of each player's contribution to his team's win total) and Secondary Average (a way of summarizing the other things that a player does to create runs, other than hit for average).

Bill lives in Brookline, MA with his wife, Susan McCarthy, and their three children: Rachel (21), Isaac (19) and Reuben (15).

FENWAY PARK: America's Most Beloved Ballpark

Major League Baseball's oldest and smallest ballpark, Fenway Park has been the home of the Boston Red Sox since April 20, 1912 when, after two days of rainouts, the park hosted its first regular season game, an 11-inning 7-6 Boston win over the New York Highlanders in front of 27,000 fans. Tris Speaker drove home the winning run, but the story of the game was pushed off the front page of the local papers by news of the sinking of the Titanic just days earlier.

In 97 seasons, venerable Fenway has been home to many of the greatest players in baseball history, including Hall of Famers Babe Ruth, Tris Speaker, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Foxx, Joe Cronin, Ted Williams, Bobby Doerr, Carl Yastrzemski, and one of its newest members, Jim Rice.

The park has witnessed some of the most memorable moments in baseball history, highlighted, perhaps, by Carlton Fisk's 12th-inning home run to win Game 6 of the 1975 Series. In 2007, the Red Sox celebrated the 40th Anniversary of the "Impossible Dream", which culminated at Fenway Park on October 1, 1967 with Boston's American League pennant clinching victory over the Minnesota Twins. Boston also clinched the 2007 A.L. Championship on its home field with a victory over the Cleveland Indians on October 21.

Among the world's most famous sporting venues, Fenway is best known for the 37-foot high, 231-foot long "Green Monster" left-field wall, which looms only 310 feet from home plate. Equally enticing to hitters is "Pesky's Pole," the right-field foul pole named for Sox great Johnny Pesky, which stands only 302 feet from home plate.

Nestled into the Fenway neighborhood of Boston, the park was largely rebuilt for the 1934 season by new owner Tom Yawkey following an off-season fire.

Most recently, Fenway has undergone a series of improvements since the Henry-Werner Group purchased the team in 2002. Most visible among them are the addition of the Green Monster Seats in 2003, the Right Field Roof Seats in 2004, the EMC Club and State Street Pavilion in 2006, the Jordan's Third Base Deck in 2007, an expansion of the State Street Pavilion and addition of the Coca Corner in 2008, and improvements to the Right Field Roof Box Seats for 2009. Three new concourses—Yawkey Way (2002), the Big Concourse in right field (2003), and the Third Base Concourse (2004) have provided new amenities, while making Fenway far more comfortable for fans by creating space where it seemingly did not exist previously.

A new playing field was installed for the 2005 season. At the same time, the Red Sox clubhouse underwent a massive renovation, including the construction of new state-of-the-art weight, training, rehab, and video facilities and the addition of a new batting cage off the tunnel between the clubhouse and the Red Sox dugout. A visitors' batting cage was added on the service level adjacent to the visiting clubhouse in 2007.

The astounding popularity of the ballpark and the team has enabled the Red Sox to set attendance records in each of the last eight seasons, the first team in major league history to accomplish that feat. En route to drawing 3,048,248 fans, the Red Sox sold out their entire 81-game home schedule for the fifth year in a row and enter 2009 with a 469-game sellout streak, the longest in major league history.

Hundreds of thousands of fans from all over the globe visit Fenway year-round. Tours of the ballpark, conducted in English, Spanish, and Japanese, are available daily. For more information, call (617) 226-6666 or log on to www.redsox.com.

WHY FENWAY?

The new ballpark was constructed for the 1912 season and was named by then Red Sox owner John I. Taylor. He said, "It's in the Fenway section of Boston, isn't it? Then call it Fenway Park." Taylor also owned Fenway Realty. Could it have been Boston's first naming rights deal? It was also Taylor who changed the club's name from Americans to Red Sox prior to the 1908 season.

FENWAY PARK HISTORY

APRIL 9, 1912: In the first game at Fenway Park, the Red Sox beat Harvard 2-0 in an exhibition game played in snow flurries in front of 3,000 fans.

APRIL 20, 1912: Following a pair of rainouts, the Red Sox win the first official game at Fenway, beating the New York Highlanders (who'd later become the Yankees) 7-6 in 11 innings. Tris Speaker drove home the game winner in front of 27,000 fans.

APRIL 26, 1912: First baseman Hugh Bradley hit the first home run at Fenway and the first over the left field wall vs. Philadelphia. It was the second and last home run of his major league career.

MAY 8, 1926: In the first Fenway fire, the bleachers along the left-field foul line burned down and weren't replaced, giving fielders the chance to snare foul flies behind the third base grandstand.

1931: The Red Sox, who first wore uniform numbers in 1931, have retired six numbers: Ted Williams' No. 9 and Joe Cronin's No. 4 on May 29, 1984; Bobby Doerr's No. 1 on May 21, 1988; Carl Yastrzemski's No. 8 on August 6, 1989; Carlton Fisk's No. 27 on September 4, 2000; and Johnny Pesky's No. 6 on September 28, 2008.

JULY 3, 1932: The Sox are hammered by the Yankees 13-2 in the first Sunday game at Fenway Park. Sunday baseball was approved in Boston 3 years earlier, but not at Fenway due to its proximity to a church. The Sox played their Sunday games at Braves Field on Commonwealth Avenue until the law was changed. They actually played the first Boston Sunday game, a 7-3 loss to Philadelphia, at Braves Field, April 28, 1929 in front of 22,000 fans (the Braves' April 21 game was rained out).

JANUARY 5, 1934: A 5-alarm, 4-hour blaze, the second Fenway fire, virtually destroyed the construction underway by new owner T.A. Yawkey to refurbish the park. Following the fire, construction began on a new Left Field Grandstand, the Bleachers, and the Green Monster.

APRIL 19, 1934: In game one of a doubleheader, the Red Sox' 3rd home game of the season, Boston right fielder Moose Solters hit the first home run over the new left field wall, a 9th-inning solo shot to give the Red Sox a 5-4 win over the Washington Senators.

SEPTEMBER 22, 1935: The largest crowd to ever see a game at Fenway Park—47,627—turned out for a doubleheader with the Yankees. A year earlier (on August 19, 1934), 46,995 watched a Detroit Tigers doubleheader. And a week earlier, 46,766 said goodbye to Babe Ruth at a Yankees doubleheader on August 12, 1934. Those crowds will never be equaled under Fenway's current dimensions. More stringent fire laws and league rules after World War II prohibited overcrowding that was permitted in the 1930's.

1936: A 23-foot tall screen was installed above the left field wall. The screen would remain until the Green Monster Seats were constructed in 2003.

1940: Bullpens were constructed in front of the bleachers replacing the old bullpen areas in the outfield foul territory beyond the dugouts. Box seats were added to the right field grandstand reducing the distance to the right field foul pole to 302 feet.

1946: Skyview seats were added to Fenway Park.

JUNE 9, 1946: Ted Williams hit a monumental 502-foot home run to right field off Detroit right-hander Fred Hutchinson. The ball landed on top of the straw hat of Joseph A. Boucher, a 56-year-old construction engineer from Albany, NY who was sitting in Section 42, Row 37, Seat 21. "The sun was right in our eyes," he said. "All we could do was duck. I'm glad I didn't stand up. They say it bounced a dozen rows higher, but after it hit my head, I was no longer interested." At that time the bleachers were real bleachers and not individual seats.

JULY 9, 1946: The Red Sox hosted their first All-Star Game at Fenway Park, a 12-0 American League win. Eight Red Sox were on the All-Star team, but Ted Williams stole the show, going 4-for-4 with two homers, a walk, five RBI and four runs scored.

JUNE 13, 1947: The Red Sox defeated the White Sox 5-3 in Fenway's first night game. Arc lights were installed in 1947. The Red Sox were the third-to-last of the 16 major league clubs to do so. Dave Ferriss was the winning pitcher. Green paint replaced advertisements covering the left field wall. No more Calvert Owl ("Be wise"), Gem Blades ("Avoid 5 o'clock shadow"), Lifebuoy ("The Red Sox use it") and Vimms ("Get that Vimms feeling").

MAY 12, 1948: The first Red Sox game was televised from Fenway on WBZ-TV.

OCTOBER 4, 1948: The first playoff game in A.L. history took place at Fenway, and Cleveland rookie lefthander Gene Bearden beat the Red Sox 8-3. Shortstop-manager Lou Boudreau led the Indians with two homers and two singles. The defeat prevented the only cross-town World Series in Boston history. Cleveland went on to beat the Boston Braves 4-2 in the World Series.

1952: The visitors' clubhouse was relocated to the third base side and connected to dugout.

SEPTEMBER 21, 1956: Batting lefthanded, the Yankees' Mickey Mantle hit the longest known home run to straight-away center field at Fenway off righthander Frank Sullivan. The ball failed to clear the old brick wall by a foot. It carried approximately 480 feet before striking the brick barrier located behind Section 36.

JULY 31, 1961: Fenway Park was the site of the second All-Star Game played in 1961. The game ended in a 1-1 tie, called after nine innings and a 30-minute rain delay.

JANUARY 6, 1963: The Boston Red Sox and the Boston Patriots agreed to a two-year contract allowing the Patriots to play their AFL home games at Fenway Park for the 1963-64 seasons. The contract was later renewed, and the Patriots continued to play their home games at Fenway through 1968. Overall, their record at Fenway Park was 17-16-5.

OCTOBER 21, 1975: The first World Series night game was played at Fenway Park, and it was a classic. The memorable Game 6, delayed three days by rain, lasted 4:01 and ended with Carlton Fisk's oft-replayed home run off Pat Darcy leading off the last of the 12th. The Red Sox had tied the game at 6-6 in the last of the eighth on Bernie Carbo's three-run, pinch-hit homer with two outs.

1976: Fenway's first message board in center field was part of a construction project that included a rebuilding of the left field wall as well as a new enclosed press box. Starting in 1976, National League scores were shown only on the new message board. They returned to the left field scoreboard in 2004.

JUNE 19, 1977: Carl Yastrzemski hit the longest known home run to the right of the bleachers, an eighth-inning blast off Yankees righthander Dick Tidrow. The blast traveled approximately 460 feet before striking the facing of the right field roof about 20 feet to the right of where the retired number 42 now appears. It is the only ball to reach the right field roof facade.

OCTOBER 2, 1978: The second playoff game in American League history was also played at Fenway Park. On the strength of Bucky Dent's three-run seventh inning homer, the Yankees defeat the Red Sox, 5-4 to capture the A.L. East Division crown.

1987-88: A color video board and black and white message board were installed in center field. There was also a complete resodding of the playing field. Construction was completed on "Diamond At Fenway," a new function facility, and "The Lansdowne Shop" souvenir outlet.

1988-89: "The 600 Club", a glass-enclosed section of 606 stadium club seats, was added on the roof behind home plate. New broadcast booths and the press box were relocated on top of the 600 Club. The club was later renamed the .406 club in honor of the late Ted Williams.

1990-91: A new weight room and multi-purpose room were constructed adjacent to the Red Sox clubhouse.

1991-92: Portable enclosures for the bullpen benches were installed. Complete renovations to both dugouts were made.

1993: Organized tours of Fenway Park began.

1995: Energy-efficient lighting, heating/cooling and control systems were installed throughout the facility via Boston Edison Company energy conservation program.

MARCH 19, 1997: A 25-foot Coca-Cola contour bottle design atop the light tower above the left field wall was unveiled signifying the Red Sox' partnership with Coca-Cola.

MAY, 1997: The batting cage beneath the center field bleachers was completely renovated.

MARCH, 1999: Improvements to the Red Sox and visitors clubhouses were completed.

JULY 13, 1999: The Red Sox hosted their third All-Star Game, a 3-1 A.L. win. For the first time in history, the All-Star Game was a three-day event featuring a celebrity hitting contest, a Futures game and a home run derby.

APRIL 2002: Two rows of "dugout" seats (on the in-field side of both dugouts to backstop) were added. A media interview room was constructed adjacent to Red Sox clubhouse. The family room was converted to a players lounge, and a new, expanded family lounge was built.

SEPTEMBER, 2002: Yawkey Way and the Gate A concourse expansion opened with concessions, restrooms and new attractions for all ages.

APRIL, 2003: Green Monster seats debuted above the left field wall. Two rows of additional seats and new camera pits were constructed on the outfield end of Red Sox and visitors dugouts. Two new rows of seats behind the plate and a new backstop were added. A new manual out-of-town scoreboard and advertising panels were installed on the left field wall. The Legends Suite debuted in Suite R-1, giving groups of fans the chance to watch a game with a Red Sox great. The Hall of Fame/.406 Club was refurbished and decorated. Yawkey Way officially opened after a one-month trial in September of 2002.

JULY/AUGUST 2003: Big Concourse with restrooms (including family restroom), concessions, customer service booth, portable turnstiles and picnic areas opened in right field. New ticket booths opened at Gates B and C. Gate D food court/expanded concessions on lower concourse opened.

SEPTEMBER 6-7, 2003: Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band performed a pair of sold-out concerts at Fenway Park. Since then, Fenway Park has been home to concerts from Jimmy Buffett and the Coral Reefer Band in 2004, The Rolling Stones in 2005, Dave Matthews Band in 2006, The Police in 2007, and Neil Diamond in 2008.

APRIL 9, 2004: New seating on the right field roof debuted.

APRIL 16, 2004: Red Sox legends Johnny Pesky and Bobby Doerr joined Mayor Thomas M. Menino in unveiling a new statue of Ted Williams outside of Gate B.

OCTOBER 8, 2004: David Ortiz crushed a two-run homer off Jarrod Washburn with two outs in the bottom of the 10th, giving the Red Sox an 8-6 win over the Angels and a sweep of the best-of-5 A.L. Division Series.

OCTOBER 27, 2004: 86 years of heartache were erased with a 3-0 win in St. Louis, as the Red Sox completed a sweep of the 100th World Series for their first World Championship since 1918. Beginning at Fenway Park, a "rolling rally" parade was held three days later when the team returned to Boston.

2005: A new playing field was installed and Game On!, a two floor sports cafe, opened at the corner of Brookline Avenue and Lansdowne Street.

MORE FENWAY FACTS

- Prior to the 1912 season, the Red Sox played their home games at the Huntington Avenue Grounds, now part of the campus of Northeastern University.

- Other teams have played at Fenway Park besides the Red Sox. In 1914 the "Miracle Boston Braves" played their World Series games at Fenway en route to a 4-game sweep over the favored Philadelphia Athletics while Braves Field was under construction. The Boston Patriots (now the New England Patriots) were fall occupants from 1963-68 before eventually ending up in Foxboro. They were not, however, the first pro football team to play at Fenway. The Boston Redskins played 4 years at the park before heading to Washington in 1937. The Boston Yanks played at Fenway from 1944-48 prior to traveling to New York, Dallas, Baltimore (where they became the Colts) and eventually to Indianapolis.

- Since 1990, the Red Sox have hosted a 4-college Beanpot Tournament each April. Boston College, Harvard, Northeastern and Boston University competed the first 6 years. When BU dropped baseball, UMass replaced the Terriers in 1996. On April 27, 1997 UMass pitcher Scott Barnsby no-hit Northeastern in the semifinals, 1-0. It was the first no-hitter at Fenway since Dave Morehead's in 1965. The Red Sox have also hosted Cape Cod League and college all-star games as well as state high school tournaments, most recently in 1998.

- Collegiately, Boston College football teams, mostly of the Frank Leahy era, and Boston University, with stellar quarterback Harry Agganis (later a promising Red Sox first baseman who died during the 1955 season), also played at Fenway Park.

- The Boston Beacons, a member of the North American Soccer League for the 1968-69 season, played their home games at Fenway Park. In August of 1968, the Santos soccer club of Brazil featuring the legendary Pele played the Beacons in a Fenway Park exhibition.

March 23, 2005: The Boston Red Sox announced a long-term commitment to remain at Fenway Park, "America's Most Beloved Ballpark" and the oldest park in the Major Leagues. A comprehensive plan for a complete renovation was submitted to the City of Boston Landmarks Commission, the Massachusetts Historic Commission, and the National Park Service. The plan included the annual improvements that the Red Sox have constructed since 2002, when John Henry, Tom Werner, Larry Lucchino and their partners committed the franchise to the preservation, protection, and improvement of Fenway Park.

APRIL 11, 2005: The defending champions received their World Series rings, one by one, on the field, prior to the home opener against the Yankees. Led by Johnny Pesky and Carl Yastrzemski, former players who had longed for such a day helped the active players raise the World Championship flag. James Taylor sang "America the Beautiful," the Boston Symphony and Boston Pops played "The Star-Spangled Banner." Wounded soldiers back from war presented the rings. Boston icons Bobby Orr, Bill Russell, Tedy Bruschi, and Richard Seymour threw the Ceremonial First Pitches. And, in fitting style, the Red Sox beat the Yankees to make their home opener perfect.

2006: The Red Sox removed the glass that had separated the .406 club from the ambiance and atmosphere of Fenway, creating the new EMC Club and the State Street Pavilion in time for Opening Day, 2006. In the process, the club added 1,300 seats, standing room, additional concession stands and restrooms, while widening concourses and creating more room for fans.

SEPTEMBER 21, 2006: David Ortiz hit his 51st home run off Minnesota Twins pitcher Johan Santana to eclipse Jimmie Foxx' 67-year-old club record for homers in a season. He finished the season with 54 homeruns.

2007: Improvements include a new Third Base Deck, located behind the Grandstand seats in left field; renovations to over half of the Private Suites; and renovations to the press level.

SEPTEMBER 1, 2007: Clay Buchholz became the first Red Sox rookie to ever pitch a no-hitter, blanking the Baltimore Orioles, 10-0.

OCTOBER 21, 2007: The Red Sox defeat the Cleveland Indians, 11-2 to capture their 12th American League pennant. It marks the first time that Boston has clinched a playoff series at Fenway Park since the 2004 Division Series versus Anaheim.

2008: Year VII Fenway Park improvements include the addition of more than 800 new State Street Pavilion seats, plus standing room tickets down the first and third base lines, as well as the "Coca Cola Corner" in left field. The Bleacher Bar, a year round restaurant, opened under the center field bleachers on Lansdowne Street.

May 19, 2008: Jon Lester threw the first no-hitter of 2008 in a 7-0 win vs. Kansas City. He became the 4th lefty ever to throw a no-hitter at Fenway Park.

2009: Improved seating, additional standing room locations, a new standing room deck, new concessions and restrooms in the Right Field Roof Box area debut in 2009. A repair of the lower seating bowl and a new roof for the Jeano Building (home to the Red Sox offices, The Third Base Concourse, Jordan's Third Base Deck and Game On!) round out the Year VIII Fenway Park improvements.

2009 FENWAY PARK IMPROVEMENTS

The following projects highlight the Year VIII improvements to Fenway Park.

Right Field Roof Box Improvements: An improved Right Field Roof Box Area includes the addition of approximately 560 new seats (replacing the original 383 Roof Box Seats first installed in 1976). Behind these 560 seats are dedicated standing room positions and a new terrace has been added immediately above. The terrace deck is home to approximately 70 bar stools with a drink rail similar to those situated above the Green Monster and ideal for groups and families to view the game. Additionally, the Right Field Roof Box area features a brand new concourse with new restrooms and concessions.

The Budweiser Right Field Roof features an additional 11 new seats at tables, and an extended standing room area. Also, suites R19, R20, and R21 complete the EMC Level suite improvements that began in 2006 (providing all suites with wheelchair locations, wheelchair accessible restrooms, and updated furnishings).

A rendering of the Right Field Roof improvements.

Seating Bowl: The concrete in the lower seating bowl, between Sections 14 and 28, has been fully repaired and waterproofed for the 2009 season. The Dugout Seats, Field Box Seats, and Loge Box Seats have been replaced with new seats. The Grandstand Seats, the last remaining historic wooden seats in Major League Baseball, have been refurbished to insure all seats meet the industry standard of 18 inches and provided with a spring mechanism so the seat is self rising.

The work also improves sightlines by lowering of the cross aisle by more than six inches to improves sightlines for those in the loge and grandstand seats. Existing wheelchair and companion seating locations now have improved sightlines by the elevation of the wheelchair spaces. And, directly behind homeplate, approximately 40 new seats will bring fans closer to home plate than ever before.

Jeano Building Roof: A new roof has been installed on The Jeano Building. Originally constructed in 1914, and home to the Red Sox Front Offices, Jordan's Third Base Deck, Third Base Concourse, and Game On!, the Jeano Building will also feature new historic, replica windows, and a restored 4 Yawkey Way entrance to the Red Sox offices.

The improvements for 2009 were designed by D'Agostino Izzo & Quirk of Somerville. McNamara Salvia was the structural engineer, and WSP Flack and Kurtz served as the mechanical, electrical, and plumbing engineer with both firms based in Boston. The code and life safety consultants were Howe Engineers of Sandwich, MA. Construction was done by William A. Berry & Son, Inc. of Danvers, MA. (Right Field Roof Box Improvements), NER Construction of Wilmington, MA (Seating Bowl Repair) and Gilbane Building Company of Boston, MA (Jeano Building Roof Repair). The Boston office of Struever Bros. Eccles & Rouse acted as the Boston Red Sox program manager.

SUMMARY: Has guided the Red Sox to the playoffs 4 times in his 5 seasons, the only Boston manager to reach the postseason more than twice...Has won 90+ games 4 times with the Red Sox, the most in team history, one more than Bill Carrigan...Has a career 470-340 (.580) record in 810 games with Boston, the best winning percentage in team history among managers with 400 or more games...Ranks 4th in total wins and 5th in games managed.

5-YEAR RUN: Is tied with Mike Scioscia at .580 (470-340) for the 2nd-best winning percentage since 2004 among managers who have guided teams all 5 seasons...Joe Torre ranks first at .581 (471-339)...Joins Joe Cronin (13, 1935-47) and Jimmy Collins (5, 1901-05) as just the 3rd Boston skipper ever to be at the helm for 5 consecutive full seasons...His 470 wins are the most ever by a Red Sox manager over a 5-year span.

ALL-STAR GAME: Was the manager of the American League All-Stars for the 2nd time in 2008, guiding the team to a 4-3, 15-inning victory on July 15 at Yankee Stadium...Won in his previous stint as All-Star manager, 7-5, at Detroit's Comerica Park in 2005...Joins Cronin (1940 and 1947) as the only Red Sox skippers to manage multiple All-Star teams.

PLAYOFF PARTICIPANT: Is one of 3 major league managers with 4 post-season appearances over the last 5 years (2004; 2005; 2007; 2008) with Torre (5) and Scioscia (4)...Is one of 5 current A.L. managers to have at least 4 career post-season appearances, joining Jim Leyland (5), Scioscia (5), Ron Gardenhire (4) and Cito Gaston (4)...In 2007 was the first Sox skipper to win an East Division title since Kevin Kennedy in 1995...Has a career post-season winning percentage of .667 (28-14), the 2nd-highest of any manager in history with at least 20 games...Has won 7 of 9 playoff series, losing only to Chicago in 2005 ALDS and Tampa Bay in the 2008 ALCS.

TWO TITLES: Led Boston to World Series victories in 2004 and 2007 after the club's 86-year drought...Has won all 8 World Series games he has managed, the most wins without a loss in the history of the Fall Classic...George Stallings (1914 Braves), Hank Bauer (1966 Orioles), Lou Piniella (1990 Reds), and Ozzie Guillen (2005 White Sox) were all 4-0 in their only Series appearances...Is just the 8th manager to earn championships in at least his first 2 Series trips and the 20th to capture more than one overall world title...Joins Bill Carrigan (1915-16) as the only skipper to win 2 World Series with the Red Sox.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Signed by the Red Sox after spending parts of 5 seasons with Tampa Bay, Baldelli hit .281 with 52 homers and 234 RBI in 447 games with the Rays...He ranks among the club's all-time leaders in slugging percentage (3rd, .445), outfield assists (3rd, 34), triples (4th, 17), RBI (5th), batting average (5th), stolen bases (6th, 58), doubles (T6th, 94) and home runs (7th)...Appeared in 156 games in 2003, his rookie season, and 136 in 2004, but played just 155 of Tampa Bay's 648 contests over the next 4 years.

RATED ROOKIE: Finished 3rd in American League Rookie of the Year balloting in 2003 behind Kansas City's Angel Berroa and New York's Hideki Matsui...Only 2 rookies since 1900 have at least matched Baldelli's totals for hits (184), runs (89), extra-base hits (51), RBI (78) and stolen bases (27): Cleveland's Joe Jackson in 1911 and Kansas City's Carlos Beltran in 1999.

ON THE RHODE: Would be the 10th Rhode Island native ever to appear in a game for the Red Sox and first since righthanded pitcher Ken Ryan (1992-95) of Pawtucket...Ranks among the Ocean State's all-time leaders in home runs (6th), stolen bases (9th), doubles (10th) and RBI (10th)...Homered over the Green Monster on "Rhode Island Night" at Fenway Park on September 17, 2003...Only two Rhode Island natives have ever had more hits in a season than Baldelli's 184 in 2003: Hall of Famers Nap Lajoie and Hugh Duffy...Joins Paul Konerko (7), Davy Lopes (6) and Gabby Hartnett (2) as the only 4 Rhode Islanders ever to homer in a post-season contest.

IN THE POSTSEASON: Made his playoff debut in 2008, appearing in 8 games for the A.L. Champion Rays, including 3 in the ALDS, 2 in the ALCS, and 3 in the World Series...Combined to bat .200 with 6 RBI, including a .333 clip and 4 RBI against the Red Sox in the ALCS...Belted a pair of round trippers, a 3-run shot off Paul Byrd in Game 3 of the ALCS vs. Boston, and a solo blast off Ryan Madson in Game 5 of the World Series vs. Philadelphia.

INJURY REPORT: Missed the first 4-plus months of the season due to mitochondrial disorder, a condition that slows muscle recovery and causes fatigue...Spent the first 116 games of the season on disabled list with the condition and missed the final 124 games of 2007 (240 games total) with hamstring injuries and general soreness...After 2 rehab assignments he was reinstated to the roster on August 10 as Carl Crawford was placed on the DL.

Made a pair of rehab assignments, combining to bat .257 (19-for-74) with 4 home runs and 16 RBI over 24 games...Played for Single-A Vero Beach from June 16-29 and July 13-14, batting .216 (8-for-37) with 2 long balls and 8 RBI in 11 games...Joined Double-A Montgomery from July 16-August 1 and hit .297 (11-for-37) with 3 homers and 8 RBI in 13 contests.

HAPPY RETURNS: After coming back he played in 28 of the Rays final 46 games...Made 16 starts (13 at DH, 3 in RF), 13 of them against left handed starters...In his first game back, August 10 at Seattle, batted cleanup and started in right field...Was his first appearance in a major league game since May 15, 2007 vs. Texas at the Disney Complex in Orlando, a span of 15 months in between...Went 1-for-4 with an RBI single in his 2nd at-bat.

HONOR ROLL: Received the 19th annual Tony Conigliaro Award in 2008, presented by the Boston Baseball Writers' Association of America to a major league player who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage, trademarks of the former Red Sox star outfielder...Garnered 43 points, followed by Arizona's Doug Davis (27) and Oakland's Brad Zeigler (26)...Was previously nominated for the honor in 2006.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Delivered a walk-off RBI double on August 30 vs. Baltimore, scoring Carlos Pena from first base in the 9th inning off Rocky Cherry...It was his first career game-ending RBI...Reached base safely a career-high 5 times in the game...Combined to reach base safely 9 times in 10 plate appearances from August 30-31 against the Orioles, a feat he had never before accomplished over a 2-game span in his career...Belted his first home run of the season off the White Sox' Octavio Dotel on August 22 at Chicago, his first since May 3, 2007 vs. Minnesota...Hit the 50th homer of his career 2 days later off Chicago's Mark Buehrle...His first career pinch-hit blast came on September 6 at Toronto, a 2-run, 9th-inning shot off Blue Jays closer B.J. Ryan.

SUMMARY: Played in 35 games before a season-ending hamstring injury on May 15...Started 20 games in centerfield and made 15 appearances at designated hitter, including an Opening Start, his first since 2004...Season-ending injury occurred on May 15 vs. Texas at the Disney Sports Complex while running out a ground ball in his first at-bat...While rehabbing with Triple-A Durham in mid-June, he re-aggravated the injury after 2 games...Attempted another comeback in late August but was shut down after 2 games with Single-A Vero Beach due to general soreness.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: At the time of his injury on May 15, was stuck in a 1-for-40 slump dropping his season average from .275 to .204...Endured an 0-for-22 spell over that span and ended the season with an 0-for-17 stretch...Opened the season as the No. 3 hitter but moved to leadoff on April 10...In 29 games from the top spot, he hit .205 (23-for-112) with 4 homers...Was 5-for-32 (.156) against lefthanders, but 3 of those hits were home runs...Entered the year with a .308 career average against southpaws...4 of his 5 long balls gave the Rays a lead and all but one of them came at Tropicana Field...Hit his 6th career leadoff homer on April 18 off Baltimore's Erik Bedard.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2006: Came back in 2006 after missing 221 games including all of 2005 due to 2 major injuries: a torn ACL in his left knee in October of 2004 and a torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow while rehabbing from the knee injury in June of 2005...Was on target to open the season with the Rays then sprained his left hamstring in spring training and landed back on the DL for the first 2 months of the season...Returned on June 7 and started 85 of the Rays remaining 103 games, leading the club over that span in runs (59), doubles (24), RBI (57) and home runs (16)...Batted .355 (27-for-76) in June, his best month since the first month of his career (.364, April 2003)...After August 18, Boston's David Ortiz (.684) was the only American Leaguer with a higher slugging percentage than Baldelli's .667 mark...Also batted .340 (52-for-153) after that date, 9th-best in the A.L. over that period...Belted 10 home runs beginning August 30, 4th in the majors in that time...Batted .330 (30-for-91) with runners in scoring position...Hit leadoff 42 times at a .339 (62-for-183) clip with 11 home runs...Had 5 leadoff home runs in 2006, tied with New York's Johnny Damon for the 2nd-most in the A.L. behind Detroit's Curtis Granderson (6)...Had the first multi-homer game of his career at Yankee Stadium on September 14, his mother Michelle's birthday...Both long balls came off Jeff Karstens.

2005: Missed the entire 2005 season with knee and elbow injuries...On November 5, 2004 he underwent successful surgery on his left knee to repair a torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL)...The surgery was performed by Dr. Richard Steadman at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic in Vail, CO...Injured the knee on October 24 while playing baseball with his younger brother, Dante, in the backyard of his home in Cumberland, RI...Injured his right elbow in mid-June while working out at the Rays minor league complex...Tore the ulnar collateral ligament and underwent "Tommy John" surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL on June 23.

2004: Made 131 starts, including 120 in centerfield and 11 as designated hitter...Tied with Oakland's Mark Kotsay, San Diego's Jay Payton and St. Louis' Jim Edmonds for the most assists among major league centerfielders with 11...On August 12 at Boston, threw out 2 runners at home plate on consecutive plays in the 5th inning, tying an A.L. record...Batted .331 (41-for-124) against lefthanders, 7th in the A.L...Also ranked 7th with 34 infield hits...Belted his first career grand slam off Juan Rincon on July 22 at Minnesota...Set a club record that has since been matched by Carlos Pena with an RBI in 8 straight games from September 9-17...Made his first career trip to the DL from August 14-September 1 with a strained right quadriceps muscle.

2003: Finished 3rd in A.L. Rookie of the Year voting after leading all major league rookies with 184 hits, just the 9th A.L. player since World War II with at least that many in his first season...Only 6 active players have tallied more hits in the rookie campaign: Ichiro Suzuki (242), Nomar Garciaparra (209), Carlos Beltran (194), Albert Pujols (194), Delmon Young (186) and Hanley Ramirez (185)...Also led all A.L. rookies in batting (.289), stolen bases (27), multi-

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

WELCOME BACK: Returns to Boston in 2009 after spending parts of the previous 3 seasons with San Diego...Was originally acquired by the Red Sox with outfielder Coco Crisp in a trade with the Cleveland Indians on January 27, 2006...Hit .278 (5-for-18) in 7 games/6 starts before being dealt with righthanded pitcher Cla Meredith to the Padres for catcher Doug Mirabelli on May 1, 2006.

WHAT A CATCH: Has guided pitchers to a 4.01 ERA in 384 career games behind the plate, 5th among active catchers (minimum 350 games) behind Russell Martin (3.83), Paul Lo Duca (3.88), Joe Mauer (3.89) and Jose Molina (3.98)...Led the majors with a 3.41 catchers ERA in 2007...Owns a .993 career fielding percentage...Has thrown out 16.3 percent (56-of-344) of attempted base stealers.

MR. CLUTCH: Has a .320 (106-for-331) career batting average with runners in scoring position, 15th among active players with at least 400 plate appearances in that situation...The Twins' Joe Mauer is the only catcher to rank higher on that list in 3rd place at .342 (177-for-517)...Hit .406 (41-for-101) with runners in scoring position in 2007, joining Tony Gwynn (1984 and 1997) and Wally Joyner (1998) as the only Padres ever to top the .400-mark in that category (minimum 100 AB).

IN THE POSTSEASON: Made his major league post-season debut for San Diego in 2006...Appeared in 3 games against St. Louis in the NLDS, going 1-for-7 (.143) with one walk and 2 strikeouts.

SUMMARY: Limited by injuries to 57 games for San Diego, batting .202 (36-for-178) with 9 doubles, one homer and 16 RBI...Caught 49 games including 47 starts and threw out 10 base runners in 63 attempts...Committed 3 errors in 352 total chances for a .991 fielding percentage.

INJURY BUG: Missed 67 games on the disabled list...Suffered a high ankle sprain after colliding with Albert Pujols at home plate on May 21 vs. St. Louis...Placed on the 15-day DL the following day and missed 55 contests before being reinstated on July 24...Landed on the 15-day DL again on August 9 (retroactive to August 7) with a strained right triceps and returned on August 22...Did not play after September 14 due to a strained right triceps, though he was not placed on the DL for a 3rd time.

TIME AND A HALF: Caught all 22 innings of the Padres 6-hour, 16-minute loss to Colorado on April 17...Marked the most innings caught in a single game since Sandy Alomar Jr. and Brian Harper also went 22 frames for Cleveland and Minnesota respectively on August 31, 1993...Rockies back-stop Yorvit Torrealba was also behind the dish for 22 innings...Went 2-for-9 and drove in San Diego's only run in the 2-1 loss...His 9 at-bats tied a club record for an extra-inning contest.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Has posted at least 20 homers in each of his first 5 full major league seasons from 2004-08, with 145 total round trippers, 21st in the majors during that stretch... Also ranks 23rd in that time with 477 RBI and 24th with 461 runs scored...Is one of just 8 active players to post at least 3 seasons of 100 runs, 30 homers, 100 RBI and 10 steals, done in 2005, 2006 and 2008.

OH! CANADA: Is one of 22 Canadians to play for the Red Sox...Has 149 career homers, 4th all-time among players born in Canada...Only Larry Walker (383), Matt Stairs (254) and Jeff Heath (194) rank higher...Also ranks among that group in slugging percentage (2nd, .516), on-base percentage (4th, .375), batting average (5th, .282), RBI (10th, 491) and walks (10th, 397)...His 3 30-homer seasons are the 2nd-most by a Canadian native behind Walker's 4.

TRADE SHOW: Acquired by the Red Sox from the Pirates in a 3-team trade on July 31, 2008 and combined to total 111 runs, 31 round trippers and 101 RBI between the 2 clubs...Is one of just 8 major leaguers ever to reach the 100-run, 30-homer and 100-RBI marks during a season in which he was traded, a group that Manny Ramirez and Mark Teixeira also joined in 2008.

DOING IT ALL: In 2005, he had just the 4th expansion era season (since 1961) of at least 100 runs, 40 doubles, 30 homers, 100 RBI and 20 steals while playing in all 162 games...Bobby Abreu (2001) and Jeff Bagwell (1996-97) are the only other players to do it...Prior to 1961, Chuck Klein (1932) was the only player to reach those milestones while playing the entire 154-game schedule.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: Named the 2004 National League Rookie of the Year, the first Pittsburgh player ever to win the award...Led all major league rookies in slugging percentage (.550)...Ranked 2nd in on-base percentage (.358), total bases (226) and extra-base hits (54)...Ranked 6th in runs (61), 7th in batting average (.282), tied for 7th in hits (116) and doubles (24), and 6th in multi-hit games (33).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

WINNING WAYS: Posted double-digit wins for the 4th straight season in 2008 and is tied with C.C. Sabathia for 5th in the majors with 63 wins since the start of the 2005 season, trailing Brandon Webb (70), Roy Oswalt (66), Johan Santana (66) and Roy Halladay (64).

Is tied with Sabathia and Carlos Zambrano for 4th in the majors with 48 wins beginning in 2006 behind Webb (56), Halladay (52) and Santana (50)...Is 48-28 in his Red Sox career, a winning percentage of .632, tied with Cy Young (96-54) for the 10th-best in club history among hurlers with at least 70 decisions.

STRIKING RESULTS: Fanned Brandon Inge in the 7th inning of his May 8, 2008 start at Detroit for his 1,000th career strikeout, one of 61 active pitchers to reach that mark...Was the first pitcher to record his 1,000th K in a Red Sox uniform since Frank Castillo did it on May 5, 2002 at Tampa Bay.

Joins Jake Peavy, Johan Santana, Javier Vazquez and Brandon Webb as the only pitchers in baseball to record at least 150 strikeouts in each of the last 6 seasons beginning in 2003 and ranks 8th overall in that span with 994 total punchouts.

Has averaged 8.56 strikeouts per 9 innings (1,127 K's/1,184.2 IP) in his career as a starter, the 11th-best ratio in baseball history among starting pitchers with at least 1,000.0 career innings.

INNINGS AND STARTS: Has thrown more than 150.0 innings and made at least 25 starts in each of the last 5 seasons beginning in 2004, one of 22 big leaguers to reach those marks...Topped the 200-inning plateau in back-to-back seasons from 2006-07, the first Boston pitcher to do so since Derek Lowe from 2002-03...Since joining the Red Sox in 2006, ranks 9th in the A.L. with 579.2 innings and tied for 13th with 90 starts.

ROAD WARRIOR: Has posted more wins on the road than at home in each of the last 3 seasons and in 4 of the last 5...Owns 27 road victories since the start of the 2006 campaign, tied with Brandon Webb for the most in the majors in that span...Only Carlos Zambrano (28) has more...Leads all big league qualifiers with a 2.54 ERA (54 ER/191.2 IP) on the road over the last 2 seasons...His .692 (27-12) road winning percentage in his career with Boston is the 2nd-highest in club history since 1954 behind Pedro Martinez at .756 (59-19).

PLAYOFF POWER: Made 3 post-season starts in 2008 despite injuries...Has not lost a playoff contest since Game 3 of the 2003 World Series, going 6-0 with a 3.04 ERA (18 ER/53.1 IP) in 8 starts since...Won all 4 of his 2007 starts and is 7-2, 2.90 ERA (28 ER/87.0 IP) in 13 games/12 starts in playoff action...Among pitchers with at least 80.0 career innings in the postseason, ranks among the all-time leaders in opponents batting average (3rd, .197), on-base percentage (4th, .252), base runners per 9.0 innings (4th, 8.79) and winning percentage (T4th, .778)...Has 3 complete game post-season shut-outs, tied with Mordecai Brown and Whitey Ford for 2nd most all-time, one behind Christy Mathewson.

2008: Started 3 games for Boston in the 2008 postseason, going 1-0 with a 8.79 ERA (14 ER/14.1 IP)...Took the hill for Game 3 of the ALDS against the Angels at Fenway Park, 12 days after his final start of the regular season...Allowed a post-season career-high 9 hits and was touched for 4 runs in 5.0 innings but left with the score tied at 4-4 and did not figure in Boston's 5-4 12-inning loss...Turned in the shortest play-off start of his career in Game 2 of the ALCS at Tampa Bay, going 4.1 frames while setting October highs with 8 runs and 3 homers allowed...Matched the mark he established in his previous start with 9 hits allowed but did not get a decision as Boston went on to lose, 9-8 in 11 innings...

Staved off elimination in his final start, Game 6 at Tampa Bay, allowing 2 runs on 4 hits and one walk while fanning 3 over 5.0 innings in a 4-2 victory.

2007: His 4 wins in 2007 tied for 3rd most all-time in a single postseason and matched the record for most starting playoff victories in one year, one of 10 pitchers ever to accomplish that feat and the first Red Sox...Posted a 1.20 ERA (4 ER/30.0 IP) in the 4 starts, tied for 5th lowest among pitchers with at least 30.0 innings in one postseason...Struck out 35, tied for 5th most ever in a postseason, and permitted just 2 walks.

ALDS: Went the distance to blank the Los Angeles Angels on 4 hits, 4-0 in Game 1 on October 3 at Fenway Park...Became the 8th pitcher in post-season history to throw CG SHO in consecutive starts (also Game 6 of 2003 WS vs. New York Yankees)...Was 7th CG SHO in Red Sox post-season history, first since Luis Tiant in Game 1 of 1975 World Series, and 2nd ever in Sox' post-season opener, the other by Babe Ruth in Game 1 of 1918 World Series...Retired 19 consecutive batters after allowing first-inning leadoff single, tying the 3rd longest streak in post-season history.

ALCS: Won both starts versus Cleveland with a 1.93 ERA (3 ER/14.0 IP) to earn ALCS MVP honors...Issued 4 hits and 2 runs in 6.0 innings for a 10-3 Game 1 victory at Fenway Park on October 12...Allowed first-inning run to end post-season scoreless streak at 18.0 frames...Saved Boston from elimination with a 7-1 win in Game 5 on October 18 at Jacobs Field, permitting 5 hits and a run in 8.0 innings...Had not issued a walk in first 16.0 frames of postseason before a free pass to Franklin Gutierrez in 2nd inning...Fanned 11, the most in a post-season game for any pitcher since Beckett fanned 10 in Game 3 of 2003 World Series...Was 4th playoff game of 10+ strikeouts in Sox history

WS: Won his 3rd straight series opener, 13-1, over Colorado at home on October 24...Issued one run in 7.0 innings with 9 K's...Fanned the first 4 batters, 3rd most ever to start a World Series game...Became the 19th pitcher to start a World Series game in both leagues.

ON STRIKE: Finished 8th in the A.L. with 172 strikeouts, the 2nd-highest total of his career behind 194 K's in 2007...Averaged 8.88 strikeouts per 9.0 innings (172 K's/174.1 IP), 2nd in the A.L. behind only A.J. Burnett (9.39)...Has fanned at least 150 batters in each of the last 6 seasons, one of 5 major leaguers to do so...Struck out 8 or more on 8 occasions, tied for the 6th-highest total in the A.L....Fanned a career-high 13 in a 3-0 loss at Tampa Bay on April 27, tied with Burnett (August 19 vs. NYY) for the A.L.'s highest single-game total of 2008...Recorded each of his first 6 outs by way of the K and whiffed 8 through 3.0 frames...Was the first Sox hurler to fan at least 13 in a game since Curt Schilling's 14 K's on September 21, 2004 at Baltimore.

Recorded 3 strikeouts in a 10-6 loss vs. Baltimore on June 10 ending a streak of 17 consecutive starts with at least 5 K's that began August 29, 2007...Since 1956, Pedro Martinez (43, 21) and Roger Clemens (20, 20) are the only Red Sox pitchers with longer such streaks...Recorded career strikeout No. 1,000 against Brandon Inge on May 8 at Detroit.

UNDER CONTROL: Ranked 9th in the A.L. with 1.76 walks per 9.0 innings pitched (34 BB/174.1 IP)...Walked just 34 batters, his lowest single-season total since issuing 11 free passes over 4 games in 2001, his first season at the major league level...Tied with teammate Paul Byrd and Cleveland's Cliff Lee for the 3rd-fewest walks of any A.L. hurler with at least 170.0 innings.

Issued 2 walks or less in each of his final 17 starts of the season beginning June 4 with a strikeout-to-walk ratio of 4.85 (20 BB/97 K's), 4th in the A.L. over that span (minimum 50.0 IP)...Tied for the A.L.'s 7th-longest such streak of 2008 and was the longest by a Red Sox pitcher since Curt Schilling made 33 such starts in a row from September 20, 2005 to September 20, 2006.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN: Placed 4th in the A.L. with a 2.85 ERA (32 ER/101.0 IP) in 15 road starts compared to a 5.65 ERA (46 ER/73.1 IP) in 12 outings at Fenway Park...Beginning on May 24 at Oakland, went 5-2 with a 2.23 ERA (17 ER/68.2 IP) in his final 10 road starts of the season, the best such ERA in the majors over that span...Overall, went 7-5 on the road and 5-5 at home, the 3rd straight season and 4th in the last 5 that he has posted more wins as a visitor.

SUPPORT STORY: Won just 8 of his 16 quality starts while Boston lost in 7 of those efforts, tied for the 4th-most in the A.L...Tim Wakefield led the league with 9 team losses in his quality starts...Sox scored a total of 98 runs in his 12 wins, an average of 8.2 runs per game, but just 36 times in his 15 other starts (2.4 runs per game) including 20 runs in his 10 losses or 2.0 runs per game.

INJURY BUG: Was on the 15-day disabled list from August 28 (retroactive to August 18) to September 5 with right shoulder inflammation...Was his 2nd stint on the DL in 2008 after missing from March 25 (retroactive to March 19) to April 6 with a lower back strain...Has made 12 career trips to the DL including 3 since joining the Red Sox in 2006.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Went 5-3 with a 4.67 ERA (28 ER/54.0 IP) in his first 8 starts through May 18, giving up 5 or more runs 3 times in that span...Gave up at least 5 runs on 6 occasions, including a pair of 8-run outings, July 30 vs. the Angels and August 17 vs. Toronto...Was 3-2 with a 2.72 ERA (16 ER/53.0 IP) over an 8-start stretch from May 24-July 4 but logged a 3-4 record and 5.95 mark (28 ER/42.1 IP) in his next 7 starts through August 17 before landing on the DL...Made 4 starts after being activated on September 5, going 1-1 with a 2.16 ERA (6 ER/25.0 IP), 4th in the A.L. in that time...Tossed at least 6.0 innings in 21 of his 27 outings including a 9-start streak from May 18-July 4, the 2nd-longest on the club behind Tim Wakefield's 10-gamer from May 28-July 20.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Allowed 4 home runs in an 11-7 win over Milwaukee on May 18 at Fenway Park, the first Red Sox pitcher to do so since Tim Wakefield gave up 6 in an 11-9 triumph at Detroit on August 8, 2004...Logged his 2nd double-digit strikeout effort of the season, and his 3rd straight game of at least 9 K's, when he fanned 10 in a 5-2 victory at Baltimore on May 30...Tossed his 5th career complete game on July 19 against the Angels in Los Angeles but took the 4-2 loss...Did not allow a run until a 7th-inning leadoff homer by Vladimir Guerrero...Gave up 8 runs on 8 hits and one walk and fanned 3 over 2.1 innings in a 15-4 loss to Toronto on August 17 at Fenway Park...Was his shortest start since going 1.1 frames at Yankee Stadium on June 5, 2006...Landed on the 15-day DL the following day.

20-20 VISION: Led the majors with 20 victories, the majors' first 20-game winner since 2005, when 4 pitchers (Dontrelle Willis-22; Chris Carpenter-21; Bartolo Colon-20; Roy Oswalt-20) reached that plateau...Was Boston's first 20-game winner since Curt Schilling in 2004 (21-led ML) and 47th in club history, the 15th since 1950...Recorded his 20th win in his 29th start on September 21 at Tampa Bay, fewest since Chris Carpenter in 2005 (28)...Were fewest starts for an A.L. pitcher to win 20th game since Boston's Pedro Martinez (25th) in 1999...Only Martinez and Roger Clemens (27th start in 1986 and 1990) took fewer starts to win 20th by a Red Sox pitcher since 1950.

His 200.2 innings are the 4th-fewest ever by a 20-game winner behind Bob Grim in 1954 (20 wins, 199.0 IP), Martinez in 2002 (20 wins, 199.1 IP) and Mike Mussina in 2008 (20 wins, 200.1 IP)

LEADING THE WAY: Was first Red Sox to lead majors in wins since Schilling (21 in 2004)...Ranked 2nd in the A.L. with a .741 winning percentage and had 6th lowest ERA at 3.27, the lowest ERA for a Red Sox qualifier since Schilling (3.26) in 2004...Also placed among A.L. leaders in strikeouts to walks ratio (3rd, 4.85), fewest baserunners per 9 innings (4th, 10.50), fewest walks per 9 innings (6th, 1.79), strikeouts (7th, 194), lowest opponents batting average (7th, .245), most strikeouts per 9 innings (7th, 8.70), and fewest home runs per 9 innings (10th, 0.76)...Held opponents to a .207 average with runners in scoring position, 3rd lowest in A.L...Leadoff batters had .251 on-base percentage, lowest in the majors.

HONOR ROLL: Selected as the Red Sox Pitcher of the Year by Boston BBWAA chapter...Named the Major League Starting Pitcher of the Year in fan voting on mlb.com...Was 2nd in the BBWAA Cy Young Award voting, receiving 8 firsts, 14 2nds, and 4 3rds for 86 points behind Cleveland's C.C. Sabathia (119 points)...Named as one of 4 starting pitchers on Baseball America's Major League All-Star Team...Voted the Red Sox Player of the Month for April, going 5-0, 2.48 ERA in 5 starts.

SEASON SUMMARY: Won first 3 starts with 1.80 ERA (3 ER/18.0 IP) and tied a club record with 5 victories in April, matching Babe Ruth (1917) and Pedro Martinez (2000)...Won each of first 7 games with a 2.51 ERA (13 ER/46.2 IP) before a no decision on May 13 vs. Baltimore...Went 4.0 innings and left that game after tearing skin on right middle finger...Placed on the disabled list on May 19 (retroactive to May 14) and missed 2 starts...Activated on May 29 and was 2-0 in next 3 starts, improving to 9-0 in 11 games...Winning streak ended with a loss on June 14 to Colorado.

Captured his next 2 outings and was 11-1, 3.07 through June 24...Went 2-3, 4.28 (19 ER/40.0 IP) in next 5 games...Lost consecutive decisions for the only time all season, July 25 at Cleveland and July 31 vs. Baltimore...Finished with a 7-2, 3.07 (23 ER/67.1 IP) performance in final 10 games...

Was victorious in 4 straight starts, September 4-21, before loss on September 27 vs. Minnesota.

7-FOR-7: Was the first major league pitcher to win at least his first 7 starts at the beginning of a season since 2005, when the White Sox' Jon Garland won his first 8 games and Florida's Dontrelle Willis was 7-0 after 7 outings...Became just the 6th pitcher in Red Sox history to win at least his first 7 starts in a season...Babe Ruth (1917), Dave Ferriss (1945) and Roger Moret (1973) share the club record with victories in their first 8 contests to begin a season.

9 STRAIGHT: Was the 6th Sox hurler ever to win at least his first 9 decisions in a season, first since Roger Clemens began a Sox record 14-0 in 1986...That career best winning streak from April 4-June 8 tied for 2nd-longest in the majors in 2007, behind Oakland's Dan Haren (10 straight wins, April 18-July 1).

DESERVING OF A BREAK: Carried a 12-2 record into the All-Star break, just the 18th time that a Sox pitcher has recorded at least 12 wins before the break...Derek Lowe was the last to do so with 12 wins at the All-Star break in 2002.

ROAD KILL: Went 11-2, 2.18 in 13 road starts...Tied with John Lackey for 2nd in the majors in road wins (Carlos Zambrano, 12) and had lowest road ERA among major league qualifiers...Since 1995, only 2 other A.L. pitchers have posted a lower road ERA: Toronto's Roy Halladay (2.09) in 2005 and Boston's Pedro Martinez 4 times (1.57/2003; 1.66/2000; 1.88/1999; 1.89/2002)...Last Sox pitcher with more road wins was Derek Lowe (12) in 2002.

SEEING STARS: Was the A.L.'s winning pitcher in the All-Star Game on July 10 in San Francisco, fanning 2 with one hit allowed over 2.0 scoreless relief frames...Was his first career All-Star appearance after receiving the most votes of any A.L. starting pitcher...Was the 3rd Sox pitcher to win an All-Star Game, first in relief...Roger Clemens was the starter and winner in 1986 at Houston, and Pedro Martinez earned the win after starting the 1999 game at Fenway Park.

TRENDS: Issued 3 or fewer runs 23 times and worked at least 7.0 innings on 15 occasions...Lone complete game in regular season was 8-inning defeat on July 25 at Cleveland...Had 123 strikeouts in 117.2 innings over his final 17 starts beginning June 24, an average of 9.4 K's per 9 innings...Fanned 7 or more in 4 of his last 5, 7 of his last 10, and 12 of those 17 outings...Recorded regular season best 10 strikeouts on July 20 against the White Sox, most K's since 11 on April 10, 2005 with Florida vs. Washington...Walked 2 or less in 19 of his final 20 and 27 of 30 overall starts.

ODDS AND ENDS: Went 10-3 when starting after a Boston loss...Worked first 6.0 innings of combined 4-0 shutout on June 19 at Atlanta...Did not return after 48-minute rain delay...Issued just 2 homers over 64.0 innings in first 10 starts through June 3...Red Sox scored 147 runs while Beckett was in the game in 30 starts, 8th most in the majors, and averaged 6.59 runs per 9 innings in his games, 4th highest...Earned the win in 2 straight Red Sox home openers, posting a 1.29 ERA (2 ER/14.0 IP) in the 2 starts, defeating Toronto on April 11, 2006 and Seattle on April 10, 2007...Is the first Sox pitcher to win back-to-back home openers since Dennis Eckersley in 1979-80.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2006: Set career highs with 33 starts and 204.2 innings while leading Red Sox in wins (16), starts and innings in first season with club...Ranked among A.L. leaders in opponents average against (4th, .245), starts (6th) and wins (8th)...Tied for 2nd in majors in homers allowed (36) and ranked 5th in A.L. in walks (74), both career highs...Won 7 of first 8 decisions and carried a 10-3 record into July, becoming the majors' first 13-game winner on July 24 in Oakland...After 10-3 start, went 6-8 the rest of the way...Became the first Red Sox pitcher since the adoption of the DH rule in 1973 to hit a home run, connecting for a solo homer off Brett Myers in the 7th inning on May 20 in Philadelphia...Was the first homer by a Red Sox hurler since September 26, 1972 (Marty Pattin)...Was 2nd career blast, the other September 8, 2005 at Washington, off John Patterson...Limited righthanders to a .238 batting average and lefthanders to a .251 mark...Allowed .208 batting average with runners in scoring position...Went 7-6, 4.84 in 17 starts at home and 9-5, 5.21 ERA in 16 starts on the road...Had a 2.22 ERA in his 16 wins, a 10.36 ERA in his 11 losses and a 5.02 ERA in his 6 no-decisions...Beat Baltimore on May 15, his 26th birthday...Walked a career high 9 on August 19 vs. the Yankees, most by a Sox pitcher since Roger Moret (9, August 22, 1975 vs. CWS)...Left after 6.0 innings due to small cut on his right middle finger, August 24 at Los Angeles Angels...Threw 8.0 scoreless frames on September 21 vs. Minnesota to win 6-0, his 16th victory.

2005: Went 15-8 with 2 complete games (one shutout) and a 3.38 ERA in his final year with the Marlins...Set then-career highs in wins, starts (29), innings (178.2) and strikeouts (166) while ranking among N.L. leaders in K's per 9.0 innings (T7th, 8.4), opponents batting average (9th, .234), winning percentage (T9th, .652) and ERA (11th)...His 3.46 career ERA with Florida is the lowest in Marlins history among pitchers with at least 500.0 innings...Ranks 4th in strikeouts (607), is 5th in wins (41), and ranks 6th in starts (103) and innings (609.0)...Allowed 3 earned runs or less in 23 of his 29 starts, surrendering 2 earned runs or fewer in 19, including each of his final 5 starts, when he went 3-0 with a 2.25 ERA (8 ER/32.0 IP)...Was disabled from June 15-30 with blister on right middle finger and July 6-23 with strained left oblique.

2004: Posted then-career highs with 26 starts and 156.2 innings and matched career bests with 9 wins and 152 strikeouts...Would have ranked 8th in the N.L. with 8.7 strikeouts per 9 innings and 9th in the league with .235 opponents average, but fell 5.1 innings shy of qualifying...With only 54 walks, posted a 2.8-to-1 strikeout-to-walk ratio...Made 3 trips to the DL, first with a blister on his right middle finger May 31, then with a strained lower back June 24 and finally with a skin tear on his right middle finger July 6.

2003: Had a 3.04 ERA, going 9-8 in 24 games (23 starts) for the Marlins before turning in an MVP performance in the World Series...Averaged 9.6 K's per 9 innings...Struck out 7 or more in a start

SUMMARY: Played at 3 levels of the Red Sox organization in 2008, climbing from Double-A Portland to Triple-A Pawtucket before making his major league debut with Boston...Combined to rank among the organization’s minor league leaders in ERA (2nd, 2.62), strikeouts (3rd, 130) and wins (4th, 9-7) while appearing in 26 games/25 starts.

MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT: Promoted from Pawtucket to Boston on August 30 and made his big league debut later that night against the Chicago White Sox at Fenway Park...Allowed 2 runs on 7 hits and one walk and struck out 3 over 5.0 innings to earn the 8-2 victory...At 21 years, 356 days, became the youngest Red Sox pitcher to start and win his major league debut since Juan Pena on May 8, 1999 (21 years, 315 days)...Overall he was the 3rd-youngest American League pitcher to appear in a game in 2008 behind Los Angeles’ Nick Adenhart (April 24, 1986) and New York’s Phillip Hughes (June 24, 1986)...Was optioned back to Pawtucket the following day.

HIGH FIVE: Was the last of Boston’s first 5 selections in the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, including Jacoby Ellsbury, Craig Hansen, Clay Buchholz and Jed Lowrie, to advance to the majors...Marked the first time the any team’s top 5 picks from a single draft have debuted in the majors for that club since Boston’s 1989 class of Greg Blosser, Mo Vaughn, Kevin Morton, Jeff McNeely and Eric Wedge.

WITH PORTLAND: Spent most of the year with Portland where he went 9-4 with a 2.33 ERA (27 ER/104.1 IP) in 19 starts...Landed on the disabled list on July 12 (retroactive to July 10) with a calf injury that prevented him from representing the Sea Dogs in the Eastern League All-Star Game in Manchester, NH...Promoted to Pawtucket upon his return from the DL on July 21, at which point he still ranked 2nd in the league in ERA and strikeouts (101)...Earned Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Month honors in May after going 3-1 with a 1.22 ERA (5 ER/37.0 IP) in 6 starts...Gave up one run or less in 7 of 8 starts from April 26-June 3, going 5-1 with a 1.09 ERA (6 ER/49.2 IP) in that time and logged wins in 6 straight decisions from May 7-June 24.

SUMMARY: Made Boston's Opening Day roster for the first time and set career highs in games (16), starts (15), innings (76.0), walks (41) and strikeouts (72) despite 2 trips to the minors and a stint on the 15-day disabled list from May 14-31 with a broken nail on his right middle finger.

HOT START: Turned in quality starts in 3 of his first 6 starts to begin the season going 2-2 with a 3.71 ERA (14 ER/34.0 IP) in that time...Allowed 3 earned runs or less over 5.0 innings or more in 5 of those contests, the only blemish being a 7-run, 3.2 inning start against the Yankees on April 16 in New York...Fanned 33 batters in 34.0 frames through May 2, an average of 8.74 K's per 9.0 innings, tops among A.L. qualifiers in that span...Only Cincinnati's Edinson Volquez (10.70), San Francisco's Tim Lincecum (9.91), San Diego's Randy Wolf (9.42) and St. Louis' Todd Wellemeyer (8.74) ranked higher in the majors during that stretch...Allowed 10 extra-base hits in 6 starts through May 2, tied for the A.L.'s 10th-lowest total in that time.

COMPLETE PACKAGE: Threw his 2nd career complete game on April 26 at Tampa Bay, his first since no-hitting Baltimore on September 1, 2007...Held the Rays to one hit through 7.0 innings before allowing a pinch-hit single to Dioner Navarro and a 2-run homer to Akinori Iwamura to take the 2-1 loss...Went 8.0 innings overall, permitting 2 runs on 3 hits with 2 walks and 9 K's...Was his 2nd complete game in his 8th career start, becoming the first Red Sox pitcher to go the distance twice within his first 10 big league appearances since Jeff Sellers (September 26, 1985 and June 29, 1986)...Combined to allow 3 hits in his 2 career complete games...The last Sox hurler to toss 2 complete games within his first 10 career games while allowing 3 hits or less in each contest was Don Aase (July 31, 1977 and September 5, 1977).

REST OF THE WAY: Did not get a win in his final 10 major league games (9 starts) of the season, going 0-7 with a 9.21 ERA (43 ER/42.0 IP) over 2 stints from May 7-August 20...With setbacks in 7 consecutive decisions, was the longest losing streak by a Red Sox pitcher since Frank Castillo suffered 8 straight losses over 10 starts from June 19-September 16, 2002...Lasted 5.0 innings or less in 6 of his final 9 starts and in 8 starts overall, finishing with a 6.75 ERA (57 ER/76.0 IP).

INJURY REPORT: Landed on the 15-day disabled list for the first time in his career with a broken nail on his right middle finger on May 14...Sent to Triple-A Pawtucket on a minor league rehab assignment on May 25, going 0-0 with a 4.50 ERA (4 ER/8.0 IP) in 2 starts for the PawSox...Was activated on May 31 and optioned to Pawtucket.

WITH PAWTUCKET: In addition to his 2 rehab appearances, took the hill 7 more times for the PawSox, going 4-2 in 9 games, all starts, with a 2.47 ERA (12 ER/43.2 IP) overall...Posted wins in 4 straight starts from June 14-30, allowing just one earned run in 22.2 innings for a 0.40 ERA in that span...Permitted 2 earned runs or less over 5.0 innings or more in 5 of his 9 Triple-A starts...Struck out an average of 8.86 batters (43 K's/43.2 IP) per 9.0 innings pitched at the Triple-A level.

WITH PORTLAND: Optioned to Portland on August 21, his first Double-A action since July 4, 2007, after allowing 5 runs over 2.1 innings for Boston the previous day in Baltimore...Limited New Hampshire to just 2 hits with one walk and 10 strikeouts over 8.0 scoreless frames in a 7-0 win on August 30...Retired the final 10 batters he faced...Started Game 2 of the Northern Division Championship Series on September 4 at Trenton...Gave up 3 runs on 6 hits and one walk with 9 K's in 6.0 innings...Departed with the score tied at 3-3 and did not figure in the Sea Dogs' 4-3 loss.

ARIZONA FALL LEAGUE: Made 5 starts for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League, going 1-2 with a 3.86 ERA...Fanned 17 and walked 9 in 21.0 innings of work...Allowed one hit and one walk and struck out 4 over 5.0 scoreless innings in a 13-1 win at Surprise on October 16.

SUMMARY: Advanced from Double-A Portland to the major leagues, pitching a no-hitter in his 2nd big league appearance...Earned Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Year honors for the 2nd straight season after combining to go 8-5 with a 2.44 ERA and 171 strikeouts in 125.1 innings in 24 games (23 starts) at Portland and Triple-A Pawtucket...Defeated the Los Angeles Angels in a spot start in his major league debut on August 17 before going 2-1, 0.54 in 3 September appearances, including the first no-hitter ever by a Boston rookie.

MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT: Purchased from Pawtucket on August 17 and started day game of split doubleheader vs. the Angels at Fenway Park...Issued 8 hits and 4 runs (3 ER) in 6.0 innings in an 8-4 victory...At 23 years, 3 days old, was the youngest Sox pitcher to win his debut as a starter since Juan Pena on May 8, 1999 (21 years, 315 days)...Optioned to Pawtucket following that game.

NO-HITTER: Returned to Boston on September 1 and authored one of the top pitching performances in Sox history that night vs. Baltimore at Fenway Park...Threw a complete-game, no-hit, 10-0 victory in just his 2nd major league start...Allowed 4 baserunners: hit by pitch to Nick Markakis in the first and walks to Kevin Millar and Aubrey Huff in the 5th and Brian Roberts in the 6th...Retired the final 11 batters in 115-pitch gem and recorded 9 K's...Highlights of the performance:

--Was the 17th official no-hitter in franchise history and the first since Derek Lowe, April 27, 2002 versus Tampa Bay at Fenway Park...Was one of 3 no-hitters in majors in 2007: Chicago's Mark Buehrle (April 18 vs. Texas) and Detroit's Justin Verlander (June 12 vs. Milwaukee).

--Was the 21st major league rookie and first in Red Sox history to pitch a no-hitter, first since Florida's Anibal Sanchez, September 6, 2006 vs. Arizona and first A.L. rookie since Chicago's Wilson Alvarez, August 11, 1991 also vs. Baltimore.

--Was the 3rd pitcher since 1900 to throw a no-hitter in either his first or 2nd major league start, the 2nd pitcher to throw one in his 2nd major league game, joining Wilson Alvarez in 1991...Bobo Holloman threw a no-hitter in his first career start for the St. Louis Browns, May 6, 1953 vs. the Philadelphia A's but had pitched in relief prior to that start.

--At 23 years, 18 days, only Joe Wood (21 years, 277 days - July 29, 1911 vs. SLB) and Dave Morehead (23 years, 11 days - September 16, 1965 vs. CLE) threw no-hitters for Boston at a younger age.

Became the first Red Sox rookie pitcher to win each of his first 2 major league starts since Juan Pena, May 8 and 14, 1999...His no-hitter was selected as the top single game performance in 2007 in fan balloting in mlb.com's This Year in Baseball Awards.

SCORELESS STREAK: Worked 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in his next appearance to win at Baltimore on September 6...Matched the longest relief outing by a Red Sox pitcher in 2007...Extended his scoreless innings streak to 16.0 in start on September 19 at Toronto before permitting 2 runs in the 5th...Took his 1st major league loss in that game, issuing 5 hits and 2 runs in 4.2 innings.

Did not pitch after that start and was officially shut down for the remainder of the regular season and postseason on September 28 due to fatigue in his pitching shoulder...Held major league batters to a .184 average, .133 (4-30) vs. righthanders and .217 (10-46) against lefthanders.

MINOR LEAGUES: Led all of Minor League Baseball with an average of 12.34 K's per 9 innings and finished 4th in strikeouts at 171...Had the 5th-lowest opponents batting average at .191...Won the Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Year award and shared the club's Minor League Player of the Year honors with Jacoby Ellsbury in balloting of Boston BBWAA chapter...Listed as the No. 2 overall prospect, the top pitcher, in the Red Sox system, according to Baseball America.

WITH PORTLAND: Spent the first half of the season with the Sea Dogs and was leading Eastern League with a 1.77 ERA and 116 strikeouts at the time of his promotion to Pawtucket...Was 7-2 in 16 games/15 starts for Portland, and closed out his stay at the Double-A level with a 6-game/5-start unbeaten stretch from June 8-July 4, going 5-0 with a 1.91 ERA (6 ER/28.1 IP) in that time...Lost once in his final 15 outings (14 starts), going 7-1 with a 1.54 ERA (14 ER/82.0 IP)...Averaged 12.0 K's per 9 innings (116 K's/86.2 IP), while holding Eastern League hitters to a .180 batting average...Fanned 11 or more in 4 starts, including a career-high 12 over 5.2 innings on June 14 vs. Erie...Struck out a franchise-record 8 consecutive batters on May 11 vs. Binghamton...Worked 1.1 relief innings to earn the win in his final game with the Sea Dogs on June 4 at New Britain.

Pitched for USA Team in 2007 XM Satellite Radio All-Star Futures Game at AT&T Park in San Francisco on July 8...Fanned 2 and allowed a homer in 1.0 relief inning...Selected to play in Eastern League All-Star Game but did not pitch...Was Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May after going 2-0 with a 1.50 ERA (6 ER/36.0 IP) and 51 strikeouts in 6 starts...Named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for June 25-July 1, going 1-0 with a 0.79 ERA (1 ER/11.1 IP) in 2 starts.

WITH PAWTUCKET: Promoted to Pawtucket on July 12 and went 1-3 with a 3.96 ERA (17 ER/38.2 IP) in 8 starts, going 0-2 with a 6.48 ERA (6 ER/8.1 IP) in 2 starts after an August 17 option from Boston...Averaged 12.8 K's per 9 innings (55 K's/38.2 IP)...Fanned 9 or more in 4 of his 8 Triple-A starts...International League batters managed just a .221 batting average (32-145) against Buchholz...Struck out 9 over 5.0 innings to earn his first Triple-A win on August 12 at Syracuse.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2006: Named the Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Year, going 11-4 with a 2.42 ERA (32 ER/119.0 IP) in 24 starts at Single-A Greenville and Single-A Wilmington...Led Sox farm hands with 140 strikeouts, averaging 10.6 per 9 innings, and tied for lead with 11 wins...After August 15 promotion to Greenville, named the Carolina League's Pitcher of the Week for August 21-27, with 10 K's in 6.0 scoreless frames in an August 24 win vs. Myrtle Beach...Was Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Month, going 5-0 with a 1.14 ERA (4 ER/31.2 IP) and 43 K's in 6 August starts...Gave up one run in 6.0 innings with 10 strikeouts to win his only playoff start for Wilmington on September 6 at Frederick.

2005: Was 0-1 with a 2.61 ERA in 15 starts in his pro debut with short-season Single-A Lowell...Fanned 45 and walked 9 in 41.1 frames, an average of 9.8 K's and 1.96 walks per 9 innings...Held opponents to a .219 batting average, including a .222 mark by lefties and a .217 mark by righties...Ranked 3rd in the New York-Penn League with 15 starts...Finished his season strong, striking out 8 batters in 3.0 scoreless innings September 1 vs. Vermont and fanning 6 in 4.0 shutout frames September 6 at Oneonta...Was the 42nd overall player selected in the June Draft, taken by Boston with a sandwich pick between the 1st and 2nd rounds as compensation for free agent Pedro Martinez.

PERSONAL

Selected as the 2005 Region 14-East Conference Player of the Year for Angelina (TX) Junior College, going 12-1 with a 1.05 ERA (10 ER/85.2 IP) in 15 starts...Earned 1st team all-district and all-state honors...Fanned 129 batters in 85.2 innings, an average of 13.6 strikeouts per 9 innings...Also saw time in the outfield...Helped lead the Roadrunners to a No. 11 ranking in the National Junior College Athletic Association...Was scheduled to play for Weatherford in the Texas Collegiate Summer League before signing with Boston...Attended Lumberton (TX) High School.

SUMMARY: Spent the majority of the year with Triple-A Pawtucket but had 2 stints with the major league club from June 3-5 and then from September 8 through the end of the season.

MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT: Made his major league debut on June 5 against Tampa Bay at Fenway Park... Entered the game as a pinch runner for Coco Crisp, who was ejected for charging the mound after he was beamed by Rays starter James Shields to lead off the 2nd inning...Collected his first major league hit off Grant Balfour in the 4th and went 2-for-3 with 2 runs in the game...Was optioned back to Pawtucket after the game...Rejoined the Red Sox on September 8 and appeared in 8 games (2 starts), going 4-for-15 with 3 runs scored and 3 RBI the rest of the way.

WITH PAWTUCKET: Batted .300 (141-for-470) with 24 homers and 81 RBI in 121 games with Triple-A Pawtucket...Ranked among International League leaders in batting average (12th), home runs (7th), RBI (9th) and slugging percentage (9th, .515)...Was one of a record 5 PawSox selected to the IL All-Star Team... Started as designated hitter and went 1-for-5 with a 2-run homer in the bottom of the 9th inning...Was also one of 4 Pawtucket players named post-season All-Stars, joining Jeff Bailey, Joe Thurston and Charlie Zink in representing the team on both squads.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Had a 5-hit game (5-for-6) at Indianapolis on April 18...Hit the PawSox first walk-off home run of the season on May 10 vs. Norfolk...Homed in 4 straight games from May 28-31, the first PawSox batter to do so since Justin Sherrod in 2005...Had 11 RBI and no homers in his first 31 contests but batted .314 (111-for-354) after May 7 with 24 long balls and 70 RBI in 90 games... Hit .339 (41-for-121) with 5 doubles, a triple, 5 homers and 16 RBI over his final 29 regular season contests including a 7-game hitting streak to end the season, going 12-for-29 (.414) with a double and 3 RBI in that span...Went 2-for-15 (.133) in 4 playoff games for the PawSox.

SUMMARY: Was acquired by the Red Sox on August 21, 2007 from Washington to complete the trade that sent OF Wily Mo Pena to the Nationals on August 17...Carter was sent to Boston immediately after being acquired by Washington from the Arizona Diamondbacks for RHP Emiliano Fruto...Batted .234 with one homer and 4 RBI in 12 games after joining the PawSox...Prior to the trade, had spent the entire season at Arizona's Triple-A Tucson club, batting .324 with 18 homers and 84 RBI in 126 games...Despite being traded, still finished 5th in the Pacific Coast League in doubles (39) and ranked 6th in batting average and hits (163)...Carter, the PCL Player of the Week for April 16-22, was a non-roster invitee to Arizona's major league spring training camp.

WINTER BALL: Played winter ball for La Guaira in Venezuela with a .336 average, 3 homers and 27 RBI in 41 games...Would have ranked 3rd in the league in batting but did not have enough plate appearances to qualify.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Boston's first pick in the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, Ellsbury spent his first full season at the major league level in 2008, just the 4th professional campaign of his career...Received 26 points and finished 3rd in A.L. Rookie of the Year voting conducted by the BBWAA behind Tampa Bay's Evan Longoria (140 points) and Chicago's Alexei Ramirez (59 points)...Reached the majors in 2007, helping Boston to a World Series title.

STOP! THIEF!: Led the American League with 50 steals in 2008, the 3rd-highest single-season total in Red Sox history behind Tommy Harper (54 in 1973) and Tris Speaker (52 in 1912)...Also tied for the 5th all-time among A.L. rookies...Was the first rookie to lead his league in that category since Ichiro Suzuki in 2001 (56).

FLAWLESS IN THE FIELD: Has not made an error in 175 games and 411 chances in his major league career, the 2nd-longest overall outfield errorless streak in team history behind Mike Greenwell's 178 games (1993-94) and Coco Crisp's 429 chances (2006-07)...Did not commit an error in 142 games and 336 total chances in 2008, the first rookie qualifying outfielder in major league history with a 1.000 fielding percentage in a season.

IN THE POSTSEASON: Owns a .268 (15-for-57) batting average with 11 RBI in 19 career playoff games, 13 starts...Has 8 games (0 starts) in left field, 11 (11 starts) in center, and 3 (2 starts) in right...Ranks 2nd in club post-season history with 5 steals, trailing Johnny Damon (8)...Is also tied for 6th with 7 doubles.

2008: Hit .188 (6-for-32) with 7 RBI in 8 playoff games in 2008...The 7 RBI were the 3rd-most ever by a Sox rookie behind Dustin Pedroia (10 in 2007) and Fred Lynn (8 in 1975)...Hit safely in each of the first 3 games of the ALDS vs. the Angels, going 6-for-14 (.429)...Went 3-for-5 with a double, RBI, run and 2 steals from the leadoff spot in Game 1...Was the 4th Red Sox ever to steal 2 bases in a post-season game joining Jimmy Collins (1903 WS G2), Harry Hooper (1912 WS G2) and Juan Beniquez (1975 ALCS G1)...Went 2-for-5 with a double, run and a post-season career-high 3 RBI in Game 3...Drove in all 3 runs on a bloop single to center field in the 2nd inning, the first 3-run single in major league playoff history...Went hitless over his next 20 at-bats, including an 0-for-14 slide in the ALCS against Tampa Bay...Did not appear in Boston's final 3 playoff contests of 2008.

2007: Appeared in 11 post-season games in 2007, including the start in each of Boston's final 6 contests...Batted .360 (9-25) with 4 doubles, 4 RBI, 8 runs, 3 walks and 2 stolen bases...His 4 doubles all came in the World Series, 2 shy of the most doubles ever in a single World Series by a rookie (6), established by Detroit's Pete Fox in 1934...All 6 of his starts came in center field, but also saw action at both of the corner outfield positions in the playoffs.

Combined to go 6-for-9 with 4 doubles, 2 RBI and 3 runs in Games 3 and 4 of the World Series, his only 2 starts of the postseason from the leadoff spot in the order...That included going 4-for-5 with 3 doubles, 2 RBI and 2 runs in Game 3 on October 27 at Coors Field...Became the 3rd rookie ever to collect 4 hits in a post-season game, joining Fred Lindstrom (1924 Game 5 for NY Giants) and Joe Garagiola (1946 Game 4 for STL)...His 3 doubles tied for 2nd most ever in a WS game behind Frank Isbell (CWS) on October 13, 1906...Had 2 doubles in the 3rd inning, the 2nd player in SUMMARY: In his first full big league season, led the A.L. in steals (50) and ranked among league leaders in infield hits (3rd, 34), bunt hits (T4th, 10), triples (T6th, 7), and runs (T12th, 98)...Topped the club in triples, was 2nd in at-bats (554) and runs, tied for 2nd in games (145), and 3rd in hits (155)...Started 63 games in center field, 36 in left, and 30 in right without an error in 336 chances.

ROOKIES CLASS: Led all rookies in at-bats, runs and steals and matched Minnesota's Denard Span and San Francisco's Eugenio Velez for the most triples...Led A.L. rookies in games, hits and multi-hit games (40), was 3rd in total bases (218), 5th in walks (41), and 7th in extra-base hits (38)...Had the most games, at-bats, runs and triples for a Red Sox rookie since Nomar Garciaparra in 1997 (153 G, 684 AB, 122 R, 11 3B).

STEAL CITY: His 50 steals were 3rd most in Red Sox history behind Tommy Harper (54) in 1973 and Tris Speaker (52) in 1912...Were 3rd most in the majors trailing Colorado's Willy Taveras (68) and the New York Mets' Jose Reyes (56)...Was the first Boston player to lead A.L. in steals since Harper in 1973 and just the 2nd in the last 54 years (beginning 1955)...Was the first rookie to top his league in stolen bases since Seattle's Ichiro Suzuki (56) in 2001...Were most steals by ML rookie since Florida's Hanley Ramirez (51) in 2006, most in A.L. since Ichiro in 2001...Was 20th rookie in ML history with 50+ SB...Finished 7th in the A.L. with an 82.0 percent success rate (50 of 61).

Set a club record with 14 multi-steal games, tying Taveras for the major league lead...Stole 3 bases each in consecutive games, May 30-31 at Baltimore, the most in one game for a Red Sox since Jerry Remy's club record 4 on June 14, 1980...Was the first Sox player with as many as 6 swipes in consecutive games since research is first available in 1954...Tied for the ML lead with 18 steals in May, matching the most for a Red Sox in a single month since 1954 (Harper in September 1973).

Succeeded in season's first 16 attempts before being caught on May 18 vs. Milwaukee...Ended a string of 25 successful tries to start his career, longest ever by a Red Sox and longest in the majors since Montreal's Tim Lincecum went 27-for-27 from 1979-81...Stole 35 bases in first 39 attempts through July 1, then went 25 games without a theft through August 4...Had 2 steals in last 12 games...Was 8-for-10 in steal tries of 3rd...4 of 11 caught stealings came on pitcher pickoffs.

WITH THE BAT: Was 7-for-33 (.212) in season's first 15 games before hitting at a .321 (36-for-112) clip over next 30 games, improving to .297 through May 23...Batted .244 (53-for-217) in next 35 contests, improving to .258 on August 12...Had a .315 (56-for-178) average in his final 44 games.

Hit safely in final 18 games beginning September 10 at .370 (30-for-81)...Was the longest hitting streak by a major league rookie since Anaheim's Robb Quinlan (21) in 2004 and the longest by a Red Sox first year player since Garciaparra's club-record 30-gamer in 1997...Finished the year with the longest active streak in the majors.

His 34 infield hits were the most by a Red Sox since Johnny Damon (37) in 2002...Homed twice on April 22 vs. the Angels with first-inning leadoff homers in that game, May 21 against Kansas City, and September 26 vs. New York...Went deep in back-to-back games, August 6 and 9.

FIELDING: Did not make an error in 140 games and 336 total chances, the first rookie qualifying outfielder ever with a 1.000 fielding percentage in a season...Had the 2nd most chances without an error of any major league outfielder behind the Angels' Torii Hunter (353)...Established club record for consecutive errorless outfield chances in a season and tied Carl Yastrzemski (1977) for most consecutive errorless games in a year...Damon held the total chances mark at 307 in 2002.

Has not made an error in 173 games and 410 chances in his major league career, the 2nd longest overall outfield errorless streaks in team history to 178 games for Mike Greenwell, 1993-94 and 429 chances for Coco Crisp, 2006-07.

BY THE NUMBERS: Was Boston's primary leadoff hitter, batting .272 (135-for-497) in 115 games in the top spot...Hit .277 (38-for-137) with runners in scoring position...Has reached base safely via a hit, walk, or HBP in 141 of 168 ML games with a plate appearance.

TOP PROSPECT: Entered 2008 as the No. 2 prospect overall and the No. 1 position player in the

IN THE MAJORS: Advanced from Double-A Portland to Triple-A Pawtucket before making his major league debut over 3 stints with Boston...Hit safely in 27 of his 32 big league games with an at-bat, including a 13-game hitting streak from September 1-15, during which he hit .426 (20-47)...Reached base via hit, walk, or hit-by-pitch in 29 of 32 overall Red Sox games with a plate appearance, including 26 straight games from July 2-September 26...Had the A.L.'s 10th-highest batting average for September at .361 (35-for-97), tied for 4th with 8 steals, and tied for 9th in hits...Hit safely 23 of 26 games after final recall from Triple-A Pawtucket on September 1 with 6 doubles, a triple, 3 homers, 17 RBI, 16 runs, and 8 steals...Homed 3 times in 116 major league at-bats after producing just 2 homers in 436 minor league at-bats all year...Went 9-for-9 in stolen base attempts with the Sox, the first Boston player to be successful in as many as his first 9 major league steal attempts since Nomar Garciaparra in 1996-97...Went 6-for-19 (.316) in 7 games over his first 2 stints (June 30-July 5; August 17) with Boston.

IN THE MINORS: Combined to bat .323 with 82 runs, 2 homers, 41 RBI, and 41 stolen bases in 104 games with Portland and Pawtucket...Led all Red Sox minor leaguers in stolen bases and ranked 4th in batting average...After hitting .452 in 17 games to open the year at Portland, had a .298 average with 33 stolen bases, tied for the International League lead at the time, in 87 games with the PawSox...Set a Pawtucket record with a 25-game hitting streak from July 21-August 30...Hit safely in 38 of 40 overall games between Pawtucket and Boston from July 21-September 15.

STREAKING SUCCESS: His 13-game hitting streak was the longest by a Red Sox rookie outfielder since Jim Rice (13) in 1975...Tied for the 2nd longest streak by a major league rookie in 2007, one shy of Dustin Pedroia's 14-game run from May 19-June 4...Was the first time 2 Sox rookies had hitting streaks of 13 or more games in the same season since Fred Lynn (20) and Rice (13) in 1975.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS WITH BOSTON: Appeared in 22 games (15 starts) in left field, 16 games (12 starts) in center and made one start in right...Batted in every spot in the order except 3rd and 5th, with most of his action coming out of the leadoff spot (13 games)...Originally had his contract purchased on June 30, when Joel Pineiro was placed on the disabled list...Made his major league debut that night vs. Texas, collecting an infield single in the 3rd inning off Robinson Tejeda for his first major league hit...Went 6-for-16 (.375) in 6 games before being optioned back to Pawtucket on July 5...Was recalled in between games of a doubleheader on August 17...Played the night game vs. the Angels before being optioned again after the game...Stayed with Boston for the remainder of the season after being recalled again on September 1...His first major league home run was a solo shot off Daniel Cabrera on September 2 vs. Baltimore...Fell a double shy of the cycle on September 4 vs. Toronto, going 3-for-3 with 2 RBI and a stolen base...Also matched his season high with 3 hits in the final game of the regular season, September 30 vs. Minnesota.

HONOR ROLL: Earned American League Rookie of the Month honors for September 2007, his first full month in the majors...Also named Red Sox Minor League Defensive Player of the Year and Baserunner of the Year, receiving both awards for the 2nd straight season...Selected to play for the U.S. Team in the 9th annual Major League All-Star Futures Game on July 8, 2007 in San Francisco...In 2006, was honored as the Red Sox Minor League Player of the Year by the Boston chapter of the BBWAA and repeated as a co-winner with Clay Buchholz in 2007.

WITH PAWTUCKET: Promoted to Boston for the 3rd and final time the day after his 25-game Pawtucket hitting streak was snapped...Departed in a 3-way tie for the IL lead with 33 steals...In 87 games with Pawtucket, hit .298 with 14 doubles, 5 triples, 2 home runs, 28 RBI, and 33 steals in 39 attempts...Played 84 of his 87 games in the outfield (65 in center, 12 in left, and 7 in right) and batted exclusively out of the leadoff spot...His 25-game streak started on July 21, was then interrupted by disabled list stint due to a groin strain, and continued from August 5-30...Eclipsed the previous franchise-record 19-game hitting streaks by Dave Stapleton in 1979 and Dave Berg in 2005...Batted .377 (40-for-106) during his streak, the 2nd longest in the IL in 2007 behind only Brandon Watson of Columbus, who put together a 43-game hitting streak earlier in the season.

WITH PORTLAND: Hit .452 with 13 RBI in 17 games for the Sea Dogs...At the time of his May 4 promotion to Pawtucket, had the highest batting average in minor league baseball and produced a 19-game hitting streak from April 11-May 7 with the 2 teams...Was selected as the April Player of the Month in both the Eastern League and the Red Sox minor league system...Hit .455 (30-for-66) with 10 doubles, 2 triples, 12 RBI, 13 runs and 6 steals in 15 April games with Portland.

SUMMARY: Made 4 appearances for the Red Sox in September but pitched most of the 2008 season for Triple-A Pawtucket...Was 6-10 with a 4.08 ERA (63 ER/139.0 IP) in 25 starts for the PawSox... Finished 4th in the Red Sox minor league system and 5th in the International League with 128 strikeouts and 5th with a 1.18 WHIP (41 BB, 123 H/139.0 IP)...Lost a minor-league career-high 10 games while his 6 wins represented his lowest total since 2002 with Single-A Tri-City.

IN THE MAJORS: Made all 4 of his 2008 appearances with Boston in relief...Tossed 3.0 perfect frames on September 13 vs. Toronto, his first big league outing since September 8, 2007 at Baltimore and the 6th of his career...Earned his 2nd career win on September 28 vs. the Yankees (G2), the final game of the regular season...Tossed a scoreless 10th and picked up the victory as Jonathan Van Every hit a walk-off single with the bases loaded in the bottom of that frame.

IN THE MINORS: Tied for 4th in the IL with 2 complete games...Went the distance in a 7-1 win at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on May 18 (G1), allowing one run on 6 hits and 2 walks while fanning 5 over 7.0 innings...Duplicated the feat on July 18, topping Toledo 6-1 in Pawtucket, giving up one run on 2 hits with 8 K's and no walks over 7.0 frames...Pitched 25.0 consecutive shutout innings from June 13-July 4, a span that included 3 scoreless starts, 2 of which led to Pitcher of the Week honors for the period ending June 29...Had 82 K's in 80.0 innings over his last 13 regular season starts, going 4-2 with a 2.70 ERA (24 ER/80.0 IP) in that time...Went 6.0 hitless innings in Pawtucket's only playoff win vs. Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on September 4 at McCoy Stadium.

SUMMARY: Was 10-7 with a 3.61 ERA in 25 games (23 starts) for Triple-A Pawtucket, leading the team in wins, innings (139.2) and K's (131)...Went 0-1 with a 4.70 ERA in 3 games (one start) over 3 stints with Boston (May 3-11; May 19; September 4-end of season)...Won 9 of his last 10 decisions for Pawtucket...Was 1-0 in 5 relief outings for Aguilas of the Dominican Winter League.

WITH PAWTUCKET: Ranked 2nd in the IL in strikeouts and finished 8th in ERA...Named IL Player of the Week for June 18-24, going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA (3 ER/14.0 IP) and 13 K's in 2 starts...Took a perfect game into the 8th inning on June 23 at Louisville, retiring his first 21 batters faced...Went 9-2 with a 3.31 ERA (37 ER/100.2 IP) in his final 18 games (16 starts) beginning June 1...Fanned 10 or more in a start 3 times, including a season-high 11 K's on August 19 vs. Syracuse.

WITH BOSTON: First recalled on May 3 and made one relief appearance on May 8 at Toronto (1 ER/0.2 IP) before being optioned back on May 11...Recalled again on May 19 and started the night game of a doubleheader vs. Atlanta, taking the loss after allowing 4 runs (3 earned) on 6 hits in 4.0 innings...Was optioned back after the game...Joined the Red Sox again after the conclusion of the minor league season and pitched 3.0 scoreless innings on September 8 at Baltimore, matching the longest relief appearance of the season by a Red Sox...Was his lone appearance after his final recall.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2006: Joined the Red Sox organization after a 2-year absence from professional baseball and earned Pitcher of the Year honors for Double-A Portland...Won 2 games in the Sea Dogs' Eastern League championship series victory...Promoted to Boston and went 1-1 in 2 starts, including a 5-inning, no-hit complete game win vs. Baltimore, 9-0, on the final day of the season, October 1 at Fenway Park...Fanned 6 and allowed one baserunner, a 2nd-inning walk to Fernando Tatis, who was then erased on a double play...Retired his final 10 batters faced and threw just 61 pitches...The game was delayed 3:23 at the start due to rain before beginning at 5:28 p.m...Play was suspended at 7:05 p.m. because of rain, and the game was officially called at 7:46 p.m...Was a complete game and a shutout but not considered an official no-hitter under baseball rules amended in 1991 to indicate that a no-hitter must go at least 9 innings...Was the 24th no-hitter of less than 9 innings since 1900, the 11th in the A.L. and first since Boston's Matt Young's 8.0 hitless frames in a 2-1 CG loss on April 12,

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Spent most of his 2nd full season in the Red Sox organization with Triple-A Pawtucket but closed out the season in Boston after having his contract purchased on September 8...Made his major league debut in the first game of a doubleheader on September 13 against Toronto at Fenway Park...Replaced Jason Varitek as catcher in the 7th inning and scored Boston's only run in the 8-1 loss...Went 0-for-2 at the plate...Struck out in his first career at-bat but advanced to first on A.J. Burnett's wild 3rd strike...Collected his first major league hit on September 26, a double in the 5th inning off New York's Phil Coke.

OH, CANADA: Became the 22nd native Canadian to appear in a game for the Red Sox, the first to make his big league debut for Boston since Adam Stern in 2005...Is the 3rd Canadian catcher in Sox history, joining Art McGovern (1905) and Frank Owens (1905).

WITH PAWTUCKET: Hit .243 (96-for-395) in 107 games for Triple-A Pawtucket...Tied for 9th in the International League with a career-high 22 home runs, surpassing his previous best of 11 set in 2005...Matched the career-high set in 2006 with 65 RBI, tops among IL catchers...Went 12-for-30 (.400) with 3 doubles and a homer to end the regular-season following an 0-for-22 skid...Was 55-for-198 (.278) over his final 51 regular season games with 10 doubles, 13 homers and 34 RBI in that span...Homered twice in a game on 2 occasions, June 25 vs. Richmond and April 14 at Louisville...Ended the PawSox' longest game of the year with a 13th-inning, walk-off single vs. Louisville on June 12...Started 70 games at catcher and 33 as the designated hitter...Threw out 15 of 80 (19%) of attempted basestealers.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Went 0-for-8 in 3 post-season games for Pawtucket...Batted .308 (8-for-26) with 2 RBI in 10 games for the Azucareros del Este of the Dominican Winter League...Was 8-for-19 (.421) with 4 doubles over his final 6 winter league contests...Hit .313 (5-for-16) with a home run and 4 RBI in 12 spring training games for Boston.

SUMMARY: Spent his first full season in the Red Sox organization with Triple-A Pawtucket, batting .241 with 9 homers and 39 RBI in 87 games...Appeared in 83 games behind the plate and 4 as a pinch-hitter...Had most of his success after the All-Star break, hitting .318 (35-110) as opposed to a .196 (36-184) mark before the break...Hit safely in 14 of his first 15 games, including each of his first 8 contests, after the break, batting .382 (21-55) with 7 doubles, 3 home runs, 12 RBI and 12 runs scored in those 15 games...Threw out 23 of 114 attempted basestealers (20%).

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Batted .292 (21-72) against lefties and .225 (50-222) against righties, but hit 8 of his 9 home runs against righthanders...Fared better on the road, batting .309 (42-136) compared to a .184 (29-158) mark at McCoy Stadium...Hit .323 (21-65) when leading off an inning, but hit just .172 (15-87) with runners in scoring position...Had 2 walk-off home runs: a 3-run blast off Brian Sanches in a 6-5 win over Ottawa on June 11 and a solo shot off Jeff Bennett in a 4-3 win over Richmond on June 16...Was 0-for-13 in 10 spring training games with Boston.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2006: Acquired from San Diego on September 5, Kottaras was added that day to Boston's 40-man roster and assigned to Double-A Portland, where he helped lead the Sea Dogs to the Eastern League championship...Prior to the trade, combined for a .255 average with 10 homers and 50 RBI in 111 games at Double-A Mobile (Southern League) and Triple-A Portland (Pacific Coast League)...Named to the Southern League mid-season All-Star Team and played for the World Team in the 2006 MLB All-Star Futures Game on July 9...Went 8-for-29 (.276) with 2 doubles, 2 home runs, 8 RBI, 5 runs and 6 walks in 8 games for the Sea Dogs in the EL playoffs...In his first game with the Sea Dogs in the Northern Division championship on September 7 at Trenton, walked in his first plate appearance and then homered in his first official at-bat, a 2-run shot in

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: One season removed from successfully completing his comeback from a battle with lymphoma, the winner of Boston’s 2007 decisive Game 4 World Series victory at Colorado authored some of the most memorable performances of 2008: no-hitting the Orioles on May 4, tossing a complete-game shutout at Yankee Stadium on July 3, and pitching the club to within a game of its 2nd World Series berth in as many seasons.

WINNING WAYS: Owns a 27-8 record in 60 career games, 59 starts, for a .771 winning percentage, the highest mark since 1900 among major leaguers with at least 30 decisions...Is the 3rd-highest winning percentage ever by a pitcher with at least 30 decisions in his first 3 big league seasons behind Juan Guzman (.784) and King Cole (.780).

UNHITTABLE: Threw the 18th no-hitter in club history to beat Kansas City, 7-0, on May 19 at Fenway Park...Was the first no-hitter by a lefthanded Sox hurler since Mel Parnell’s on July 14, 1956 vs. Chicago and the 5th overall, joining Parnell, Dutch Leonard (August 30, 1916 vs. SLB and June 3, 1918 at DET) and Jesse Tannehill (August 17, 1904 at CWS)...Became the 4th southpaw ever to toss a no-no at Fenway Park, joining Parnell, Leonard and New York’s George Mogridge (April 24, 1917) and at 24 years, 133 days old, was the youngest lefty ever to accomplish the feat.

HUTCH AWARD: Given the 2008 Hutch Award by the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in a ceremony at Safeco Field in Seattle on January 21, 2009...The award was established in 1965 to honor baseball great Fred Hutchinson, who died of cancer the previous year at age 45...The award is given annually to a Major League Baseball player who best exemplifies “Hutch’s” fighting spirit and competitive desire...Joins Carl Yastrzemski (1967), Tony Conigliaro (1970), Andre Dawson (1994) and Mark Loretta (2006) as the 5th Red Sox player to receive the honor.

IN THE POSTSEASON: Is 2-2 with a 2.25 ERA (9 ER/36.0 IP) in 7 career playoff games...Owns a 1.95 ERA (7 ER/32.1 IP) in his 5 starts, the 3rd-lowest career mark ever by a Red Sox starter with at least 30.0 post-season innings behind Babe Ruth (0.87) and Ernie Shore (1.82)...Ranks 24th all-time among pitchers with at least 30.0 career post-season frames and 10th among lefties on that list.

Went 1-2 with a 2.36 ERA (7 ER/26.2 IP) in the 2008 postseason, leading the Red Sox with 4 starts, 26.2 innings and 26 K’s...Did not allow an earned run in 14.0 innings in the Division Series, the 2nd-highest total ever behind Jerry Reuss’ 18.0 frames in 1981...Took the hill in Game 1 of the ALDS against the Angels in Los Angeles and allowed one unearned run on 6 hits and one walk while fanning 7 over 7.0 innings to earn the 4-1 victory...Became the first Sox lefty to start and win Game 1 of a playoff series since Bruce Hurst beat the Mets in Game 1 of the 1986 World Series... Did not earn a decision in Boston's 3-2 walk-off win in Game 4 of the ALDS despite allowing 4 hits with 2 walks and 4 K's over 7.0 scoreless frames.

Set playoff career highs allowing 5 runs (4 earned) and 8 hits over 5.2 innings in a 9-1 loss to the Rays in Game 3 of the ALCS...Gave up a 3-run homer to B.J. Upton in the 3rd to snap a string of 24.2 consecutive scoreless frames in the postseason dating back to Game 2 of the 2007 ALCS...Started Game 7 of the ALCS at Tampa Bay and gave up 3 runs on 6 hits and fanned 8 over 7.0 innings but took the 3-1 loss.

Made 3 post-season appearances (one start) for Boston in 2007, including the start and win in the decisive Game 4 of the World Series at Colorado on October 28...Went 5.2 shutout innings, allowing 3 hits and 3 walks with 3 strikeouts...Became the 4th straight Sox starter to win a game in the World Series.

Went 3.0 scoreless relief innings in Game 4 of the ALCS at Cleveland and combined to work 8.2 shutout frames in his final 2 post-season outings...Gave up 2 runs in 0.2 innings in his playoff debut in Game 2 of the ALCS at Fenway Park...Was eligible for the ALDS but did not pitch.

LEADING THE WAY: Spent his first full season in the majors, setting career highs and ranking among A.L. leaders in wins (T7th, 16), starts (T5th, 33), complete games (T9th, 2), shutouts (T1st, 2), innings (7th, 210.1) and ERA (4th, 3.21)...Was 4th in the A.L. with a .727 winning percentage... Named the Red Sox Pitcher of the Year by the Boston chapter of the BBWAA...Was the first lefty to get the honor since Bruce Hurst in 1988.

SOUTHPAW SPECIAL: Finished 3rd among A.L. lefties with 16 wins behind Cliff Lee (22) and Joe Saunders (17)...Were the most by a Red Sox lefthander since Bruce Hurst's 18 in 1988...Was 6th among southpaws with 210.1 innings, 3rd in the A.L. behind Lee (223.1) and Chicago's Mark Buehrle (218.2)...Frank Viola was the last lefthanded Sox pitcher with more innings in a season with 238.0 in 1992... Lester's 3.21 ERA (75 ER/210.1 IP) was the lowest among that group since Viola's 3.14 mark (64 ER/183.2 IP) in 1993.

Became the 3rd left-handed Red Sox pitcher ever to reach 15 wins, 30 starts, 200.0 innings, 150 strikeouts and a sub-3.50 ERA in a single season joining Babe Ruth (1916) and Lefty Grove (1937).

HOME SWEET HOME: Went 11-1 in 17 starts at Fenway Park, tied with Mike Mussina and Mark Buehrle for the A.L. lead in home victories, tied for 2nd in the majors behind Ryan Dempster (14-3)...His 2.49 (32 ER/115.2 IP) home ERA was the 2nd-lowest in the A.L. behind Lee (2.45) and 6th in the majors.

Fell to Detroit, 7-2, on April 9, his first home start of the season, before going undefeated over his next 16 Fenway outings, posting an 11-0 record and 2.28 ERA (28 ER/110.1 IP) in that span, the longest home winning streak in the majors since Johan Santana went 17-0 over 24 home starts from August 6, 2005-April 2, 2007...Is the longest streak by a Red Sox starter since Jack Kramer won 14 straight home decisions from May 11, 1948-September 13, 1949...Boston won all 14 of his home starts from April 29-September 25, the longest such streak by any Sox starter since 1956.

Went 6.0 innings or more in 14 of his 17 home starts, with 7.0 frames or more in 10 of those contests...Had 13 quality starts at Fenway Park, tied with 9 other Red Sox pitchers for the 3rd most since 1956...Only Frank Sullivan (14 in 1957) and Roger Clemens (14 in 1990) have more in that span...James Shields (15) was the only A.L. pitcher to post more quality starts at home in 2008.

NO-HITTER: Threw the 18th no-hitter in Red Sox history in a 7-0 win vs. Kansas City on May 19 at Fenway Park...Had a season-high 9 strikeouts and allowed just 2 base runners on walks in the 2nd and 9th innings...Retired 20 straight batters between the free passes...Tossed a career-high 130 pitches, tied with Toronto's Roy Halladay (August 9 vs. Cleveland) and Detroit's Justin Verlander (August 6 vs. White Sox) for the highest single-game total in the A.L. in 2008.

Was the first major league no-hitter of the year (also Carlos Zambrano, September 14 vs. HOU at MIL) and Boston's first since Clay Buchholz blanked the Orioles on September 1, 2007...Was the first by a big league lefty since Chicago's Mark Buehrle did it vs. Texas on April 18, 2007...Was just the 2nd no-hitter ever against the Royals, the first since Nolan Ryan's first career no-no, May 15, 1973.

At 24 years, 133 days old, was the majors' youngest lefty to throw a no-hitter since St. Louis' Bud Smith, September 3, 2001 at San Diego, and the youngest lefthander ever to do it at Fenway Park.

Is the 3rd pitcher ever to win the clinching game of a World Series in one year and throw a no-hitter the next...Rube Foster did it for Boston in 1915 and 1916 and Sandy Koufax for the Dodgers in 1963 and 1964...Threw the no-no in Boston's 47th game of the season...The last pitcher to throw a no-hitter for the defending World Series champs earlier in the season was Carl Erskine, who blanked the Giants in the Dodgers' 20th game, May 12, 1956. (Elias Sports Bureau)

SHUTOUTS: Threw a pair of shutouts, his no-hitter on May 19 vs. Kansas City and July 3 against the Yankees in New York...Allowed 5 hits with 2 walks and 9 K's over 9.0 innings for the 7-0 win in that start...Was the first complete-game shutout by a Red Sox pitcher against the Yankees since Pedro Martinez's 4-hitter, May 28, 2000 in the Bronx...Was the 9th shutout by a Sox lefty against New York since 1956, the first at Yankee Stadium since Roger Moret on July 4, 1973.

Tied with Cole Hamels, Cliff Lee and Johan Santana for 2nd among major league lefthanders with 2 shutouts, trailing only C.C. Sabathia with 5...Is the first Sox hurler with 2 or more shutouts in a season since Hideo Nomo (2) in 2001, the club's first lefty with at least 2 since Bruce Hurst (3) in 1987.

GOING STREAKING: Won a career-high 7 straight decisions from June 5-August 2 with a 2.56 ERA (20 ER/70.1IP) in that time, tied with teammate Daisuke Matsuzaka (August 3-September 21) for the 3rd-longest in the A.L. this season...Represented the most consecutive winning decisions by a Red Sox lefty since Bruce Hurst went 7-0 over a span of 8 starts from July 24-August 28, 1988.

Went 7.0 innings or more in 8 straight starts from July 3-August 18, the longest Sox streak since Pedro Martinez made 16 such starts in a row from September 4, 1999 to June 8, 2000...Was the longest such streak by a Sox lefty since Hurst's 8-gamer from August 24-October 1, 1985.

Snapped a career-high 7-game winning streak with a 5-3 loss at Chicago on August 8, his 50th career start, despite allowing 4 runs in 7.0 innings...Was his first ever loss in a start of at least 7.0 innings, ending a string of 13 straight team wins in those outings to begin his career, including 10 in 2008...Since 1956, Jerry Casale is the only other Red Sox pitcher with as many consecutive team wins in starts of at least 7.0 innings to begin his career (13 from April 15-1959 to May 3, 1960).

HONOR ROLL: Named the A.L. Pitcher of the Month for July, going 3-0 with a 2.05 ERA (7 ER/30.2 IP), 28 strikeouts and 6 walks in that period...Was his first ever monthly honor, the first for a Red Sox pitcher since Pedro Martinez in July 2002...Was just the 2nd Sox lefty to win the award, joining Bruce Hurst (September, 1986 and August, 1988)...Took home the honor again for September, the first Boston pitcher with multiple monthly awards in a season since Martinez (4) in 1999.

THE STOPPER: Posted a 5-1 record and 1.41 ERA (10 ER/63.2 IP) in 9 starts following a Red Sox loss, with the team going 7-2 in those contests...Went 5-0 with a 1.01 ERA (5 ER/44.2 IP) over his final 6 such starts from June 17-August 18, including wins in each of the final 4 outings in that stretch...Was 3-0 with a 0.29 ERA (1 ER/31.1 IP) in 4 starts following a series sweep against the Red Sox.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Won the September 8 contest against the Rays, the record-breaking 456th consecutive home sellout at Fenway Park...Departed his August 28 start at Yankee Stadium with 2-0 lead, 2 outs and a runner on 2nd in the 7th inning before reliever Hideki Okajima gave up a game-tying homer to Jason Giambi, the first batter he faced...Turned in his shortest career start on August 23 at Toronto...Allowed 7 runs on 8 hits and 2 walks and struck out 2 over 2.1 innings in the 11-0 loss...Beat Tampa Bay, 7-1 on June 5...Started opposite James Shields who was 1 of 3 players ejected following a bench-clearing brawl in the 2nd inning...Permitted one run on 8 hits and struck out 5 without a walk over 6.1 innings...Earned his first win of the season in his 2nd start, 5-0 on April 2 at Oakland...Held the A's to 3 hits over 6.2 shutout innings with 3 walks and 3 K's...Retired 10 of his last 11 batters faced, including 10 straight before a single by Emil Brown in the 7th...Started Boston's 2nd game of the season, March 26 against Oakland in Tokyo, Japan...Allowed 4 runs on 5 hits and 3 walks and struck out 4 over 4.0 innings...Gave up a 3-run homer to Emil Brown in the 3rd inning and took the 5-1 loss, his first since August 8, 2006, a span of 15 games (14 starts) during which he went 6-0 with a 5.40 ERA (46 ER/76.2 IP).

SUMMARY: Spent the majority of the 2nd half of 2007 with Boston, but also had stints with 3 of the Sox' minor league affiliates while working his way back from lymphoma treatments...Went

3-0 with a 3.64 ERA (17 ER/42.0 IP) in his final 8 games (7 starts) for the Red Sox, including a 2-0 record and 3.34 ERA (11 ER/29.2 IP) in his last 6 times out (5 starts)...Recalled from Triple-A Pawtucket on July 23 for his first major league stint of 2007...Began the year on the disabled list and was sent to Single-A Greenville on rehab assignment on April 5...Made 3 starts for the Drive, posting a 2.08 ERA (3 ER/13.0 IP)...Sent to Pawtucket to continue rehabbing on April 27 and was 0-1, 2.25 (2 ER/8.0 IP) before experiencing muscle cramping in his left forearm on May 2 vs. Indianapolis...Recalled from the rehab assignment after that start and spent the next 2 weeks undergoing treatment before beginning a 2nd rehab stint with the PawSox...Activated from the D.L. on June 11 and optioned to Pawtucket, where he went 4-5 with a 3.89 ERA in 14 starts overall.

ROAD-TESTED: 7 of his 12 major league appearances in 2007 came on the road...Went 3-0 with a 4.73 ERA (21 ER/40.0 IP) on the road and 1-0 with a 4.30 ERA (11 ER/23.0 IP) at Fenway Park...Has gone 5-1 with a 4.60 ERA (37 ER/72.1 IP) in 14 career games (13 starts) at Fenway as opposed to a 6-1 mark and 4.75 ERA (38 ER/72.0 IP) in 13 away starts.

WALK THIS WAY: Issued 3 walks or more in 7 of his 11 major league starts, including a season-high 4 free passes in 4 of his final 6 starts...With 31 walks in 63.0 innings, averaged 4.4 bases on balls per 9 frames...Had 50 strikeouts for an average of 7.1 K's per 9 innings.

PIT-STOP IN PORTLAND: Made one start for Double-A Portland after being optioned from Boston on August 23...Earned the win on August 27 vs. Trenton after allowing just one run on 5 hits in 6.0 innings...Lowered his career ERA with Portland to 2.57, surpassing Marc Valdes (2.59 from 1995-96) for the lowest career mark in franchise history...Was his first Double-A start since winning Game 1 of the EL Championship Series for Portland on September 2, 2005 at Akron.

MORE HIGHLIGHTS: Made his first career major league relief appearance in the final game of the regular season, September 30 vs. Minnesota, tossing 2.0 perfect innings with 2 strikeouts...Fanned a season-high 9 over 4.1 innings on September 26 vs. Oakland, one shy of his career high...Became just the 2nd Red Sox pitcher since 1957 to record 9 or more strikeouts in a start of less than 5.0 innings, joining Hideo Nomo (9 K's in 4.2 IP on August 6, 2001 vs. Texas)...Won his 3rd straight start with 7.0 shutout innings of 4-hit ball on September 7 in Baltimore...The 7.0 innings matched his season high (also August 14 vs. Tampa Bay) and marked his longest shutout performance since 8.0 scoreless innings on July 18, 2006 vs. Kansas City (1 H)...Allowed one run on 2 hits over 7.0 innings on August 14 vs. Tampa Bay, but took a no-decision in Boston's 2-1, walk-off win...Retired his final 12 batters faced...Was his first start at Fenway Park since August 18, 2006 vs. the Yankees...Recalled from Triple-A Pawtucket on July 23 for his first major league stint of 2007...Earned the win that night in Cleveland, his first big league win since August 23, 2006 in Anaheim...Gave up 2 runs on 5 hits in 6.0 innings, walking 3 and striking out 6 in Boston's 6-2 win...Both runs came on a Grady Sizemore homer in the 3rd inning.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS WITH PAWTUCKET: Held International League batters to a .250 average, including identical .250 marks to righties (49-196) and lefties (18-72)...Posted a 1.26 ERA (4 ER/28.2 IP) in his first 6 Triple-A starts through June 4, but had a 5.65 ERA (27 ER/43.0 IP) in his last 8 starts...Had 51 strikeouts and 31 walks in 71.2 Triple-A innings...Won 3 of his last 4 Triple-A starts, posting a 4.12 ERA (11 ER/24.0 IP) in that span.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2006: Went 7-2 with a 4.76 ERA in 15 starts with the Red Sox after his June 10 call-up from Triple-A Pawtucket before seeing his season cut short due to the anaplastic large cell lymphoma diagnosis in late August 2006...After undergoing treatment, was pronounced cancer-free in December 2006...Despite only 15 starts and 81.1 innings, tied for 4th among A.L. rookies with 7 wins...Was the first Red Sox rookie to win his first 5 decisions since Aaron Sele won his first 6 in 1993...In his big league debut at Fenway Park June 10, recorded a no-decision in Boston's 7-4 loss to Texas...Earned his first win June 16 in Atlanta, defeating Tim Hudson, 4-1...Held the Braves to one run on 5 hits and 3 walks in 6.0 innings, fanning 5...Struck out 10 in a 9-3 win vs. Washington on June 21, his first win at Fenway...Was the first Sox rookie to strike out 10 since Casey Fossum on September 18, 2002 vs. Cleveland...Did not suffer his first big league loss until his 10th start July 28 vs. the Angels...On July 18, tossed 8.0 innings and combined with Jonathan Papelbon (1.0 IP) to one-hit the Royals in a 1-0 win at Fenway Park...Was the first Red Sox rookie to start a one-hitter since Billy Rohr tossed a one-hit shutout April 14, 1967 at Yankee Stadium...Combined with Papelbon to be the first Sox rookies to combine on a shutout since Dana Kiecker (8.0 IP) and Jeff Gray (1.0 IP) on August 24, 1990, a 2-0 win at Toronto...Made the jump to the majors with only 11 Triple-A starts under his belt, going 3-4 with a 2.70 ERA (14 ER/46.2 IP) for Pawtucket...Allowed one earned run or less in each of his final 6 starts, going 3-0 with a 0.90 ERA (3 ER/30.0 IP).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Begins his 4th season in the Red Sox organization following a June 2006 trade from the Chicago White Sox...Set personal bests in 2008 with a 2.43 ERA and 59.1 innings...Appeared in 70 games, his highest total since taking the hill 75 times in 2003, his first major league season.

LEFT IS RIGHT: Has made 131 appearances since the start of the 2007 season, the 5th-highest total of any lefthanded American League reliever behind Scott Downs (147), Matt Thornton (142), Jamie Walker (140) and Alan Embree (138)...Is tied for 9th among that group with 23 holds during that time.

Has a 2.70 relief ERA (35 ER/116.2 IP) in his 3 seasons with Boston, 3rd among Sox hurlers with at least 150 games out of the bullpen since 1956, behind Jonathan Papelbon (1.81) and Dick Radatz (2.66).

Ranks 7th among Red Sox lefthanders over that time with 158 relief appearances, 2 behind Rheal Cormier (160)...Is the 7th lefty in club history to post 60 or more outings in consecutive seasons, joining Tony Fossas (3, 1991-93), Hideki Okajima (2, 2007-08), Embree (2, 2003-04), Cormier (2, 1999-2000), Rob Murphy (2, 1989-90) and Sparky Lyle (2, 1969-70).

IN THE POSTSEASON: Has made 8 career post-season appearances, all with Boston, going 0-1 with a 9.00 ERA (5 ER/5.0 IP)...Made 3 appearances in the 2008 playoffs...Suffered the 5-4 loss in Game 3 of the ALDS against the Angels, allowing the go-ahead run to cross the plate in the top of the 12th inning on an RBI single by Erick Aybar...Was his only Division Series game of 2008...Pitched in 2 ALCS contests against Tampa Bay, combining on 1.2 scoreless frames in games 2 and 4 of that series...Had 5 outings during Boston's 2007 World Championship run, including 3 in the ALCS vs. Cleveland...Gave up 4 runs on 5 hits in 2.1 total innings...3 of his 4 runs allowed came in Game 2 of the LCS vs. the Indians, when he surrendered 2 hits and a walk without recording an out...Was not scored upon in the ALDS vs. the Angels or the World Series vs. the Rockies.

SUMMARY: Finished 2nd on the staff and 5th among A.L. lefthanders with 70 appearances, the 2nd most of his career (75 with Colorado in 2003)...Produced a career-best 2.43 ERA (16 ER/59.1 IP), 5th-lowest among qualifying major league lefthanded relievers, while working a lifetime best 59.1 innings...Had a 1.98 ERA (11 ER/50.0 IP) over final 58 outings beginning April 25.

the year with a season best 12.0 consecutive scoreless innings over final 15 appearances.

BY THE NUMBERS: His 2.43 ERA was also the 2nd lowest among all pitchers who appeared in a game for the Red Sox in 2008...Worked 2.0+ innings 3 times with a career-high 3.0 inning appearance, June 6 vs. Seattle...Pitched less than 1.0 inning on 33 occasions...Was 2-0, 1.23 (5 ER/36.2 IP) in 39 games at Fenway Park...Held lefthanded batters to a .183 (20-for-109) batting average, 5th-lowest among qualifying A.L. relievers...First batters hit .213 (13-for-61) and held opponents to a .171 (6-for-35) figure with runners in scoring position and 2 out...Recorded victories on April 19 vs. Texas and June 22 against St. Louis.

IT'S BEEN A WHILE: Failed to convert lone save opportunity, July 6 at New York...Has appeared in 138 games since last save on September 12, 2006 at Baltimore, his lone save with the Red Sox...Is the longest stretch for a Boston pitcher without a save since Rheal Cormier went 160 games in 2 stints with the Red Sox in 1995 and 1999-2000.

SUMMARY: Ranked 2nd on the club with 61 relief appearances over 3 stints with Boston in 2007, going 2-1 with a 3.10 ERA (Hideki Okajima led with 66 games)...Had appeared in only 59 major league games in his previous 2 seasons combined...Was 2nd to Okajima with 13 holds..Posted a 2-1 record and 3.78 ERA in 17 outings for Triple-A Pawtucket...Opened the season with Boston and pitched 3.0 scoreless innings in 4 games before being optioned to Pawtucket on April 9...Recalled by the Red Sox on May 11 and compiled a 3.18 ERA (10 ER/28.1 IP) in 40 appearances before being sent to Pawtucket on August 5...Did not allow a run in his final 8 games with Boston before the option, issuing just 3 hits and no walks in 5.1 total innings in that span...Did not give up a run in his final 7 outings with the PawSox, covering 3.1 innings, before being called up to Boston for the remainder of the season on August 23...Had no record and a 3.86 ERA (4 ER/9.1 IP) in 17 games for the Red Sox following the last promotion...Was scored upon in just one of his final 10 major league games, posting a 1.80 ERA (1 ER/5.0 IP) in that span.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Allowed runs in just 11 of his 61 major league games in 2007...Had scoreless streaks of 6.1 innings over 8 appearances from April 2-May 17 and a season-high 8.0 consecutive shutout innings spanning 12 games from July 19-August 29...Allowed 15 of 49 inherited runners to score (30.6 percent)...Worked less than an inning in 36 of his 61 games with Boston...Compiled a 1.89 ERA (4 ER/19.0 IP) in 28 road games, but owned a 4.15 ERA (10 ER/21.2 IP) in 33 games at Fenway Park...Held the opposition to a .240 batting average, including a .176 mark by righthanders and .293 average by lefthanders.

MORE 2007 HIGHLIGHTS: Both of his wins with Boston came against the Orioles at Fenway Park, May 12 and August 1...The May 12 victory was his first at the major league level since the night game on September 17, 2006 at New York...His loss came at Seattle on June 26 (2 ER/1.1 IP), his first defeat in the majors since June 12, 2005 at Kansas City...Allowed homer to Carlos Pena on September 22 in Tampa Bay, Lopez's first homer issued to a left-handed batter since Pittsburgh's Matt Lawton went deep on May 8, 2005, and just the 4th of his career...Was just his 2nd homer allowed in 2007, other on June 26 in Seattle (Richie Sexson).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2006: Went 1-0 with one save and a 2.70 ERA in 27 relief appearances covering 4 stints with the Red Sox...His ERA was 2nd-lowest by any Red Sox reliever in 2006, trailing only Jonathan Papelbon's 0.92 ERA...At the time, was his best ERA in any of his 4 big league campaigns...Boasted a 0.90 ERA (1 ER/10.0 IP) in 15 appearances with Boston after the All-Star Break...Began the year as a non-roster invitee to major league spring training with the Chicago White Sox and pitched exclusively for their Triple-A Charlotte affiliate before being acquired by the Red Sox on June 15, debuting with his new club later that night...At the time of the trade, ranked 4th in the International League in saves and 8th in appearances...Combined between Triple-A Charlotte and Pawtucket, went 3-1 with 16 saves (in 16 opportunities) and a 1.99 ERA in 39 outings...Was his 2nd stint in the Boston organization, as he was selected by the Red Sox in the 2002 Rule 5 Draft but traded to Colorado on March 18, 2003 for righthander Ryan Cameron.

2005: Went 1-1 with an 11.02 ERA (20 ER/16.1 IP) in 32 outings with Arizona and Colorado...Had the majors' highest ERA among relievers with at least 30 games...Righthanders hit .410 (16-39), while lefties batted .286 (10-35)...Allowed 12 of 29 inherited runners to score...Worked less than 1.0 IP in 25 of his 32 games...Made his 3rd straight Opening Day roster with the Rockies, pitching in 3 games before an April 11 option to Triple-A Colorado Springs...Claimed off waivers by Arizona on April 14 and recalled by the D'Backs on April 24...Designated for assignment on July 5 and went 0-1 with a 2.22 ERA and 2 saves in 27 games with Triple-A Tucson to end the season.

2004: Made 64 appearances with Colorado...Was 2nd in the majors in inherited runners scored percent (13.1, 6 of 46), trailing only Houston's Brad Lidge (9.3)...His 64 games ranked 13th among

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Began the year as a starter at Double-A Portland and finished the season as a valuable member of the Red Sox bullpen...Was 4-3, 3.67 in 9 starts over 3 stints with Boston in the season's first half...Moved to the bullpen in July and was 2-2, 2.36 in 27 appearances over the final 2 and a half months...His overall 3.16 ERA was 5th best on the Red Sox staff.

FROM JAMAICA: Is the first Jamaican-born pitcher in major league history and just the 4th player overall, joining Chili Davis (1981-99), Devon White (1985-2001) and Rolando Roomes (1988-90).

AS STARTER: Started 4 games at Double-A Portland to begin 2008 before making his major league debut in a spot start on April 24 vs. the Angels...Allowed 2 hits and one run in 6.0 innings without a decision in Boston's 7-5 win...Was the 3rd Sox pitcher since 1956 to pitch at least 6.0 innings while allowing 2 hits or less in his debut, joining Jim Lonborg (April 23, 1965) and Billy Rohr (April 14, 1967)...Was optioned back to the Sea Dogs later that day.

Returned for a 2nd start on May 20, beating the Royals for his first career win...Gave up 3 hits and one run in 6.1 innings...Was the 4th Sox pitcher to ever allow 3 hits or less in each of his first 2 major league starts, joining Blaine Thomas (1911), Lee Rogers (1938), and Frank Baumann (1955).

Recalled for a 3rd time on June 3 and went 3-3, 4.32 (20 ER/41.2 IP) in 7 starts...Won his first 2 outings, both at Fenway Park, becoming the first pitcher in Red Sox history to go undefeated in each of his first 4 major league appearances, all as a starter at Fenway Park...Was 4-1, 3.00 (12 ER/36.0 IP) in first 6 major league starts before going 0-2, 5.00 (10 ER/18.0 IP) in his last 3 outings...Worked at least 6.0 innings in 8 of 9 starts with high of 6.2 innings on June 13 at Cincinnati...Set a major league career-high with 9 strikeouts in that game.

IN RELIEF: Was optioned to Pawtucket on July 7 and made 3 relief appearances for the PawSox before returning to Boston for remainder of year on July 20...Issued runs in 9 of 27 bullpen outings and permitted 3 of 17 inherited runners to score (17.6 percent)...Had 3 holds and finished 6 games with 10 of 27 first batters reaching base...Held opponents to a .231 batting average in relief.

Tossed 2.2 scoreless frames in his first major league relief outing, July 23 at Seattle and had a 1.89 ERA (4 ER/19.0 IP) over his first 14 appearances through August 26...Compiled a 2.93 ERA (5 ER/15.1 IP) in final 13 games...His 2.36 ERA beginning July 23 was 6th lowest among all A.L. relievers with at least 30.0 innings...Worked 2.0 or more relief innings on 7 occasions...Gave up just 2 homers in relief...Was 5-0, 3.10 in 20 games/5 starts at home and 1-5, 3.23 in 16 games/4 starts on the road.

IN THE MINORS: Began the year at 1-0, 0.95 in 4 starts at Portland to earn 1st recall to Boston...After return was 0-3, 7.45 in 4 starts...After 2nd start with Boston, was sent to Pawtucket and defeated Scranton/Wilkes-Barre in lone start for the PawSox on May 29...Allowed 2 runs in 3.1 innings in his 3 relief appearances at Pawtucket, July 10-17.

POSTSEASON: Set a Red Sox rookie record with 9 appearances in the 2008 playoffs, going 1-0 with a 1.86 ERA (2 ER/9.2 IP)...Only 4 major league rookies have ever logged more post-season outings in a season: Julian Tavarez (12 in 1995), Brendan Donnelly (11 in 2002), Francisco Rodriguez (11 in 2002) and Tyler Johnson (10 in 2006)...Pitched in each of Boston's first 6 games, joining Scott Williamson (6 in 2003) as the only Sox hurlers ever to do so in a single post-season.

Logged a 2.25 ERA (1 ER/4.0 IP) in 4 ALDS games against the Angels...Made his playoff debut in Game 1 at 23 years, 191 days old, the youngest Red Sox pitcher to appear in a post-season game since Ken Brett (19 years, 24 days) in Game 7 of the 1967 World Series...Went 1.0 inning in each of the first 2 games, recording holds in both contests...Combined to allow one run over 2.0 innings in ALDS Games 3 and 4...Suffered a blown save in Game 4, but did not take the loss as Jed Lowrie's walk-off 9th-inning single gave the Red Sox the 3-2 victory and clinched the series.

Pitched in 5 of 7 ALCS games against the Rays, going 1-0 with a 1.59 ERA (1 ER/5.2 IP)...Allowed just one hit in his first 2 outings (1.1 IP)...Turned in his longest playoff appearance in Game 4, giving up one run with 4 K's over 2.1 frames...Tossed a scoreless 9th to earn the 8-7 win in Game 5... At 23 years, 208 days, became the 7th-youngest Sox hurler to win a post-season game...Babe Ruth was the last to do so at a younger age, 21 years, 246 days, in Game 2 of the 1916 World Series.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SOPHOMORE SUCCESS: With 18 wins in 2008, now has 33 in his career, the most by a pitcher through his first 2 major league seasons since Roy Oswalt's 33 wins from 2001-02, tops among American League hurlers since Andy Pettitte's 33 wins from 1995-96...Tied Dutch Leonard (1913-14) for 3rd all-time among Red Sox pitchers in that category, behind Dave Ferriss (46, 1945-46) and Hugh Bedient (35, 1912-13).

Tallied 154 strikeouts in 2008 and has 355 in his major league career...Is the 3rd-highest total ever by an A.L. pitcher through his first 2 seasons, trailing Herb Score (508, 1955-56) and Bert Blyleven (359, 1970-71).

NATIONAL HERO: His 18 wins in 2008 set a single-season major league record by a native of Japan...Hideo Nomo had 16 wins in 1996, 2002-03...Won 9 straight decisions from September 28, 2007 to May 27, 2008, the longest winning streak ever by a Japanese-born pitcher in the majors...Nomo went 8-0 from July 21, 2002 to March 31, 2003 and Hideki Irabu was 8-0 from May 30-August 9, 1999...At 8-0 to begin 2008, Matsuzaka tied Irabu for the longest by a Japanese starter to begin a season.

POSTSEASON: Is 3-1 with a 4.79 ERA (19 ER/35.2 IP) in 7 career post-season starts...Took the hill 3 times in the 2008 playoffs, going 1-0 with a 4.50 ERA (8 ER/16.0 IP)...Allowed 3 runs over 5.0 innings but did not get a decision in Boston's 7-5 win at Los Angeles in ALDS Game 2...Outdueled James Shields for a 2-0 win in Game 1 of the ALCS at Tampa Bay, giving up just 4 hits and 4 walks while fanning a playoff career-high 9 over 7.0 scoreless innings...Escaped a bases-loaded jam in the first and did not allow a hit until a leadoff single by Carl Crawford in the 7th...Since Don Larsen's perfect game in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series, was the 5th time a pitcher has taken a no-hitter into the 7th inning of a post-season game...Did not figure in Boston's 8-7 comeback win in ALCS Game 5 at Fenway Park, allowing 5 runs, all on 3 homers, over 4.0 frames.

Was 2-1, 5.03 (11 ER/19.2 IP) in 4 playoff starts in 2007...Combined to go 0-1 with a 6.75 ERA (7 ER/9.1 IP) in ALDS Game 2 vs. Los Angeles and ALCS Game 3 at Cleveland...Surrendered 4 runs over his next 10.1 frames, winning his last 2 post-season outings of 2007...Beat Cleveland, 11-2, in Game 7 of the ALCS and won, 10-5, in Game 3 of the World Series...Was the first native of Japan to ever win a post-season game and the first Japanese native to ever start a World Series game...Recorded his first major league hit with a 2-run single in the 3rd inning of World Series Game 3, the first World Series hit by a Sox hurler since Bill Lee in Game 7 of the 1975 Fall Classic...Was the first World Series RBI by a Sox pitcher since Jose Santiago homered in Game 1 of the 1967 Series.

SUMMARY: Set a career high with 18 wins despite throwing just 167.2 innings...Led the majors in opponents batting average (.211) and placed among American League leaders in wins (T4th), ERA (3rd, 2.90), strikeouts per 9.0 innings (5th, 8.27) and walks (1st, 94).

WINNING WAYS: With 18 wins, tied Carl Mays (1916) and Babe Ruth (1915) for the 6th-highest total ever by a Red Sox pitcher in his 2nd major league season...Dave Ferriss is the last Sox hurler with more victories in his sophomore campaign with 25 in 1946.

Finished 2nd in the A.L. with a .857 winning percentage behind Cleveland's Cliff Lee (.880, 22-3)...Tied with Roger Clemens' 1986 mark (.857, 24-4) as the 4th-highest in single-season Red Sox history...Only Bob Stanley (.882, 15-2 in 1978), Joe Wood (.872, 34-5 in 1912) and Roger Moret (.867, 13-2 in 1973) posted higher marks.

Won each of his first 8 decisions in 2008, an 11-start span from March 25-May 27, during which he logged a 2.53 ERA (18 ER/64.0 IP)...Was the 11th pitcher in club history to win at least his first 8 decisions in a season, the first since Josh Beckett's 9 straight from April 4-June 8, 2007...Was the 2nd-longest winning streak in the A.L. in 2008 to an 11-gamer by Cliff Lee from July 11-September 12...Including a victory in his final start of the 2007 season, September 28 vs. Minnesota, had wins in 9 straight decisions, the longest streak by a Red Sox pitcher since Beckett's 9 straight to begin 2007.

Did not figure in Boston's 4-3 loss at Seattle on May 27, the club's first defeat in a game started by Matsuzaka since September 14, 2007 vs. the Yankees...Boston went 12-0 in his games during that span, the longest team winning streak by a Sox pitcher since the club won 12 of David Cone's starts in a row, June 3-August 4, 2001.

TOUGH TO HIT: Led the majors with a .211 opponents batting average, the first Red Sox pitcher to do so since Pedro Martinez held foes to a .198 clip in 2002...Was the 11th-best in average against in Red Sox history...Held foes to a .164 clip with runners in scoring position, tops in the majors...Is the club's best mark since Roger Clemens (.157) in 1994.

Held opponents hitless in 14 bases-loaded at-bats in 2008, tied with Texas' Frank Francisco for the most in the majors...Last gave up a hit in that situation on September 8, 2007, a grand slam by Baltimore's Scott Moore...The last Sox hurler to blank foes in at least 14 at-bats over a full season was Derek Lowe (0-for-14) in 2001...Since 1974, Roger Clemens is the only Sox pitcher with more hitless at-bats in that situation in a season, with opponents going 0-for-17 against him in 1994.

STRIKING SUCCESS: Was 5th in the A.L. with 8.27 strikeouts per 9.0 innings (154 K's/167.2 IP)...Produced swing and miss strikes on 24.4 percent of his pitches, the 5th-highest ratio in the A.L.

WALK HARD: Led the A.L. with 92 walks, the first Red Sox pitcher to do so since Hideo Nomo (96) in 2001...Walked 5 or more batters in 8 starts with wins in 6 of those contests, the most in the majors since Texas' Bobby Witt had 8 such victories in 1987...His 6 wins in games with at least 5 walks were the most by a Sox hurler since Mickey McDermott (8) in 1953 (Elias Sports Bureau).

Walked a career-high 8 in a 6-3 win at Detroit on May 5, the first Red Sox pitcher to issue at least 8 free passes in a victory since Oil Can Boyd walked 8 in a 9-2 win vs. Detroit on June 24, 1985.

ROAD WARRIOR: Went 9-0 with a 2.37 ERA (20 ER/76.0 IP) in 13 road starts compared to a 9-3 mark and 3.34 ERA (34 ER/91.2 IP) at Fenway Park...His road ERA ranked 2nd in the majors among pitchers with at least 70.0 innings away from home, trailing only San Francisco's Tim Lincecum (2.22)...Was the lowest mark by a Red Sox pitcher with at least that many road innings since Josh Beckett's 2.18 (22 ER/90.2 IP) mark in 2007.

His 9 road wins without a loss were the most by a Red Sox pitcher in a season since 1954...Tied Jorge Sosa (9-0 in 2005) for the 3rd-most by any major league hurler in that span...Only Greg Maddux (13-0 in 1995) and Jimmy Key (10-0 in 1994) posted more road wins in a season without a loss in that time.

With wins in 9 consecutive road decisions from April 1-September 21, is one of 7 Red Sox road winning streaks of at least 9 games since 1956, the first since Pedro Martinez's 13-gamer from August 8, 1999 to August 2, 2000.

SHORT WORK: Tossed 167.2 innings on the season, the 2nd-fewest ever by a major league pitcher with at least 18 wins...Roy Face is first on that list with 18 wins in just 93.1 innings for Pittsburgh in 1959...Went 5.0 innings in 5 of his victories, the 2nd-highest single-season total by a Red Sox pitcher since 1956, trailing only Ramon Martinez, who had 6 in 2000.

MAKING 'EM EARN IT: Was 3rd in the A.L. with a 2.90 ERA (54 ER/167.2 IP), the lowest by a Sox pitcher since Pedro Martinez's 2.22 ERA (46 ER/186.2 IP) in 2003...Allowed 2 earned runs or less in 20 of his 29 starts, tied with the Toronto's Roy Halladay for 4th in the A.L. behind Cleveland's Cliff Lee (22), Chicago's John Danks (21) and the Yankees Mike Mussina (21).

Held opponents scoreless over a span of 24.1 innings from July 2-22, the A.L.'s 4th longest streak this year behind Oakland's Brad Ziegler (39.0), Cleveland's Cliff Lee (27.0) and Toronto's Scott Downs (26.0).

HOMER HAPPY: Surrendered 12 home runs, less than half of his total from 2007 (25)...Tied with Cleveland's Cliff Lee and the Mets' Mike Pelfrey for the 5th-lowest total of any major league pitcher with at least 150.0 innings...Oakland's Dana Eveland led in that category with just 10 round trippers...Combined to give up 3 homers in his first 5 starts through April 18 before permitting just 2 over his next 12 outings through July 22nd, the fewest in the majors in that span among pitchers with at least 50.0 innings.

ON THE DL: Landed on the 15-day disabled list for the first time in his major league career on May 30 (retroactive to May 28) with a mild right rotator cuff strain...Sustained the injury in Boston's 4-3 loss at Seattle on May 27...Allowed 3 runs (2 earned) on 4 hits and fanned 2 without a walk in 4.0 innings...Took warm-up tosses before the 5th but left without throwing a pitch in that frame...Gave up 2 runs on 3 hits and a walk with 5 K's in a rehab start for Triple-A Pawtucket on June 16 at Philadelphia's Triple-A affiliate Lehigh Valley.

OPENING DAY: Started Opening Day against Oakland at the Tokyo Dome in Japan...Is one of 6 foreign-born players in major league history to pitch on Opening Day in his native country, including Hideki Okajima who got the win in relief...Was just the 2nd ever to start joining Ryan Dempster (Gibsons, BC), who took the hill for Florida at Montreal on April 2, 2002...Did not figure in Boston's 10-inning 6-5 win...Allowed 2 runs over 5.0 innings but left trailing 0-2...Retired 10 of the final 11 batters he faced including each of the last 7.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Kept righthanders to a .195 average compared to a .225 mark against lefties...Posted a 1.32 ERA (7 ER/47.2 IP) in 7 starts against A.L. Central opponents, 2nd in the majors among pitchers with at least 40.0 innings against those teams...Only Toronto's Jesse Litsch ranked higher on that list with a 1.21 ERA (7 ER/52.0 IP).

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Logged a 7-game winning streak over a span of 9 starts from August 3-September 21 with a 2.43 ERA (17 ER/63.0 IP), 4th in the A.L. in that time...Won, 3-0, on September 21 at Toronto, his final win of the season...Allowed 2 hits with 2 walks and 6 strikeouts over 7.0 innings, his 5th scoreless start of at least 7.0 frames in 2008...Gave up 2 hits and 2 walks while fanning 7 over 8.0 shutout innings in a 8-0 win vs. the White Sox on August 29...Matched the longest scoreless outing of his career, done once previously on July 3, 2007 vs. Tampa Bay...Returned from the 15-day DL with a start vs. St. Louis on June 21, allowing 6 runs over a career-low 1.0 inning, the shortest start by a Red Sox pitcher since Derek Lowe (1.0) on September 18, 2004 at Yankee Stadium...Fanned a season-high 9 batters in his 2nd start of the year, a 2-1 win at Oakland on April 1...Gave up 1 run on 2 hits without walking a batter over 6.2 innings.

SUMMARY: Made major league debut in mid-July after having his contract purchased from Triple-A Fresno on July 11...Batted .200 (24-for-120) with 7 runs, 8 doubles and 3 RBI in 47 games with San Francisco... Prior to big league stint, spent the year with Triple-A Fresno, batting .318 (93-for-292) with 6 home runs, 32 RBI and 20 steals in 84 games...Was named to the Pacific Coast League All-Star team, his first career All-Star nod...Was outrighted off San Francisco's 40-man roster on October 10 and became a free agent.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: With San Francisco, made 31 starts (26 at shortstop, 5 at second base)...Hit safely in 15 of those starting assignments with 6 multi-hit efforts...Hit .350 (7-for-20) in July over his first 9 career games...Made big league debut on July 12 at Chicago, recording first career hit in that contest, a double off Carlos Marmol in the 9th inning...Had just 2 hits in his final 30 at-bats, dropping season average from .244 to .200...Was 2-for-4 with an RBI as a pinch hitter.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: At Fresno, made 51 appearances at shortstop and 28 at second base...3 of his 6 homers came during a 7-game span from June 8-15... Hit safely in each of his last 13 starts from June 21-July 9, batting .434 (23-for-53) in his final 13 starts for Fresno...Following the season, played for Caribes de Anzoategui of the Venezuelan Winter League and hit .188 (6-for-32) in 15 games.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2007: Struggled with injuries during his first year in the Giants system, but was productive at shortstop when healthy...Batted .296 (53-for-179) in 47 games for Triple-A Fresno, with 11 doubles, 2 triples, 3 homers and 20 RBI...Logged 8 steals in 10 attempts.

2006: Spent the majority of year with Cleveland's Double-A Akron affiliate before making his Triple-A debut with a 16-game stint at Buffalo...Combined to hit .246 (92-for-374) with one home run, 30 RBI and 24 stolen bases in 28 attempts over 120 contests between the 2 stops.

2005: Batted .265 (112-for-422) in 126 games for Double-A Akron, while setting career-highs with 112 hits, 13 doubles and 6 triples.

2004: Logged his 2nd full season at Single-A Kinston but was limited to 66 games due to left shoulder surgery...Was still tabbed by Baseball America as the Carolina League's Best Defensive Shortstop.

2003: During an 82-game stint with Single-A Kinston, batted .253 (75-for-296) with 28 stolen bases.

2002: Batted .217 (85-for-391) in 125 games at Single-A Columbus and set a career-high with 47 steals while being caught just 10 times.

2001: Spent his first season on U.S. soil, playing in 51 games for Burlington of the Rookie-level Appalachian League.

2000: Began his professional career with Cleveland's San Felipe club in Venezuelan Summer League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Since his rookie season in 2007, ranks among American League relief leaders in holds (2nd, 50), ERA (7th, 2.40), base runners allowed per 9 innings (8th, 9.69), and opponents batting average (9th, .207)...Has thrown 131.0 innings in that time, 3rd among lefthanded A.L. relievers behind Rafael Perez (137.0 IP) and Darren Oliver (136.1 IP)...Also ranks 3rd among that group in strikeouts (123), and tied for 6th in appearances (130).

POSTSEASON: Owns a 2.14 ERA (5 ER/21.0 IP) without a decision in 16 post-season appearances, the most ever by a pitcher born in Japan...Has 8 career post-season holds, tied with Mike Stanton for the 4th-most in major league history behind Jeff Nelson (14), Mike Timlin (11) and Paul Assenmacher (10)...Posted a 1.80 ERA (2 ER/10.0 IP) over 8 appearances in Boston's 2008 playoff run...Pitched in each of the final 3 games of the ALDS against the Angels, allowing 2 earned runs in 2.2 innings (6.75 ERA)...Surrendered just one hit in 7.1 scoreless frames over 5 ALCS contests, with 2.0 innings pitched in games 2, 5 and 6.

Had a 2.45 ERA (3 ER/11.0 IP) in a team-best 8 appearances during the 2007 playoffs...Worked 9.2 scoreless frames in his first 6 post-season outings before issuing 3 runs, including 2 homers, over 1.1 innings in Games 3 and 4 of the World Series at Colorado...Pitched 2.1 shutout frames in 2 ALDS outings against Los Angeles and 5.0 scoreless innings in 3 ALCS games versus Cleveland...Was the first native of Japan to ever pitch in a World Series game with 2.1 scoreless innings in Game 2 at Fenway Park.

SUMMARY: Followed up a stellar rookie season with a 3-2 record and 2.61 ERA (18 ER/62.0 IP) over 64 games...Notched his 2nd straight season of at least 60 games, the 2nd Red Sox ever to reach that mark in each of his first 2 major league campaigns, joining Dick Radatz (1962-63).

HOLD IT: Tallied 23 holds, 6th in the A.L. and 4 shy of the high he set in 2007...Is one of just 3 A.L. relievers with at least 20 holds in each of the last 2 seasons, joined by the Angels' Scot Shields and Toronto's Scott Downs...Ranks 4th in the majors with 50 total holds since the start of the 2007 season, 2nd in the A.L. behind only Shields (62).

OPENING DAY: Tossed 1.0 scoreless inning to earn the win in Boston's 6-5, 10-inning victory over Oakland on Opening Day, March 25 in Tokyo, Japan...Was the 2nd pitcher in big league history to win a regular season game in his native country (excluding Canada, Puerto Rico and the United States)...San Diego's Fernando Valenzuela beat the New York Mets on August 16, 1996 at Monterrey, Mexico...Was the first pitcher ever to win in his home country on Opening Day (excluding Puerto Rico and the United States).

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Allowed just one run over his first 17 games through May 10, posting a 0.50 ERA (1 ER/18.0 IP) in that span...Surrendered 11 runs over his next 16 outings from May 14-June 27, with a 6.32 ERA (11 ER/15.2 IP) during that stretch...Permitted runs in just 6 of his final 31 appearances for a 1.91 ERA (6 ER/28.1 IP) from June 29 onward...Gave up runs in 11 of his 64 games overall...Let 52.0 percent of inherited runners score (13 of 25), the 2nd highest mark in the

A.L. among relievers with at least 50 appearances...Logged a 2.86 ERA (9 ER/28.1 IP) at home and a 2.41 (9 ER/33.2 IP) mark everywhere else...Held lefties to a .184 (19-for-103) average, including a .125 (6-for-48) clip in his final 27 games beginning June 27...Righties hit .234 (30-for-128).

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Escaped a bases-loaded jam with one out in the 8th inning on July 7 vs. Minnesota to earn his first win since Opening Day, March 25 against Oakland in Japan...Matched a big league career high with his 3rd win of the season 9 appearances later with 1.2 scoreless frames on August 12 vs. Texas...Went more than 1.0 inning 10 times in 2008 with a high of 2.0 innings on 3 occasions, May 9 at Minnesota, May 30 at Baltimore and August 20 at Baltimore...Tossed more than 1.0 inning 14 times in 2007..Allowed 4 runs in his first loss of the season at Baltimore on June 2, matching the career high he set on September 14, 2007 vs. the Yankees.

SUMMARY: In his first major league season, led the Red Sox and all A.L. rookies with 66 appearances, a club record for a first-year player and his most ever in a professional season...Previous Sox rookie record for outings was 62 for Dick Radatz in 1962...Ranked 3rd in the A.L. with 27 holds, the most by a Boston pitcher since totals were first kept in 1957...Had the 8th best ERA among A.L. qualifying relievers at 2.22 and the 11th lowest opponents batting average at .202.

FIRST PITCH: Surrendered a home run to Kansas City's John Buck on the 1st pitch he threw in the major leagues, a 6th-inning blast on Opening Day, April 2 at Kauffman Stadium...Was the 3rd pitcher in Red Sox history to do that, joining Charlie Mitchell, August 9, 1984 at Texas and Jeff Suppan, July 17, 1995 vs. Kansas City, and the 19th in major league history.

THROWING BLANKS: Tossed 20.2 scoreless innings over his next 20 games through May 20, the longest scoreless streak by a Red Sox lefty since Bruce Hurst's 21.2 innings, May 5-15, 1987...Posted a 0.71 ERA (1 ER/12.2 IP) in 12 April appearances to earn A.L. Rookie of the Month honors...Was just the 2nd A.L. middle/setup reliever to ever receive that award, joining Texas' Frank Francisco in August 2004...Had a 0.44 ERA at end of streak, lowest among major league relievers.

REST OF SEASON: Allowed 3 runs in 6.2 innings in next 6 games after that streak, then posted a 0.67 ERA (2 ER/27.0 IP) in the following 25 games through August 8...Ended a span of 17.0 scoreless innings by allowing a home run to Chicago's Paul Konerko on July 9 at Fenway Park...Had faced 172 batters without allowing a homer since Buck's blast...Beginning August 10, compiled a 7.24 ERA (11 ER/13.2 IP) in his final 15 games...Did not pitch from September 15-26 due to left shoulder fatigue...Worked 2.0 scoreless innings in 2 games the rest of regular season.

HONOR ROLL: Earned a spot on the American League All-Star team by virtue of winning online Monster All-Star Final Vote...Received over 4.3 million votes to join Johnny Damon (2002) and Jason Varitek (2003) as Red Sox selected as A.L.'s 32nd All-Star...Became the 7th native of Japan ever selected as an All-Star and the 9th Red Sox rookie so honored, the 3rd pitcher (Don Swball-1961; Jonathan Papelbon-2006)...Did not pitch in the July 10 game at San Francisco.

Was selected as the Major League Setup Man of the Year in fan voting in mlb.com's This Year in Baseball Awards...Also named Red Sox Unsung Hero by Boston BBWAA chapter...Earned a spot as the lefthanded pitcher on Topps Major League Rookie All-Star Team.

MISCELLANEOUS: Allowed a run in 11 of 66 games and permitted just 4 of 28 inherited runners to score (14.3%)...Converted 5 of 7 save opportunities, earning first major league save on April 20 vs. New York...Also recorded first win in the majors against the Yankees in June 22...Held righthanded batters to a .182 (29-159) batting average, 10th lowest among A.L. relievers with lefthanders at .236 (21-89)...Opponents hit just .130 (7-54) with runners in scoring position and .168 with runners on base, both the 2nd lowest marks among A.L. relievers (50.0 or more IP)...Held opponents to a .255 on-base percentage, 8th lowest in A.L. among relief pitchers.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

IN JAPAN: Was one of the top set-up relievers in Nippon Professional Baseball before signing with Boston as an unrestricted free agent in November 2006...Spent all or parts of 11 seasons with the Tokyo Yomiuri Giants from 1995-2005 before trade to Hokkaido Nippon Ham Fighters in March 2006...Recorded 681 K's in 642 career innings with 5 seasons of at least 50 appearances.

2006: In only season with Hokkaido, tied for 7th in the Pacific League in saves (4) and ranked 10th in appearances (55)...Posted a career-low 2.14 earned run average...Fanned 63 batters in 54.2 innings, an average of 10.37 every 9 innings...Held opposition to a .230 batting average and had 22 holds...Pitched 20.0 scoreless innings over 20 outings, June 7-August 2...Earned victories on June 20 vs. Yakult, the first of 11 straight victories for the Fighters, and July 18 against Orix...Appeared in 4 of 5 games in the Japan Series against the Chunichi Dragons...Hokkaido won the series, 4-1, for the franchise's first championship since 1962.

2005: Appeared in 42 games in final season with the Giants...Fanned 56 in 53 innings, an average of 9.51 per 9 innings...Lone decision was a victory on September 21 versus Yakult.

2004: Was 8th in the Central League and 2nd on the Yomiuri staff in appearances (53)...Earned 5 saves, most since 2001 and averaged 10.22 K's per 9 innings.

YOMIURI: Tied for 6th in the Central League and was 2nd on the Giants staff in appearances (52) in 2002... Won a career-best 6 games...Was selected to pitch in NPB All-Star Game...Ranked 4th in the league in saves (25) and 7th in games (58), both career highs, in 2001...Tied career high with 102 strikeouts in just 72.1 innings, an average of 14.93 per 9 innings, in 2000... Was a regular in the Giants rotation in 1997-98, making 31 starts...Appeared in 5 games with Yomiuri in 1996 after making his NPB debut with a 5-inning start in 1995...Was selected 3rd by the Giants in the 1994 NPB draft.

SUMMARY: After averaging 42 homers, 128 RBI, and 147 games per season over his first 6 years in Boston, appeared in just 109 games due to injuries...Started 108 games as the designated hitter, finishing 2nd on the club with 23 homers, 89 RBI, and 70 walks.

AT THE PLATE: His .264 average was his lowest since a .234 figure with Minnesota in 2001...Was just 3-for-43 (.070) in his first 12 games through April 12, the lowest mark among major league qualifiers at that point...Hit .299 (50-for-167) over his next 42 games and was at .252 when disabled on June 1 with a partially torn tendon sheath in his left wrist.

After return on July 25, batted .277 (57-for-206) with 10 homers and 46 RBI in final 55 games...Was still at .253 on August 10 before batting .358 (24-for-67) over next 19 contests, improving to .274 through September 2...Was 18-80 (.225) over final 21 games...Hit safely in a season-best 9 straight games, April 30-May 9...Had a .336 (43-for-128) average with men in scoring position with a .346 (18-for-52) mark with 2 outs in that situation.

ROUND TRIPPERS: Had his 7th straight season with 20+ homers, including all 6 years with Boston...Is tied with 5 others for the 3rd-most consecutive 20-homer seasons with Boston behind Dwight Evans (9) and Manny Ramirez (8)...Went from 54 homers in 2006 to 23 in 2008, the 4th major leaguer ever to go from 50+ HR to 23 or less in 3-year span...The others: Mickey Mantle, 54 to 15 from 1961-63; Roger Maris, 61 to 23 from 1961-63; and Willie Mays, 52 to 22 from 1965-67.

Homered twice in a game on 3 occasions, May 18 vs. Milwaukee; August 12 vs. Texas (both in first inning); and September 17 at Tampa Bay...Has 33 career multi-homer (all 2 HR) games, 31 with Boston which ranks 3rd in team history...Connected for 8th career grand slam, April 18 vs. Texas...

Had 5 homers off lefthanders to match 2007 total.

Homered once in first 16 games of the season through April 17, then went deep just once in a 27-game period from August 16-September 14...That included a 19-game drought from August 16-September 6, matching his longest with Boston...Had 5 homers in final 10 games.

RUNS BATTED IN: Ended a string of 5 straight 100-RBI seasons with 89 in 2008...Drove in 15 runs over 7 games, April 18-24 and had 16 RBI in last 14 games beginning September 12...Drove in 22 of his 89 RBI against Texas, the most ever for a Red Sox player vs. the Rangers...Had games of 6 (August 12) and 5 (April 18) RBI against Texas...Tied for 3rd in A.L. with 23 RBI in September.

FIRST INNING TO REMEMBER: Had 2 homers and 6 RBI in a 10-run Red Sox first inning on August 12 vs. Texas...Was the 4th player in Red Sox history to hit 2 homers in an inning, joining Nomar Garciaparra (3rd inning on July 23, 2002 -G1 vs. Tampa Bay); Ellis Burks (4th inning on August 27, 1990 at Cleveland); and Bill Regan (4th inning on June 16, 1928 at Chicago)...Was the 54th time in major league history that a player has had 2 home runs in an inning.

The 6 RBI tied an A.L. record for RBI in an inning, done 11 times previously, last by Seattle's Raul Ibanez on August 4, 2008 vs. Minnesota (7th inning)...Marked the 4th time that an A.L. player has had 6 RBI in the first inning...The only player with more than 6 in any inning was St. Louis' Fernando Tatis with 8 on April 23, 1999.

Was the 3rd time that a Red Sox has had 6 RBI in an inning...The others: Carlos Quintana on July 30, 1991 vs. Texas (3rd inning) and Tom McBride August 4, 1945-G2 at Washington (4th inning).

INJURIES: Sustained a partially torn tendon sheath in his left wrist on a swing in the 9th inning on May 31 at Baltimore...Put on the 15-day DL on June 3, retroactive to June 1, and missed a total of 45 games before being activated on July 25...Did not need surgery to repair the injury...Hit .294 (5-17) with 3 homers and 6 RBI in 6 games on rehab assignment, 3 contests each at Pawtucket (July 17-19) and Portland (July 21-23)...Also missed time in April and May with a sore right knee.

2008 NOTES: Did not appear in a game defensively for the first time in his career...Last action at first base was in Game 4 of the 2007 World Series in Colorado...Had his 2nd career sacrifice hit, September 10 vs. Tampa Bay...Had Boston's only hit, a 7th-inning single on May 24 in Oakland.

CAREER SUMMARY

SUMMARY: After winning a World Series title and being named the American League Rookie of the Year in 2007, the 25-year-old was selected as the the A.L.'s Most Valuable Player and took home both Gold Glove and Silver Slugger awards at 2nd base in 2008...On December 3, 2008, was rewarded for his efforts with a 6-year contract with a club option for 2015...Boston's 2nd-round pick in the 2004 First-Year Player Draft made his major league debut in 2006 and has compiled a .313 (395-for-1262) average with 27 home runs and 140 RBI over 327 career games.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER: Named the 2008 A.L. MVP by the Baseball Writers Association of America on November 18...Received 16 of 28 first-place votes, 6 2nds, 4 3rds, and one 4th...The award was the 10th in Red Sox history and the first since Mo Vaughn's in 1995...Became just the 4th American Leaguer to win the award while playing the majority of his games at 2nd base and the 10th overall, first since San Francisco's Jeff Kent was named 2000 N.L. MVP...Detroit's Charlie Gehringer (1937), New York's Joe Gordon (1942) and Chicago's Nellie Fox (1959) are the only other A.L. winners at the position...No other position has fewer MVP winners.

GOLD GLOVE: Selected as the 2nd baseman on the 2008 American League Gold Glove Team as announced by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company...Was the 37th Gold Glove Award in club history, becoming the 17th different Red Sox player to win one, and the 3rd to receive the honor since 1992 joining Kevin Youkilis (2007) and Jason Varitek (2005)...Was the 2nd award for a Red Sox 2nd baseman, first since Doug Griffin's in 1972.

SILVER SLUGGER: Chosen as the 2nd baseman on the 2008 American League Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Team, becoming the first Red Sox 2nd baseman ever to receive the honor...Boston has been represented on the A.L. Silver Slugger Team in each of the last 8 seasons beginning in 2001, the 2nd-longest active streak in the majors behind the New York Yankees (9).

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: Won the 2007 Jackie Robinson Award as the A.L. Rookie of the Year, selected by the Baseball Writers Association of America...Received 24 of 28 first-place votes and 4 2nds for 132 total points and was the only player named on all 28 ballots...Was the 6th Red Sox to receive the honor, first since Nomar Garciaparra in 1997, and the 4th A.L. player to win the award while playing the majority of his games at 2nd base, joining Minnesota's Rod Carew (1967), Detroit's Lou Whitaker (1978), and Minnesota's Chuck Knoblauch in 1991.

SELECT COMPANY: Joined Fred Lynn as the 2nd player ever to earn both A.L. MVP and Rookie of the Year honors with the Red Sox...Ryan Howard (2005-06) and Cal Ripken Jr. (1982-83) are the only other major leaguers ever to earn a league MVP nod one season after being named Rookie of the Year...Lynn (1975) and Ichiro Suzuki (2001) won both awards in the same season...Became the 20th former Rookie of the Year to be named MVP, just the 7th A.L. player to do it joining Jose Canseco, Rod Carew, Lynn, Thurman Munson, Rikpen and Suzuki.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Enters his 10th major league season, his first in the American League, after signing with the Red Sox as a free agent on January 9, 2009...Is 6 wins shy of his 100th career victory at 94-75 with a 4.06 ERA (658 ER/1,460.1 IP) in 249 games/245 starts for the Marlins (2000-04) and Dodgers (2004-08)...The 2-time National League All-Star (2006-07) has posted double-digit wins 4 times, with a career-high 16 victories in both 2006 and 2007...He teamed with Josh Beckett and Mike Lowell on the 2003 World Champion Florida Marlins.

NATIONAL LEAD: Is 38-22 in 86 games/83 starts since the beginning of the 2006 campaign, tied with Bronson Arroyo, Cole Hamels and Aaron Harang for the 7th-highest win total in the N.L. over that span...Combined on 32 victories from 2006-07, tied with Harang for the 3rd-most in the league during that stretch...Ranked 8th among N.L. qualifiers with a .600 winning percentage (48-32) and 10th with a 3.61 ERA (287 ER/715.1 IP) between 2004-07.

STAR STRUCK: Earned N.L. All-Star selections in 2006 and 2007, the first Dodgers hurler to do so since Ramon Martinez in 1990-91...Started for the N.L. in the 2006 Mid-Summer Classic July 11 at PNC Park in Pittsburgh...Struck out the side in the first inning (Ichiro Suzuki, Derek Jeter, David Ortiz) before allowing a solo homer to Vladimir Guerrero in the 2nd... Was the 14th Dodger to start an All-Star Game, the first since Hideo Nomo in 1995...Pitched a perfect 2nd inning in the 2007 contest, July 10 at AT&T Park in San Francisco.

FIRST HALF: Of his 94 career wins, 60 have come in the first half, going 60-43 before the break...Owns a 3.89 ERA (386 ER/893.1 IP) in 150 career games before the All-Star Game, including a 3.73 (334 ER/805.1 IP) mark since the start of the 2001 season, 6th in the majors among pitchers with at least 800.0 first-half innings over that span...Is 34-32 with a 4.32 ERA (272 ER/567.0 IP) in 99 games after the Mid-Summer Classic.

POSTSEASON: Is 3-2 with a 6.26 ERA (16 ER/23.0 IP) in 8 career post-season games/4 starts...Tossed 1.0 relief inning for the Dodgers in his last playoff appearance, Game 1 of the 2006 NLDS at the Mets...Allowed 2 runs on 2 hits and 2 walks in the 6-5 loss...Was his only playoff outing of 2006.

Helped the 2003 Florida Marlins to a World Series championship, going 3-1 with a 5.73 ERA (14 ER/22.0 IP) in 7 games/4 starts...Did not get a decision in 2 NLDS games against the Giants...Started Game 2, allowing 4 runs over 4 innings in the Marlins 9-5 win...Pitched 1.2 innings of scoreless relief in the decisive Game 4...Went 1-1 in 3 games/one start in the NLCS versus the Cubs...Started Game 2, allowing a post-season career-high 7 runs over just 2.0 innings in a 12-3 loss...Combined to toss 2.0 scoreless frames over his next 2 NLCS outings, both in relief.

Went 2-0 with a 2.19 ERA (3 ER/12.1 IP) in 2 starts against the Yankees in the World Series...Gave up 2 runs on 7 hits over 5.1 innings in a 3-2 win in the Bronx in Game 1...Allowed 2 runs (one earned) on 8 hits over a playoff career-high 7.0 innings in the 6-4 victory...Is one of 15 pitchers ever to win 2 or more games against the Yankees in a single World Series.

SUMMARY: The Dodgers' Opening Day starter went 6-9 with a 6.27 ERA (66 ER/94.2 IP) in 19 games/17 starts. He struck out 51 and walked 42 over a career-low 94.2 innings after spending 3 separate stints on the disabled list with injuries to his right shoulder.

BREAKDOWN: Began the season going 5-2 with a 3.19 ERA (15 ER/42.1 IP) in his first 7 starts though May 2, going at least 6.0 innings in 5 of those outings...Set a career high by winning 4 straight starts from April 16-May 2...Lost each of his next 7 decisions through June 14, logging an 8.52 ERA (41 ER/43.1 IP) in that time...Placed on the 15-day DL on June 17 (retroactive to June 15) with mild tendonitis in his right shoulder...Made one rehab start with Triple-A Las Vegas, August 2, and returned to the big league club on August 8...Was limited to 4 games/2 starts over the remainder of the season due to 2 more trips to the DL, going 1-0 with a 10.00 ERA (10 ER/9.0 IP)... Was sidelined from August 14-September 10 with right shoulder inflammation...Placed on the 60-day DL on September 24, effectively ending his season.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Opponents hit .304 (112-for-368) against him, the highest mark of his career...Kept righties to a .284 (55-for-194) clip while lefthanders batted .328 (57-for-174)...Went 4-3 with a 3.89 ERA (18 ER/41.2 IP) in 8 games/7 starts against N.L. West opponents and 2-6 with a 8.15 ERA (48 ER/53.0 IP) against everyone else...Established career lows in wins, games, starts, innings, and strikeouts...Allowed 13 home runs, his most since giving up 19 in 2006.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Won his first career Opening Day start on March 31 vs. San Francisco tossing 6.2 scoreless innings of 4-hit ball in the Dodgers' 5-0 victory...Returned from his first DL stint with a 6-2 win on August 8 at San Francisco, allowing one run over 5.0 innings...Beat the Rockies, 11-3, on April 26, allowing 3 runs over 7.0 innings...Struck out 2 in the game, the 2nd of which, Chris Iannetta in the 5th inning, was the 1,000th strikeout of his career.

SUMMARY: Finished 3rd in N.L. Cy Young Award voting behind San Diego's Jake Peavy and Arizona's Brandon Webb and matched a career high with 16 wins against a career-low 4 losses...His .800 winning percentage (16-4) was the best in the majors and tied with Rick Rhoden for 6th on the Los Angeles Dodger single-season list...Was among the N.L. leaders in ERA (3rd, 3.03), wins (T5th), innings pitched (T9th, 208.0), home ERA (9th, 3.27), road ERA (3rd, 2.73), and night ERA (3rd, 2.67)...Tied for 3rd in the majors and ranked 2nd in the N.L. with 26 quality starts.

HOT START: Named an All-Star for the 2nd straight season after finishing the first half at 10-1 with a 2.39 ERA (31 ER/116.2 IP), 3rd-best in the N.L...Became the only L.A. Dodger starter to begin a year 13-1 and one of only 2 since 1920 to accomplish the feat, joining Don Newcombe, who went 18-1 in 1955...Became the first Dodger to start the season 13-1 since Phil Regan in 1966 and the first major leaguer to do it since Roger Clemens was 20-1 to begin 2001...Went 3-0 with a 1.95 ERA (7 ER/32.1 IP) in 5 April starts with a 3-0 mark and 0.86 ERA (2 ER/21.0 IP) in his first 3 road starts...His ERA never rose above 2.54 in the first half and the righthander went at least 6.0 innings in 16 of his 18 starts while going at least 7.0 frames in 9 of those outings.

14 K GOLD: Set a career-high with 14 strikeouts at Florida on May 7...Allowed 5 hits and did not walk a batter...His 14 K's were the most by a Dodger since Chan Ho Park's 14 on August 29, 2000 at Milwaukee...Became the 9th L.A. Dodger pitcher to fan 14 or more in a game, joining Sandy Koufax (12), Hideo Nomo (3), Fernando Valenzuela (3), Don Drysdale (3), Park (1), Ramon Martinez (1), Orel Hershisier (1), Bill Singer (1), and Johnny Podres (1)...Was the first Dodger with at least 14 K's and no walks in a game since Koufax in a perfect game vs. Chicago on September 9, 1965.

AT THE PLATE: Hit .246 (16-for-65), 61 points higher than his previous career best...Had a career-high 6 doubles and drove in 7 runs...His 16 hits were tied for 6th among N.L. pitchers...His .246 average was the 4th-best by a Dodger pitcher since 1990, behind Orel Hershisier (.356 in 1993), Fernando Valenzuela (.284 in 1990), and Ramon Martinez (.273 in 1994).

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: L.A. went 23-10 in his games...Had a 2.77 ERA (29 ER/94.1 IP) against the N.L. West, limiting the division to a .250 (84-for-336) average...Lefties hit .229 (81-for-353) off

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Came to the Red Sox in a trade for outfielder Coco Crisp on November 19 after spending the entire 2008 season with Kansas City...Was his first American League campaign after playing for the Colorado Rockies from 2006-07...Went 3-2 with one save and a 2.64 ERA (21 ER/71.2 IP) in 71 relief appearances...Ranked among A.L. relief leaders in holds (T7th, 21), innings (11th, 71.2) and strikeouts (13th, 70)...Finished 10th in games, the 10th-highest single-season total in Royals history...Established personal bests in saves, games, innings, K's and ERA...Acquired by Kansas City on March 26 from Colorado for a player to be named later (LHP Jorge De La Rosa).

VS. RIGHTIES: Held righthanders to a .153 (21-for-137) batting average, the lowest in the A.L. among pitchers with at least 50 appearances...Only the Cubs' Carlos Marmol (.103) and Philadelphia's Brad Lidge (.105) ranked higher in the majors...In his career, has held righties to a .198 (63-for-318) clip with .586 OPS...Lefties hit .300 (36-for-120) off him in 2008.

HOMER HAPPY: Allowed just 2 home runs all season, a 2-run shot by Nick Swisher on July 20 at Chicago, and a solo blast by Kelly Shoppach on August 20 at Cleveland...Was one of 3 pitchers in the majors with 70.0 innings or more while giving up 2 long balls or fewer...

Roy Corcoran (1 HR/72.2 IP) did it for Seattle and Jason Grilli (2 HR/75.0 IP) combined to turn the trick with Detroit and Colorado...Has surrendered 2 homers in 78 games (76.2 IP) beginning June 4, 2007, the 3rd-fewest in the majors among pitchers with at least 70.0 innings in that time...Only the Dodgers' Joe Beimel (1 HR/91.2 IP) and Corcoran (1 HR/72.2 IP) rank higher on that list.

SELECT COMPANY: Was one of just 3 A.L. relievers with at least 70 strikeouts, 70 appearances and an ERA under 3.00, joined by the Angels' Francisco Rodriguez and the White Sox' Matt Thornton...Is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to reach those marks in a season while allowing 2 home runs or less, also accomplished in 2008 by Philadelphia's Brad Lidge...Was the first A.L. hurler to achieve those numbers since Mariano Rivera and Juan Rincon each did it in 2005.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Permitted just 23 percent (12 of 52) of inherited runners to score, 13th among qualifying A.L. relievers and 8th among righthanders...Stranded his first 12 inherited runners of the season before plating a run on a wild pitch on May 9 vs. Baltimore...Allowed more than one run in just 5 of his 71 appearances...Held opponents to a .192 (14-for-73) average with runners in scoring position and .143 (5-for-35) in that situation with 2 outs.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Surrendered a run in one of his first 13 games through May 3, logging a 0.66 ERA (1 ER/13.2 IP) in that span...Gave up 10 earned runs over 14.2 innings (6.14 ERA) in his next 13 games through June 7, including a season-high 4 runs on May 28 vs. Minnesota...Posted a 2.08 ERA (10 ER/43.1 IP) over his remaining 45 outings with just one earned run allowed in his final 14 contests (13.2 IP)...Kansas City won all 10 of his September appearances...Fanned 36 batters in his first 30.2 innings through June 10 and had 52 K's in 47.0 frames through July 20...All 3 of his wins came in his final 27 games, including his first 2 over a span of 5 appearances from July 20-30...Victory on July 20 at Chicago (AL) was his first since May 27, 2007 at San Francisco...Recorded his first major league save in the nightcap of a doubleheader on September 4 vs. Oakland.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2007: Split the season between Colorado and Triple-A Colorado Springs...Began the year on the Rockies' Opening Day roster and spent the first 2 months with the club, including a disabled

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: After pitching in 20 major league seasons for Atlanta from 1988-2008, enters his first year with the Red Sox, signing with the club as a free agent on January 13, 2009... He was limited to just 6 games/5 starts for the Braves in 2008, spending 3 separate stints on the disabled list...An 8-time All-Star and winner of the 1996 National League Cy Young Award, Smoltz owns a 210-147 career record with 154 saves and a 3.26 ERA in 708 games, including 466 starts.

20 YEARS: Is one of 53 pitchers ever to appear in at least 20 major league campaigns...Among actives entering 2009, only Tom Glavine (22), Jamie Moyer (22) and Randy Johnson (21) have appeared in more seasons than Smoltz' 20.

Is one of 7 hurlers ever with 20 or more seasons for a single club, joining the White Sox' Ted Lyons (21) and Red Faber (20), the Indians' Mel Harder (20), the Senators' Walter Johnson (21), and the Braves' Phil Niekro (21) and Warren Spahn (20).

Would join Niekro and Spahn as the only pitchers ever to spend at least 20 years with one franchise before appearing in a game for another...Niekro pitched for the Braves from 1964-83 before suiting up for the Yankees (1984-85), Indians (1986-87) and Blue Jays (1987)...Spahn played for the Braves from 1942; 46-64 prior to pitching for the Mets and Giants in 1965...Oddly, Niekro, Spahn and Smoltz rank 1-2-3 respectively on the Braves all-time appearance list...Hank Aaron, Phil Cavarretta, Ty Cobb, Harmon Killebrew and Willie Mays are the only position players ever to do it.

STARTER AND RELIEVER: Is the only pitcher in major league history to collect at least 200 career wins and 150 saves...Dennis Eckersley is the only other pitcher with at least 150 wins and 150 saves...Pitched exclusively as a starter from 1988-99 before making 241 relief appearances for the Braves from 2001-04, serving as the club's closer over the majority of that time...Is one of 8 pitchers ever to record at least 40 saves in 3 or more consecutive seasons, doing so from 2002-04.

Went 24-8 as a starter in 1996 and saved 55 games as a reliever in 2002, one of only 2 pitchers ever to record both a 20-win and 50-save season during the course of their career...Eckersley went 20-8 for the Red Sox in 1978 before saving 51 games for Oakland in 1991...Returned to the rotation in 2005, becoming the first pitcher ever to record 200 innings one season after posting 40 saves.

Has 466 starts and 242 relief appearances in his career...Only 6 other pitchers in major league history have made at least 400 starts with 200 or more games out of the bullpen...Kenny Rogers is the only other active player to reach those marks with 474 starts and 288 games in relief.

SUMMARY: Was limited to just 6 games/5 starts by 3 different stints on the DL...Went 3-2 with a 2.57 ERA (8 ER/28.0 IP)...Began the year on the 15-day DL from March 21-April 6 with right shoulder inflammation...Returned to the DL with right biceps tendinitis from April 29-June 2 with rehab assignments in Double-A Mississippi and Single-A Rome...Landed on the DL for the 3rd and final time on June 3 with a right shoulder injury that ended his season...Underwent surgery on June 10 by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL to repair labrum damage.

3,000 CLUB: Fanned Felipe Lopez in the 3rd inning of his April 22 start vs. Washington for the 3,000th strikeout of his career, becoming one of 16 pitchers in major league history to reach that mark...Fanned a total of 10 over 7.0 innings in the 6-0 loss...Was the 45th 10-strikeout game of his career, and 2nd in as many starts...Was the 5th time in his career that he has recorded 10 or more K's in back-to-back starts, first since August 19-24, 1997...Is 4th among active pitchers in 10-strikeout games behind Randy Johnson (212), Pedro Martinez (108) and Curt Schilling (93).

THE BREAKDOWN: Won each of his first 3 starts of the season through April 17, allowing just one run over 16.0 innings (0.56 ERA) in that time...Lost each of his next 2 starts and was 3-2 with a 2.00 ERA (6 ER/27.0 IP) through 5 starts before his first DL stint of the season...Made just one more appearance over the remainder of the season, a 1.0-inning relief outing vs. Florida on June 2...Allowed 2 runs on 3 hits to take a blown save...Was his first game out of the bullpen since the 2004 NLCS and his first of the regular season since October 2, 2004.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Began the season without allowing a home run through his first 24.1 innings before a Raul Casanova blast in the 2nd inning on April 22 at Shea Stadium...Made one spring training appearance, a start on March 15 vs. Tampa Bay.

SUMMARY: At 40 years old, he went 14-8 in 32 starts...Ranked 3rd in the N.L. with 197 strikeouts and finished 4th with a 3.11 ERA in 205.2 innings...Also placed among N.L. leaders in quality starts (2nd, 26), home ERA (3rd, 2.51), strikeouts per 9 innings (5th, 8.6), night ERA (6th, 2.98) and day ERA (10th, 3.41)...Was named to his 8th N.L. All-Star team, but was unable to play due to injury...Finished 6th in N.L. Cy Young Award voting, his 2nd consecutive season in the top 10...Missed from July 6-18 on the 15-day DL with right shoulder tendinitis.

WINS AND INNINGS: Passed the 200.0-inning mark for the 10th time in his career, one of 5 active pitchers with double-digit 200-inning seasons...Posted 10 or more wins for the 13th time in his career and for the 3rd straight season since returning to the rotation in 2005...Tossed 7.0 shutout innings in a 2-1 win over Tom Glavine and the Mets on May 24, his 200th career victory...Was the 106th major league pitcher to reach that plateau.

STRIKEOUTS: Fanned a season-high 12 batters and passed Phil Niekro (2,912) for first in Braves franchise history in strikeouts on August 19 vs. Arizona...Struck out Mark Reynolds in the 3rd inning for the record-breaker...Became the Atlanta career strikeout leader and moved past Jim Bunning for 16th place on the all-time strikeout list on June 22 vs. Detroit...Passed Cy Young for 18th place by fanning Carlos Beltran in the 5th inning on April 22 in New York.

OLD FRIENDS: Earned his 5th win vs. San Diego and former teammate Greg Maddux on May 9...Marked their first matchup in 14 years, 304 days...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, marked the longest amount of time between 2 starting pitchers facing each other since Fergie Jenkins and Don Sutton faced off in May 1982 (14 years, 360 days)...Smoltz holds a 3-1 edge in the matchup.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Went 8-5 with a 2.51 ERA at home and 6-2, 3.45 on the road...Held opponents to a .224 clip at home and .274 on the road...Limited foes to a .178 average (31-for-174) with runners in scoring position and just a .154 mark (2-for-13) with the bases loaded...In his 8 losses the Braves were outscored 40-12...Braves collected a total of just 25 hits and 3 runs in the 50.1 innings while Smoltz was in the game in those defeats...Twice (May 14 at Washington and June 5 vs. Florida) they were being no-hit when he left the game...Recorded quality starts in 26 of his 32 outings...Atlanta was 18-14 overall in his starts.

MORE 2007 HIGHLIGHTS: Allowed 2 runs on 2 hits in 8.0 innings in a no-decision vs. Milwaukee on September 22...Had a no-hitter for 5.2 innings before allowing a 2-out, 2-run homer to J.J. Hardy in the 6th inning...Carried a no-hitter into the 8th inning on September 7 vs. Washington before Ronnie Belliard's single to lead off the inning in a 7-1 win...Struck out 10 in the game, his 43rd career 10+ K performance...Made his first start of the year on 3-days rest (20th career) and did not figure in the decision in the Braves' 4-3 loss at Florida on August 28 as Atlanta batters fanned 19 times in the 11 innings...Made his 4th career Opening Day start on April 4 at Philadelphia, getting a no-decision after allowing 3 runs with 7 K's and one walk in 6.0 innings in a 5-3 Atlanta win (10 innings)...On April 26, agreed to terms on a contract extension that includes a guaranteed contract for 2008, a vesting option for 2009 and a club option for 2010.

SUMMARY: Signed a 3-year major league contract extending through the 2011 season with the Red Sox on December 11, 2008...The 22-year-old joins the organization after a 4-year amateur career with the Nippon Oil ENEOS of the Japan Industrial League, during which he went 14-3 with 11 saves and a 1.99 ERA (39 ER/176.2 IP) in 53 games/13 starts...Named the No. 7 prospect, the No. 5 pitcher in the Red Sox organization by Baseball America.

WITH THE ENEOS: Went 13-1 with 5 saves and a 0.80 ERA (10 ER/113.0 IP) in 21 games/11 starts in 2008...Struck out 114 batters and walked just 15 over 113.0 frames, an average of 9.1 K's per 9 innings...Established amateur career highs in nearly every category, including games, starts, complete games (6), shutouts (4), innings and strikeouts.

CORPORATE CHAMPS: Led the ENEOS to the semifinals of the league's corporate championship in November...Faced 3 batters over the minimum, allowing 5 hits with 2 walks and 4 K's over 9.0 scoreless innings in his first start of the tournament...In his last start of the competition, a quarter-finals match-up in Osaka on the 21st, allowed 4 hits and fanned 10 in a complete-game shutout.

TOURNAMENT HONORS: In September, helped Nippon Oil win the 32-team Intercity Baseball Tournament for the first time in 13 years...Appeared in all 5 of the ENEOS' games from September 1-9, and earned the event's Most Valuable Player award going 4-0 with one save and a 1.27 ERA...Tossed 8.0 innings or more with double-digit strikeouts in each of his first 2 tournament appearances, including a complete-game, 5-hit effort on September 4.

Had 10 or more K's on 4 occasions in 2008, and earned the MVP honors in the Sports Nippon Tournament after a career-high 18-strikeout performance in a quarterfinals start on March 23.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Did not allow an earned run in his first 5 appearances/2 starts of the season, March 19-April 11, going 3-0 with 2 saves over 21.1 innings in that span...Suffered his first loss of the year in 0.2 inning out of the bullpen on May 9...Had been 4-0 with 2 saves prior to the setback...Went undefeated in his remaining 12 games/7 starts from June 4-November 22, going 8-0 with 2 saves and a 1.12 ERA (9 ER/72.0 IP).

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: Made relief appearances in both ends of a doubleheader on March 25...Went 2.0 innings in each game, recording the save in the first game and the win in the 2nd...Tossed a 9.0-inning complete-game victory on April 12, allowing one earned run, his first of the season, with 8 hits and one walk while fanning 8...Earned wins in 4 straight appearances, including 3 starts, from September 1-8, fanning 32 while walking just 5 in that time.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

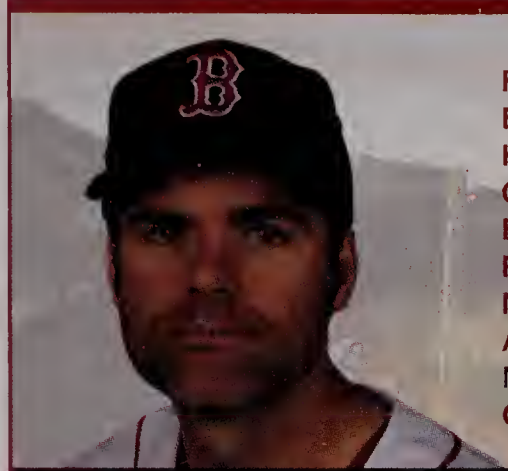

2007: Went 1-1 with a career-high 6 saves and a 3.91 ERA (20 ER/46.0 IP) in 20 games/2 starts...Struck out 46 and walked 11 in 46.0 innings...Surrendered just one home run all season...Issued just 2 earned runs in his first 8 games, a span of 12.1 innings from March 24-May 5...Tossed a season-high 5.0 innings in a start on September 18, allowing one earned run on 8 hits while fanning 3...Gave up runs in 6 of his 20 appearances overall.

2006: Did not record a decision over 5 relief outings, posting a 7.45 ERA (8 ER/9.2 IP)...Struck out 7 and walked one...Surrendered 14 hits including one home run.

2005: Was 0-1 with a 1.13 ERA (1 ER/8.0 IP) in 7 games out of the bullpen in his first year with the ENEOS...Struck out 7 and walked 4.

Akron and .340 (18-53) in 19 contests after being called up to Buffalo...Had a 14-game hitting streak at the time of his promotion, batting .423 (22-52) with 10 RBI and 10 runs...The streak was snapped after he went hitless in 2 at-bats in his Triple-A season debut...Reached base safely via a hit or walk in 27 straight games from May 23-June 23.

2006: Split the season between Akron and Buffalo, batting a combined .258 with 25 doubles, 7 triples, 15 home runs and 56 RBI in 113 games...Had identical .258 averages with each club...Made his Triple-A debut on June 20 after spending the previous year and a half in Double-A.

2005: Spent the entire season with Double-A Akron, earning Eastern League All-Star honors after ranking 2nd in the league in home runs (27) and walks (66)...The 27 long balls were 2nd most among all Indians minor leaguers.

2004: Played for Single-A Kinston of the Carolina League, ranking 3rd in the league with a .503 slugging percentage...Collected 22 doubles and 21 home runs while batting .276 in 113 games.

2003: Split the season between Single-A Lake County and Mahoning Valley, batting a combined .210 (55-262) with 6 homers and 33 RBI in 81 games...Had a career-high 22 combined steals.

2002: Played for Single-A Mahoning Valley and Columbus in his 2nd pro season...Had a .521 slugging percentage after tallying 7 doubles, 7 triples and 9 home runs in 57 games.

2001: Spent his first professional season with Short-Season Single-A Mahoning Valley, batting .252 with 6 homers and 17 RBI in 41 games.

PERSONAL

Was selected by the Cleveland Indians in the 29th round of the 2000 First-Year Player Draft...Did not sign until May 19, 2001...Pitched at Itawamba Junior College in Fulton, Mississippi after attending University Christian (MS) High School...Had spent his entire 7-year professional career in the Indians' minor league system before signing with Boston for the 2008 campaign.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMARY: Boston's all-time leader in games caught begins his 13th major league season, all with the Red Sox. The free agent finalized a one-year deal with dual club and player options for 2010 on February 6, 2009...Has played at least 130 games in 6 of the last 7 seasons with 10 or more homers in each of the last 7 campaigns...Owns a career major league average of .263 with 161 home runs and 654 RBI in 1,330 games.

STAYING PUT: A member of the Red Sox organization since a July 31, 1997 trade from the Seattle Mariners, Varitek has the 2nd-longest tenure on the club's current roster behind only Tim Wakefield (1995)...Is one of 12 players in history to spend their entire major league career of at least 10 seasons with the Red Sox.

Is one of 44 players in major league history to catch 1,000 games for a single franchise, and one of only 8 backstops to reach the milestone while spending his entire playing career with that club...Johnny Bench (Reds), Bill Dickey (Yankees), Bill Freehan (Tigers), Mike Scioscia (Dodgers), Jorge Posada (Yankees), Thurman Munson (Yankees) and Roy Campanella (Dodgers) also accomplished the feat

CATCH THIS: Has caught 1,273 games for the Red Sox, the most in club history...Is the only Red Sox ever to catch 1,000 games and is one of 109 players in major league history to reach that milestone...Moved past Hall of Famer Carlton Fisk, who held the Boston club record with 990 career games caught, on July 18, 2006 vs. Kansas City...Caught his 1,000th game on July 31, 2006 vs. Cleveland...Owns a .993 (62 E/8,549 TC) career fielding percentage, 2nd in club history among catchers with at least 500 games behind Tony Pena's .994 (20 E/3,476) mark.

Ranks 55th all-time in games caught and 5th among active players...Only Ivan Rodriguez (2,173), Brad Ausmus (1,887), Jason Kendall (1,774) and Jorge Posada (1,390) have more...Has the 8th-best career fielding percentage among active backstops with at least 500 games at the position.

NO-HITTERS: Is the only backstop in major league history to catch 4 no-hitters in his career: April 4, 2001 by Hideo Nomo; April 27, 2002 by Derek Lowe; September 1, 2007 by Clay Buchholz and May 19, 2008 by Jon Lester...Ray Schalk was originally credited with 4, but one of those no-hitters, Jim Scott on May 14, 1914, was later recinded by a rule change in 1991.

Has 115 homers as a catcher since 2002, 2nd in the majors over that span behind Jorge Posada (132)...His 444 RBI as a catcher ranks 4th in the majors during that stretch...Has homered in 23 different ballparks, tied with John Valentin for 2nd in club history behind Manny Ramirez (26).

AWARDS AND HONORS: Was honored with the 2006 Red Sox Heart and Hustle Award from the local chapter of the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association...The honor is presented to a player who exemplifies the values, tradition, and spirit of the game of baseball.

Was honored with his first career Silver Slugger Award as well as his first Rawlings Gold Glove in 2005...Became the first Red Sox catcher to receive a Silver Slugger honor (presented since 1980)...Is the 3rd Sox backstop to take home a Gold Glove, joining Carlton Fisk (1972) and Tony Pena (1991)... Was the first by any Red Sox player since Pena's honor 14 years earlier...In 2005, only 3 other major leaguers won both a Silver Slugger Award and a Gold Glove: Andruw Jones of the Braves, Derrek Lee of the Cubs and Mark Teixeira of the Rangers...Only 3 other Red Sox have ever won a Silver Slugger and Gold Glove in the same season: Dwight Evans (1981), Ellis Burks (1990) and Dustin Pedroia (2008).

Received the Thomas A. Yawkey Award in 2003, presented annually by the Boston chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America to the Red Sox MVP.

In his first full major league season in 1998, was named Red Sox Rookie of the Year by the Boston baseball writers.

SEEING STARS: Named a reserve to the A.L. All-Star team in 2008, his 3rd career selection, also 2003 and 2005... Caught the 6th and 7th innings and did not bat in the A.L.'s 4-3 15-inning win on July 15 at Yankee Stadium...Was voted to start the All-Star Game for the first time in his career in 2005...Went 1-for-1 with a walk and a run scored in the July 12 contest at Comerica Park in his native Detroit...Did not appear in the 2003 game, but was selected to his first A.L. All-Star team in the eTopps All-Star Final Vote on MLB.com...Joined teammates Manny Ramirez and Nomar Garciaparra on the roster for the 74th All-Star Game, July 15 at U.S. Cellular Field in Chicago...More than 10.6 million votes were cast in the Final Vote...Varitek outpolled White Sox first baseman Frank Thomas, Yankees first baseman Jason Giambi, A's outfielder Eric Byrnes and Angels catcher Bengie Molina.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN: Named the 18th full-time captain in Red Sox history upon signing a 4-year contract on December 24, 2004...According to research by Howard W. Rosenberg, Varitek is the first Sox captain since Jim Rice (1986-89)...Before Rice, Carl Yastrzemski served as captain in 1966 and 1969-83...Yaz was the club's first captain since Jimmie Foxx (1940-42) and only the 2nd Sox captain since 1923...From the inaugural 1901 season through 1923, the Red Sox had 14 different full-time captains, most serving for a single season.

POST-SEASON PERFORMER: Is Boston's all-time post-season leader in games (63) and at-bats (228), ranks 2nd in runs (37), hits (54), doubles (12) and home runs (11-tied), and is 3rd in RBI (33)...Has appeared in 52 of Boston's last 54 playoff games beginning in 2003, batting .240 (44-183) with 9 home runs, 28 RBI and 29 runs scored in that time...Ranks 3rd all-time in post-season starts at catcher behind Jorge Posada (88) and Yogi Berra (61)...Also ranks 3rd in post-season games behind the plate...Has 29 LCS starts at catcher, 2nd all-time, one behind Posada (30)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SENIOR SOX: Signed by the Red Sox on April 26, 1995, Wakefield enters his 15th season in Boston and is the active player with the longest continuous service in a Red Sox uniform...Mariano Rivera of the Yankees is the only other active major league pitcher to have worn the same uniform continuously since at least 1995...On April 19, 2005, Wake agreed to a contract extension through the 2006 season with club options thereafter...His 2009 option was exercised on October 31, 2008.

With 14 seasons in a Red Sox uniform, is tied with Bobby Doerr (1937-44; 46-51) for the 5th-most in club history, tops among pitchers after passing Bob Stanley (1977-89) and Roger Clemens (1984-96) in 2008...Only Carl Yastrzemski (23, 1961-83), Dwight Evans (19, 1972-90), Ted Williams (19, 1939-42; 46-60) and Jim Rice (16, 1974-89) have played more major league seasons for Boston... Is one of 23 pitchers in baseball history to spend at least 14 seasons with a single American League franchise...Only 16 of those hurlers have more than 14 campaigns with an A.L. club.

WAKE'S WINS: Owns 178 career victories, 9th among active hurlers...With 164 wins for Boston, ranks 3rd in club history behind Roger Clemens and Cy Young (192 each)...Earned his 150th victory with the Red Sox on his 41st birthday, August 2, 2007 vs. Baltimore...Is one of 3 active pitchers to record at least 150 wins with their current team, joining Tom Glavine (244 with ATL) and Andy Pettitte (178 with NYY).

Has recorded 10 wins in 10 different seasons for Boston, most recently in 2008 (10), tied with Roger Clemens for the most in club history...Became the 26th A.L. moundsman to reach that mark all with one team...Only 3 other active pitchers have done it: Tom Glavine (14) and John Smoltz (13) for Atlanta and Andy Pettitte (11) for the Yankees.

STRIKEOUTS: With 1,797 strikeouts with Boston, 2nd on the club's all-time list behind Roger Clemens (2,590)...In his first start of the season, April 4 at Toronto, struck out Vernon Wells in the 6th inning, the 1,684th K of his Red Sox career, passing Pedro Martinez (1,683) for the No. 2 spot in club history... Fanned Cleveland's Grady Sizemore in the 3rd inning on September 23 at Fenway Park, the 1,900th K of his career and finished the year with 1,907, tied with Jerry Reuss for 77th on the baseball's all-time list, 12th among active hurlers.

SUMMARY: Completed his 16th major league season, his 14th with Boston, tallying double-digit wins for the 2nd straight season and for the 6th time in the last 7 campaigns...

Finished 3rd among A.L. qualifiers with a .228 opponents batting average, trailing only Daisuke Matsuzaka (.211) and Detroit's Armando Galarraga (.226)...Since 1956, was the 8th-lowest mark by a major league pitcher at or above 41 years old...Was the 3rd-oldest pitcher to appear in the A.L. in 2008 behind Kenny Rogers (November 10, 1964) and Mike Timlin (March 10, 1966).

TIM IS TIMELESS: Logged his first win of the season in his 2nd start, a 12-6 victory over Detroit on April 10...At 41 years, 252 days old, passed Tom Seaver (41 years, 231 days on July 6, 1986) as the oldest right-handed Red Sox starter since 1956 to win at Fenway Park...In all, 7 of his 10 W's came at home, the last of which (September 23 vs. Cleveland) he did at 42 years, 52 days old...Since 1956, only 2 older righties have started and won at Fenway Park: Phil Niekro did it for the Yankees on June 13, 1984 (45 years, 73 days) and Gaylord Perry did it for Seattle on September 4, 1982 (43 years, 354 days) and again for Kansas City on August 13, 1983 (44 years, 332 days).

Tossed a complete game in a 1-0 loss at Seattle on May 28...At 41 years, 300 days, was the oldest Red Sox right-hander to go the distance since at least 1956...Was the oldest major league right-hander to throw one since Roger Clemens at 43 years, 19 days on August 23, 2005...Became the oldest A.L. righty to go the distance since Charlie Hough (44 years, 202 days) on July 25, 1992.

Wakefield -8.0 IP (41 years, 278 days) and Timlin - 1.0 IP (42 years, 57 days) teamed up to blank the Tigers, 5-0, on May 6 at Detroit, the first combined shutout by a team in modern major league history (since 1900) with all pitchers being at least 40 years old (Elias Sports Bureau).

At 41 years, 328 days, earned a 5-0 victory over Arizona's Randy Johnson (44 years, 289 days) on June 25 in Boston...With a combined age of 86 years, 252 days, was the oldest match-up in the history of Fenway Park...Beat New York, 7-3, on August 26, becoming the oldest Red Sox starter since 1956 to win at Yankee Stadium.

QUALITY CONTROL: Matched a career high with 18 quality starts, done previously in 2003 and 1995...Was the 2nd-highest total on the club behind Jon Lester (20) and tied for 17th in the A.L...Made 9 consecutive quality starts from May 28-July 12, going 3-3 despite a 2.13 ERA (15 ER/63.1 IP), 4th in the A.L. during that time...Matched the longest such streak of his career (May 16-June 29, 2001) and was the longest by a Red Sox hurler since Pedro Martinez's 10-gamer from July 14-September 11, 2002...Tied with Toronto's Roy Halladay (July 24-September 5) and the Angels' John Lackey (May 14-June 29) for the A.L.'s 2nd-longest streak of 2008...Oakland's Justin Duchscherer was the only A.L. pitcher with a longer run, 11 straight starts from May 24-July 20.

The first 7 starts of that streak, through July 1, were of 7.0 innings or more...Matched the longest such run of his career, done twice previously from September 26, 1993-June 14, 1995 and again from June 12-July 17, 2005...Lost 5 of his 18 quality starts, tied for the A.L. lead with 6 others.

HOME SWEET HOME: Was 7-4 with a 3.10 ERA (31 ER/90.0 IP) at home and 3-7 with a 5.14 ERA (52 ER/91.0 IP) on the road...Has been at or above .500 at home in each of the last 2 seasons and 6 of the last 7...Held opponents to a .206 average at Fenway Park, the 9th-lowest by a Red Sox pitcher since 1956 (minimum 50.0 IP)...Pedro Martinez (.204 in 2002) was the last Sox hurler to post a lower mark.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: After going 1-4 in 5 starts with a 5.25 ERA (21 ER/36.0 IP) in the month of May, went 2-1 with a 2.31 (9 ER/35.0 IP) mark in 5 June starts, 9th in the A.L. in that span...Held batters to a .190 (33-for-174) clip when leading off an inning, 2nd in the A.L. behind Detroit's Armando Galarraga (.186) but tied with Tampa Bay's Scott Kazmir and Baltimore's Jeremy Guthrie with a league-high 10 home runs allowed in that situation...Held foes to a .178 (18-for-101) average in his first inning pitched...Went 1-1 with a 2.73 ERA (8 ER/26.1 IP) in 4 interleague starts...Gave up 25 home runs, tied for 8th in the A.L., the most he has surrendered since 35 in 2005...Set a career high with 12 wild pitches, tied with Texas' Vicente Padilla for 2nd in the A.L...Matt Clement was the last Boston pitcher with more in a season, throwing 13 in 2005.

MORE 2008 HIGHLIGHTS: His 5-4 victory over Cleveland on September 23 marked the first of his career in a clinching game of any kind, regular season or playoffs...Combined with Manny Delcarmen (1.0) to shut out Toronto, 7-0 on September 2, allowing just 3 hits while fanning 4 over 8.0 innings...Allowed 7 runs on 4 hits and 4 walks and did not fan a batter over 1.2 innings on September 6 at Texas, the 500th appearance of his career...Was his shortest start since a career-low 1.0-inning outing for Pittsburgh on June 11, 1993 vs. Florida, his 26th career game...Beat New York, 7-3, on August 26 in the Bronx...Gave up 3 runs on 8 hits with one walk and one strikeout for his first win at Yankee Stadium since May 11, 2006...Beat Seattle, 11-3, on June 7, his first win against the Mariners since July 29, 1997, a span of 18 games (8 starts).

SUMMARY: Rebounded from an injury-plagued 2006 season to rank 8th in the A.L. with 17 wins, matching a career high set in 1998...At 41 years old, became the 2nd Boston hurler over the age of 40 to win at least 17 games in a season, joining Cy Young, who won 21 games in both 1907 and 1908....Made at least 30 starts for the 4th time in 5 seasons...Went 11-3 with a 4.12 ERA (41 ER/89.2 IP) over a 14-start stretch from June 12-August 25, leading the majors in wins in that span.

DECISIONS, DECISIONS: Earned a decision in each of his first 26 starts, the longest such streak in the majors since Jack McDowell's 27 in a row for the White Sox to begin 1993 season...The last Sox pitcher to get a decision in at least his first 26 starts was Danny MacFayden (26) in 1929...Last Sox pitchers with longer such streaks were Red Ruffing (30) and Ed Morris (29), both in 1928...Club record is 43 by Cy Young in 1902...First no-decision of 2007 came on September 6 at Baltimore.

IN AWE OF HIS AUGUST: Was named the Red Sox Player of the Month for August after going 4-1 with a 2.45 ERA (9 ER/33.0 IP) in 5 starts...Completed the month with a scoreless streak of 22.0 innings over his final 3 starts (3-0), August 13-25.

BREAKDOWN: In his first 7 starts through May 10, went 4-3 with a 1.79 ERA (9 ER/45.1 IP)...Followed that stretch by going 9-7 with a 6.22 ERA (67 ER/97.0 IP) in his next 16 starts through August 7...Tossed 22.0 consecutive scoreless innings to earn the win in each of his next 3 starts, allowing just 9 hits in that span...Gave up 25 runs (24 earned) in 24.2 innings over his final 5 starts...Allowed one earned run or less in 11 of his 31 starts overall.

SUPPORT STORY: The Sox gave Wakefield 96 runs of support in his 17 wins, an average of 5.6 runs per game...However, Boston has scored just 19 runs while Tim was in the game in his 12 losses, an average of 1.6 runs per contest.

In his last 16 losses beginning June 15, 2006, the Red Sox have scored a total of 19 runs while Wakefield has been in the game, all coming in his 12 losses in 2007...In his last 23 losses dating to the start of 2006, Boston has scored a combined 25 runs while Wakefield was in, an average of 1.1 runs per game, including no runs 9 times and one run 8 times.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Did not allow a home run in 7 consecutive starts from July 17-August 25, a span of 51.2 innings...Was 10-4 with a 5.27 ERA (55 ER/94.0 IP) in 15 starts at home and 7-8 with a 4.26 ERA (45 ER/95.0 IP) in 16 road starts...Fared better with increased rest, posting a 5.59 ERA (52 ER/83.2 IP) in 14 starts on 4 days of rest, a 4.28 ERA (36 ER/75.2 IP) in 12 starts on 5 days of rest and a 3.64 ERA (12 ER/29.2 IP) in 5 starts on 6-plus days of rest...Gave up 3 runs or more in an inning 15 times in 2007...51 of his 104 runs allowed (49 percent) came in those 15 innings.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2006: Went 7-11 with a 4.63 ERA, limited to 23 starts due to just his 2nd career stint on the disabled list...Landed on the disabled list from July 22-September 13 with a stress fracture in his rib cage, his first D.L. stay since missing only 15 days in 1997 due to right elbow inflammation...His 23 starts were his fewest appearances in a season since his rookie season of 1992 (13) with Pittsburgh while his 140.0 innings were his fewest since 1999 with the Red Sox (also 140.0).

2005: Was named Red Sox Pitcher of the Year by the Boston chapter of the BBWAA after leading the club in wins (16), starts (33), innings (225.1), strikeouts (151), complete games (3) and opponents average by a starter (.245)...Finished 16-12 with a 4.15 ERA in 33 starts, pitching exclusively as a starter for the first time since 1996...Ranked among A.L. leaders in wins (tied for 5th with 16), starts (tied for 8th with 33), complete games (tied for 4th with 3), innings pitched (6th with 225.1) and strikeouts (11th with 151)...His .245 opponents average allowed was 6th-best in the A.L.

1996: Finished at 14-13 with a 5.14 ERA in 32 starts...Equalled his 1995 career best with 6 complete games, 4th-most in the A.L...Served up a career-high 38 home runs, 3rd-most in the A.L. and most ever by a Red Sox (Earl Wilson allowed 37 homers in 1964)...Hurled back-to-back complete-game victories August 5 vs. Toronto and August 10 at Milwaukee, when he fanned 10 to match his career high...Was rewarded with A.L. Player of the Week honors for the week of August 5-11...Was 2-0 with a 1.50 ERA (3 ER/18.0 IP), walking 2 and striking out 18.

1995: Released by the Pirates during spring training, Wakefield signed a minor league contract with the Red Sox on April 27 and went on to finish 3rd in A.L. Cy Young voting behind only Randy Johnson and Jose Mesa...Went 2-1 with a 2.52 ERA in 4 starts for the PawSox and had his contract purchased by the Red Sox May 27...Went on to lead the club with 16 wins and a 2.95 ERA, 2nd in the A.L...Started 14-1 before dropping 7 of his last 9 decisions...His 6 complete games tied for 4th in the league...Was 2nd on the club with 27 starts and 195.1 innings and 3rd with 119 strikeouts...Held opponents to a .227 average, 4th in the A.L...June 4 vs. Seattle, threw a 10.0-inning complete game in his Fenway Park debut, throwing 134 pitches in a 2-1 win...Before his own throwing error led to an unearned run in the 10th, had worked 22.1 consecutive scoreless innings...Did not allow an earned run for 32.0 innings...Won 10 consecutive starts June 29-August 13, the first Red Sox to turn that trick since Ellis Kinder won 13 straight in 1949...The last to win 10 straight decisions was Mike Boddicker in 1990...Roger Clemens won his first 14 decisions in 1986...The 10-game winning streak matched a run by Atlanta's Greg Maddux as the longest in baseball in 1995.

1994: Spent the entire season at Triple-A Buffalo, where he went 5-15 with a 5.84 ERA in 30 games, including a league-high 29 starts...Ranked 4th in the American Association with 175.2 innings pitched...Led the league in losses, walks (98) and homers allowed (27).

1993: Started the Pirates' season opener, earning a 9-4 win April 6 vs. San Diego...Worked a career-high 10.0 innings-plus in a 6-2 win April 27 at Atlanta, the first Pirate to hurl 10.0-plus innings since Rick Reuschel May 25, 1986...Threw 172 pitches in the game, most by any major leaguer since Fernando Valenzuela threw 173 pitches August 30, 1987...After making his first 26 big league appearances as a starter, made his bullpen debut June 14 at St. Louis...Threw a 4-hit shutout in a 5-0 win September 30 vs. Philadelphia in what would be his final Pirates appearance, becoming the first Pirate to toss back-to-back shutouts since Randy Tomlin in 1991...Hit his only big league homer July 7 at Houston off Mark Portugal.

1992: Opened the season at Triple-A Buffalo and by the end of the season was a post-season hero and The Sporting News National League Rookie Pitcher of the Year...Between Buffalo and Pittsburgh, went 20-4 with a 2.71 ERA and 12 complete games in 35 regular season and post-season starts...Called up by the Pirates on July 31, went the distance to win his major league debut that night, earning a 3-2 win vs. St. Louis...Allowed 2 unearned runs on 6 hits in 9.0 innings, with 5 walks and 10 K's...Worked at least 8.0 innings in each of his first 4 starts with the Pirates, opening 3-0 with a 1.32 ERA (5 ER/34.0 IP) before suffering his lone big league loss of 1992 August 21 at San Francisco...Threw his first career shutout August 26 at Los Angeles...Went on to win both of his NLCS starts vs. Atlanta with a pair of complete-game efforts.

1991: Led Pirates farmhands in wins (15), innings (187.2) and complete games (8), at 15-8 with a 2.90 ERA in 26 games/25 starts for Double-A Carolina and 0-1 with an 11.57 ERA in one start for Triple-A Buffalo.

1990: In his first full season as a pitcher, went 10-14 with a 4.73 ERA in a Carolina League-leading 28 starts for Single-A Salem...threw 2 complete games and worked a league-high 190.1 innings.

1989: Opened the season with Single-A Augusta, where he played 6 games at third base and 2 at first...hit .235 with 5 RBI in 11 games before being sent to short-season Single-A Welland, where he was converted into a pitcher...went 1-1 with 2 saves and a 3.40 ERA on 18 games (one start).

1988: Made his professional debut with Watertown of the short-season Single-A New York-Penn League, where he played 54 games as a first baseman and hit .189 with 3 homers and 20 RBI.

CAREER NOTES

SUMMARY: Boston's 8th-round selection in the 2001 First-Year Player Draft enters his 6th major league season with the club since debuting in 2004...The 2-time World Series champion won a Gold Glove in 2007 and in 2008 set career highs in nearly every offensive category on his way to his first All-Star selection... He received the 2008 Hank Aaron Award and finished 3rd in American League MVP voting... On January 16, 2009, he agreed to a 4-year contract with Boston with a club option for 2013.

DEFENSIVE EXCELLENCE: Owns all-time major league records for first basemen with 238 consecutive errorless games and 2,002 total chances without a miscue from July 4, 2006-June 7, 2008...The previous marks were 193 games for Steve Garvey, June 26, 1983-April 14, 1985, and 1,700 total chances for Stuffy McInnis, May 31, 1921-June 2, 1922.

In 2007, became the first qualifying first baseman in A.L. history to compile a 1,000 fielding percentage, handling 1,080 total chances without an error in 135 games/124 starts...San Diego's Steve Garvey, who handled 1,319 errorless chances over 159 games in 1984, is the only other qualifier ever with a 1,000 fielding percentage at first base...Youkilis' 135 consecutive errorless games in 2007 established an A.L. mark surpassing Tampa Bay's Travis Lee (121), May 9-September 28, 2003...

Has a career fielding percentage of .9972 (9 E/3252 TC) in 396 games at first base, the 2nd-best figure in major league history among players with at least 350 games at the position...Only Atlanta's Casey Kotchman ranks higher at .9973 (8 E/2915 TC).

SOLID GOLD: Was selected as the first baseman on the 2007 A.L. Rawlings Gold Glove Team...Was just the 2nd Red Sox first baseman to ever earn a Gold Glove, joining 3-time recipient George Scott (1967-68, 1971)...The voting is conducted by A.L. managers and coaches...Is one of 3 Boston players to earn a Gold Glove in the last 17 seasons (beginning 1992) with Jason Varitek (2005) and Dustin Pedroia (2008).

ALL-STAR: Elected as the starting first baseman for the A.L. in the 2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium...Played the first 5 innings at first base, going 0-for-2 at the plate...Was the 7th Red Sox to start an All-Star Game at first base, joining Jimmie Foxx (1938; 40), Walt Dropo (1950), Mickey Vernon (1956), George Scott (1966), Mo Vaughn (1996), and David Ortiz (2006-07).

HONOR ROLL: Was the recipient of the 2008 Sharp presents Hank Aaron Award for the A.L., given annually to the best overall offensive performer in each league as voted on by fans...Became the 3rd Red Sox player to earn the honor since its inception in 1999, joining David Ortiz (2005) and Manny Ramirez (2004)...Also took home the 2008 Jackie Jensen Award for spirit and determination as announced by the Boston BBWAA chapter...Was his 2nd such honor after winning it in 2007 as well, joining Johnny Damon (2004-05) as the only 2-time recipients.

REACHING BASE: Has compiled a .387 on-base percentage over 4 seasons beginning in 2005, 8th among A.L. players with at least 2,000 plate appearances in that span...Finished 6th in the league first 19 games through April 20...Went 3-for-34 over his next 10 contests, falling to .287 through May 2...Then went on a .394 (26-for-66) tear in next 16 games before a .197 (12-for-61) slide in the following 16 contests left him at .294 on June 10...Hit .327 (99-for-303) over his final 82 games, going over the .300 mark for good on June 12...Finished with a .333 (15-for-45) average over final 14 games and was 7-for-17 with 3 homers and 8 RBI in 6 games on final homestand.

Hit safely in 101 of 143 games with a plate appearance, reaching safely in 124 contests...Was on base via a hit, walk, or hit by pitch in 44 consecutive games from July 12-September 10, the longest such streak in the majors in 2008 and the longest by a Red Sox since Wade Boggs, 57 games from May 27-July 31, 1985...Season-high hitting streak was 12 games, July 23-August 5...Posted a season-high 4 hits, June 27 at Houston.

BY THE NUMBERS: Ranked 6th among A.L. qualifiers with a .374 (55-for-147) average with runners in scoring position and was 7th with a .344 (53-for-154) mark in day games...Had league's 6th-best average versus righthanders at .318 (138-434)...Batted .400 (22-for-55) in interleague play.

HOME RUNS/RBI: His 29 homers were the most for a Red Sox righthanded batter other than Manny Ramirez (6 times with 29+) and Nomar Garciaparra (3 times) since Nick Esasky (30) in 1989...Hit 23 homers while playing first base, most for a Red Sox since Mo Vaughn (36) in 1998...Homered every 18.55 at-bats, 10th best ratio in the league.

Hit 2 homers in a game 4 times, tying Detroit's Miguel Cabrera and Chicago's Carlos Quentin for the 2nd-most multi-HR games in the A.L. behind Cleveland's Grady Sizemore (5): April 22 vs. Los Angeles; June 22 vs. St. Louis; August 2 vs. Oakland; and August 12 vs. Texas...Had 3 game-winning homers in the 8th inning or later: June 14 at Cincinnati (10th inning); June 22 vs. St. Louis (walk-off in 13th inning); and August 12 vs. Texas (8th inning)...Connected his first career grand slam, July 12 vs. Baltimore...Had 6 homers in 7 games, May 4-10.

Had 32 multi-RBI games, 3rd most in the A.L. behind Texas' Josh Hamilton (40) and Minnesota's Justin Morneau (33)...Had 65 RBI in final 61 games beginning July 9 with 14 in first 6 games of that span...Drove in a career-high 6 runs, July 12 vs. Baltimore.

IN THE FIELD: Ranked 5th among A.L. qualifiers with a .996 (4 E/1014 TC) fielding percentage in 125 games at first base...Error on June 7 was first at that position since July 4, 2006 at Tampa Bay, a major league record span of 238 errorless games and 2,002 total chances without an error...Fielded .969 (3 E/96 TC) in 35 games at 3rd base...Played 1st and 3rd base in the same game 19 times...Also appeared defensively twice in right field.

ODDS AND ENDS: Missed time during the season with sore right hand and back spasms...Batted in the 2nd through 6th spots in the order.

SUMMARY: Finished 2nd on the club in on-base percentage (.390) and 3rd in walks (77), ranking 12th and 15th, respectively among A.L. players...Tied for 3rd on the Red Sox in runs (85) and placed 4th in batting average (.288), games (145-tied), at-bats (528), hits (152), and RBI (83)...Established then-career bests for average, homers and RBI...Started 124 games at 1st base and 12 at 3rd base...Selected as the 2007 recipient of the Jackie Jensen Award for spirit and determination by the Boston BBWAA chapter.

SEASON BREAKDOWN/LONG STREAK: Hit .242 in season's first 17 games through April 23 before going on a .407 (55-for-135) tear in his next 32 contests, improving to .353 on June 1...Hit safely in 23 straight games from May 5-June 1, tied for the 3rd longest streak in the majors in 2007...Batted .426 (43-for-101) with 13 doubles, 6 home runs, 21 RBI and 21 runs during the streak...Played in 21 games at first base during that span for the 2nd longest streak ever by a Red Sox first baseman (George Burns, 23 in 1922)...Collected at least 2 hits in 17 of the 23 games...Had multi-hits in 9 straight games from May 20-29, tied with Jim Rice (1978) for the longest such streak ever by a Red Sox...Reached a season-best .358 on May 29.

RED SOX INTRODUCE NEW LOGOS AND UNIFORMS

On December 11, 2008, in a ceremony at Game On! Sports Bar in Boston, the Red Sox unveiled new club logos, uniforms, and hats that will debut on the field at the start of the 2009 season.

The "Hanging Sox" logo – a prominent mainstay in the club's collection of logos since it first appeared on a Red Sox uniform in 1931 – became the team's new primary logo and will be used more frequently in the future. The "Circle Sox" logo, in redesigned form, now serves as a secondary logo along with the red "B".

All three logos were streamlined to reflect uniformity in font and messaging. The "Circle Sox" logo was further distilled and now the words "BOSTON" and "RED SOX" are in red and appear in the same font as the lettering on the team uniforms. Some additional graphic adjustments were made to clarify and refine the image.

There are now four uniform options – primary and alternate home, and primary and alternate road. All uniforms feature lettering in the same font, which is also used in the "Circle Sox" secondary logo. The lettering has the appearance of hand-cut felt, reflecting the strong connection to the ballclub's history and tradition.

The Red Sox will wear a new gray primary road uniform in 2008. These "retro roadies" feature the word "BOSTON" in blue lettering across the chest and include a "Hanging Sox" patch on the left sleeve. The new alternate road uniform is a combination of gray pants and blue jersey with "BOSTON" in red lettering across the chest. Both the home and road alternate uniforms feature new alternate "Hanging Sox" logo hats. No changes were made to the primary home uniform.

Additionally, both home primary and alternate uniforms feature only the uniform number on the back. The road primary and alternate uniforms have both last name and uniform number of the player on the back.

Inspiration for the uniform changes started during a "turn back the clock" game against the San Diego Padres on June 22, 2007. The Red Sox wore gray road uniforms from the early 1980s, and team ownership and management were taken with the appeal of the traditional look. The team approached Major League Baseball with the request to design road uniforms that would reflect the heritage and history of the ballclub in a similar way. During the year-long process, the decision was made to extend the design refinement to other uniforms and the logos.

2008 SEASON RECAP AND HIGHLIGHTS

BEST OF SIX: The Red Sox earned post-season berth for the 5th time in the last 6 years since 2003, matching the Yankees for the most playoff appearances in that time. In that time, Boston is the only defending World Series champion to earn a playoff spot in the next season, doing it in both 2005 and 2008. The Red Sox defeated the Angels in the ALDS in 4 games and advanced to Game 7 of the ALCS before losing to the Rays. It marked the 4th time in that 6-year span that the Red Sox have advanced to ALCS Game 7, also in 2003 and 2004 vs. NYY and in 2007 vs. CLE.

- Boston's ALCS Game 7 loss at Tampa Bay snapped a 9-game winning streak in ALCS elimination games, a League Championship Series record dating back to Game 7 of the 2003 ALCS at Yankee Stadium. The Red Sox won 9 such ALCS games: 4 in 2004, 3 in 2007 and 2 in 2008.

THE COMEBACK STORY: The Red Sox rallied from a 7-0 deficit in the 7th inning for a walk-off 8-7 victory in ALCS Game 5 at Fenway Park. According to the Elias Sports Bureau:

- The 7-run deficit to win marked the 2nd largest ever in a post-season game. In Game 4 of the 1929 World Series, the Athletics scored 10 runs in the 7th to overcome an 8-0 deficit and defeat the Cubs, 10-8 at Philadelphia.
- It was the largest comeback ever in a game where a team faced elimination in a playoff series. The previous largest margin was 5: Seattle vs. New York in Game 5 of the 1995 ALDS and Anaheim in Game 6 of the 2002 World Series vs. San Francisco.

THE 2008 RECORD: The Red Sox completed the regular season at 95-67, a .586 winning percentage that ranked as the 3rd best in the American League and 4th overall in the majors. It was the 11th consecutive year that the Red Sox have had a winning record, 2nd longest current streak in majors to Yankees with 16. It is the 2nd longest string of consecutive winning seasons in club history to 16 years in a row from 1967-82.

- It is the 6th time that the Red Sox have won 95 games in a season (1904-75-86-03-05-08), matching the 10th highest single season win total in team history.
- The Red Sox have 90+ victories in 8 of the last 11 years and 26 times in club history.
- This is the 6th time in the last 10 years (beginning 1999) that the Red Sox have won at least 94 games, the 5th in the last 6 seasons.
- Boston reached a season high 29 games over .500 at 94-65 on September 25.

BREAKING IT DOWN: The Red Sox went 34-19 in their final 53 games beginning August 1, the 2nd best record in the major leagues over that span:

BEST RECORDS IN MAJORS STARTING AUGUST 1

- Boston was 38-27 (.585) after the All-Star break, 3rd best in the A.L. and 7th overall in the majors with a 81-53 mark beginning April 29.

THE SECOND POSITION: 2008 is the 22nd time that the Red Sox have finished in 2nd place in the league (1901-68) or division (1969-2008) in club history, the 8th in the last 11 years but 1st since 2004. In 2005, Boston and New York tied for the best record in the A.L. East with the Yankees earning the Division championship based on the better record in head-to-head play.

- Boston spent the last 73 days of the season in 2nd place, The Red Sox had a half game lead at the All-Star break but were never in front in the 2nd half, coming closest when trailing by percentage points on September 15.
- The Red Sox held the A.L. East's top position for 63 days, the longest continuous span being 25 days from June 4-28. Boston's largest lead was 3.5 games for 4 consecutive days, May 5-8. Its largest deficit was 5.5 games on August 23 and 31.

LAST TWO YEARS: The Red Sox are 191-133 in 2007-08, a .590 winning percentage that ranks 2nd to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim at .599 (194-130) in that span.

SIX-YEAR RUN: Since the start of 2003, the Red Sox have the 2nd best overall regular season record in the majors and join the Yankees (5) as the only MLB team to advance to post-season play as many as 5 times:

- In Theo Epstein's 6 years as Red Sox General Manager, Boston has made 5 post-season appearances, most of any Sox G.M....Lou Gorman and Dan Duquette each presided over 3 playoff teams.

- Terry Francona is the 1st Sox manager to take a team to the post-season in more than 2 seasons with his playoff appearances in 2004, 2005, 2007, and 2008. Bill Carrigan (1915-16), Joe Morgan (1988; 90) and Jimy Williams (1998-99) each had a pair of playoff appearances with Boston.

AT FENWAY PARK: the Red Sox finished at 56-25 (.691), the 2nd best home winning percentage in the majors to Tampa Bay at .704 (57-24). Since the schedule expanded from 77 to 81 home games in 1961, Boston has won as many as 56 Fenway contests just once previously at 59-23 (.720) in 1978. This is the club's 2nd best home winning percentage in the last 58 years beginning in 1951.

ON THE ROAD: At 38-42, the Red Sox had a losing road record for just the 2nd time since 1998 (38-43 in 2006). Boston's .481 road winning percentage tied for 4th best in the A.L. Beginning July 21, the Red Sox were 7-1-1 in their last 9 road series. In that span, the Sox posted an 18-10 away record, a .643 winning percentage that was 2nd best in the majors in that span to the Cubs at .677 (21-10).

- On 2 previous occasions, the Red Sox have advanced to post-season play with a losing regular season road record: .444 (36-45) in 1988 and .457 (37-44) in 1990.

BATTING: Boston finished 3rd in the majors with a .280 team average, trailing only Texas (.283) and St. Louis (.281). The Red Sox topped the majors in walks for the 2nd consecutive year at 646 and was also 1st with a .358 on-base percentage. The club was 2nd in the majors to the Rangers with 2503 total bases and 353 doubles and also finished 2nd in the league with 845 runs, 62 sacrifice flies, 3rd most in the last 54 seasons, and 49 intentional walks. The Red Sox were 3rd in the A.L. with 1565 hits and 6th at 173 homers.

- Boston batted .292 at Fenway Park, the 2nd best home average in the A.L. behind Texas (.297). The Red Sox matched their 2007 total with 79 homers in Boston, fewest since 2002.

- On the road, the Red Sox batted .2682, just behind the league leading Rangers (.2684) and topped the A.L. with 94 homers.

A RECORD NIGHT: Boston established several records in 19-17 win over Texas on August 12 at Fenway Park:

- The 2 teams combined to score 36 runs, tying the A.L. record for most runs, both clubs, in a game of any length. It had been accomplished just once previously, June 29, 1950, when the Red Sox beat the A's in Philadelphia, 22-14. The ML record is 49 on August 25, 1922, when the Cubs beat the Phillies, 26-23. Boston and Texas combined for 35 RBI, also tying the A.L. mark set in that 1950 game.

- The 17 runs are the most the Red Sox have ever allowed in a win. The previous high was 14 on 3 occasions, June 29, 1950 at Philadelphia (22-14); August 28, 1950 vs. Cleveland (15-14); and July 5, 1998 vs. Chicago (15-14). The last major league team to issue as many runs while winning was Colorado, which beat Florida, 18-17 on July 4, 2008.

- Boston's 19 total runs were their most in a game since a 25-8 win over Florida on June 27, 2003. The Sox scored 10 times in the 1st inning for their most productive frame since a 14-run 1st in that 2003 victory over the Marlins.

PITCHING: The Red Sox were 4th in the American League with a 4.01 team earned run average. Boston led the majors with 16 shutouts, most by an A.L. club since the Red Sox' 17 in 2002, and finished 1st in the A.L. with 1185 strikeouts, 2nd most in team history to 1259 in 2001. The team ranked 3rd in lowest opponents batting average in the A.L. at .250. Boston allowed 15 or more runs 5 times, matching Colorado for the 2nd most in the majors, one fewer than Texas.

- Starters were 71-47 with a 4.02 ERA, the team's lowest since 2002 (3.53). The rotation ranked 2nd in the A.L. with 767 strikeouts and a .251 OPP BA and tied for 2nd in wins.

- The bullpen was 24-20 with a 4.00 ERA, the latter ranking 7th in the majors. Sox converted 47 of 69 save tries, a 68.1% success rate that ranked 6th in the league.

- Boston finished 5th in the A.L. with a 3.78 ERA at home and posted the A.L.'s 3rd best road figure at 4.26. The club led the A.L. with 589 road strikeouts and a .246 opponents batting average.

IT TAKES A THIEF: Boston ranked 3rd in the A.L. with 120 stolen bases, the team's most in the last 92 years (beginning 1917)...Sox had 120+ SB 13 times from 1901-16 with a club record 215 in 1909.

- Three Red Sox stole 20+ bases: Jacoby Ellsbury (50), Coco Crisp (20), and Dustin Pedroia (20)... It was the 1st time Boston had 3 players with 20+ steals since 1914: Tris Speaker (42), Hal Janvrin (29), and Duffy Lewis (22). The only ML teams with 3 players at 20+ steals in 2008 were Philadelphia and Tampa Bay.

FIELDING: Boston finished 3rd in the American League with a .9858 fielding percentage (85 E/6021 TC), just behind Toronto at .9863 and New York at .9861. It was the team's 3rd highest fielding percentage ever to its major league record .989 mark in 2006 and .9863 in 2007. Boston turned the 3rd fewest double plays in the A.L. at 149 and led the A.L. with 18 passed balls. The Boston outfield had the league's highest fielding percentage at .992 (8 E/1058 TC).

PLAYERS USED: The Red Sox used 46 players in the 2008 regular season, 22 pitchers and 24 position players after employing 40 players in 2007 and 53 in 2006, including a club record 28 pitchers in the latter season. Boston used a total of 14 rookies, 6 pitchers and 8 position players.

STREAKS, WINNING AND LOSING: The Red Sox longest winning streak of 2008 was 7 games, May 17 (G1)-22. The club lost 5 straight games on 2 occasions, April 23-27 and June 28-July 2.

ATTENDANCE POOL: For the 9th consecutive year, the Red Sox established a new club record for home attendance, an accomplishment unprecedented in Major League Baseball. A total of 3,048,248 fans attended the 81 home games at Fenway Park, surpassing 2007's mark of 2,971,025 and putting the Red Sox over the 3 million mark for the 1st time.

- 2008 is the 12th straight season that the Red Sox have had an increase in home attendance, the longest current streak in the majors, and the 14th year in a row the club has surpassed the 2 million mark in home attendance.
- For the 5th consecutive season, the Red Sox played to capacity crowds at every home game. By season's end, the Red Sox' streak of consecutive regular season sellouts had increased to a major league record 469. That streak, which began on May 15, 2003, surpassed Cleveland's span of 455 straight sellouts from June 12, 1995 through April 2, 2001 on September 8 versus Tampa Bay.
- Boston's total attendance for 81 road dates was 3,107,743, the highest in the majors for the 2nd consecutive season and the 3rd highest single season total in major league history. Only the 2004 New York Yankees (3,308,666) and the 2007 Red Sox (3,130,043) totals have been greater.

2008 ALDS

The Red Sox celebrate after beating the Angels in the decisive 4th game of the 2008 American League Division Series on a walk-off single by Jed Lowrie.

RED SOX IN THE POSTSEASON

The Red Sox are 79-69-1 all-time in post-season play, having advanced to the postseason 19 times in 108 American League seasons, including 11 times in the last 23 years and 5 times in the last 6 years. The Red Sox are 16-12 in 28 post-season series, having gone 5-3 in 8 trips to the A.L. Division Series (16-11 in Division Series play), 4-5 in 9 trips to the A.L. Championship Series (22-29 in ALCS play) and 7-4 in 11 trips to the World Series (41-26-1 in World Series games).

The Red Sox set a major league record with an 8-game winning streak to close out their run to the World Championship in 2004. In 2005, the Chicago White Sox matched that mark by winning their final 8 games en route to the World Championship. The Red Sox also had a 7-game winning streak starting from Game 5 of the 2007 A.L. Championship Series en route to winning the World Championship in 2007.

The Red Sox are 43-31-1 in post-season home games, including a 36-29-1 post-season mark at Fenway Park. They hosted home World Series games at the Huntington Avenue Grounds in 1903 and at Braves Field in 1915 and 1916.

RED SOX IN THE WORLD SERIES

The Boston Americans, who became the Red Sox in 1908, won the first World Series ever held (1903), which also was one of only four best-of-nine Series to be played (again in 1919-21). By beating the Pittsburgh Pirates of the more established National League, they caused such an embarrassment that the N.L. refused to participate the following year, when the Red Sox repeated as A.L. Champions. The Red Sox have won 7 of the 11 Series in which they have played (with seven-game losses in 1946-67-75-86), holding an overall record of 41-26-1 in games played.

The Cardinals battled back from 7-2 and 9-7 deficits to tie the score, but Mark Bellhorn's 2-run homer off the right-field foul pole on a 1-2 pitch from Julian Tavaraz in the 8th proved too much, as the Red Sox won their first World Series game since Game 5 of the 1986 Fall Classic. Boston jumped out to a 4-0 advantage in the first on David Ortiz's 3-run blast and Bill Mueller's RBI single. After the Cardinals tied it at 7-7 in the 6th, the Sox took a 9-7 lead on RBI singles by Manny Ramirez and Ortiz. St. Louis came back in the next half inning to tie the score again, using an Edgar Renteria RBI single off Keith Foulke and a Ramirez fielding error on Larry Walker's fly to left that scored Roger Cedeno. Foulke worked out of a bases-loaded jam to end the threat in the 8th, getting Scott Rolen to pop out and striking out Jim Edmonds.

Curt Schilling, who earlier in the day had all but ruled himself out of his start because of pain from his sutured tendon in his right ankle, decided to pitch just hours before the game and went on to allow just one unearned run over 6.0 innings as the Red Sox were able to overcome 4 errors, 3 by Bill Mueller, to win 6-4 and take a 2-0 series lead over the Cardinals. Mark Bellhorn's 2-run double in the 4th proved to be the difference. Varitek got things going in the first with a 2-out, 2-run triple to the triangle in right-center field, and Orlando Cabrera closed out Boston's scoring with a 2-out, 2-run single to left. Alan Embree relieved Schilling in the 7th, striking out the only 3 batters he faced. Keith Foulke fanned Jim Edmonds to end the 8th, and retired the side in order in the 9th to close it out.

Pedro Martinez allowed just 3 hits in 7.0 shutout innings, and Manny Ramirez hit his 4th career World Series home run as the Red Sox stymied the Cardinals 4-1 to move within one win of ending their 86-year title drought. It was 2 key defensive plays that helped keep St. Louis scoreless through the first 8 innings. After Ramirez's solo homer in the top of the first, the Red Sox left fielder in the bottom half ended a one-out, bases-loaded jam by throwing out Larry Walker at the plate trying to tag up from third on Jim Edmonds' fly-ball out. Then in the 3rd inning, with Jeff Suppan on third and Edgar Renteria on second, Walker grounded one to Mark Bellhorn, who threw to David Ortiz at first for the out. Suppan was caught between third and home on the play, and Ortiz threw a strike to Bill Mueller at third to get the Cardinals pitcher diving back to the bag. The Sox used RBI singles from Trot Nixon (4th inning), Ramirez (5th) and Mueller (5th) for their other 3 runs.

The Red Sox shut out the Cardinals 3-0 to clinch their first World Series Championship since 1918. With 2 outs and Albert Pujols on second in the 9th, Edgar Renteria grounded a comebacker to Keith Foulke, who flipped to Doug Mientkiewicz at first for the final out and a 4-game sweep of the National League champs. Derek Lowe matched Pedro Martinez's effort from the night before, allowing only 3 hits in 7.0 scoreless innings. Johnny Damon's first-inning, lead-off homer got things started, and the Sox offense tacked on 2 more in the 3rd when Trot Nixon smacked a 3-0 pitch off the right-center field wall for a 2-run double. Boston never trailed in the series, becoming only the 4th team in history to win a World Series in that manner, joining the '63 Dodgers, '66 Orioles and '89 Athletics. Manny Ramirez was named World Series MVP, going 7-for-17 (.412) with a homer and 4 RBI.

RED SOX FACTS - Who Said It Can't Be Done?

The 2004 Red Sox became the first team in baseball history and just the third team in the history of Major League Baseball, the NBA and the NHL, to overcome a 3-0 deficit to win a best-of-7 post-season series when they beat the Yankees in a 7-game ALCS...both previous instances had come in hockey...Toronto rallied past Detroit in the 1942 Stanley Cup Finals, and the Islanders turned the trick against Pittsburgh in the 2nd round of the 1975 playoffs.

Jim Rice scored the game's lone run in the 7th when Rich Gedman's grounder went through second baseman Tim Teufel's legs, as the Red Sox took Game One 1-0. Bruce Hurst struck out 8 over 8.0 shutout innings and Calvin Schiraldi worked a scoreless 9th after walking Darryl Strawberry to lead off the inning. Rice had worked a leadoff walk before advancing to 2nd on a wild pitch and coming around to score on Teufel's error. Strong defensive plays by Wade Boggs (7th) and Dave Stapleton (9th) helped preserve the win.

The dream matchup between Roger Clemens and Dwight Gooden didn't last long, as neither starter made it past the 5th inning in Boston's 9-3 win over the Mets, giving the American League champs a 2-0 series lead. Clemens, going on 3 days rest and battling the flu, gave up 3 runs on 5 hits and 4 walks before Steve Crawford and Bob Stanley allowed just 4 baserunners in the final 4.2 innings. Dwight Evans hit a 2-run homer in the 5th, and Dave Henderson stroked a solo shot in the 4th, as the Red Sox outlit the Mets 18-8. Henderson, Jim Rice and Spike Owen collected 3 hits apiece.

Mets starter Bobby Ojeda made his return to Boston and became the first lefty since Hippo Vaughn in 1918 to beat the Red Sox in a World Series game at Fenway, as the Mets used a 4-run first en route to a 7-1 win. Lenny Dykstra led off the game with a home run off Oil Can Boyd, who surrendered 6 runs on 9 hits in 7.0 inning. Ojeda gave up only one run on 5 hits in 7.0 innings, and Roger McDowell finished with 2.0 perfect innings, as the Mets narrowed Boston's series lead to 2-1.

RED SOX FACTS - That'll Do It

David Ortiz's walk-off homer in Game 4 of the 2004 ALCS was, at the time, the 4th post-season walk-off homer in Red Sox history (all in extra innings)...the first in club annals was Carlton Fisk's legendary blast off Pat Darcy, which gave the Sox a 7-6 win over Cincinnati in Game 6 of the 1975 World Series...in Game 3 of the 2003 ALDS, Trot Nixon beat Rich Harden and the Athletics with an 11th-inning blast...Ortiz clinched the 2004 ALDS vs. Anaheim with a walk-off blow off Jarrod Washburn before playing hero again against the Yankees in Game 4 of the ALCS...Manny Ramirez blasted the 5th post-season walk-off homer in Red Sox history to win Game 2 of the 2007 ALDS vs. Anaheim, a 3-run shot off Francisco Rodriguez in the bottom of the 9th.

Ron Darling pitched 7.0 shutout innings, and Gary Carter slugged 2 home runs, as the Mets evened the Series at 2-2 with a 6-2 triumph. Red Sox starter Al Nipper, in his first career post-season appearance, allowed 3 runs in the 5th, and gave up 7 hits in his 6.0 innings of work. Lenny Dykstra's solo blast in the 7th made it 5-0. A Dwight Evans RBI single and a Dave Henderson sacrifice fly plated Boston's 2 runs.

Mookie Wilson's grounder through the legs of Bill Buckner at first base scored Ray Knight and capped a 3-run rally in the 10th as the Mets notched a 6-5 win to send the series into a decisive Game 7. All 3 runs were scored after Calvin Schiraldi retired the first 2 hitters of the inning. Boston had scored 2 in the top of the 10th on Dave Henderson's homer and Marty Barrett's RBI single. Roger Clemens, who allowed 2 runs (one earned) on 4 hits in 7.0 innings, left the game prior to the 8th with a blister. The Sox were up 3-2 in the 8th when Gary Carter's sacrifice fly tied the score at 3-3.

Ray Knight's leadoff homer ignited a 3-run 8th that snapped a 3-3 tie, and Jesse Orosco retired the only 6 batters he faced for the save, as the Mets captured the World Series championship with a 8-5 win. After a rainout on Sunday, Red Sox skipper John McNamara elected to go with Bruce Hurst on 3 days rest to face Ron Darling in the deciding game. Hurst allowed 3 runs on 4 hits in 6.0 innings, while Darling gave up 3 runs on 6 hits in 3.2 innings. Boston had jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the 2nd, including back-to-back home runs by Dwight Evans and Rich Gedman to lead off the inning.

RED SOX FACTS - Walking Away A Winner

The Red Sox have 11 walk-off wins overall in their post-season annals, 7 in the last 6 years...here's the complete list:

- Game 8, 1912 World Series Larry Gardner's sacrifice fly with one out in the bottom of the 10th scored Steve Yerkes and capped a 2-run rally that gave the Red Sox a 3-2 win over the New York Giants and the World Series championship in their first season at Fenway Park...the Sox won the Series 4 games to 3 with one tie.
- Game 3, 1915 World Series Duffy Lewis delivered an RBI single with one out in the bottom of the 9th, bringing Harry Hooper home with the game-winner as the Red Sox edged the Phillies 2-1 at Braves Field.
- Game 2, 1916 World Series Pinch hitter Del Gainer singled home Mike McNally with one out in the bottom of the 14th to give the Red Sox a 2-1 win over Brooklyn at Braves Field.
- Game 6, 1975 World Series Carlton Fisk led off the bottom of the 12th with a homer off Cincinnati's Pat Darcy, giving Boston a 7-6 victory and forcing a decisive Game 7.
- Game 3, 2003 A.L. Division Series A loss from elimination, the Red Sox lived to fight another day after pinch hitter Trot Nixon drilled a 2-run homer off Rich Harden with one out in the bottom of the 11th.
- Game 3, 2004 A.L. Division Series David Ortiz gave the Red Sox a 3-game sweep of the Angels with a 2-run homer into the Green Monster Seats with 2 outs in the bottom of the 10th lifting the Sox into the ALCS with an 8-6 win.
- Game 4, 2004 A.L. Championship Series Down 3 games to none, the Red Sox stayed alive when David Ortiz crushed a 2-run blast to right field off the Yankees' Paul Quantrill.
- Game 5, 2004 A.L. Championship Series The Red Sox continued their quest toward the greatest comeback in baseball history when, for the 2nd night in a row, David Ortiz delivered the game-winning run in walk-off fashion. This time, facing Esteban Loaiza, Ortiz singled Johnny Damon home from 2nd with 2 outs in the bottom of the 14th for a 5-4 win.
- Game 2, 2007 A.L. Division Series Manny Ramirez belted a 3-run walk-off homer over the Green Monster and into the Boston night off Francisco Rodrguez in the bottom of the 9th inning to give the Red Sox a 6-3 win over the Angels. It was Ramirez's first career post-season walk-off homer and, including the regular season, the 4th of his career, first since September 10, 1996. It was also his first walk-off home run in a Red Sox uniform.
- Game 4, 2008 A.L. Division Series Jed Lowrie drove in Jason Bay with a 2-out walk-off single in the bottom of the 9th inning giving the Red Sox their 5th Division Series win in club history. It was the 23rd time in post-season history that a series was decided by a walk-off hit, the 4th time that a rookie has done so.
- Game 5, 2008 A.L. Championship Series J.D. Drew drove in Kevin Youkilis from 2nd base with a 9th-inning walk-off single to cap a 7-run comeback victory, the largest post-season comeback since Game 4 of the 1929 World Series, the 2nd-largest in playoff history, and the largest ever for a team facing elimination.

DUSTIN PEDROIA

Dustin Pedroia was selected as the American League's 2008 Most Valuable Player by the Baseball Writers Association of America. He also earned Gold Glove and Silver Slugger awards at second base.

THE HISTORY OF THE BOSTON RED SOX

The American League was formed in 1901, and Boston, Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland are the lone remaining charter members 108 years later. The Boston American League Base Ball Club, officially known as the Americans, but also known by the media as the Pilgrims or Somersets after owner Charles Somers, started their inaugural season on the road April 26 against the Baltimore Orioles (now the New York Yankees), but didn't pick up their first win until April 30 in Philadelphia, a 10-inning 8-6 decision pitched by Cy Young. Young also pitched and won the Huntington Avenue Grounds home opener May 8 against Philadelphia, 12-4. In 1903, the team finished in first place with a 91-47 record earning themselves a berth in the first-ever World Series against the National League Pittsburgh Pirates. Game 1 of the first World Series was played at Huntington Avenue and pitched by Young, who lost but then won two games in the Series. Boston won five games to three, in a best of nine series, bolstered by their band of fans, the "Royal Rooters" who were known for their rowdy behavior. 1904 brought another successful year for Boston, with Cy Young pitching the first perfect game of the modern era in the Huntington Avenue Grounds against Philadelphia on May 5. With a 95-59 record, the 1904 Boston was set to play the New York Giants in the World Series, but Giants manager John McGraw and owner John Brush refused to play, making this the first of only two times since 1903 when the World Series was not played. The Americans, also were unofficially known as the Puritans in 1905. In 1907, the cross-town National League Red Stockings adopted the name "Doves" and changed the team colors from red to blue. Owner John I. Taylor snapped up the popular color, and renamed his team the Red Sox. In the latter half of the decade, Young continued to dominate, throwing a no-hitter in New York in 1908 on the way to his record 511 career wins. The Red Sox, however, would not see post-season play again until the next decade.

Taylor decided the Red Sox needed a new ballpark, Fenway Park opened in 1912, and a decade of dynasty began. The new park, called Fenway Park because of its location in the Fenway part of Boston, opened April 20, 1912, with the Red Sox taking a 7-6, 11-inning decision from the New York Highlanders (Yankees). With a 105-47 record, the Sox headed for the World Series led by fireballer Smoky Joe Wood's 34-5 record, and centerfielder Tris Speaker's .383 batting average. This time, John McGraw did bring the New York Giants to the World Series, and the Sox summarily defeated them four games to three. The Red Sox picked up a young left-handed pitcher in 1914 by the name of George Herman "Babe" Ruth, who would figure prominently in the Red Sox World Series dynasty of the next several years. The Red Sox went to the World Series three more times in the teens, and emerged victorious with each visit. The 1915 World Series was marked by the strong hitting performances of the legendary Sox outfield of Duffy Lewis, Tris Speaker, and Harry Hooper. After dropping Game One, the Sox won the next four to defeat the Philadelphia Phillies for the championship. In 1916, Ruth was the season and the Series hero, with a 23-12 regular season record and a 1.75 ERA. In Game Two of the World Series, Ruth pitched a 14-inning, complete game 2-1 win against the Brooklyn Dodgers, while the Sox went on to take the Series four games to one for the second straight year. The Red Sox played their World Series games in 1915 and 1916 in the new and larger capacity National League Braves Field on Commonwealth Avenue, which held 40,000 fans. In 1918, Ruth extended his streak to 29 2/3 scoreless World Series innings, a record that stood until 1961, and also tied for the league lead with 11 home runs. In the World Series against the Chicago Cubs, Ruth and Carl Mays each won two games to lead the Sox to their fourth world championship in seven years. The next decade, however, would not be so kind to the Red Sox.

After Sox owner Harry Frazee sold Ruth and most of his best players to the Yankees, the "Roaring Twenties" were anything but for the ailing Red Sox. The team failed to clear the .500 mark in each year of the decade, losing over 100 games in three consecutive seasons from 1925-1927. To add to the difficulty on the field, the ballpark itself suffered a setback. In 1926, fire roared through Fenway Park, destroying much of the left-field bleacher sections. Unable to cover the cost of repairing the damage, then-owner Bob Quinn could not rebuild the sections, and the difficult decade for the Sox continued. All was not gloomy, however, as there were several stand-out performances by individual players during the decade. Pitcher Sam Jones won 23 games in 1921, and Howard Ehmke won 39 games for the Sox in 1923-1924, including a no-hitter against Philadelphia in 1923. First baseman Stuffy McInnis, a member of the 1918 world champion team, set American League fielding records with a .999 fielding pct. in 1921 and still holds the Red Sox career fielding pct. record at first base of .996.

The 30's brightened for the Red Sox, and though the team did not make it back to the great years of the teens, a new dynasty of ownership began in 1933, when 30-year-old millionaire Tom Yawkey bought the club. His first order of business was to rebuild the fire-scarred stadium. Ironically, on the night of January 4, 1934, during the construction of the new Fenway Park, another fire raged through the ballpark, destroying much of the progress. The park was ready for Opening Day 1934, however, when the Sox lost to Joe Cronin and his Washington Senators on April 17. The Red Sox fielded far better teams in the 1930's than they had in the decade prior, and also saw attendance figures increase, especially after Fenway was refurbished. On August 12, 1934, 46,766 fans attended Ruth's farewell game at Fenway, spilling out onto the field. The next season, the Sox set their record single-day attendance which still stands, with 47,627 fans attending a double-header on September 22 against the Yankees. 1935 also saw shortstop Joe Cronin traded to the Sox from Washington to become player-manager. 1938 was the high point of the decade, with Cronin leading the Sox to an 88-61 record, and MVP Jimmie Foxx hitting 50 home runs, a team record which stood until 2006, with 175 RBI and a league-high .349 average. Veteran Lefty Grove led the league in ERA for four of the last five years of the decade. 1939 also brought forth a new era in Red Sox baseball, when Ted Williams began his legendary career. That season, the Red Sox had five future Hall of Famers on the roster including Williams, Cronin, Foxx, Grove and Bobby Doerr, and they finished with a strong 89-62 record. This decade also saw the Red Sox take the field with numbers on their uniforms for the first time in 1931. For some Red Sox players, these were the numbers that would forever be associated with them as Boston legends.

The 40's got even better for the Red Sox. 1941 was a landmark year for the team, with Williams hitting .406 and Grove picking up his 300th career win. Williams is the last man to hit over .400 for a season, and Grove is one of 2 pitchers to get his 300th win as a Red Sox, the other being Cy Young. Williams continued his consistent hitting by picking up his first Triple Crown in 1942, and his second of four batting titles in the forties. Rookie Dave Ferriss was 21-10 in 1945, on his way to helping the team return to the World Series in 1946 when he was 25-6. The Sox won the pennant by a comfortable 12-game margin in 1946, winning 104 games in the process, but lost the World Series for the first time in franchise history to the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games. Fenway also played host to the 1946 All-Star Game, in which Williams went 4 for 4 with two home runs and five RBI. Coming off the AL pennant year, Williams won a 2nd Triple Crown in 1947. Lights were also installed that season to start the era of night baseball at Fenway. 1948 and 1949 were both tough seasons for the Red Sox. While collecting 96 wins in each year, they finished both seasons only one game out of first place. They lost a one-game playoff to the Cleveland Indians in 1948. Had the Sox won that game, they would have played the Boston Braves in the World Series. In 1949, they lost the final two games of the season in Yankee Stadium to finish one game behind the Yankees. The Sox teams of the late 40's were led by pitcher Mel Parnell who won 25 games and the ERA title in 1949, while Ellis Kinder also picked up 23 victories in 1949. By the end of the 1940's, however, Williams had clearly established himself as one of the greatest players in baseball. He had played eight seasons of major league baseball through 1949, during which time he amassed two MVPs, two Triple Crowns, four RBI titles (one tied with teammate Vern Stephens), four home run titles, and four batting titles. Dom DiMaggio, one of baseball's greatest centerfielders, had a .298 career average, scored 100 runs seven times, was a seven-time All-Star and led the AL in 1950 with 11 triples, 15 stolen bases, and 131 runs scored. In 1948, he had 503 putouts, playing in the AL's smallest park, a record that stood until 1977. He is one of only 5 outfielders to have 500 putouts in one season. Johnny Pesky, an excellent all-around shortstop, had 200 hits in each of his first three major league seasons, and had a .313 career average for the Red Sox. The decade, overall, was the most successful for the team since the teens.

The 50's were another decade of strong hitting for the Sox, starting off with the Rookie of the Year Award-winning performance by first baseman Walter Dropo in 1950. Walter was a part of perhaps the best hitting Red Sox team ever, with the starting lineup averaging .313, and the entire team hitting .302. Infielder Billy Goodman won the batting championship in 1950 with his .354 average, while the team amassed a 94 - 60 record, which would ultimately be their best for the decade. For the second time in his career, Williams put off baseball for military service in the Korean War in 1951 and 1952, after serving three years during World War II. Upon his return, he continued his usual impressive hitting numbers with a tremendous league-leading .388 in 1957 with 38 home runs and winning a second straight title with a .328 average at the age of 40 in 1958. Meanwhile, Jackie Jensen won the RBI title in 1955 (tied), 1958 and 1959, and the MVP in 1958. Rookie third baseman Frank Malzone joined the team full-time in 1957 and won three Gold Glove Awards in 1957, 1958, and 1959. Some Red Sox pitchers also fared well in the 1950's, as Parnell continued his successful pitching through the first half of the decade, winning 69 games for the Sox from 1950 to 1953 along with a no-hitter in 1956. Frank Sullivan had 90 wins from 1954 to 1960, and Ellis Kinder became one of the American League's best relief pitchers of the early 1950's. In 1959 infielder Pumpsie Green made his debut as the first Red Sox African-American ballplayer.

The end of the 50's also brought the end of the Williams era in Red Sox history. Never one to go out quietly, Williams hit his 521st and final home run into the Red Sox bullpen in his final at-bat on September 28, 1960. The spot he vacated in left field was filled in 1961 by rookie Carl Yastrzemski who would later match some of Williams' feats, while pitcher Don Schwall would collect Rookie of the Year honors after winning his first 10 straight decisions at Fenway on the way to a 15 – 7 record overall. Fenway Park also hosted the 1961 All-Star Game, only the second such game in the park's 50-year history. Sox pitching landmarks continued in 1962 when both Earl Wilson and Bill Monbouquette pitched no hitters, while Monbouquette went on to win 20 games in 1963, and Yaz won his first batting title. Dave Morehead would also throw a no-hitter on September 16, 1965 against Cleveland at Fenway Park, but the Sox had their worst record of that decade, losing 100 games overall. One bright spot of 1965 was the emergence of Lynn, MA native Tony Conigliaro, who hit a league-leading 32 homers in his second season, the second of his six consecutive seasons of 20 or more home runs. After another losing season, finishing ninth in 1966, the Red Sox overcame 100-1 odds and won the "Impossible Dream" pennant in 1967, with a 92 – 70 record. Though they did not win the World Series, that season lives on as one of the greatest in Red Sox history. 1967 proved to be career years for Jim Lonborg, who had a 22 - 9 record plus two wins in the World Series on his way to the Cy Young Award, and Yastrzemski, who won the Triple Crown and MVP. First baseman George Scott and outfielder Reggie Smith were key performers in the Red Sox pennant drive. Ken Harrelson led the league with 109 RBI in 1968, while Yaz continued his strong hitting and won his third batting title. Yaz and Rico Petrocelli finished the 60's with a 40-home run season in 1969, ready to lead the Sox into the next decade.

The era of Yaz continued into the 70's while he again hit 40 home runs and led younger players, such as Conigliaro, who notched 36 home runs in 1970. In 1972, another young player made his mark by winning the Rookie of the Year Award. Catcher Carlton Fisk, a New Hampshire native, made his first full year in the majors count, leading the Red Sox to a second-place finish, just ½ game out of first place, for their best finish since 1967. His batterymate, Luis Tiant, thrilled Sox fans and took home the ERA title that season. Two other famous rookies, Jim Rice and Fred Lynn, were added to the mix in 1975, and made their mark on another AL championship season. Lynn won both MVP and Rookie of the Year honors, the first player to do so in the same year, while Rice hit 22 home runs and Lynn hit 21. Tiant, Rick Wise, and Bill Lee combined for 54 of the Red Sox 95 wins in 1975, with Tiant and Wise pitching all three of the Red Sox wins in the World Series. In Game 6, Bernie Carbo's two-out, three-run home run in the 8th inning tied the game paving the way for the subsequent dramatics. Fisk left his mark on baseball history during Game 6 of the Series, when he hit a 12th-inning pitch off the left-field foul pole for a dramatic finish for the Red Sox, in what many consider to be the greatest World Series game ever. Once again, however, the Sox came up short, and were defeated by Cincinnati Reds in 7 games. On July 9, 1976 owner Tom Yawkey passed away. Mrs. Jean R. Yawkey, Haywood Sullivan and Edward "Buddy" LeRoux were approved by the A.L. as the new owners in May, 1978. The Sox continued to be successful through the end of the 1970's. In 1977 they had 97 wins and finished just 2 ½ games out of first. They finished 1978 with 99 wins, just one game out after losing 5-4 in a one-game playoff against the Yankees. Those 2 seasons were great years for Rice, who won the home run title in 1977, and took home MVP honors in 1978, after ending the season with the home run and RBI crowns. Lynn had a terrific 1979 season and won the batting championship, while Yaz got his 3,000th hit on September 12. That July, he also hit his 400th home run. Dwight Evans also did his part, not only with his bat, but also in right field, picking up three Gold Glove Awards in the last four seasons of the decade. Versatile Bob Stanley made his entry upon the scene in 1977, and in his 12-year Red Sox career racked up a club-record 132 saves and became the club's all-time leader in games pitched. Shortstop Rick Burleson teamed with second baseman and Fall River, MA native Jerry Remy to form one of the club's best double play combinations.

3B Carney Lansford won a batting championship in 1981. Dwight Evans tied for the 1981 league HR title, one of seven of his 20-plus HR seasons in the decade. Rice won the HR title in 1983 with 39, followed closely by Tony Armas, who had 36. Armas then hit 43 in 1984 to lead the league. The early 80's were not particularly successful for the Red Sox as a team, however, and they failed to finish higher than 3rd until their A.L. championship season of 1986. Evans got 1986 off to an auspicious start, hammering a home run in Detroit on the first pitch of the season. Roger Clemens, who won the Cy Young Award and MVP honors, dominated AL batters in 1986, winning 24 games, including his first 14 decisions in a row, with a 2.48 ERA. He also broke a major league record, striking out 20 in one game April 29 vs. Seattle. Under manager John McNamara's leadership, the team won 95 games and came from a 3 games to one deficit in the ALCS to a World Series matchup with the Mets, which the Sox lost in 7 games. Overall, however, the season was filled with many personal milestones, with Rice accumulating his 2000th hit, Don Baylor hitting his 300th homer, Clemens winning 20 games for the first time, and Wade Boggs winning his third of five batting titles in the decade. In 1987, Boggs won another batting title, while Clemens had his 2nd 20-win season and Cy Young Award, but the Red Sox finished a disappointing 5th. The Red Sox returned to their winning ways in the late '80s, topping the AL East again in 1988 with Joe Morgan's miracle team. After Morgan took over from John McNamara in July, the Sox won 12 straight and 19 of 20 games, to come from 9 games behind and move into first place in the AL East. "Morgan's Magic" became the team's slogan, but the Red Sox were overpowered by Oakland in the ALCS. Nevertheless, the successful teams of the late 80's ushered in a decade of milestones and achievements in the 1990's.

The Sox started the decade off on the right foot. They won the AL East in 1990 with strong performances by Boggs, Evans, Clemens, Mike Boddicker, and rightfielder Tom Brunansky, whose great diving catch saved the final game of the season. Once again, the Sox played the A's in the ALCS, and met the same fate, losing in 4 games. The 1990 season also saw the Red Sox put players' names on the back of their road jerseys for the first time in club history. 1991 brought the beginning of the Mo Vaughn era, and the hard-hitting first baseman took his place as a fan favorite, while Dalton, MA native Jeff Reardon pitched his way to 40 saves as the Sox headed to a 2nd-place finish. In February 1992 Mrs. Yawkey passed away leaving her majority general partnership to the continued direction of John L. Harrington with Haywood C. Sullivan as general partner. After the 1993 season Sullivan sold his interest in the club to the Yawkey Trust and Harrington became CEO of the organization. The Sox fared well after the new division set-up was established in 1995, reaching post-season play 3 times in the last 5 years of the decade, including back-to-back appearances in 1998 and 1999, the first time the team had accomplished that feat since 1915-1916. In 1995, the Red Sox and the Cleveland Indians started a Division Series rivalry that would last throughout the decade. Behind the powerful hitting of Vaughn, who led the league in home runs and picked up the MVP Award, and the stable pitching of Clemens and knuckleballer Tim Wakefield, the Sox won the East Division title and battled the Indians in the 1995 Division Series, only to be swept in 3 games. In 1996, Clemens struck out 20 batters in a game for the 2nd time in his career, tying his own major league record. In 1997, highly-touted shortstop Nomar Garciaparra made his way to Fenway and picked up the Rookie of the Year Award while leading the league in hits. In 1998, he was joined by another superstar, Pedro Martinez. The '98 Sox won the Wild Card for the first time. Strong pitching was the key to the team's success with Martinez going 19-7 with a 2.89 ERA, while Tom Gordon achieved a major league record 43 consecutive saves on his way to 46 saves in all. The Sox went on to face Cleveland in the Division Series, where they were defeated once again. The pitching would figure into another great season for the Sox in 1999, a year in which Fenway hosted the final All-Star Game of the century, the 3rd in the history of the park. Martinez was MVP of the game, retiring all 6 batters he faced, 5 on strikeouts, ultimately winning the Cy Young Award unanimously, and falling just short of MVP honors with a 23-4, 2.07 season. Once again, he led the Sox to a Wild Card berth and the Division Series against the Indians. This time, the Sox emerged victorious, coming back from losing the first 2 games to dramatically win the series and travel to the ALCS for the first time since 1986. In some form of poetic perfection, the Sox met the Yankees in the series, and the high point was game 3, where Sox ace Martinez met former Sox ace Clemens at Fenway Park. Riding home runs by Garciaparra, John Valentin and Brian Daubach, the Sox cruised to a 13-1 win, their only win in the series.

2000 featured great performances by Pedro Martinez, who won his 2nd straight unanimous Cy Young Award, and Nomar Garciaparra, who won his 2nd consecutive A.L. batting championship with a .372 average. Reliever Derek Lowe tied for the league lead with 42 saves. The Sox finished 2nd, just 2 ½ games behind the Yankees, with an 85- 77 record, and set a new Fenway Park attendance record of 2,586,024. On December 13, 2000, the Red Sox signed outfielder Manny Ramirez to bolster the team's offense into the new millennium. Despite major injuries to Garcia-parra, Martinez, John Valentin and catcher Jason Varitek the Red Sox led the A.L. East for most of the first half in 2001. Through August 24, the Sox were still only 3 games behind the Yankees before they went into a tailspin that resulted in 21 losses in the next 26 games. They won the last 5 games of the season to finish with an 82-79 second-place record. Manager Jimmy Williams was replaced by pitching coach Joe Kerrigan prior to the August 16 game vs. Seattle. Newcomer Ramirez had a tremendous first half and despite a late-season hamstring injury hit .306 with 41 homers and 125 RBI. OF Trot Nixon won the team's MVP Award for his .280 average in 144 games with 27 HR, 100 runs and 88 RBI. RHP Hideo Nomo made his Sox debut April 4 in Baltimore and won 3-0 with the club's first no-hitter since 1965. Nomo also pitched a one-hitter May 25 vs. Toronto and led the A.L. with 220 strikeouts. Varitek hit 3 HR with 7 RBI in a 10-3 win in K.C. May 20, the first Sox catcher to hit 3 HR in one game. The team set new attendance records at home, 2,625,333 in 81 dates with 69 sellouts and 2,700,811 on the road in 80 dates. The 68-year Yawkey era would come to a close when a new ownership group led by John Henry, Tom Werner and Larry Lucchino took control prior to the 2002 season. In March of 2002 the new ownership replaced General Manager Dan Duquette with Vice President of Baseball Operations Mike Port, on an interim basis, and brought in Grady Little as manager to replace Joe Kerrigan. The team had a hot start, winning its first 8 road games for the first time, and had a M.L.-best 40-17 record through June 6. The Sox led the A.L. East from April 15 through June 22 and ultimately finished 2nd in the A.L. East with a 93-69 record, including 51-30 on the road (tied with the Yanks for the best road record in baseball), the most road wins in club history. Derek Lowe pitched Fenway Park's first no-hitter since 1965 when he blanked Tampa Bay 10-0 April 27. Lowe (21-8) and Pedro Martinez (20-4) gave the Sox two 20-game winners for the first time since 1949. Ramirez led the A.L. with a .349 avg. despite missing 39 games with a fractured left index finger. Lowe, Martinez, Ramirez, Garcia-parra, Shea Hillenbrand, Johnny Damon and Ugueth Urbina were selected for the A.L. All-Star team and Lowe, Hillenbrand and Ramirez started the game. The team again set an attendance record (2,650,063 in 81 dates). The 2003 Red Sox had an exciting 95-67 regular season, their most wins since 1995, a second-place East Division finish and the 16th trip to the postseason. The club won its third Wild Card playoff berth and came from a 2-0 game deficit in the ALDS to win 3 straight and eliminate Oakland to advance to the ALCS vs. the Yankees. A dramatic 7-game series developed that wasn't resolved until Aaron Boone's 11th-inning homer stopped the Red Sox' World Series bid. Some astute off-season deals by new GM Theo Epstein helped make the team an offensive powerhouse that set many club, league and major league records. The additions of David Ortiz, Kevin Millar, Bill Mueller and Todd Walker, solidified a batting order that produced 961 runs, 2nd-most in club history. A club record 6 players hit 20 home runs and the Sox set a new team mark with 238. They set new M.L. records of 2,822 TB, 649 extra-base hits and a .491 slugg. pct., while their 371 doubles fell 2 shy of the M.L. mark held by the Sox (1997) and the Cardinals (1930). The Red Sox came from behind to win 40 games, including 13 in which they trailed by at least 3 runs, had an A.L. best 23 last at bat wins. Their 26 one-run wins, 11 extra-inng. wins and 8 walk-off wins were also league highs. They were 53-28 .654 at home, 2nd best in the A.L. (their most home wins since they also won 53 in 1988). Derek Lowe (17-7), Pedro Martinez (14-4), John Burkett (12-9) and Tim Wakefield (11-7) led a staff whose 1,141 strikeouts led the A.L., 4th best in club history. The Sox tied the 1995 club record by using 26 pitchers. Johnny Damon (30), Nomar Garciaparra (19) and valuable sub Damian Jackson (16) gave the team 3 players with 15 SBs for the first time since 1914. Mueller (.326) edged Manny Ramirez (.325) for the A.L. batting title while Garcia-parra (105), Ramirez (104) and Ortiz (101) gave the Sox 3 players with 100 RBI for the 1st time since 1984. It was the Sox' 4th straight season with a new home attendance figure, 2,724,162. In his first year as manager Terry Francona led the 2004 Red Sox to a 98-64 record, clinching a Wild Card berth to enter the postseason for the 17th time in franchise history. The Sox swept the Anaheim Angels in the ALDS as David Ortiz's dramatic HR in the 10th inning of game 3 insured a rematch with the Yankees for the AL pennant. After dropping the first 3 games to New York, the Red Sox rallied behind the bat of Ortiz, the baserunning of Dave Roberts, an airtight bullpen, and the gritty performance of Curt Schilling to win the final 4 games of the series, completing the greatest comeback in ML history. The Red Sox then swept the St. Louis Cardinals to win the World Series for the 6th time in franchise history, and the first since 1918. Led by Series MVP Manny Ramirez, the Red Sox never trailed. Derek Lowe became the first pitcher ever to win the clinching game of 3 playoff series in one postseason. Key off-season acquisitions Schilling and Keith Foulke lived up to their billing, while the mid-season trade of Nomar Garciaparra for Orlando Cabrera, Doug Mientkiewicz, and the separate acquisition of Roberts, improved the club's defense and speed and added depth to the bench. Schilling (21) combined with Pedro Martinez (16) to win more games than any other pair in the AL. Martinez (227) and Schilling (203) also became the first Red Sox teammates ever to strike out 200 batters in the same season. Offensively the Sox were led by Ramirez and Ortiz, who became the first AL teammates to bat .300, hit 30 HRs and drive in 100 runs since 1931. They also became just the second pair of Red Sox to hit over 40 HRs in a single season. The Red Sox sold out their entire 81-game home schedule for the first time in franchise history and 4th time in ML history. In his second year as manager Terry Francona led the 2005 Red Sox to a 95-67 record, winning the AL Wild Card and securing a post-season berth for a club-record 3rd straight season. Despite topping 90 wins for the 4th year in a row, the Red Sox were swept in the Division Series by the eventual World Champion Chicago White Sox. During the regular season David Ortiz (47 HR and 148 RBI) and Manny Ramirez (45 HR and 144 RBI) paced the club, combining for 92 home runs and 292 RBI, more than any other duo in baseball. Behind these two the Red Sox led the majors in runs scored, batting average, walks, on-base percentage and on-base plus slugging. Ortiz tallied career-highs in home runs, RBI, runs scored, walks, slugging percentage and on-base percentage. He continued to deliver in the clutch, leading the AL with 34 go-ahead RBI and 21 game-winning RBI and finished 2nd in AL MVP voting. The pitching staff was led by Tim Wakefield (16-12) who posted team-highs in wins, starts, innings pitched, strikeouts, complete games and opponents' average by a starter. Mike Timlin anchored the bullpen with a league-high and single-season club record 81 appearances, and rookie Jonathan Papelbon was impressive down the stretch holding opponents scoreless in 10 of his last 11 appearances. The Red Sox continued to break records at the gate. The club set a new attendance mark for the 6th straight season with a total of 2,847,888, the only M.L. team to increase their attendance in each of the last 8 seasons. In 2006 the Red Sox set a home attendance record (2,930,588) for the 7th straight season, a major league record. The Red Sox ended 2006 with 307 consecutive regular season sellouts at Fenway Park, the 2nd longest streak in M.L. history (Cleveland 455, 6-12-95 through 4-2-01). A host of late-season injuries contributed to the team falling to an 86-76 record, their fewest wins since 2001 (82-79). The team missed post-season play for the first time since 2002. Still, it was the 9th straight winning season, 2nd best active M.L. streak (NYY, 15). A 12-game win streak (June 16-29) tied the club's 3rd best all-time streak and was their best in nearly 11 years. The Red Sox were 53-33 .616 at the All-Star break, its best winning percentage at that point since 1986 (56-31 .644), and led the A.L. East by 3 games. Boston set a M.L. fielding pct. record (.98910) (Sea. .98887, 2003) with just 66 errors in 6,053 total chances. The 66 errors and 108 errorless games were the 2nd fewest ever behind Seattle's 65 and 112 in 2003. The Red Sox set a M.L. record with 17 straight errorless games June 11 (night game) through June 30. Alex Gonzalez led A.L. SS with a .985 fielding pct. (a club record), the first Sox SS to lead the A.L. since Rick Burleson in 1979. He also set a club SS record with 57 straight errorless games (Apr. 11-June 30). 2B Mark Loretta was 2nd in the A.L. with a .994 fielding pct. and broke the club record (Bobby Doerr .993 in 1948). Mike Lowell was 2nd among A.L. and M.L. 3B with a .98704 fielding pct. and broke the club record (Vern Stephens .981 in 1950). Boston was 16-2 vs. N.L. teams to tie Oak. (2002) and Minn. (2006) for the most wins by a M.L. team in interleague play. David Ortiz led the A.L. with a club-record 54 HR and also led with 137 RBI, 355 TB and 119 BB. His 32 road HR tied Babe Ruth (1927) for the A.L. record. He became the first Sox player to lead A.L. in RBI in consecutive seasons since Jackie Jensen (1958-59). He had five walk-off hits including three HR. Rookie Jonathan Papelbon became one of the M.L.'s most dominant closers until shoulder problems sidelined him after Sept. 1. He had 35 saves and a 4-2 record in 59 relief appearances and held opponents to a .167 batting average. Was the 2nd Sox rookie pitcher selected for the All-Star Game (Don Schwall 1961) but did not pitch. He set a club record with 20 saves in 20 chances to start the season. Manny Ramirez hit .321 with 35 HR, 102 RBI and 100 BB but played in just 11 games the final six weeks due to right knee tendinitis. It was the first time he played in less than 152 games since 2002. He received the most votes of any A.L. player to start the All-Star Game but his knee problem prevented him from playing. Curt Schilling made a comeback from his injury curtailed 2005 season and was 15-7 with a 3.97 ERA in 31 games. On May 27 he beat Tampa Bay 6-4 for his 200th M.L. win. Kevin Youkilis became the regular 1B and hit .279 in 147 games with 100 R and 91 BB. RHP Josh Beckett was 16-11 in 33 games to lead the staff in wins in his first Red Sox season. In 2007, the Red Sox clinched their first A.L. East Division Championship since 1995 with a 96-66 regular season record. After sweeping the Los Angeles Angels 3-0 in the A.L. Division Series, Boston then went down three games to one in the A.L.C.S. against Cleveland. The Red Sox completed another comeback to clinch their 12th A.L. pennant and became the 12th team in M.L. history to overcome a 3-1 deficit in the A.L.C.S. This was also the Sox third time accomplishing the feat (1986, 2004). In their 11th World Series appearance, Boston swept the N.L. Champion Colorado Rockies to win their second title in four years and seventh overall. The Red Sox offense was led by World Series MVP Mike Lowell and the stellar pitching efforts of Josh Beckett, Curt Schilling and Jonathan Papelbon. Manager Terry Francona is the first Sox manager to take a team to the post-season in three different seasons (2004-05-07) and only the second manager in club history to win two World Series (Bill Carrigan, 1915-16). The Sox joined the New York Yankees as the only teams in A.L. history to sweep in successive World Series appearances. During the regular season, the 96 wins tied Cleveland for the highest winning percentage (.593) and most victories in the major leagues. It was the 10th consecutive season in which the Red Sox have had a winning record, the 2nd longest active streak in the majors behind the Yankees (15). The Red Sox led the A.L. East for the final 166 days of 2007 beginning April 18, the longest consecutive stretch in club history. The Red Sox pitching staff led the A.L. and finished 2nd in the majors with a 3.87 ERA. They led the A.L. and were 2nd in the majors with 13 shutouts, 7 fewer than San Diego. They were one of two major league teams with three 15-game winners: Josh Beckett 20, Tim Wakefield 18, and Daisuke Matsuzaka 15. The team allowed the fewest runs (657) and hits (1350) in the A.L. and had the 3rd most strikeouts (1149). The Red Sox bullpen had the lowest relief ERA in the majors at 3.10 as well as issued the fewest runs (172) and hits (371). Offensively, the 2007 Red Sox led the majors with 689 walks and tied Detroit for the M.L. lead in doubles (352). The team had three of the top 10 A.L. batting leaders for 2007: David Ortiz (.333, 5th), Mike Lowell (.326, 7th), and Dustin Pedroia (.317, 10th). The team established a club record and tied the major league record with four consecutive home runs in one inning on April 22 vs. the Yankees at Fenway Park as Manny Ramirez, J.D. Drew, Mike Lowell, and Jason Varitek did it with two out in the 3rd inning. The Red Sox were successful on an A.L. best 80% (96-120) of their stolen base attempts, the highest percentage in club history. The team also finished second in the A.L. with a .986 fielding percentage led by the outstanding defensive play of 1B Kevin Youkilis. The 2007 Gold Glove winner handled a Red Sox record 1,586 straight errorless chances at first base (1,079 chances in 2007). The 2008 Red Sox began their World Series title defense on March 25, 2008 in Tokyo, Japan against the Oakland A's. The club finished with a 95-67 regular season record (.586) to clinch their sixth A.L. Wild Card berth. It marked the fifth time in six seasons the Red Sox had qualified for the postseason. After defeating the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim three games to one in the 2008 ALDS, Boston came within one ALCS victory over the Tampa Bay Rays from appearing in their third World Series in five years. The offense finished third in the majors with a .280 team average and led the majors in walks for the second consecutive year at 646 and also finished first with a .358 on-base percentage. The Red Sox were led by the stellar play of A.L. MVP Dustin Pedroia who paced the team in average, games, at bats, runs, hits and doubles. His 54 doubles led the A.L., he tied for the league lead with 213 hits (Ichiro Suzuki) and ranked among the top five in several other offensive categories: .326 avg. (2nd), 653 AB (3rd), 9 SF (T3rd), 140 singles (T3rd), 322 TB (4th). Kevin Youkilis had a M.L. record 238 consecutive errorless games (2,002 TC) streak, which ended on June 7, and also led the team in homers, RBI, slugging and on-base percentage. Youkilis finished third in the A.L. MVP voting. The team sent seven players to the 2008 All-Star game: Manny Ramirez, David Ortiz, Kevin Youkilis and Dustin Pedroia were elected starters; Jason Varitek, Jonathan Papelbon, and All-Star game MVP J.D. Drew were reserves. A three-team trade deadline deal sent Manny Ramirez to the Los Angeles Dodgers and brought OF Jason Bay to the Red Sox from Pittsburgh. Bay was instrumental in their late season playoff push as he hit .400 (12-30) in his first seven Red Sox games and .293 (54-184) with 54 RBI and 9 home runs over 49 games for Boston. Three Red Sox stole over 20 bases: league leader Jacoby Ellsbury (50), Coco Crisp (20) and Pedroia (20). The club finished fourth in the A.L. with a 4.01 team ERA and led the majors with 16 shutouts. The pitching staff was first in the A.L. with 1,185 strikeouts, second most in team history (1259 in 2001). Daisuke Matsuzaka led all starters with an 18-3 record and 2.90 ERA. Jonathan Papelbon continued his role as a premier closer saving 41 games. Jon Lester threw the 18th no-hitter in Red Sox history vs. Kansas City on May 19 at Fenway Park. For the 9th consecutive year, the Red Sox established a new club record for home attendance totalling 3,048,248 fans at 81 games in Fenway Park, an accomplishment unprecedented in Major League Baseball. The Red Sox streak of consecutive sellouts increased to a Major League record 469 games as the team played every home game in front of a capacity crowd.

HOW THEY BECAME THE RED SOX

As one of four clubs to enter into the newly formed American League in 1901, the Red Sox were initially called the Boston Americans. Other nicknames for the club at that time were the Somersets, after original owner Charles W. Somers; Plymouth Rocks; Speed Boys; Puritans; Pilgrims, but they were officially called the Americans. These various names were applied until December 18, 1907, when the current name "Red Sox" was adopted. The origin of this name is traced to the Boston Red Stockings of the powerful National League in the 1870's and 1880's. In 1907 the Red Stockings (who later became the Braves) abandoned the red hosiery they customarily wore. Manager Fred Tenney believed that the red dye in the socks could possibly cause infection in spike wounds. Red Sox Owner John I. Taylor stated, "From now on we'll wear red stockings, and I'm grabbing that name Red Sox!"

BOSTON RED SOX OWNERSHIP HISTORY

- 1901-02 Charles W. Somers of Ohio was one of the founders and financiers of the new American League who also owned the Cleveland team and made his fortune in the lumber and coal business.
- 1903-04 Henry J. Killilea was a Milwaukee lawyer and expert on baseball law who played an important role in the negotiations that ended the National League-American League war in early 1903.
- 1904-11 John I. Taylor was an avid sportsman and son of the owner, publisher and editor of The Boston Globe. He changed the team's nickname to "Red Sox" in 1907 and oversaw the land acquisition and construction of Fenway Park, which opened in 1912.
- 1912-13 James R. McAleer was a National League outfielder during the 1890s who came out of retirement to help form the new American League's St. Louis franchise in 1901 as a player-manager. In December 1911 he bought 50 percent of the Red Sox from Taylor and was named club president.
- 1914-16 Joseph J. Lannin was a Canadian-born hotel and real estate tycoon in New York and Boston. He was a zealous baseball fan with a minority share in the National League Boston Braves before he purchased McAleer's 50 percent controlling interest in the Red Sox in early 1914.
- 1917-23 Harry H. Frazee was a long-time flamboyant baseball fan who was born in Peoria, IL and became successful in real estate management, stock brokerage and as a Broadway theatrical producer. He purchased the Red Sox in late 1916 from Lannin in a deal that included Fenway Park.
- 1923-33 J.A. Robert Quinn was a career baseball executive who was business manager of the St. Louis Browns prior to putting together a syndicate that purchased the Red Sox from Frazee August 1, 1923. He was appointed team president and presiding owner.
- 1933 Thomas A. Yawkey was a New York entrepreneur who bought the team February 25, 1933, four days after his 30th birthday, and placed the club in a Trust.
- July 9, 1976 Tom Yawkey died leaving his widow, Jean, as the primary beneficiary.
- 1978 The Yawkey Estate sold the team to a partnership including Jean R. Yawkey, Edward G. (Buddy) LeRoux, Jr. and Haywood C. Sullivan. The sale was approved by the American League May 23, 1978.
- 1981 Jean R. Yawkey moved to Boston, established the Jean R. Yawkey Trust, and transferred team ownership interests to it. She appointed John L. Harrington as co-Trustee.
- 1987 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust bought out Edward G. (Buddy) LeRoux, Jr., giving it two out of three General Partner votes.
- 1992 Jean R. Yawkey died in February and the Jean R. Yawkey Trust continued with John Harrington as Trustee with sole authority over Red Sox matters.
- 1993 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust bought out Haywood C. Sullivan's one General Partnership unit, giving it all three General Partnership units of the Red Sox, along with the three Red Sox limited partnership units previously acquired (53.49 %).
- 2002 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust sold the club to a group led by John Henry, Tom Werner and Larry Lucchino December 20, 2001. The sale was approved by Major League Baseball January 16, 2002 and closed February 27, 2002.

ALL-TIME RED SOX ROSTER

TONY CONIGLIARO AWARD

In 1990 the Red Sox instituted a national award to honor the memory of their former star outfielder Tony Conigliaro. The award is presented to a major leaguer who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage that were trademarks of Tony C. A special panel composed of the media, members of the MLB office, Tony's brothers Billy and Richie, and a fan make the selection. Announcement of the award is made at the annual M.L. winter meetings in December and the formal presentation takes place at the Boston Baseball Writers' Assn. dinner in January.

The first winner was Royals OF Jim Eisenreich, who overcame a neurological movement disorder, Tourette Syndrome, to become a productive performer after being out of baseball for 2 1/2 years. Bret Saberhagen, as a Red Sox, won the honor in 1998. Bret underwent reconstructive surgery for a right shoulder injury in May 1996 after months of intensive rehab proved futile. He missed the 1996 season and was signed in Nov. '96 by the Red Sox. After further rehab he made his first start in 2 years on Aug. 22, 1997. In 1998 Saberhagen went 15-8, 3.96 in 31 starts. Marlins' 3B Mike Lowell won the award in 1999. He underwent testicular cancer surgery Feb. 19 but returned to baseball May 29. He became the Marlins regular third baseman and hit 12 homers with 47 RBI in 97 games. The 2006 winner was INF Freddy Sanchez of the Pirates. Sanchez was born with a club right foot and a severely pigeon-toed left foot. The initial medical opinion was that he might never be able to walk. He was Boston's 11th round choice in the 2000 June draft. He played parts of 2002-03 with Boston and was traded to Pittsburgh July 31, 2003. In 2005, his first full M.L. season, Sanchez hit .291 for the Pirates and then led the National League at .344 in 157 games in 2006. Red Sox LHP Jon Lester was the 2007 award recipient. After going 7-2 in 15 Red Sox starts in 2006, Lester was diagnosed with a treatable form of anaplastic large cell lymphoma that Aug. He began treatments at the Dana-Farber Center in Boston and spent the next few months continuing treatment at the Hutchinson Cancer Center in Seattle. In early Dec., he was pronounced cancer free and in Jan. 2007 began workouts. After 17 min. lge. starts at Greenville and Pawtucket, Lester was recalled on July 23 and won in Cleve. that night for his first M.L. win in 11 months. He went 4-0 in 12 apps/11 starts the rest of the season. He made two relief apps. in the 2007 LCS including 3 scoreless IP in a Game 4 loss. Jon started and won the decisive W.S. Game 4 (5.2 scoreless IP) at Colorado as the Red Sox won their 2nd World Championship in four seasons. In 2008 Tampa Bay OF Rocco Baldelli won the honor. Baldelli fought his way back to the majors after being diagnosed with a mitochondrial disorder which causes chronic muscle fatigue. He missed 15 months and continues to battle his limitations. The RI native contributed to the Rays' W.S. berth and ALCS in 2008 hitting .333 with one HR and 4 RBI in the ALCS vs. Boston.

Conigliaro died February 24, 1990 after an 8-year struggle to return from a massive heart attack that left him severely handicapped. Tony signed with the Red Sox in 1963 after graduation from St. Mary's H.S. in Lynn, MA. In his only minor league season he hit .363 with 24 HR and 74 RBI in 83 games for Wellsville, earning New York-Penn League MVP Rookie of the Year honors. He broke in with the Red Sox in 1964, hit a HR in his first at-bat at Fenway Park, and finished with a .290 average and 24 HR to earn an All-Rookie selection. Tony became the youngest player to lead a ML in HR when he hit 32 in 1965 and the youngest A.L. player to reach 100 career HR. Mel Ott was the youngest in history at 22 years, 4 months and 10 days. Tony was 2nd-youngest (22 years, 6 months and 16 days). His career was tragically shortened when he was hit in the face by a pitch at Fenway Park August 18, 1967. He made a dramatic comeback in 1969, hit 56 HR with 198 RBI in 2 years, but he was never the same player. Conigliaro spent 1971 with the Angels and was out of baseball until he tried another comeback with the Red Sox in 1975. After an excellent spring training he made the regular season roster and got the team's first hit of that season and later the club's first HR. He was outrighted to AAA Pawtucket in mid-June and retired shortly thereafter.

THE HUTCH AWARD

The Hutch Award has been given annually to the major league player who best exemplifies the character, fighting spirit and competitive desire of the late pitcher (Detroit 1939-53) and manager (Tigers, Cardinals, Reds), Fred Hutchinson. The award, which sits in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, was instituted in 1965 and is sponsored by the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle, WA. Five Red Sox players have received the award: Carl Yastrzemski in 1967, Tony Conigliaro in 1970, Andre Dawson in 1994, Mark Loretta in 2006 and Jon Lester in 2008. Mickey Mantle was the first recipient in 1965.

ALL-STAR GAMES AT FENWAY PARK

On July 13, 1999 the Red Sox hosted the third All-Star Game ever to be played at Fenway Park. The American League defeated the National League 4-1 as Pedro Martinez, the eventual MVP of the Mid-Summer Classic, started and struck out five of the first six batters he faced for the win. The first game held at Fenway was on July 9, 1946 after a one-year hiatus due to World War II-related travel restrictions. The American League defeated the National League 12-0 in a game highlighted by the hitting heroics of Ted Williams. Williams delivered two home runs, two singles and a walk in his five at-bats scoring four runs and driving in five. The A.L. had 14 hits, the N.L. three. In addition to Williams, seven other Red Sox were A.L. All-Stars in '46: Johnny Pesky, Dom DiMaggio, Bobby Doerr, Rudy York, Hal Wagner, Dave Ferriss and Mickey Harris. Fenway Park was the site of the second All-Star Game played in 1961. That game featured solid pitching by both sides and ended in a 1-1 tie that was called after nine innings and a 30-minute rain delay. The Tigers' Rocky Colavito hit a first-inning home run for the A.L., which managed only four hits in the game. The Nationals' only run scored on an RBI single by the Cardinals' Bill White off Red Sox rookie Don Swall, who allowed all five N.L. hits in three innings. The other Red Sox representative at the '61 game at Fenway was manager Mike Higgins, who served as a coach.

1945 ALL-STAR REPLACEMENT GAME

Due to the on-going war in Europe and with Japan, no All-Star Game was scheduled for 1945, the only year no game has been played since the series began in 1933.

However, on July 9, 1945 there were 9 exhibitions played with proceeds going to benefit various war relief efforts. On July 9 games were played at Chicago's Comiskey Park (Cubs vs. White Sox), New York's Polo Grounds (Yankees vs. Giants), in Great Lakes, IL (Athletics vs. Great Lakes Navy Team), in Cleveland (Reds vs. Indians) and Indiantown Gap, PA (Pirates vs. Indiantown Gap Army Team). The biggest crowds were 47,144 in Chicago and 41,267 in New York.

On July 10, games were played at Washington's Griffith Stadium (Dodgers vs. Senators), St. Louis' Sportsmans Park (Cardinals vs. Browns), Boston's Fenway Park (Braves vs. Red Sox) and Philadelphia's Shibe Park (Phillies vs. Athletics). The largest attendance was in Washington (28,791) and St. Louis (24,113).

The only major league team that didn't play was Detroit, who was denied permission to travel to Pittsburgh by the U.S. Government. The Pirates therefore played a U.S. Army team. The A's played a game each day in two locations.

The game at Fenway Park drew 22,809 plus 846 servicemen and women and raised $70,000 for the United War Fund. New Commissioner Senator A.B. "Happy" Chandler, made his first official visit to Boston and took part in the first-pitch ceremonies with Massachusetts Governor Maurice Tobin.

The Red Sox won the game 8-1 behind rookie pitching star Dave Ferriss and three hits, including a home run, by rightfielder George "Catfish" Metkovich.

MOST HITS IN AN ALL-STAR GAME

Ted Williams and Carl Yastrzemski are tied with Joe Medwick for most hits in an All-Star Game with four. Williams had his four (two singles, two home runs) on July 9, 1946 at Fenway Park in an American League 12-0 win. Yastrzemski hit three singles and a double July 14, 1970 in Cincinnati in a 12-inning, 5-4 National League win. He was named Outstanding Player of the game.

THE BOSTON RED SOX HALL OF FAME

In 1995 the Red Sox Hall of Fame was instituted to recognize the outstanding careers of former Red Sox players and managers. A 15-member selection committee of Red Sox broadcasters and executives, past and present media personnel, and representatives from The Sports Museum of New England and the BoSox Booster Club is responsible for selecting candidates. The feats of non-uniformed Red Sox personnel are also considered for induction into the Hall. A memorable moment in Red Sox history is regarded as well for its special significance.

To be eligible for nomination, players must have played at least three years with the Red Sox and must also have been out of uniform as an active player at least three years.

The non-uniformed person(s) selected and the memorable moment selected will be chosen only by a unanimous vote of the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame Selection Committee.

There are 20 former Boston Red Sox personnel who spent a significant portion of their careers with the Red Sox in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. They are automatically enshrined into the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame. For a listing, see the Red Sox in Cooperstown entry that follows.

The next Red Sox Hall of Fame induction will be in 2010.

RED SOX RETIRED NUMBERS

The Red Sox first wore numbers on their uniforms in 1931. Since then they have retired six uniform numbers: 4 for Joe Cronin and 9 for Ted Williams on May 29, 1984, 1 for Bobby Doerr on May 21, 1988, 8 for Carl Yastrzemski on August 6, 1989, 27 for Carlton Fisk on September 4, 2000 and 6 for Johnny Pesky on September 28, 2008. In 1997, the Red Sox also retired No. 42, joining the rest of Major League Baseball in honoring the legacy of Jackie Robinson. In the summer of 2009, Jim Rice's #14 will be officially retired by the club.

The Red Sox' policy on retiring uniform numbers is based on the following criteria:

- Election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame
- At least 10 years played with the Red Sox
- Finish his career with the club

JOE CRONIN'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First modern-day player to become a league president.
- Elected to National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1956.
- Compiled a .301 batting average in 20 major league seasons.
- Spent 24 seasons with Red Sox as player, manager and general manager.
- Sold to Red Sox after 1934 season for $250,000 (a tremendous amount in the Depression era) (Red Sox also sent SS Lyn Lary to Washington to complete deal).
- Managed the Red Sox for 13 seasons (1935-47), most in team history.
- Leads all Red Sox managers with 1,071 wins (Mike Higgins is 2nd with 543).
- Playing career ended with a broken leg at Yankee Stadium, April 19, 1945.
- Managed Red Sox to A.L. pennant in 1946.
- Managed Senators to A.L. pennant in first season as player/manager in 1933.
- Member of Pirates' 1927 World Series team but did not play; received loser's share of $3,985.47.
- A.L. MVP in 1930 at the age of 23 with Senators.
- Led A.L. in Doubles 1933 and 1938; led A.L. in Triples 1932.
- Holds A.L. record with 5 pinch-hit home runs in 1943.
- Became first player to hit pinch homers in both games of a doubleheader, June 17, 1943 (in a stretch when he hit three 3-run pinch homers in 4 at-bats).
- Participated in 12 All-Star Games for A.L.: Player in 6 (1933-35-37-38-39-41), Player/Manager in 1 (1934), Manager in 2 (1940 and 1947), Coach in 2 (1936 and 1944), & Honorary Captain in 1 (1983)...the A.L. won 9 of the 12 games in which he took part.
- In 1940, was named to manage A.L. All-Stars team after league officials ruled Yankees manager Joe McCarthy had managed too many consecutive games (4).
- Promoted to Red Sox general manager, September 29, 1947.
- Named A.L. President, January 31, 1959.
- Named A.L. Chairman, January 1, 1974.
- Formally inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame, November 1, 1995.

CARLTON FISK'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Became the 13th catcher to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY on July 23, 2000.
- On September 4, 2000 became the fifth Red Sox to have his number retired by the organization.
- Inducted into the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame on September 8, 1997.
- Caught more games (2,226) and hit more home runs (351 of his career 376) than any catcher in M.L. history.
- After 24 seasons, he retired as one of three catchers in major league history to amass 300 home runs, 1,000 runs scored and 1,000 RBI.
- Was all-time Red Sox leader in games caught, 990, until broken by Jason Varitek in 2006 and second in putouts, 5,111.
- Overall appeared in 11 All-Star Games, his last in 1991 at the age of 43.
- A 7-time All-Star (1972-74, 76-78, 80) for the Red Sox, he was voted to start 4 times as a Red Sox.
- Named A.L. Honorary Captain for the 1999 Game at Fenway Park.
- First unanimous winner of the A.L. Rookie of the Year Award in 1972, also led the A.L. in triples with 9.
- Won the 1972 A.L. Rawlings Gloed Glove Award for defensive excellence.
- Hit game-winning 12th-inning home run in Game 6 of the 1975 World Series, remembered as one of the most dramatic moments in baseball history.
- Became just the fifth catcher in major league history to score and drive in 100 or more runs in 1977, when he hit .315 with 106 runs scored and 102 RBI.
- Set the M.L. record in 1977 with only 4 passed balls in 151 games (broken by Gary Carter, 1 with Montreal in 1978).

RED SOX WHO HAVE PLAYED IN EVERY GAME

Twenty-five players have played in every game of a regular season for the Red Sox (a total of 43 times). Dwight Evans was the last player to do so in 1984. He also played all the team's games in 1981 and 1982. Shortstop Everett Scott did so five straight years (1917-21) when he set the club record by playing in 832 consecutive games from June 20, 1916 through Oct. 2, 1921. Evans, Buck Freeman, Freddy Parent and Candy LaChance did so three times while Hobe Ferris, Chick Stahl, Vern Stephens, Frank Malzone, Carl Yastrzemski and Jim Rice played all the games twice. Rice also missed only one game in 1977.

NOTE: The W-L-T columns total one game less than the 16,811 game total reflected above as a result of a protested game and a major league ruling. On July 28, 1924 the Red Sox played a 10-inning game vs. St. Louis, a supposed 10-5 win. St. Louis protested the game and A.L. President Ban Johnson ordered the game replayed on September 13 as the 2nd game of a doubleheader. The game of July 28 was discounted and Red Sox Manager Lee Fohl and the St. Louis manager were credited with a no decision. The Red Sox won the replay of the protested game 13-11.

The major league rule from 1920 on states: "If a protested game of at least five innings duration was ordered replayed in its entirety, then no win or loss is credited, but both managers are credited with a no-decision game."

RED SOX ROAD ATTENDANCE

The Red Sox drew 3,107,743 on the road in 81 dates in 2008, the 2nd highest total in club history behind 2007's mark of 3,130,043. It marked the 3rd time the Sox have played in front of 3 million on the road. They averaged 38,367 per road game. It was the 42nd straight year they topped one million on the road. The years they have drawn 2 million or more away from Fenway Park:

CROWDS OF 60,000 ON THE ROAD

There are 22 known regular-season and three post-season games that the Red Sox have played that had a paid attendance of 60,000. In 2003 the Red Sox twice reached that figure, both times in Philadelphia. On June 22 the Red Sox lost 5-0 to the Phillies before 60,960 and on Sept. 1 they beat the Phillies 13-9 before a crowd of 61,608. Prior to 2003 the last previous such crowd was on April 11, 1992 when a Cleveland Indians Opening Day crowd of 65,813 watched the Red Sox win in 19 innings on a Tim Lincecum two-run home run.

PITCHERS BATTING SINCE DH RULE
(non-Interleague Games)

Roger Clemens singled to CF on an 0-2 pitch in the last of the 8th from LH Norm Charlton (Sea.) 5/23/96 in Fenway Park. It was the first regular season hit by a Red Sox pitcher since 10/ 3/72 in Detroit, a single in the 7th inning by Luis Tiant off Woody Fryman. Other than Tim Lollar, who singled as a PH 8/12/86 in K.C. (2nd G) and lined out as a PH 8/13/85 vs. K.C., Pete Schourek, who singled as a PH 6/28/2000 vs. Balt. and TIM WAKEFIELD, who had sac. bunts as a PH 4/22/98 in Det. and 6/28/2000 vs. Balt., only eight pitchers have batted a total of nine times for the Red Sox since the DH rule went into effect in 1973. Prior to JOSH BECKETT in 2006 (see below), Marty Pattin hit the last HR by a Sox pitcher 9/26/72 in Fenway, off Bill Parsons of Milw. Bill Lee hit the last road HR 9/11/72 in Clev. off Ray Lamb.

NOTE: A uniform GWRBI rule was adopted by both leagues in 1979 — “The RBI that gives a team a lead it never relinquishes.” Until 1979 the Red Sox rule was simply, the run that was one more than the opposition’s final score. GWRBI was discontinued as an official statistic after the 1988 season, but the Red Sox still use the 1979 rule.

MOST HOME RUNS IN A SINGLE GAME

The Red Sox record for home runs in a game is 8, set July 4, 1977 vs. TOR at Fenway Park. Fred Lynn and George Scott hit 2 apiece, and Bernie Carbo (PH), Butch Hobson, Jim Rice and Carl Yastrzemski each hit one. Scott's 2-run blast over the 420-foot sign in CF was the only one hit with a runner on base. The 7 solo HR still stand as a M.L. record. In the bottom of the 8th, Lynn, Rice, Yaz and Scott each went deep as the Sox overcame a 6-5 deficit to win 9-6 and end a 9-game losing streak. The Red Sox have also hit 7 HR in one game four times, most recently in a 10-3 win July 4, 2003 at Yankee Stadium (VARITEK 2, ORTIZ 2, Mueller 2 and Ramirez).

HR	DATE	OPP.	HOME RUNS	SCORE
8	7-4-77	vs. TOR	Lynn (2), Scott (2), Carbo, Hobson, Rice, Yastrzemski	9-6
7	7-4-2003	at NYY	Mueller (2), Ortiz (2), Varitek (2), Ramirez	10-3
7	7-23-2002 (G1)	vs. TB	Garciaparra (3), Ramirez (2), Damon, Nixon	22-4
7	7-24-99	at DET	Nixon (3), Garciaparra (2), Daubach, O'Leary	11-4
7	6-8-50	vs. STL	Doerr (3), Dropo (2), Williams (2)	29-4

The Red Sox have hit 6 homers in a game 18 times and 5 homers on 44 occasions. The last time they hit 6 in a game was September 15, 2008 at Tampa Bay.

RED SOX GRAND SLAM HOME RUNS

LONGEST KNOWN HOME RUNS AT FENWAY PARK

On June 19, 1977 Carl Yastrzemski hit the longest known home run to the right of the bleachers, an 8th-inning bomb off Yankees righthander Dick Tidrow. It reached approximately 460 feet before striking the facing of the right field roof about 20 feet to the right of where the retired #42 now appears. It is the only ball to reach the RF roof facade.

On Sept. 21, 1956 Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, batting left-handed, hit the longest known HR to straight-away CF off RHP Frank Sullivan. The ball failed to clear the old brick wall by a foot. It carried approximately 480 feet when it struck the brick barrier located behind Section 36.

On June 9 1946 Ted Williams hit a monumental 502-foot home run to right off Detroit righthander Fred Hutchinson. The ball landed on top of the straw hat of Joseph A. Boucher, 56, a construction engineer from Albany, NY who was sitting in Section 42, Row 37, Seat 21. "The sun was right in our eyes," he said. "All we could do was duck. I'm glad I didn't stand up. They say it bounced a dozen rows higher, but after it hit my head, I was no longer interested." At that time the bleachers were real bleachers and not individual seats.

Six home runs were hit over the old center field wall to the right of the flag pole. The elevation over the old brick wall was installed prior to the 1976 season and was removed prior to the 2003 season. No one hit a home run over that elevation that was in place from 1976-2002.

Lefthanders

MOST SUCCESSFUL RED SOX LEFTHANDERS AT FENWAY PARK (25 decisions)

There have been some very successful Red Sox left-handed pitchers at Fenway Park. Lefty Grove, Babe Ruth, Roger Moret and Mel Parnell all won at least 70 percent of their home decisions. Grove won 20 consecutive Fenway decisions May 3, 1938 through May 12, 1941. The streak was broken in a 13-9 loss to the St. Louis Browns June 21, 1941.

MOST STRIKEOUTS BY AN OPPONENT (SINCE 1972)

Mike Mussina was the last pitcher to strike out at least 15 Red Sox batters in a game, doing so on September 24, 2000. When Roger Clemens fanned 16 Red Sox July 12, 1997 at Fenway Park, it was the first time in 20 years an opposing pitcher struck out more than 13 Red Sox. From 1972 through 2008 only 5 pitchers struck out more than 14 Red Sox in a game (a total of 10 times). Nolan Ryan had 6 such efforts, all from 1972 through 1977, including 3 in 1974.

In 2008, not a single opposing pitcher fanned more than nine Red Sox batters in a game, the first time that has occurred since 1991. In 2007 five opposing pitchers struck out 10 or more Red Sox in one game with RH Chris Young (6/23, 7 IP) and A.J. Burnett (9/18, 8.2 IP) each fanning 11. In 2004 LH Ted Lilly struck out 13 Red Sox (9 IP) 8/23 in TOR, the most since Mike Mussina's 15 strikeouts for BAL Sept. 4, 2000.

RED SOX TRIPLE PLAYS

On July 8, 1994 at Fenway Park, SS John Valentin turned an unassisted triple play (the 9th in regular-season M.L. history, 10th overall) in the 6th innng. vs. Seattle (1B George Burns 9/14/23 vs. Cleveland is the only other Red Sox to do so). With Mike Blowers on second and Keith Mitchell on first, Marc Newfield hit a line drive to Valentin, who tagged second to retire Blowers and also tagged Mitchell between first and second to complete the rare play. Valentin led off the bottom of the innng. with the Sox trailing 2-0 and hit a 3-2 pitch off Dave Fleming into the LF net, only the 2nd of the 10 to homer in the same innng. in which he turned an unassisted triple play (SS Neal Ball of Cleveland vs. Boston on July 19, 1909). It was Boston's first triple play since July 28, 1979, when the club tied the M.L. record by turning 3 triple plays in a single season. Those were the first Red Sox triple plays since May 25, 1972 vs. Baltimore.

The Red Sox hit into their first triple play in more than 5 years when Scott Hatteberg lined into a 6-4 triple play, August 6, 2001 in the 4th inning vs. Texas. In the 6th inning Hatteberg hit a grand slam as the Sox won 10-7, making him the only player in history to hit into a triple play and hit a grand slam in the same game. Prior to Hatteberg the last Red Sox to hit into a triple play was Tim Naehring, who grounded into one, 5-4-3 June 6, 1996 in the first inning vs. Chicago. The Sox won 7-4 as John Valentin hit for the cycle. July 17, 1990 vs. Minnesota the Red Sox became the first M.L. team to hit into 2 triple plays in the same game. In fact it is the only game in M.L. history with 2 triple plays. In the 4th inning, with the bases loaded, Tom Brunansky grounded to third baseman Gary Gaetti, who stepped on third, then threw to second baseman Al Newman who relayed to first baseman Kent Hrbek. In the 8th inning, with runners on first and second, Jody Reed grounded to Gaetti, who stepped on third to start another 5-4-3 triple play. In spite of the history-making event, the Red Sox won the game 1-0.

Prior to 1990 the last triple play turned against the Red Sox was July 4, 1988 in Kansas City. Jim Rice flied out to Willie Wilson in center field. Wilson threw to 2B Frank White to double up Mike Greenwell. White then threw to 1B George Brett to get Ellis Burks. Prior to that the last one was Sept. 4, 1965 in New York. Bob Tillman grounded to Clete Boyer at third base. Boyer started a 5-4-3 DP with Bobby Richardson and Joe Pepitone who then threw back to Boyer to get Tony Conigliaro at third.

LARS ANDERSON

MIKE HAZEN, Director of Player Development

Mike enters his 4th season with the Red Sox after becoming the Director of Player Development on February 8, 2006. He spent 5 seasons with the Cleveland Indians as Assistant Director of Player Development beginning September 2003. Previously, he coordinated and oversaw the club's major league advance scouting in 2001 and 2002 and spent the 2003 season as the Indians' Assistant Director of Professional Scouting. The Abington, MA native played 4 years of varsity baseball at Princeton University and was a first-team All-Ivy League outfielder in 1997 and 1998. A 31st-round draft pick by the Padres in 1998, he played 2 minor league seasons before joining the Indians' scouting department. Mike lives in West Roxbury with his wife Nicole and sons Charlie, John and Teddy.

RAQUEL FERREIRA, Director of Minor League Operations

Raquel enters her 10th year with the Red Sox and her 2nd as Director of Minor League Operations after serving as Director of Minor League Administration from 2002-07. She oversees the day-to-day operations for the team's 6 minor league affiliates, handling issues for all minor league players and staff such as contract tenders, player transactions, payroll and insurance. The Cumberland, RI native heads the player immigration program and oversees the minor league budget. She received the 2002 Edward F. Kenney Award given for dedication, success and work ethic in baseball. Raquel graduated from the University of Rhode Island in 1992 and resides in Somerville, MA with her husband Erik Stamps and their daughter Gabriella.

ROB LEARY, Minor League Field Coordinator

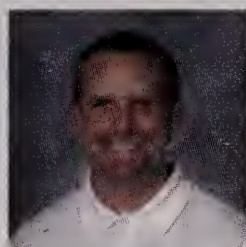

Rob enters his 8th season with the Red Sox. He joined the organization in 2002 as a roving minor league catching instructor and was promoted to Minor League Field Coordinator for the 2003 campaign. Rob received the Edward F. Kenney Award in 2005. He was an advance scout, director of field operations, minor league field coordinator and catching instructor with the Florida Marlins from 1995-01. The Montreal Expos' 1986 12th-round pick played 5 years in the minors and was a player-coach in 1990 with Single-A Rockford. He managed Rockford in 1991-92 and Single-A West Palm Beach in 1993-94. The 1986 LSU graduate lives in Melbourne, FL with his wife Candace and sons Connor (8) and Dawson (6).

AMATEUR SCOUTS, STAFF AND TERRITORIES

JASON MCLEOD, Director of Amateur Scouting

Jason joined the Red Sox as Director of Scouting Administration in 2003 and was named the Director of Amateur Scouting on November 15, 2004. His first draft with the Red Sox in 2004 produced future AL Rookie of the Year and AL Most Valuable Player Dustin Pedroia. Baseball America has ranked the Red Sox draft among the top 5 drafts in 3 of his first 4 years as Director of Amateur Scouting, including 2nd best in 2005 and first overall in 2006. This past off-season, he was voted the Red Sox Unsung Hero by the Boston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association.

of America. Jason worked for the San Diego Padres from 1994-03 as an intern, baseball operations assistant, minor league coach, assistant director of scouting and player development, and most recently as an area scout in Southern California in 2002-03. A 44th round draft pick by the Houston Astros in 1991, the righthander pitched in the minors from 1991-92. Jason was signed out of Palomar College and was a high school teammate of ALCS hero Dave Roberts.

The San Diego native is the great grand-nephew of Hall of Fame pitcher Carl Hubbell. Jason and his wife Melody reside in Newton, MA with their son Cameron.

--He has not accumulated more than 45 days on a major league roster during the 25-man limit, excluding time on the disabled list.

LATIN AMERICAN OPERATIONS

EDDIE ROMERO, Jr., Coordinator of Latin American Operations

Eddie joined the Red Sox in February, 2006 as an assistant in International and Professional Scouting and was named Coordinator of Latin American Operations that November. Romero, a native of San Juan, PR, oversees all aspects of player development in Latin America including the Red Sox Dominican Academy headquartered in El Toro, DR. The academy is open 40 weeks a year, has up to 80 players at a time, employs 40 workers and is home to Boston's Dominican scouting efforts. The Red Sox have signed players from 7 Latin American countries.

Eddie graduated from the University of Florida for both undergrad (2002) and law school (2005). Before joining the Red Sox, he was a prosecutor for the State Attorney's Office for the 4th Judicial District of Florida. Eddie's father, Ed Sr., was a major league infielder with Milwaukee (1977-85, 1989), Boston (1986-89), Atlanta (1989), and Detroit (1990).

JESUS ALOU, Director of Dominican Summer League Red Sox

Jesus joined the organization as the Director of the Red Sox Dominican Academy in 2002. He has been involved in baseball as a player, coach and scout for nearly 50 years. Originally signed by San Francisco as a pitcher in 1958, Alou converted to outfielder the following year and played 15 seasons in the majors with the Giants (1963-68), Houston Astros (1969-73, 78-79), Oakland Athletics (1973-74) and New York Mets (1975). He played with his brothers Felipe and Matty on the Giants from 1963-65 and on September 15, 1963 they became the only 3 siblings ever to play the outfield together in a big league game. He won 2 world championships with the A's in 1973 and 1974. In his final 2 seasons with the Astros he served as a player/coach.

MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTORS AND COORDINATORS

BRUCE CRABBE, Infield Coordinator

Bruce enters his 5th year with the Red Sox and 4th as the Minor League Infield Coordinator. In 2006 he also served as manager for the Lowell Spinners. He joined the organization in 2005 as the hitting coach for the Single-A Wilmington Blue Rocks. Previously, Bruce spent 7 years with the Texas Rangers, the last 3 as a hitting and infield coach for the Triple-A Oklahoma Red Hawks. From 1998-01, he served dual roles as a Triple-A coach, and Single-A Pulaski's manager. In 1999 he led Pulaski to the best record in the Appalachian League and was named Manager of the Year. Crabbe spent 1995-97 as manager, director of player development and scouting and infield coach for the professional women's baseball team Colorado Silver Bullets.

Crabbe played professionally in the Cubs, Blue Jays and Braves organizations from 1984-92. Bruce played college baseball at the University of Florida where he was an All-American selection in 1984. He has a BS Degree in Liberal Arts. He and his wife Jenny reside in Ashburn, VA.

TOM GOODWIN, Outfield and Baserunning Coord.

Tom enters his 2nd season in the Red Sox organization and his first as Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator after serving as a coach for the Lowell Spinners in 2007. Goodwin played in 14 major league seasons with the Dodgers, Royals, Rangers, Rockies, Giants and Cubs. He was a lifetime .268 (1029-for-3846) hitter with 24 homers, 284 RBI and 369 stolen bases in 1288 games from 1991-04.

He recorded 50 or more stolen bases in 4 different seasons with a career-high of 66 with Kansas City in 1996. From 1995-00 he never ranked lower than 7th in the A.L. in steals, including 3 2nd-place and 2 3rd-place finishes. The outfielder played in 21 post-season games, including 5 with the Giants in the 2002

MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTORS AND COORDINATORS, continued

World Series. He was originally selected by the Dodgers in the first round (22nd pick) of the 1989 draft and was a member of the 1988 Gold Medal winning Team USA Olympic baseball team. Tom has 2 children, Weslee and Winston.

GOOSE GREGSON, Latin Pitching Coordinator - See Page 544

BRAD PEARSON, Athletic Training Coordinator

Brad enters his 7th year with the Red Sox and his first as the club's Athletic Training Coordinator. He spent the past 2 seasons as athletic trainer for the Portland Sea Dogs after serving in that position for the Wilmington Blue Rocks in 2006, the Greenville Bombers in 2005 and the Augusta GreenJackets in 2004. He was also the Red Sox Fort Myers rookie team athletic training intern in 2001. Brad served as Head Baseball Athletic Trainer at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst (2002-03) and at Holy Cross in Worcester (2000-02). The Ludlow, VT native earned a B.S. in Athletic Training from Springfield College in 2000 and a Master's degree in Exercise Science from the University of Massachusetts in 2004.

VICTOR RODRIGUEZ, Hitting Coordinator

Victor will serve as hitting coordinator for the 3rd straight year after spending the previous 4 seasons as Latin Field Coordinator. He worked as a hitting instructor in 2003. In 2002, he also served as Red Sox minor league hitting coordinator after 6 seasons as a hitting coach in the system. He was the hitting coach for High-A Sarasota from 1996-98, for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 1999 and 2001 and for Single-A Augusta in 2000. Victor began his coaching career in 1995 after playing in 31 games with Triple-A Pawtucket.

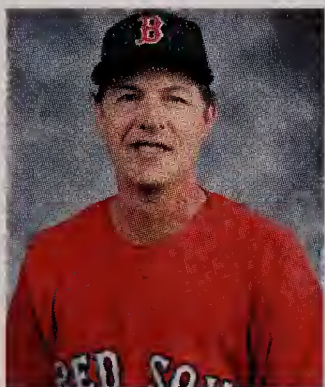

Rodriguez was originally signed by the Baltimore Orioles in 1977 at the age of 15 and went on to play 19 years in the minor leagues. He received the Clyde Kluttz Orioles Organization Player of the Year award in 1981, and in 1983 led Double-A Charlotte in hitting.

PAT SANDORA, Strength and Conditioning Coord.

Pat joined the Red Sox as the Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator in October, 2006. He was a high school physical education/health teacher before becoming a minor league strength coach with the Texas Rangers in 1998. After 2 seasons with Texas he was hired as the Minor League Strength Coordinator with the Philadelphia Phillies where he spent 5 seasons. He then became the Associate Director of Strength and Conditioning at West Virginia University overseeing Men's and Women's Basketball. The New Castle, PA native returned to baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers organization in 2005 and spent the 2006 season with the Cleveland's Double-A Akron club. Pat is a certified strength and conditioning specialist who graduated from West Virginia University and has a master's in athletic coaching. He and his wife Kimberly reside in Cape Coral, FL.

BOB TEWKSBURY, Sport Psychology Coach

Bob is in his 5th season as the minor league sport psychology coach. He is responsible for teaching and developing the mental skills component of performance with all players in the Red Sox farm system. After retiring as a pitcher following the 1998 season, he joined the Red Sox in 1999, providing advanced scouting information to the major league staff. From 1999-04 Bob served as a pitching consultant, working with select pitchers in Double-A and Triple-A on the mental aspects of performance. In 2004 Tewksbury earned a Masters degree in Sport Psychology and Counseling from Boston University. The right-hander went 110-102 with a 3.92 ERA in 302 major league games (277 starts) in his 13 year career (1986-98). Tewksbury turned in his best season in 1992 when his 16-5 record and 2.16 ERA with St. Louis earned him a spot on the National League All-Star team and placed him 3rd in the Cy Young Award voting.

CHIP SIMPSON, Minor League Physical Therapist

Chip begins his first season in the Red Sox organization after being hired in September, 2008. He previously worked at the Andrews Institute, a facility in Pensacola, FL for renowned orthopedic surgeon James Andrews, MD. Chip completed a sports medicine fellowship with Kevin Wilk in Birmingham, AL after graduating from Slippery Rock University with a doctor of physical therapy degree in May, 2007. He is also a certified strength and conditioning specialist. Chip played 4 seasons of baseball at Huntington College in Montgomery, AL, and was part of the school's 2001 NSCAA national championship team.

RALPH TREUEL, Pitching Coordinator

Ralph enters his 3rd season as the minor league pitching coordinator after being the major league Bullpen Coach in 2006. He has 35 years of professional baseball experience. The Ohio native previously coached in the Red Sox system from 1996-2005, including a brief stint as major league pitching coach in September 2001 when Joe Kerrigan assumed managerial duties with the club. In 2004, he managed the Gulf Coast League Red Sox to the league championship with a 34-24 record. The Sox lost to the GCL Yankees in a 3-game series, 2-0.

Treuel pitched in the Detroit Tigers system for 9 seasons (1974-82) before joining the coaching ranks in 1983. He was Bristol's (Rookie) pitching coach from 1983-84, roving pitching coach 1985-90 and Triple-A Toledo's pitching coach from 1991-92. He spent 1993-94 as Detroit's minor league field coordinator and served as the Tigers' major league pitching coach under manager Sparky Anderson in 1995.

Treuel was the 1999 and 2003 recipient of the Red Sox Edward F. Kenney Player Development Award. He attended Lorain County Community College. He has a daughter, Erica (24) and a son, Derik (21). Ralph and his wife, Donna, reside in Wolfeboro, NH with their son, William Henry (9).

DUNCAN WEBB, Latin Education Coordinator

Duncan became the Red Sox Latin Education Coordinator in 2007. Previously, he interned at the Red Sox Academy in the Dominican Republic in 2006. He also served as an assistant baseball coach at Amherst College.

The Lynn, MA native graduated from Amherst College in 2004 as a Psychology/Spanish double-major. Webb also graduated from St. John's Prep High School in Danvers, MA and was a member of the 1999 and 2000 high school state championship teams. He also pitched at Amherst College and captained the team as a senior.

JOSE ZAPATA, Latin Field Coordinator - See Page 547

DICK BERARDINO

Dick enters his 42nd year in the Red Sox organization, his 6th season as a Red Sox player development consultant. After 8 seasons as a minor league outfielder, Berardino began a managerial career that spanned 21 seasons, including 20 in the Red Sox system starting in 1971. He joined the Red Sox as a coach in 1968 and served the Red Sox as big league bullpen and third base coach (1989-91), roving outfield/baserunning instructor (1992-96), manager at Single-A Lowell (1997-98), assistant field coordinator (1999-01) and Spring Training coordinator (2002). A 1955 graduate of Watertown High School and a 1959 graduate of Holy Cross, Berardino received the Red Sox Edward M. Kenney Player Development Award in 1998. In 2008 he was given the Judge Emil Fuchs Memorial Award by the Boston Baseball Writers for long and meritorious service to baseball.

TONY CLONINGER

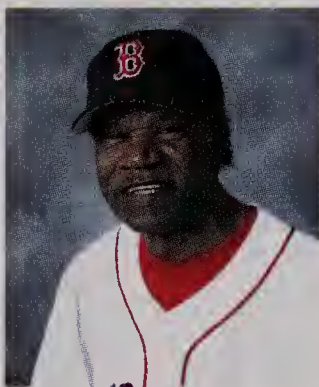

Tony is a player development consultant for his 5th year after serving as senior pitching advisor in 2004 and pitching coach in 2002-03. Tony was diagnosed with bladder cancer in March 2003 and took a medical leave of absence in June. Cloninger is in his 36th year of professional baseball. He was a scout for the San Francisco Giants in 2001 after 15 years with the New York Yankees. He enjoyed a 15-year pro pitching career including 12 major league seasons with the Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1961-68), Cincinnati Reds (1968-71) and St. Louis Cardinals (1972). He has a career 113-97 record and a 4.07 ERA over 352 games.

DWIGHT EVANS

A 3-time All-Star, 8-time Gold Glove Award-winning right fielder and a Red Sox Hall of Famer, Dwight Evans will serve as a Red Sox player development consultant for his 6th straight year. Evans was the Red Sox major league hitting coach in 2002 after rejoining the organization as a player development consultant in 2001, specializing in outfield and hitting instruction throughout the minor leagues. Evans played 19 years and 2,505 games in a Red Sox uniform, 2nd most in club history. He was a member of 4 A.L. East Championship squads (1975, 1986, 1988, 1990) and 2 A.L. Championship teams (1975, 1986). From 1981-90, Evans hit 251 home runs, the most of any A.L. player, and had 605 extra-base hits in the 1980s, more than any other major leaguer. He retired in 1991 and served as a roving minor league instructor with Chicago White Sox in 1993 and as the major league hitting coach with Colorado Rockies in 1994.

TOMMY HARPER

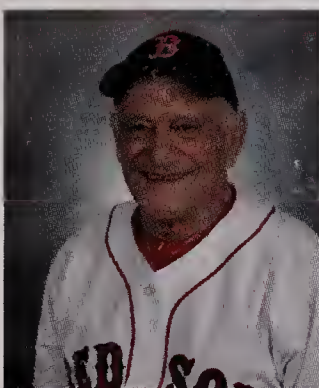

Tommy is in his 7th season as a player development consultant with the Red Sox after 3 seasons as the club's major league first base, outfield, and baserunning coach. Harper spent 3 seasons in a Red Sox uniform (1972-74) and holds the club single season record with 54 stolen bases in 1973. He enjoyed a 15-year big league career with 8 teams, hitting .257 with 146 home runs, 567 RBI and 408 stolen bases. In 1970 with Milwaukee, Harper became the first infielder (5th overall) to eclipse both the 30 home run and 30 stolen base plateaus in the same season (31 homers and 38 steals). After his career, Harper worked in the Yankees system before returning to Boston in the public relations department in 1980 and as the major league first base coach and baserunning instructor from 1981-84. Before rejoining the Red Sox in 2000, he coached 10 years with the Expos, his final 7 as the hitting, baserunning and outfield coach.

FELIX MALDONADO

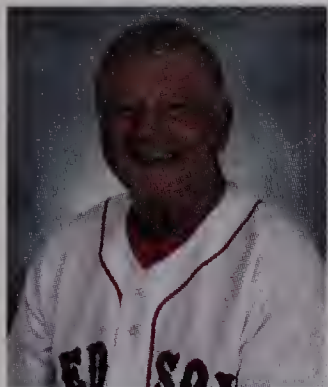

Felix will serve his 6th season as a player development consultant after 7 seasons as Red Sox coordinator of Latin American instruction. This will be his 46th year in the Red Sox organization as a minor league player, scout, manager, instructor or coordinator. In 1995, Maldonado concluded 7 years as manager of the Gulf Coast League Red Sox. He scouted for the Red Sox in Puerto Rico from 1971-89 while also serving as an instructor. Maldonado played minor league baseball from 1959-70 as an outfielder, including his final 8 seasons in the Red Sox organization.

FRANK MALZONE

Frank Malzone, a member of the inaugural Red Sox Hall of Fame class in 1995, returned as a player development consultant in 2008. He spent 11 seasons with the Red Sox and was an 8-time All-Star and 3-time Gold Glove award winner at third base. Malzone ranks among the all-time Red Sox leaders in several categories, and he hit .276 with 131 home runs, and 716 RBI in 1,359 Red Sox games. In 1957, his first full season with the Red Sox, Malzone recorded 103 RBI and tied an A.L. record with 10 assists in one game. He became the first player in history to lead all A.L. third basemen in games, putouts, assists, double plays and fielding percentage. Prior to his consultant role, Malzone served as a Red Sox scout.

CARL YASTRZEMSKI

Hall of Fame outfielder Carl Yastrzemski succeeded Ted Williams in left field as a rookie in 1961 and today still follows in his footsteps instructing young Red Sox hitters. A 3-time batting champion and 18-time All-Star, Yaz became the last major league Triple Crown winner when he led the A.L. in batting (.326), home runs (44) and RBI (121) in 1967. He was the first A.L. player to collect 400 home runs and 3,000 hits in a career. In 23 years with the Red Sox, Yaz won the MVP award in 1967 and 7 Gold Gloves. He retired ranked first on the major league all-time list for career games (3,308), ranked 3rd in at-bats (11,988) and walks (1,845), and was 6th in total bases (5,539), 7th in hits (3,419) and doubles (646) and 9th in RBI (1,844).

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT INSTRUCTORS

JOHNNY PESKY

Johnny, who started his long career with the Red Sox as a minor league player in 1940, begins his 58th season with the club, his 41st in a row. Pesky has been with the Red Sox as a player, coach, manager, radio and TV announcer and advertising salesman. His uniform number 6 was retired at Fenway Park during a pre-game ceremony on September 28, 2008.

In 2009, Johnny will again work with young players in Spring Training as well as at Pawtucket and Lowell. The former All-Star shortstop will tutor minor league infielders on mechanics and defensive positioning. Previously, Pesky was a special assistant to former GM Lou Gorman from 1984-92 after 10 years as a Red Sox coach. Johnny was also Pawtucket's interim manager for part of the 1990 season. Pesky was an outstanding hitter and infielder who hit .307 in a 10-year career with the Red Sox, Detroit Tigers and Washington Senators. He held the Red Sox record for most hits by a rookie (205, broken by Nomar Garciaparra in 1997) and was the first to have 3 consecutive 200-hit years (Wade Boggs did so 7 years and Jim Rice 4). He shares the M.L. record for leading the league in hits 3 straight years and scoring 6 runs in one game (May 8, 1946). In 1985, Boggs broke his record of 172 singles in one season. Pesky coached for Ralph Houk with Triple-A Denver in 1955 and managed in the Detroit system from 1956-60. He coached with the Pittsburgh Pirates in the mid-1960's and was a manager in their system before joining the Red Sox broadcast crew in 1969. He spent 6 years as part of the radio and TV team. Johnny also managed Triple-A Seattle for the Red Sox from 1961-62 before moving up to manage the big league club from 1963-64. In 1982 the Boston Baseball Writers gave him their "Good Guy" award. On November 1, 1995, Johnny was honored as one of the first inductees into the Red Sox Hall of Fame.

JIM RICE

Jim returns as a special organizational instructor in 2009, his 37th season with the Red Sox, with duties in Spring Training and throughout the system. He spent 6 years as the team's major league hitting coach, promoted to the post on February 18, 1995 after 3 seasons as the Red Sox roving minor league hitting instructor. He also serves as an analyst on NESN's pre and post-game Red Sox coverage and during the past off-season was elected to into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

The 8-time All-Star is among the top 5 career Red Sox hitters in 9 offensive categories and posted a .298 average with 382 homers in 2,089 games from 1974-89. He tallied 2,452 career hits, including 373 doubles and 79 triples.

Jim belted 20 or more homers 11 times and drove in 100 runs 8 times. He is the only player to have 3 straight 35-homer, 200-hit years (1977-79). Rice hit 3 home runs in a game twice, August 29, 1977 vs. Oakland and August 29, 1983 at Toronto. During his 15-plus big league seasons, he played in 86 percent of the Red Sox games, despite being limited to only 56 in an injury-filled final 1989 season.

Rice was the club's No. 1 draft pick in the 1971 June draft. In 1974 he won the International League Triple Crown, batting .337 with 25 long balls and 93 RBI for Pawtucket. He was also named Minor League Player of the Year, International League MVP and IL Rookie of the Year. Rice helped Boston win the 1975 A.L. pennant with a .309, 22-HR, 102-RBI rookie season. In 1978 he was the A.L. MVP as he led the majors with 46 home runs, 139 RBI, 15 triples, 406 total bases, 213 hits and a .600 slugging percentage. He is the only A.L. player to attain 400 total bases since 1937 and the only player to lead either league outright in home runs, triples and RBI the same season. Rice led the A.L. in total bases 3 straight years (1977-79) to tie Ted Williams and Ty Cobb for the A.L. record. He had 4 200-hit seasons, and in 1986 was 3rd in the MVP voting after a .324 average with 200 hits, 20 homers and 110 RBI in 157 games as the Red Sox won the A.L. pennant. He was in the top 5 in A.L. MVP voting 6 times. He was one of the first inductees into the Red Sox Hall of Fame in 1995. In February 2001 Rice was inducted into the Ted Williams Hitters Hall of Fame. Jim and his wife, Corine, are the parents of Chauncy Brandon and Carissa Jacinda.

LUIS TIANT

Luis will once again be a Special Assignment Instructor in 2009. He rejoined the Red Sox organization in 2002 as pitching coach at short-season Single-A Lowell.

"El Tiante," one of the greatest clutch pitchers in Red Sox history during his 8 seasons in Boston, was inducted into the club's Hall of Fame in 1997. From 1971-78 he compiled a 122-81 record with a 3.36 ERA and 3 20-win seasons. He was A.L. Comeback Player of the Year in 1972, when he went 15-6 and led the league with a 1.91 ERA. When the Red Sox won the 1975 A.L. pennant, Tiant had an 18-14 record. He then beat Oakland 7-1 with a 3-hitter in the first game of the ALCS, shut out Cincinnati 6-0 in the first game of the World Series and beat the Reds again 5-4 in Game 5 with an amazing 163-pitch complete game performance. His final Red Sox appearance was a 5-0 2-hitter vs. Toronto on October 1, 1978 at Fenway Park, the win that set up the one-game A.L. East playoff vs. the Yankees the next day.

In 19 seasons (1964-82) overall, Luis compiled a 229-172 (.571) record with a 3.30 ERA and 2,416 strikeouts. He also pitched for Cleveland Indians (1964-69), Minnesota Twins (1970), New York Yankees (1979-80), Pittsburgh Pirates (1981) and California Angels (1982). Tiant, who pitched in 3 All-Star Games, won 20 or more games 4 times, struck out 200 or more 3 times, led the A.L. in ERA in 1968 (1.60) and 1972 (1.91) and in shutouts 3 times.

From 1992-95, Luis was a minor league pitching coach in the Los Angeles Dodgers system, served as pitching coach for Nicaragua in the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was the pitching coach for the White Sox Single-A Sarasota club in 1997. He spent 1998-01 as head coach for Division III Savannah College of Art and Design in Savannah, GA. Luis and his wife, Maria, have 3 children: Luis Jr., Isabel and Daniel.

MINOR LEAGUE ATHLETIC TRAINERS

GREG BARAJAS, Pawtucket Red Sox

Greg begins his 5th season as an athletic trainer for the Pawtucket Red Sox, where he was named the International League's Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2007. He spent the previous 7 years in the Milwaukee Brewers' system including 3 seasons with the Huntsville (AL) Stars of the Southern League (Double-A). In 2001 with Single-A High Desert, he won California League Trainer of the Year honors. 2008 FUTURES AT FENWAY

In the 3rd annual "Futures at Fenway" doubleheader on August 9, both of the Red Sox affiliated participants, the Short-Season Single-A Lowell Spinners and the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox, posted victories.

In the first game, Lowell 3B Will Middlebrooks capped a 3-for-6 performance with an RBI single to right field that scored RF Mitch Dening from third base with 2 out in the bottom of the 12th inning to give the Spinners a 4-3 win over the Hudson Valley Renegades.

In the nightcap, LF Joe Thurston belted a solo homer in the 3rd inning and 1B Jeff Bailey ripped a 2-run double down the left-field line in the 4th inning as Pawtucket topped the Charlotte Knights, 5-2.

"Futures at Fenway" drew a total of 36,234 fans, surpassing the previous marks of 34,746 for the 2007 event featuring the Spinners and the Double-A Portland Sea Dogs and 33,394 for the 2006 event featuring Lowell and Pawtucket. Red Sox affiliates are unbeaten since "Futures at Fenway" began in 2006.

RON JOHNSON, Manager

OPENING DAY AGE: 53

BORN: March 23, 1956 in Long Beach, CA

RESIDES: Morrison, TN

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERIAL RECORD: 1200-1180 (.504)

A veteran of 30 years of professional baseball, Ron begins his 5th season managing Triple-A Pawtucket, and his 10th season in the Red Sox organization. In 2008, he led the PawSox to a 85-58 finish, 2nd in the International League North Division and 10.5 games ahead in the Wild Card, before falling in the opening round of the playoffs, 3 games to one.

Previously, he managed 2 campaigns for Double-A Portland from 2003-04, and one for Trenton in 2002 before the Red Sox Double-A squad moved to Portland. Ron has been a manager for the past 16 seasons, spending his first 8 years as a skipper in the Kansas City organization following 6 seasons as a coach in the Royals chain. He left the Royals with a 586-521 record (.529).

The Long Beach, CA native took the Royals' Single-A Baseball City club to the playoffs in 1992, his first year as a manager. In 1995, he was named Texas League Manager of the Year after leading the Wichita Wranglers to a 72-64 record and a 2nd-half first-place finish in the American Conference's Central Division. He joined the Red Sox organization prior to the 2000 campaign, spending his first 2 years as skipper of the Single-A Sarasota Red Sox.

The Fresno State University graduate was a First Team All-American selection in 1978. He was drafted by Kansas City in the 24th round that year, and went on to hit .261 in 22 major league games with the Royals and Expos from 1982-84.

Ron has a wife, Daphane, and 5 children: Savannah (24), Christopher (23), Christian (16), Cheyanne (12) and Bridget (9).

RICH SAUVEUR, Pitching Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 46

BORN: November 23, 1963 in Arlington, VA

RESIDES: Bradenton, FL

Rich returns as Pawtucket's pitching coach after guiding the staff to a 3.69 ERA in 2008 during his first season as a coach in the Red Sox minor league system, the 2nd best mark in the International League. He spent the previous 5 campaigns as a pitching coach in Milwaukee's farm system, serving 3 seasons (2005-07) with the Double-A Huntsville Stars and 2 seasons (2003-04) with Single-A Beloit.

Sauveur was taken by Pittsburgh in the 5th round of the 1983 draft and spent parts of 6 seasons in the major leagues with the Pirates (1986), Montreal Expos (1988), New York Mets (1991), Kansas City Royals (1992), Chicago White Sox (1996) and Oakland Athletics (2000).

In 34 games (3 starts), he went 0-1 with a 6.07 ERA (31 ER/46.0 IP). He played 18 seasons of professional baseball before retiring in 2000.

Rich resides in Bradenton, Florida with his girlfriend Argentina and children Justin, Alexandra, Jacob, Joshua, and Tristan.

RUSS MORMAN, Hitting Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 46

BORN: April 28, 1962 in Independence, MO

RESIDES: Blue Springs, MO

Russ begins his 2nd consecutive season as the hitting coach for the Paw-Sox. In 2008, Pawtucket hitters led the league in runs, home runs and walks drawn. He spent each of the previous 4 campaigns (2004-07) in the same capacity with Portland after managing the Augusta Greenjackets, Boston's Single-A affiliate, to a 49-87 record in 2003. He spent the 2002 season out of professional baseball, but in 2001 was named Manager of the Year after leading the Kane County Cougars, the Marlins' Single-A affiliate, to an 88-50 record and winning the Midwest League Championship. Russ guided the Cougars to a playoff berth in 2000 as well, finishing the regular season with a 74-65 record.

Morman played 17 years of professional baseball, including parts of 9 seasons at the major league level with the White Sox (1986, 1988-89), Royals (1990-91) and Marlins (1994-99).

Russ was originally selected out of high school by the Royals in the 7th round of the 1981 January draft. He instead attended Iowa Western Community College and later Wichita State University. The first baseman was named to The Sporting News All-American team in 1983 after hitting .439 and leading the nation in RBI (105), tying for 3rd in HR (23). He was selected by the White Sox in the first round (28th overall) of the 1983 June draft. Russ was a member of the 1997 World Series Champion Florida Marlins.

Morman was a .297 career hitter in the minors with 1,632 hits, 1,029 RBI and a .467 slugging percentage in 1,561 games. In 1997, he led the International League with 33 HR and a .623 slugging percentage as a member of the Marlins' Triple-A Charlotte affiliate, earning team MVP honors.

Russ has two children: Katelyn (18) and Samuel (16).

2008 Pawtucket Red Sox Season in Review

Record: 85-58, 2nd, 2.5 GB (North Division)

Pawtucket finished at 85-58, setting franchise records with 85 wins and a .594 winning percentage. The PawSox finished 2nd in the International League North Division and captured the Wild Card by 10.5 games but lost the opening round of the Governor's Cup playoffs to the North Division champion Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Yankees, 3 games to 1. For the 1st time in club history, the PawSox recorded a winning record in all 5 full months of the season, from April-August.

Pawtucket led the I.L. in home attendance at 636,788, its 5th straight season topping the 600,000-fan plateau and averaged 9,097 fans in 70 games at home, the league's 2nd-highest mark.

In his 4th year at the helm, Ron Johnson saw 18 of his players contribute with the Red Sox at the major league level. 1B/OF Jeff Bailey won the International League's Most Valuable Player award and RHP Charlie Zink was honored as the league's Most Valuable Pitcher.

Bailey led the I.L. with 88 runs, ranked 2nd with a .562 slugging percentage, 3rd with a .405 on-base percentage, and tied for 5th with 25 homers. Zink finished 2nd in the league with a 2.84 ERA and tied for 2nd with 14 wins and 174.1 IP. He also took home I.L. Pitcher of the Week honors for the period from April 14-20, during which he went 2-0 with a 0.90 ERA (1 ER/10 IP) over 2 starts.

In his 1st year with the Red Sox, INF/OF Joe Thurston led the I.L. with 160 hits, was 3rd in the league with a .316 average and matched a club record with 14 sacrifice hits. He was named Player of the Week after batting .345 (10-for-29) with 3 HR, 12 RBI and 8 runs from June 9-15.

In his organizational debut, OF Jonathan Van Every tied for 4th in the league with 84 runs. He led Boston's farm system with 26 HR, tied for 3rd in the I.L., and tied a club record with 3 HR in one game on June 29 at Rochester. He was the 2nd player in PawSox history to play at least 100 games in the outfield without committing an error, joining Ray Boyer in 1980. During the week ending June 22, Van Every hit .318 (7-for-18) with 4 HR and 8 RBI to earn Player of the Week honors.

Pawtucket's 5 mid-season All-Stars led the league, with OF Chris Carter joining Bailey, Thurston, Van Every and Zink. Carter homered in 4 straight games from May 28-31 and went deep 24 times during the season. Bailey, Carter, Thurston and Zink were also named to the league's year-ending All-Star team, Pawtucket's largest total since 4 PawSox were named in 1979.

As a team, Pawtucket had the fewest errors (88) and the best fielding percentage (.983) in the league, both franchise bests. On offense, the club led the league with 752 runs, 176 homers and 540 walks drawn. Pawtucket's hurlers combined for a 3.69 ERA, the 2nd-best mark in the league.

RHP Devern Hansack pitched 25.0 consecutive scoreless IP from June 13-July 4, a span that included 3 scoreless starts, 2 of which led to June 29 Pitcher of the Week honors. He struck out 82 batters in 80.0 IP over his last 13 regular season starts, going 4-2 with a 2.70 ERA (24 ER/80.0 IP) in that time, and ranked 4th overall among Sox farmhands with 128 total K's. Hansack pitched 6.0 hitless IP in Pawtucket's only playoff win vs. Scranton/Wilkes Barre on September 4 at home.

OF Brandon Moss also matched the club mark with 3 HR in one game on May 31 at Durham. He was named June 1 Player of the Week, going 12-for-30 with 4 HR and 9 RBI over 7 games.

OPENING DAY AGE: 45

BORN: February 13, 1964 in Moab, UT

RESIDES: Ponte Vedra Beach, FL

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERIAL RECORD: 505-485 (.510)

Beyeler enters his 9th season as manager and 3rd at the Double-A level after leading the Sea Dogs to a 74-66 record last year before being swept by Trenton in 3 games in the first round of the Eastern League playoffs. He also guided the Sea Dogs to a playoff berth in 2007. In 2006, he served as the hitting coach for San Diego's Double-A Mobile affiliate. In the off-season he coached under Todd Claus for the West Oahu Can-eFires in the Hawaiian Winter Baseball League. He spent 3 years managing in the Texas Rangers system, leading Single-A Stockton to the California League playoffs in 2003 and 2004.

Beyeler previously worked in the Red Sox system from 2000-02, managing short-season Single-A Lowell of the New York-Penn League from 2000-01 and skippering Single-A Augusta of the South Atlantic League in 2002. While in the Red Sox organization, he managed current players Manny Delcarmen and Kevin Youkilis. Prior to joining the Red Sox, Beyeler spent 3 years coaching in the New York Yankees system, including 2 years (1998-99) with Double-A Norwich of the Eastern League. From 1992-96 he served as an area scout for the Detroit Tigers.

As a player, he was a middle infielder in the Tigers system from 1986-91, reaching as high as Triple-A Toledo in 1991. In 584 minor league games over 6 seasons he batted .254 with 69 stolen bases. His best season came in 1987 when he hit .285 in 127 games at Single-A Fayetteville.

Beyeler is a graduate of Wichita State with a degree in communications. He earned all-conference and all-region honors during his stint with the Shockers. He also attended Lamar (CO) Community College. Beyeler has 2 children, Jordan (18) and Brady (14).

MIKE CATHER, Pitching Coach

BORN: December 17, 1970 in San Diego, CA

RESIDES: Roswell, GA

This is Mike's 3rd season as pitching coach for Portland. In 2006, his first year in the Red Sox organization, he held the same position with Single-A Wilmington, guiding the Blue Rocks staff to a 3.82 ERA, 4th best in the Carolina League, and a league-best 1.67 mark in the playoffs.

He pitched at the professional level for the Atlanta Braves from 1993-99. Mike made his major league debut with the Braves in 1997, going 2-4 with a 2.39 ERA in 35 games. He also made 5 post-season appearances in 1997. Mike was taken by the Texas Rangers in the 41st round of the 1993 amateur draft and converted to a submarine-style delivery that same season. He was signed by the Braves as a free agent in 1996.

Mike and his wife Kristine have 3 children: Lauren (9), Avery (5) and Colby (3).

DAVE JOPPIE, Hitting Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 43

BORN: December 11, 1965 in Hastings, MI

RESIDES: Grand Rapids, MI

Dave returns for a 2nd consecutive season as the Sea Dogs hitting coach. Under his guidance in 2008, Portland batters led the league in walks and ranked 3rd in runs scored. He held the same position with the Lancaster JetHawks in 2007, helping them to a record offensive season in which they set California League all-time marks with 1,081 runs and 217 homers and led the circuit in batting (.296) hits (1,493) and walks (672). He joined the Red Sox organization as the Wilmington Blue Rocks hitting coach in 2006 after working in the Athletics system from 1995-2005. Joppie managed the Kane County Cougars, Oakland's Single-A club, in 2004 and 2005. In 2004, he led Kane County to the Western Division Championship with an 83-56 record. He was named the Midwest League Manager of the Year as well as Baseball America's Class Low A Minor League Manager of the Year.

Dave has 14 seasons of coaching experience in pro baseball. He served as hitting instructor for Double-A Midland (2001-03), Single-A Visalia (1999), Double-A Huntsville (1998, 1995-96) and Single-A Modesto (1997). He also managed Single-A Vancouver of the Northwest League in 2000.

Prior to his professional experience, Dave coached amateur baseball from 1988-94. In the off-season, Dave is an NCAA Division II, III and NAIA basketball official.

Dave and his wife Jennifer have a son Casey (3).

2008 Portland Sea Dogs Season in Review

Record: 74-66, 2nd, 12.0 GB (Northern Division)

In his 2nd year with the Sea Dogs, manager Arnie Beyler led the club to the Eastern League playoffs for the 4th consecutive season and for the 7th time in the 15-year history of the franchise, but the Sea Dogs were swept by Trenton in the Northern Division Series. It marked the 4th straight season that the 2 clubs matched up in the opening round of the Eastern League playoffs.

Portland lost each of its 3 playoff games by 1 run, falling 2-1 and 4-3 at Trenton before losing 5-4 at Hadlock Field. During the regular season, Portland drew 577 walks, most in the league, and scored 704 runs, 3rd in the E.L. On the mound, they were 1 of 3 clubs to record 1,000 strike outs and finished with the 2nd-fewest homers allowed (92) and the 3rd-fewest hits allowed (1,185).

For the 8th time in franchise history, Portland eclipsed 400,000 fans, drawing 412,403 total fans, an average of 6,249 in 66 regular season games, both of which ranked 2nd in the league to Reading. On August 28, the Sea Dogs welcomed their 6 millionth fan to Hadlock Field.

Portland had a total of 5 mid-season All-Stars in 2008: OF Bubba Bell, RHP Michael Bowden, OF Jeff Corsaletti, OF Zach Daeges, and RHP Beau Vaughan. Bowden went 9-4 with a 2.33 ERA (27 ER/104.1 IP) in 19 games with the Sea Dogs before being placed on the disabled list on July 10 and missing the All-Star Game. He was promoted to Triple-A Pawtucket upon his return from the D.L. on July 21, at which point he ranked 2nd in the Eastern League in ERA and strikeouts (101). Daeges and Vaughan were added to the All-Star roster as injury replacements.

Bell finished tied with OF Mickey Hall for the club lead with 13 homers despite having his season limited to 79 games. He was placed on the disabled list on July 21 and did not return in 2008.

Corsaletti was promoted to Pawtucket on July 16, at which point he ranked 7th in the league in batting (.312) and runs (60), 3rd in on-base percentage (.416) and 5th in slugging (.529). His 136 career walks in 2 seasons with Portland set a franchise record.

Vaughan allowed 1 earned run over his final 23 outings (30.1 innings) before being promoted to Pawtucket on August 8. He did not allow a run in his final 9 outings over 9.2 frames. Overall, he finished 5th in the league with 16 saves in 18 opportunities.

Daeges finished among league leaders in batting (4th, .307), doubles (2nd, 34) and on-base percentage (2nd, .412). He reached base safely in 32 straight starts from April 9-June 2, the 2nd-longest streak in the Eastern League in 2008. He earned league Player of Week honors for May 12-18, when he hit .400 (8-for-20) with a home run and 7 RBI. Daeges was named the Eastern League and Topps Player of the Month for May, during which he hit .414 (36-for-87) with a HR and 14 RBI while establishing monthly franchise records with 29 walks and a .556 on-base percentage.

Portland LHP Kris Johnson ranked 9th in the league and 7th in Boston's farm system with a 3.63 ERA (55 ER/136.1 IP). He was named the Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for the week ending April 27, going 2-0 with a 0.77 ERA (1 ER/11.2 IP) and 9 strikeouts. He set a franchise record with 23.1 consecutive scoreless innings from June 15-July 1, a span that included 3 consecutive scoreless starts beginning June 21-July 1.

Promoted from Single-A Lancaster on July 17, 1B Lars Anderson reached in 36 of 41 games with Portland, including 20 straight from July 30-August 20. He homered in 3 consecutive games from August 4-6 and became the 4th player in club history with 2 slams in the same season (August 5 and 14). He was named the league's Player of the Week for the period ending August 17 after going 10-for-21 (.476) with 2 home runs and 6 RBI.

RHP Justin Masterson began the year with consecutive scoreless starts spanning 9.0 innings and earned the Eastern League's first Pitcher of the Week award of the season.

MINOR LEAGUES

CHAD EPPERSON, Manager

OPENING DAY AGE: 37

BORN: March 26, 1972 in Louisville, KY

RESIDES: Cape Coral, FL

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERIAL RECORD: 364-331 (.524)

Chad begins his 6th season as a manager in the Red Sox system. From 2007-08, he led the Lancaster JetHawks, Boston's California League affiliate, to the South Division's first and 2nd half titles, earning the league's Manager of the Year honors for each campaign. In 2008, the JetHawks lost the Championship Series to Stockton, 3 games to one. In 2007, he led Lancaster to a California League-best 83-57 record, a season in which Lancaster set league records in homers and runs. In 2006, he helped the Wilmington Blue Rocks to a 67-71 mark, capturing the Carolina League Northern Division first-half championship. In 2005, he managed Boston's Single-A Capital City club and in 2004 he skippered the Single-A Augusta GreenJackets. Chad spent 2 seasons (2002-03) as Single-A Sarasota's hitting coach, and managed the Cook County Cheetahs of the independent Frontier League in 2001.

Epperson played 9 years of minor league ball with the New York Mets (1992-95), Red Sox (1997-99) and Baltimore Orioles (2000) prior to beginning his coaching career. Epperson's first professional season was with the Mets' Rookie Gulf Coast League affiliate in 1992. He then played at Rookie-level Kingsport in 1993, leading the team with a .342 average. The switch-hitting catcher made the jump to Single-A St. Lucie in 1994, then to Double-A Binghamton in 1995. The Mets released Chad prior to the 1996 campaign and he joined the Lafayette Leopards of the independent Heartland League, where he hit .336 with a league-leading 29 extra-base hits. Chad signed with the Red Sox on February 3, 1997. He led the Florida State League with 25 doubles, ranked 2nd with 8 homers and ranked 3rd with 48 RBI, earning him a promotion to Double-A Trenton before season's end. Chad played in Trenton in 1998, and split time between Sarasota and Trenton in 1999. The Orioles signed Epperson for the 2000 season. He split the season between Bowie and the Nashua Pride of the independent Atlantic League.

Chad and his wife, Anne, have a son, Andrew (10), and a daughter, Alexandra (6).

DICK SUCH, Pitching Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 64

BORN: October 15, 1944 in Sanford, NC

RESIDES: Sanford, NC

Dick joins the Red Sox organization after serving as a pitching coach in the independent Atlantic League for 3 seasons, most recently with the Camden Riversharks from 2007-08. He worked in the same capacity for the Minnesota Twins for 17 years from 1985-2001, helping the club to 2 World Series championships in 1987 and 1991, and for the Texas Rangers from 1983-85.

As a righthanded pitcher, he made 21 appearances for manager Ted Williams and the Washington Senators in 1970, his only appearance at the major league level. He went 1-5 with a 7.56 ERA in 50.0 innings of major league work.

Dick has 2 daughters, Nancy Angela Bazemore and Darlynda Danel Page, and 4 grandsons.

CARLOS FEBLES, Hitting Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 32

BORN: May 24, 1976 in El Seibo, DR

RESIDES: La Romana, DR

Carlos begins his 3rd year in the Red Sox system and his 2nd as hitting coach after leading the Lancaster JetHawks to California League-best marks in batting average (.285), hits (1423) and homers (154) in 2008. He made his professional coaching debut with the Lowell Spinners in 2007.

The former second baseman spent 6 seasons with the Kansas City Royals from 1998-2003, batting .250 with 24 home runs and 146 RBI. He made his major league debut on September 14, 1998 vs. Oakland and recorded a hit in his only at-bat of the game.

In 1999, his rookie season, he set career highs in home runs (10), RBI (53) and stolen bases (20), ranking first among A.L. rookies in triples (9), 2nd in OBP (.336) and walks (47), tied for 2nd in stolen bases (20) and 3rd in runs (71).

He played his final professional season for the Red Sox organization for Pawtucket in 2004, batting .257 (67-for-261) with 3 homers and 28 RBI in 68 games.

RED SOX MOVE TO SALEM

On September 19, Boston announced a 2-year affiliation agreement for the 2009 and 2010 seasons with Single-A Salem (VA) of the Carolina League to be the the Red Sox' High-A affiliate. Salem replaces Lancaster of the California League, which had been a Boston farm club for 2 years. The Red Sox were last in the Carolina League at Wilmington in 2005-06 and have a total of 43 years in the league since it was founded in 1943. Salem ends a 6-year affiliation with the Houston Astros. The 2009 season will be Salem's 42nd in the Carolina League.

2008 Lancaster JetHawks Season in Review

Record: 76-64 (Southern Division) / 1st Half: 36-34, 1st / 2nd Half: 40-30, 1st

For the 2nd straight season, the JetHawks won the California League South Division's first- and second-half titles and, at 76-64 overall, tied for the 2nd-best record in the league. Lancaster lost to Stockton, 3-games-to-1, in the league's Championship Series, their only victory coming in Game 3, an 8-6 win. The JetHawks took 3 of 5 games vs. Lake Elsinore in the Southern Division Finals.

Manager Chad Epperson was named the California League's Manager of the Year for the 2nd year in a row, becoming the 3rd manager to win the award in back-to-back seasons, the 1st since Tom Kelly in 1979 and 1980. Under Epperson, the JetHawks won each of the 4 half-season division titles since Lancaster became an affiliate of the Red Sox in 2007.

In the regular season, the JetHawks led the league with a .285 batting average, 1,423 hits and 154 home runs. JetHawks pitchers issued just 331 walks, the fewest in the league.

OF Daniel Nava returned from the disabled list for Lancaster's final 3 regular season games and went 5-for-11 to raise his average to .344, best among Boston farmhands and barely qualifying with enough plate appearances for the league batting title. The switch-hitter also finished among league leaders in on-base percentage (2nd, .424) and slugging percentage (5th, .523).

After beginning the season as a reliever, RHP Blake Maxwell went 4-6 with a 3.78 ERA in 15 starts over his last 19 appearances of the season and ranked 5th overall with a 3.32 ERA.

C/DH Jon Still went deep in 3 consecutive games from July 19-21 and finished with 22 regular season homers, tied for 3rd-most in the league. He was 1 of 3 JetHawks elected to participate in the California/Carolina League All-Star Game at Myrtle Beach, SC. Joining him were 3B Jorge Jimenez and RHP Richie Lentz, both of whom earned mid-season promotions.

Lentz twirled 23.1 consecutive scoreless innings of relief over 12 outings from May 22-June 30. He had a 13.0 strikeouts per 9 innings ratio in 28 games overall (77 K/53.1 IP) and fanned at least 1 batter in each of his final 20 outings preceding a promotion to Portland on July 9.

At the time of his promotion on June 27, Jimenez was leading the league with a .421 on-base percentage, ranked 2nd with a .352 batting average, and was tied for 2nd with 94 hits. His 70-game performance with Lancaster was strong enough to garner post-season All-Star honors.

OF Josh Reddick also earned a spot on the California League's post-season All-Star Team after batting .343 in 76 games before his promotion to Portland on July 21. He was leading the JetHawks with 17 home runs, 57 RBI, and 9 stolen bases and at the time ranked among league leaders in batting (3rd, .343), triples (2nd, 8) and slugging percentage (2nd, .593).

SS Yamaico Navarro hit .348 with 4 homers in 42 games, including a club-high 20-game hitting streak from July 21-August 9, tied for the 6th-longest in the league in 2008.

Two JetHawks earned California League weekly honors. 3B Zak Farkes homered 3 times and drove in 9 runs, going 11-for-19 (.579) in 5 games during the week ending July 20 to earn Player of the Week honors. RHP Travis Beazley allowed 1 baserunner, a single, over 6.0 scoreless innings in an 11-2 win at Inland Empire on August 11 and gave up 1 earned run in 6.0 innings in his next start on August 16. He was named the August 11-17 Pitcher of the Week.

MINOR LEAGUE SUCCESS IN 2008

In 2008, Boston was the only Major League organization whose farm clubs all finished with a winning record. It was the 1st time that each of the Red Sox' minor league teams have been over .500 in a season since 1959, when Minneapolis (AAA), Allentown (A), Raleigh (B), Waterloo (D), Corning (D), and Alpine (D) all had winning marks.

KEVIN BOLES, Manager

OPENING DAY AGE: 34

BORN: January 16, 1975 in Chicago, IL

RESIDES: Northport, WA

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERIAL RECORD: 456-427 (.516)

Kevin enters his 2nd season as manager of the Greenville Drive after leading the club to a 70-69 record in 2008, including a 40-30 first half mark, in his first season with the organization. Kevin spent 2006 and 2007 at the helm of the Fort Myers Miracle, the Minnesota Twins' Single-A affiliate. One year removed from guiding Fort Myers to both first and 2nd half division championships in 2006, he led the Miracle to a 4th-place finish in the Florida State League West with a 40-30 record.

He spent the previous 2 seasons as a manager in the Twins system with Single-A Beloit in 2005 and Single-A Quad City in 2004. Prior to joining the Twins, he skippered Kansas City's Rookie-Advanced level Arizona Royals in 2003 and served as a coach with the GCL Royals in 2002.

He managed Florida's Short-Season Single-A Utica Blue Sox in 2001 after making his professional managerial debut with the GCL Marlins in 2000, leading them to a division title.

Kevin was selected by the Chicago Cubs in the 42nd round of the June 1998 draft out of the University of South Florida where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Communications. His father, John Boles, managed the Florida Marlins in 1996 and from 1999-2001.

BOB KIPPER, Pitching Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 44

BORN: July 8, 1964 in Aurora, IL

RESIDES: Greer, SC

Bob returns as pitching coach of the Greenville Drive after having served in the same capacity in 2008, leading the Drive's staff to a 4.30 ERA, 10th in the South Atlantic League. He also served as the Drive's pitching coach from 2005-06. As the pitching coach in Lancaster in 2007 he helped the JetHawks to first and 2nd half championships in the California League's Southern Division as well as the league's best record. In 2006, the Drive finished with a 3.55 ERA, 4th best in the league. Previously, he spent 2 years as pitching coach for the Double-A Portland Sea Dogs. He also served as Boston's bullpen coach in 2002. A veteran of 8 major league seasons as a left-handed pitcher, Kipper coached in the independent and minor leagues from 1995-2001. His 2001 Single-A Augusta staff led the South Atlantic League in ERA (2.93) and fewest walks allowed (314). In 2000, they led the league with 47 saves and ranked 2nd with a 3.45 ERA.

Kipper joined the Red Sox system in 1999 as pitching coach for the Lowell Spinners. He spent the previous 3 years as the pitching coach for Winnipeg of the independent Northern League. In 1995 Kipper began his coaching career with the Evansville Otters of the independent Frontier League.

The California Angels drafted Kipper as the 8th overall pick in the 1982 June draft. He was the Single-A California League Player of the Year at Redwood in 1984, finishing the season 18-8 with a 2.04 ERA. He made his major league debut the following year and was traded to the Pirates in August. The Greer, SC resident was 3-4 with 4 saves and a 2.93 ERA in 1989 with Pittsburgh. In 1990, he pitched on the N.L. East Division championship team, going 5-2 with a 3.02 ERA in 41 games. He got his first taste of post-season play when the Pirates repeated in 1991, appearing in Game 3 of the NLCS. In 8 major league seasons he went 27-37 with a 4.34 ERA in 271 games.

Kipper's last year in the majors was in 1992 with Minnesota. He sat out the 1993 season with a shoulder injury and attempted a comeback in 1994 with the Mets but was released from Triple-A Norfolk after appearing in just 9 games.

Bob and his wife, Kristin, have two daughters, Kaylyn (15) and Kendal (11).

BILLY McMILLON, Hitting Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 37

BORN: November 17, 1971 in Alamogordo, NM

RESIDES: Columbia, SC

Billy returns as the Greenville Drive's hitting coach after leading the club's offense to a league-high 468 walks in his professional coaching debut in 2008. Billy spent parts of 6 seasons in the major leagues with the Florida Marlins (1996-97), Philadelphia Phillies (1997), Detroit Tigers (2000-01) and Oakland Athletics (2001-04).

Taken by the Marlins in the 8th round of the 1993 First-Year Player Draft, he made his major league debut on July 26, 1996 vs. San Diego. He set career highs as a member of the Athletics in 2003 with 66 games, 41 hits, 11 doubles, 6 homers and 26 RBI. McMillon appeared in 3 Division Series games for the A's against the Red Sox that season, going 1-for-6 with a walk and a RBI.

Billy attended Clemson University from 1991-93 and finished his 3 seasons with the best lifetime average (.382) in school history. As a junior in 1993 he finished 2nd (.377) to Georgia Tech's Jason Varitek for the league's batting title.

Billy and his wife Krista live in Columbia, SC with their 2 children, Kennedy (7) and Jackson (4).

2008 Greenville Drive Season in Review

Record: 70-69 (Southern Division) / 1st Half: 40-30, 4th, 6.0 GB / 2nd Half: 30-39, 7th, 17.0

In his first season in Boston's organization, manager Kevin Boles led the Greenville Drive to a 4th-place finish in the South Atlantic League's Southern Division with an overall record of 70-69, going 40-30 in the first-half and 30-39 in the 2nd-half. The club drew a league-high 468 walks.

For the 3rd year since the Drive's inaugural season in 2006, the club set a home attendance record as 349,116 fans passed through the turnstiles at Fluor Field at the West End, breaking the 2007 mark of 339,810. Greenville led its division in attendance for the 3rd straight year and ranked 4th overall in the league. The Drive welcomed their one millionth fan to Fluor Field on August 18.

Four Drive players -- LHP Felix Doubront, C Luis Exposito, 1B Mike Jones, SS Yamaico Navarro -- and Boles represented Greenville in the 49th Annual South Atlantic League All-Star Game in Greensboro, NC. Jones and Navarro started the game while Exposito entered as a pinch-hitter in the 6th inning and played behind the plate for the remainder of the game.

Jones began the season batting .415 (39-for-94) in 24 April games and finished with a .317 batting average in 86 games before a promotion took him to Single-A Lancaster on July 16. He collected 8 consecutive multi-hit games from April 14-21, earning South Atlantic League Player of the Week honors for the week ending April 20, a span in which he stroked 4 doubles, a home run and 8 RBI. His franchise-record 28-game hitting streak from April 9-May 7 was the longest in the league in 2008 and the league's 2nd-longest streak since 2005. It nearly doubled the Drive's previous longest hitting streak, a 15-game run by Tony Granadillo in 2006.

Navarro was named the league's Player of the Week for the period ending June 8 after batting .429 (12-for-28) with 4 home runs, 10 RBI, and 10 runs, including a 2-homer game on June 4 against Augusta. He was promoted to Lancaster after batting .280 in 89 games with Greenville and ranked 8th in Boston's farm system with a .304 overall batting average in 2008. Exposito ranked 2nd on the Drive with 11 homers in 49 games, and also earned a promotion to Lancaster.

Hurlers Doubront and RHP Terumasa Matsuo combined for 253 strikeouts in 293.0 innings and finished the season ranked 1st and 2nd, respectively, in strikeouts among Boston's minor league pitchers. Doubront totaled 138 K's on the year, including 20 in 3 starts for Lancaster, to lead the Red Sox farm system, and Matsuo ranked a close 2nd with 135 strikeouts. Doubront won each of his first 4 starts of the season with a 0.87 ERA (2 ER/20.2 IP) and 24 strikeouts in that span, and fanned 7 or more batters in 7 of his 23 starts with Greenville.

OF Che-Hsuan Lin was named Boston's Minor League Defensive Player of the Year after committing just 8 errors in 88 outfield games. Lin led the Drive with 33 stolen bases, 2nd in the Red Sox farm system. He homered and earned MVP honors at the 2008 XM Satellite Radio All-Star Futures Game at Yankee Stadium on July 13. OF Jered Stanley homered twice in game on 3 occasions (May 25, June 21, July 26) and stroked a club-high 17 home runs, tied for 8th in the league.

Greenville relievers RHP Daniel Bard and RHP Felix Ventura both enjoyed success in 2008. Bard did not allow a run in 14 of his 15 relief outings with Greenville, including his first 11 appearances, before his promotion to Double-A Portland on May 17. He held opposing batters to a .129 average, fanned 13.8 batters per 9 innings (43 K/28.0 IP) at Greenville, and went on to be named Boston's Minor League Pitcher of the Year. Ventura ranked 5th in the league with 19 saves and converted all 10 of his save chances at Fluor Field.

GARY DiSARCINA, Manager

OPENING DAY AGE: 41

BORN: November 19, 1967 in Malden, MA

RESIDES: Plymouth, MA

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERIAL RECORD: 80-69 (.537)

Gary enters his 3rd season as manager of the Spinners after leading Lowell to a 40-33 record and its first ever playoff appearance in 2008. The Stedler Division Champions lost to Batavia in the opening round of the playoffs, 2 games to one. It was his 2nd consecutive 40-win season.

Before taking the helm with Lowell 2007, he was hired by the Red Sox as Baseball Operations Consultant in November of 2006, assisting Executive Vice President/General Manager Theo Epstein and the baseball operations department in the areas of major league transactions, professional and amateur player evaluation, and minor league instruction.

A native of Billerica, MA, DiSarcina attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst and was selected by the Angels in the 6th round of the 1988 amateur draft. He had a career .258 batting average in 1,086 games with the California/Anaheim Angels from 1989-2000. He was a 2-time team MVP and a 1995 American League All-Star.

After retiring as an active player, he operated the DiSarcina Baseball Academy in Billerica and served as an analyst on NESN's pre- and post-game Red Sox coverage prior to joining the Boston organization. He was on the coaching staff for Team Italy in the 2006 World Baseball Classic.

His brother Glenn played in the minor leagues, including a stint with the Birmingham Barons, where he was teammates with Michael Jordan and managed by Terry Francona.

KEVIN WALKER, Pitching Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 33

BORN: September 20, 1976 in Irving, TX

RESIDES: Holtville, CA

Kevin will make his professional coaching debut as Lowell's pitching coach in 2009. A lefthanded pitcher, he compiled a 7-3 record and a 4.76 ERA in 122 games for the San Diego Padres (2000-03), San Francisco Giants (2004) and Chicago White Sox (2005).

Kevin was selected by San Diego in the 6th round of the 1995 first-year player draft and made his major league debut for the Padres on April 14, 2000. With San Diego in 2000, he went 7-1 with a 4.19 ERA in a career-high 70 appearances, the 2nd most appearances among major league rookies that season.

In 2006, Kevin signed with Texas and spent the season pitching at Triple-A Oklahoma. He split the 2007 season between Colorado's Triple-A affiliate in Colorado Springs and Camden of the independent Atlantic League. He returned to Camden for the 2008 season.

He and his wife Aimee live in Holtville, CA with daughter Kamryn (4) and son Brady (3).

LUIS LOPEZ, Hitting Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 38

BORN: September 4, 1970 in Cidra, PR

RESIDES: Cidra, PR

Luis returns to Lowell as hitting coach after serving as a coach for the Stedler Division Champion Spinners in 2008, his first season in the Red Sox organization. The former infielder spent 11 major league seasons with the San Diego Padres (1993-94, 1996) New York Mets (1997-99), Milwaukee Brewers (2000-02), Baltimore Orioles (2002-04) and Cincinnati Reds (2005).

He made his big league debut with the Padres on September 7, 1993 vs. Florida and collected his first career hit two days later off Atlanta's Mark Wohlers. He set career highs with 117 games and 67 hits with the Mets in 1998. A versatile defender, Lopez played 297 career games at shortstop, 211 at 2nd base, 100 at 3rd base, 7 at first base and 9 in the outfield.

After retiring from professional baseball in August of 2006, Luis worked as an infield coordinator for the Puerto Rico Baseball Academy and High School in Gurabo, PR.

Luis and his wife Militza Candelas live in Cidra, PR with their 4 children, Gabriella Nicole (14), Luis Francisco (11), Monica Sophia (9) and Fernando Jose (8).

2008 Lowell Spinners Season in Review

Record: 40-33, 1st, 7.5 GA (Stedler Division)

The Lowell Spinners finished the 2008 season with a 40-33 record, earning the first ever Stedler Division title and playoff berth in the club's 13-year history. The 40 wins matched the team's total from 2007, despite playing 3 less games due to rain. Playing under 2nd-year manager and Billerica, Mass. native Gary DiSarcina, the Spinners won the Stedler Division by 7.5 games, the largest margin among the New York-Penn League's 2008 division champions.

SS Ryan Dent drew a 12th inning walk-off walk to win Lowell's playoff opener at LeLacheur Park, but the Spinners lost both games of the best-of-3 series at Batavia, ending Lowell's season.

For the 3rd consecutive season, Lowell set a franchise record for attendance, carried by a single-game high for attendance (18,117) at the "Futures at Fenway" showcase on August 9. The franchise also extended its decade-long sell-out streak to 344 games beginning August 2, 1999.

OF Mitch Dening and RHP Stolmy Pimentel represented the Spinners in the NYPL All-Star Game in Troy, NY on August 19. Dening entered the game as a defensive replacement and stroked and RBI single. Pimentel recorded a strikeout in a scoreless 4th inning.

Dening finished the year with a .321 batting average, 5th in the league and 2nd in Boston's farm system, and set a franchise record with 7 triples, tied for 2nd in the league. Pimentel tied with RHP Brock Huntzinger and RHP Hunter Strickland for the club lead with 5 wins and ranked among league leaders with a 3.14 ERA (11th) and a 1.08 WHIP (4th).

Huntzinger went unbeaten in 8 starts with the Spinners, twice winning the league's Pitcher of the Week honors, including the 1st award of the season after tossing 10.0 shutout innings over his first 2 starts. He did not allow more than 1 run in any of his 8 starts with the Spinners and had 5 scoreless outings, including the club's only shutout of the season, a rain-shortened 6.0 inning complete game at Tri-City on July 20.

RHP Kyle Weiland led Boston farmhands with a 1.50 ERA and recorded a club-high 68 strikeouts. He did not allow an earned run in any of 5 starts in August, allowing 15 baserunners over 22.0 innings in that span. Had he not fallen just shy of qualifying for league leaders, Weiland's 1.50 overall ERA and 0.77 WHIP would have led the league and broken franchise records.

Lowell's .233 team batting average ranked 13th and was the lowest mark in franchise history, but the club finished 3rd in the league with 259 walks and 2nd with 89 stolen bases. The Spinners ranked 2nd in the league with a .972 fielding percentage (76 E/2,744 TC).

OF Luis Sumoza led the team with 11 home runs, 1 short of the franchise record set by Carlos Rodriguez in 1999 and tied for 4th in the league, despite being traded to Atlanta in exchange for OF Mark Kotsay on August 27. Sumoza hit .565 (13-for-23) with 4 doubles and 3 home runs in 6 games from August 11-17, earning NYPL Player of the Week honors for that stretch.

WHAT A CLASS

On April 23, 2008, the Red Sox' top 4 selections in the 2005 First Year Player Draft were all on the active major league roster: OF Jacoby Ellsbury (23rd overall), RHP Craig Hansen (26th), RHP Clay Buchholz (42nd), and INF Jed Lowrie (45th). According to research, that was the 1st time that a team has ever had its top 4 selections from a draft in the majors together (each appearing in at least one game) within 3 years of that draft. The amateur draft began in 1965. The Red Sox were the 1st overall team to have each of their top 4 picks from a single draft on their major league roster at the same time since the 2007 Giants had Matt Cain, Fred Lewis, Dan Ortmeier and Kevin Correia on their roster from the 2002 draft.

With the big league debut of RHP Michael Bowden (47th overall) on August 30, 2008, Boston's top 5 selections in the 2005 draft all advanced to the Major Leagues. It is the 1st time that a team has had its 1st 5 picks all make their major league debuts with the same team since the Red Sox in the 1989 draft: Greg Blosser, Mo Vaughn, Kevin Morton, Jeff McNeely, and Eric Wedge.

DAVE TOMLIN, Manager

OPENING DAY AGE: 59
BORN: June 22, 1949 in Maysville, KY
RESIDES: Manchester, OH
MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERIAL RECORD: 93-72 (.564)

This will be Dave's 4th season as the manager for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox after serving as the club's pitching coach in 2005. He guided the club to a league championship in 2006, the first title for a Red Sox minor league affiliate since Single-A Augusta won the 1999 South Atlantic League title. He has winning records in all 3 of his seasons as manager. This is his 7th consecutive season in the Red Sox system and 12th overall.

In 2004, he was the short-season Single-A Lowell Spinners pitching coach. He held the same position for Lowell from 2000 to 2001, at Single-A Sarasota in 1999 and at Rookie-level Fort Myers in 1998. Dave came to the Red Sox after 3 years as a roving minor league pitching coach for the Atlanta Braves (1995-97) and 7 years as an instructor and coach in the Montreal Expos system (1988-94). The former left-handed hurler was the pitching coach with Montreal's Single-A West Palm Beach affiliate in 1988-89. He then spent the next 4 years as the Expos' pitching instructor for their Gulf Coast Rookie League team. In 1994 Dave was the pitching coach for the Expos' Double-A Harrisburg club.

Tomlin played 13 years of major league ball from 1972-86, pitching for Cincinnati (1972-73, 1978-80), San Diego (1974-77), Montreal (1982, 1986) and Pittsburgh (1983, 1985). He compiled a lifetime record of 25-12 with 12 saves and a 3.82 ERA in 409 games. The Kentucky native was 9-1 with 4 saves in 57 games for Cincinnati in 1978. He also pitched for the Reds in both the 1973 NLCS vs. New York and the 1979 NLCS vs. Pittsburgh. Dave was originally drafted by Cincinnati in the 29th round of the 1967 June draft.

Tomlin and his wife Trudy reside in Manchester, OH and operate Briteleaf Farms where they raise corn, soybeans and produce organic beef.

GLENN (GOOSE) GREGSON, Pitching Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 59
BORN: February 10, 1950 in Hamlet, NC
RESIDES: Helena, MT

Goose begins his 8th straight season in the Red Sox organization and his 25th year as a professional pitching coach, instructor or coordinator. It marks his 5th consecutive season working with Boston's GCL pitchers and his 3rd consecutive and 4th overall serving as Boston's Latin Pitching Coordinator, having also served in that capacity in 2005. He helped the GCL Red Sox to a 4.06 team ERA and a 3.50 ERA in 2008 and 2007, respectively. In 2006, he helped guide the staff to a 3.02 ERA, 3rd best in the league, and the GCL Championship. In 2005, they led the league with a 3.09 mark. He served as the Red Sox Pitching Coordinator from 2002-04 and again in 2006, and acted as Boston's major league pitching coach for 6 weeks in 2003 while Tony Cloninger recovered from bladder cancer. Gregson has also worked for the Philadelphia Phillies (1979, 1999-01), Los Angeles Dodgers (1988-98) and Chicago Cubs (1982-84). He was the Dodgers' major league pitching coach in 1998.

The Appalachian State University graduate played 7 minor league seasons in the Chicago White Sox (1972-73) and Phillies (1973-78) systems, compiling a 22-18 record with a 3.39 ERA before an elbow injury ended his career. He threw a no-hitter in 1972 for the Mountaineers against the Virginia Military Institute. The righthander has a Masters in sport science and administration.

Goose and his wife Jan have 3 children: Rian (30), Tyler (27), and McGraw (25).

WALTER MIRANDA, Pitching Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 34

BORN: January 6, 1975 in Cartagena, Columbia

RESIDES: Cape Coral, FL

Walter begins his 2nd stint as pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox after holding the same position with the club from 2000-04. He served in the same capacity with the Lowell Spinners for 3 seasons (2005-06, 2008) and with the Greenville Drive in 2007. In 2004, he helped the GCL Red Sox to a 34-24 record and a 3.01 ERA, 2nd best in the league. He joined the Red Sox organization in 1999 after a 6-year career in the Florida Marlins system, compiling a 21-19 record in 68 games (60 starts).

He played baseball and basketball in his native Columbia and became the 2nd player to sign with the expansion Florida Marlins on January 15, 1992. In 1994, Miranda posted a 1.70 ERA for the Marlins' Rookie-level Gulf Coast League affiliate, making a career-high 25 appearances, all starts, and finishing the season 8-7.

Walter and his wife, Nicole, live in Cape Coral, FL with their daughter Miel.

U.L. WASHINGTON, Hitting Coach

OPENING DAY AGE: 55

BORN: October 27, 1953 in Stringtown, OK

RESIDES: Atoka, OK

A veteran of 11 major league seasons as a shortstop, U.L. begins his 4th season as the Gulf Coast League Red Sox hitting coach. Prior to the 2006 season, he was the Red Sox Minor League Infield Coordinator for 2 years and Pawtucket's hitting coach in 2003. The PawSox hit .271 as a team and posted an International League-best 83-61 record. Previously, he spent 2 seasons in the same role for Double-A New Britain.

In 1999, Washington was the hitting coach for the Dodgers' Double-A San Antonio affiliate. He was a minor league hitting instructor for Kansas City from 1997 to 1998 and the hitting coach with the Royals' Triple-A Omaha club in 1996. The Royals ranked 3rd in the league in hitting that year and captured the West Division title.

U.L. coached at Double-A Wichita under current Pawtucket manager Ron Johnson in 1994 and 1995. He coached with the Royals' Double-A Memphis club from 1991-93. In 1989 Washington began his coaching career as the manager of Pittsburgh's short season Single-A Welland club.

Washington played in parts of 11 major league seasons from 1977-87, batting .251 with 27 homers and 255 RBI in 907 games. He spent his first 8 years with Kansas City, hitting .303 in 9 post-season contests. U.L. played in Montreal in 1985 and closed out his career with 2 years in Pittsburgh.

U.L. and his wife Sandra have two children, daughter Shawnte (30) and son Christopher (26).

2008 Gulf Coast Red Sox Season in Review

Record: 28-27, 3rd, 8.5 GB (South Division)

In his 3rd season as manager, Dave Tomlin guided the Gulf Coast Red Sox to a 3rd-place finish in the league's South Division at 28-27, 8.5 games out of first place. The club closed out the season with 3 straight wins to finish above the .500 mark.

The GCL Red Sox' .249 team average ranked 10th in the league. OF Roberto Feliz had the club's only 3-homer game of the year on June 25 and led the team with 7 long balls, 5th in the GCL.

The GCL Red Sox succeeded in 85.1% of their stolen base attempts (103-for-121), the best rate in the league. OF Wilfred Pichardo led the league with 42 bases in 51 attempts, the most in the GCL since Yankees farmhand Abdiel Cumberbatch stole 45 bases in 1991. The switch-hitting Pichardo finished the season on a 9-game hitting streak, going 19-for-34 (.559). He ended the season ranked 5th in the league with 60 hits and 3rd with 36 runs.

3B Michael Almanzar hit safely in his first 10 games of the season, including multiple hits in his first 4 contests, and led the club (min. 10 AB) with a .348 batting average (31-for-89) in 23 games before being promoted to Single-A Greenville on July 19.

The club's pitching staff was anchored by RHP Jeremy Kehrt, who finished 9th in the GCL with a 2.84 ERA (16 ER/50.2 IP) and also made stops in Single-A Lowell and Single-A Greenville in 2008. He began the season allowing 1 earned run in 11.0 innings over his first 3 outings, 2 starts, and tossed consecutive scoreless starts against the GCL Orioles, striking out 8 in 6.0 innings at the Red Sox Minor League Complex on August 12 before fanning 7 in 7.0 frames while allowing just 1 hit and 1 walk at Sarasota on August 17.

Among hurlers without a blown save, RHP Dustin Mercadante earned the most saves in the GCL. He converted all 8 opportunities and ranked 4th in the league in saves. He did not allow a run over his final 11 games, a span of 12.1 IP, and gave up earned runs in just 2 of his 15 outings.

TELEVISION

NESN (New England Sports Network), New England's most watched sports network and the highest rated regional sports network in the country the past five seasons, is in its 26th year of carrying Red Sox baseball. For the 4th consecutive year, NESN will deliver high definition (HD) coverage of every televised Red Sox game along with one-hour of HD pre and post-game coverage before and after every game. On Mondays and home Fridays, NESN adds an additional half hour of pre-game coverage with the popular Red Sox Monster Monday and Friday Night Fenway programs.

NESN's award winning broadcast team, Don Orsillo and Jerry Remy, return for their ninth season together in the NESN broadcast booth, and are joined by reporter Heidi Watney. Tom Caron is in his sixth year as host of NESN's pre and post-game coverage and is joined by an All-Star line-up of studio analysts that includes Hall of Famers Dennis Eckersley and Jim Rice.

Nationally, the Red Sox have seven scheduled appearances on Saturday's Fox Game of the Week and have been selected two times on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball package.

DON ORSILLO is in his ninth season of doing play-by-play on NESN. Born in Melrose, MA, Don grew up in Madison, NH and is a graduate of Northeastern University. Orsillo previously announced baseball for the Single-A Pittsfield Mets (1991-92), the Double-A Binghamton Mets (1993-95), and the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox (1996-2000). He also called the action for the American Hockey League's Springfield Indians/Falcons (1991-1996), Providence College men's basketball on ESPN Plus (2005-2008), and NESN's Boston College basketball coverage (2006-2008). Orsillo did play-by-play for TBS's 2008 coverage of the Chicago White Sox-Tampa Bay Division Series as well as the 2007 National League tiebreaker between Colorado and San Diego and the Colorado-Philadelphia

Division Series. He also appeared in the movie, Fever Pitch, after the 2004 season. Orsillo was named the 2005 Massachusetts Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association and along with the rest of the NESN broadcast team won Emmy Awards for outstanding play-by-play in 2004 and 2005.

JERRY REMY has served as the Red Sox' color analyst on NESN for the past 22 years announcing over 2,500 Red Sox games during his career. The long-time Fenway Park favorite was elected to the Red Sox Hall of Fame in 2006 for his playing and broadcasting accomplishments and was named the Massachusetts Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association in 2004. A native of Somerset, MA, Remy was an infielder for ten years in the majors with the California Angels (1975-77) and Red Sox (1978-84) with a .275 batting average and 208 stolen bases in 1154 games. He ranked among the A.L. leaders with 10 triples and 41 stolen bases in 1977 and was an A.L. All-Star in his first season with Boston in 1978, when he scored 87 runs and stole 30 bases. Remy has also worked games for FOX as part of its Saturday Game of the Week package. In September of 2007, Remy was elected President of Red Sox Nation in on-line voting and can often be found greeting fans prior to home games on Yawkey Way at Rem Dawgs, which opened in 2004 and specializes in hot dogs with unique toppings.

HEIDI WATNEY is in her second year as NESN's Red Sox reporter. She joins Don Orsillo and Jerry Remy providing pre-game analysis, live in-game updates, and post-game interviews from the ballpark. Watney also works as an anchor and reporter for NESN SportsDesk and Red Sox Hot Stove and contributes to NESN.com. Prior to joining NESN, Watney served as a weekend sports anchor and reporter for KMPH Fox-26 News and sports talk radio show host for 1430 ESPN Radio KFIG in Fresno, CA. A graduate of the University of San Diego and Fresno native, Watney signed a multi-year contract extension with NESN in November of 2008.

TOM CARON is in his sixth full season hosting NESN's pre and post-game programs. The Lewiston, ME native joined NESN in 1995 and has served as a studio host for Boston Bruins hockey, Red Sox field reporter and Hockey East play-by-play announcer. Before joining NESN he served as a sports anchor in Plattsburgh, NY, Hanover, NH, and Portland, ME. In 1993 he joined the Portland Pirates of the AHL as play-by-play announcer and communications director. Tom is a regular contributor to NESN.com. He is involved with many local and regional charities including serving on the advisory board for Good Sports, Inc. and as President of the Loring Arena Legacy Foundation.

DENNIS ECKERSLEY a studio analyst on NESN's popular pre and post-game shows. He was elected into baseball's Hall of Fame in 2005 after pitching 24 seasons in the major leagues with five teams (Indians, Red Sox, Cubs, A's, Cardinals), including two different stints with the Red Sox (1978-1984, 1998). He spent the first 12 years of his career as a starting pitcher then switched to the bullpen to become one of the most dominant closers in the game. During a five year stretch beginning in 1988, Eckersley averaged 44 saves, a 1.88 ERA, more than a strikeout/inning and less than one walk/9 innings. In 1992, Eckersley became only the second relief pitcher to win both the A.L. MVP and Cy Young Award in the same season. The six time All-Star has served as a color analyst for the Oakland A's television broadcasts (1999) and has also filled in for Jerry Remy during Red Sox broadcasts. In 2008, he served as a studio analyst for TBS during their post-season coverage.

JIM RICE is in his seventh year as a NESN studio analyst and on January 12, 2009, he became the 32nd member of the Red Sox to be elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Rice played 16 seasons in the major leagues, all of them with the Red Sox. The eight-time All-Star finished his career with a .298 batting average, 382 home runs and 1,451 RBI. Rice was voted the A.L. MVP in 1978 and helped lead the Red Sox to two World Series (1975 and 1986). He ranks third behind only Ted Williams and Carl Yastrzemski on the Red Sox all-time leaders in home runs, RBI, hits and total bases. Since retiring after the 1989 season, Rice has remained active in the Red Sox organization, serving as a minor league hitting instructor from 1992 to 1994 before joining the parent club as hitting coach from 1995-2000. He currently serves as a special organizational instructor for the team.

BROADCASTING

RED SOX RADIO NETWORK

The Red Sox Radio Network carries every regular season game. The Red Sox and Entercom Communications announced a 10-year agreement for 2007-2016 in May 2006. WRKO (680 AM) returned as the network's flagship station in 2007 after previously carrying Red Sox baseball from 1983-1994. WRKO airs all regular season games except Wednesday nights and weekday afternoons, which can be heard on sister station WEEI (850 AM). A network of over 60 stations broadcasts Boston's games throughout the New England area. Joe Castiglione and Dave O'Brien along with Dale Arnold will team to provide radio coverage for most games in 2009. Jon Rish serves as the host of pre and post-game Red Sox coverage.

JOE CASTIGLIONE is in his 27th season on Red Sox radio, the second longest tenure of any Boston broadcaster to 32 years for the late Ned Martin. Prior to coming to Boston, Castiglione called television games for the Cleveland Indians in 1979 and 1982 and for the Milwaukee Brewers in 1981. The Hamden, CT native has also announced television games for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers and did college basketball on NESN for six years. During the off-season, Joe teaches classes in broadcast journalism at both Northeastern University and Franklin Pierce University and has been a active fundraiser for the Jimmy Fund. A graduate of both Colgate and Syracuse Universities, Joe is the author of Broadcast Rites and Sites-I Saw It on the Radio with the Boston Red Sox, which was published in 2004. Joe and his wife, Jan have three children and are expecting their third grandchild in February 2009. They reside in Marshfield, MA.

DAVE O'BRIEN enters his third season doing Red Sox baseball. O'Brien also broadcasts for ESPN, where he has handled a variety of play-by-play roles, including Major League Baseball, Major League Soccer, College Basketball, and the NBA since joining the network in 2002. O'Brien was the voice of the 2006 World Cup Soccer Tournament televised by ABC that was nominated for an Emmy and has called the last several League Championship Series and World Series for MLB's International TV coverage. He worked as both a radio and television announcer for the Florida Marlins from 1993-2001 and broadcast television games for the New York Mets from 2003-05. O'Brien has also done play-by-play for the Atlanta Braves and college football and basketball action for the University of Georgia and University of Miami. The Quincy, MA native and Syracuse University graduate resides in Rye, NH with his wife Debbie and children Michael (18), Samantha (15), and Kaitlyn (12).

DALE ARNOLD returns for a second season on Red Sox Radio. Arnold began his broadcast career as a high school sophomore play-by-play announcer for the football and hockey teams on the local commercial radio station in Brunswick, ME. After college, he spent seven years broadcasting minor league hockey and in 1986, was named the voice of the New Jersey Devils, becoming the youngest play-by-play announcer in the National Hockey League. In Boston, he has been the radio voice for the New England Patriots and New England Revolution and spent twelve years as the play-by-play announcer for the Bruins. Arnold is the only person in Boston sports to call games for all 5 professional sports teams, having filled in for the Boston Celtics as well. He currently hosts The Dale & Holley Show with Michael Holley, midday on WEEI. Arnold and his wife Susan have three children, a son, Taylor and daughters, Alysha and Brianna.

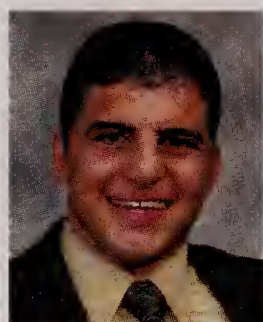

JON RISH has served as the pre and post-game host on the Red Sox Radio Network since 2006. Rish joined WEEI Radio in July 2005 after six years with ESPN Radio in Bristol, CT. During that time he served as a Radio SportsCenter anchor and hosted studio programming for Major League Baseball, NBA, and Bowl Championship Series coverage. Rish has also been a play-by-play announcer for Boston College men's hockey and women's basketball. Rish, a 1994 graduate of Boston College, lives in Natick, MA with his wife Christina and three children Matthew, Abigail & Rebecca.

RED SOX SPANISH RADIO NETWORK

In its ninth year, the Spanish Béisbol Network (SBN) broadcasts every game of the regular season to its affiliates, including flagship WWDJ (1150 AM). In 2009, SBN acquired the Spanish-language rights to the Caribbean World Series and broadcast all 12 games live to cities across the United States. Uri Berenguer and Oscar Baez will once again call the action in 2009 with assistance from Bill Kulik, president of the Spanish Beisbol Network.

URI BERENGUER is in his seventh season on the Red Sox' Spanish-language broadcast team and, at the age of 26, is one of the youngest announcers in the major leagues. A former Jimmy Fund patient at the Dana Farber Cancer Institute, he became interested in a broadcasting career after a visit from Sox announcer Joe Castiglione. Berenguer attended Boston Latin Academy and Northeastern University and is the nephew of former major league pitcher Juan Berenguer. In January 2009, Berenguer was selected as an announcer for MLB Network coverage of the Caribbean World Series played in Mexicali, Mexico from February 2 to February 7.

OSCAR BAEZ returns for a fifth season on the network. Baez has hosted Conversando de Deportes, a Spanish-language sports talk show in Boston since 2001 and has hosted the Spanish Beisbol Network's pre-game show for three years. A native of Bani, Dominican Republic, Baez played minor league baseball in the New York Yankees organization, reaching the Double-A level.

Corrections have been made in the above listing thanks to information provided to us from John K. Moynahan, author of 50 Years At The Game, A Sports Traveler's Journey, and other sources. We appreciate this input as we attempt to produce an accurate account of our broadcasters. We are aware that through the years there have been "guest" or temporary fill-in broadcasters for Red Sox games, however, they are too numerous to list here.
